Artificial Stone is growing in popularity

Unlike other Building Units, Artificial Stone is a NON-CONDUCTOR of DAMPNESS, COLD and HEAT. It reduces building costs and expedites construction. A wide variety of facing effects produced with crushed granite, marble, brownstone, Indiana limestone, carborundum, etc., makes it a sightly stone for every type of structure and its durability insures the lowest possible maintenance cost.

We court investigation of the most searching kind, and are always pleased to go over the subject in greater detail with anyone interested in building for permanence, beauty and economy.

Brooklyn Architects Offer Prize.

At the December meeting of the Brooklyn Chapter, American Institute of Architects, plans for the award of a certificate of merit to be awarded to the owners and architects responsible for the best designs in the construction of buildings, whether the operation be an important monumental structure or a store front alteration, were discussed and arrangements were made to award this certificate for work accomplished during 1920 and thereafter.

The proposed certificate of merit is to be signed by the president and secretary of the Brooklyn Chapter and will bear the chapter seal. The certificate is to be given without prejudice and strictly upon the merits of the design, proportions and general results of composition for a beautiful and pleasing accomplishment toward a City Beautiful.

Legislative Mill Starts

Once again the eyes of the taxpayers of the metropolis are turned toward Albany. The Legislature of 1920 organized for business on Wednesday, and plans for much important legislation already have been outlined.

It is a little too early to calculate the chances of helpful legislation for the metropolis. The membership of the Senate, a hold-over body, remains practically unchanged from last year. There are many new faces in the Assembly, but the leaders of a year ago are still in control.

Among the early signs of the new session are evidences of political friction between Governor Smith, a Democrat, and the Senate and Assembly, both Republican. But it should be remembered by the officials at Albany that taxpayers include Democrats, Republicans, Prohibitionists and property-owners of other political affiliations. When it comes to matters involving the rights of taxpayers as a class the leaders on both sides should rise above partisanship and enact at least some of the measures which are proposed to relieve property-owners from the crushing burden of taxation they are now carrying.

Year after year the Legislature meets, discusses measures of tax reform and economy, and usually adjourns without accomplishing anything of real benefit to property-owners of the state. The people who pay the taxes are hoping for better luck this year, and they certainly are entitled to have it.

Still a Shortage in Housing

Available figures indicate that not much headway was made during the last year in remedying the housing shortage in this city. The Tenement House Department reports that in 1919 there were actually completed in the five boroughs 89 tenement houses, having an aggregate of 1,481 apartments. Only five of these were built in Manhattan. The department estimates the number of people to each apartment as an average of four, so that provision has actually been made in this form of habitation for only 5,924 persons.

There has been a considerable number of one-family houses built in Brooklyn and Queens, but statistics available do not disclose how many of these have been completed. It is known that owing to strikes and the high costs of materials work was suspended on a large number of these structures after they had been roofed in. The returns of plans filed for brick and frame one-family buildings show, however, that great activity may be expected in the building of houses of this description during the coming season. The official reports of the Building Departments show plans filed during 1919 for 233 brick dwellings in the Bronx; 4,841 brick and frame dwellings in Brooklyn and 19 dwellings in Manhattan. No returns are available at present from Queens, where there has been considerable activity, or from Richmond. These dwellings will accommodate about 25,000 people if completed. In the Bronx plans for 95 tenements have been filed and in Manhattan for 44 tenements.

One of the most effective movements towards relieving the shortage of living quarters is indicated in the filing of plans for the alteration of tenements and dwellings which amounted in Manhattan alone to over ten million dollars. A large part of this expenditure was for the remodelling of buildings into one and two room apartment houses, affording accommodations for an additional number of people.

A conservative estimate of the amount of money involved in the housing projects which reached the stage of "plans filed" during the last year is that it is proposed to invest about one hundred millions of dollars in this kind of building construction.

How far construction work for 1919 fell behind normal may be judged by the return from the Tenement House Department's report of only 1,481 completed apartments for the year, whereas the normal rate is over ten thousand apartments each year in the whole city.

While the foregoing figures are not complete in some instances, sufficient facts are at hand to indicate that there is little probability of a reduction of rents in the near future because of overproduction of living quarters of any description.

The Measure of a Man

Charles M. Schwab has the happy faculty of being able to stir men's imagination and strengthen their impulses and quicken their activities when doubt and uncertainty becloud the road to success in business. It was Mr. Schwab's enthusiasm and optimism that swept off its feet the convention of five thousand of the leading merchants and manufacturers of the country at Atlantic City just after the armistice became effective, and gave them the encouragement they needed to undertake the tremendous problems of reconstruction that confronted this nation and the whole world a year ago. Mr. Schwab's confidence so forcibly and convincingly expressed at that time that the financial and business fabric could be readjusted to meet new conditions has been substantiated by the progress made during the last year, because the men who listened to him found the reflex of his optimism in their own minds and renewed, under the inspiration of his words, their characteristic American habit of overcoming obstacles however big rather than letting difficulties hamper their achievements.

All the woes that resulted from the German-bred war have not yet been rectified—the sores will suppurate for a long time. Nobody is more conscious of the unrest and the disorder of the present day than

Mr. Schwab. As one of the most successful Captains of Industry and as a sympathetic employer of large numbers of laboring men he is able to obtain a stereoscopic vision of the divergent aspects of the industrial situation held by employers and by employes, so seemingly antagonistic when looked at separately and yet blending into a composite of extraordinary attractiveness when brought into perspective by the lenses of common sense and constructiveness employed by Mr. Schwab.

After declaring that we have, in the past, been great autocrats with reference to labor, Mr. Schwab says: "We must remember that a man is a man as long as he does his duty," and a moment later, "The day has gone by when the mark of riches will stamp a man as great in life. We must live the simple life." Accomplishment for the general good is the measure by which a man will be rated, is the idea Mr. Schwab would impart. At any rate we must have full meed of accompunishment by employer and employe alike. And he does not differentiate between the labor of the hand and that of the mind. "Labor (meaning hand labor) has not had a fair share in the prosperity of the country." But he also says, "It is a great mistake that the initiative of the business man does not get its true reward." Mr. Schwab believes he, too, is a laborer as well as the lowest paid navvy in his works, and it is doubtful if any man in the Homestead mills works harder or for longer hours than he does.

It may seem to some people that these statements are irreconcilable. But not to Mr. Schwab, with his keen appreciation of the fact that what brings to the employe freedom from financial worry, houses him comfortably and assures him necessary recreation and provision for old age results to the advantage of the employer.

Lead the simple life. Eschew folly. Practice economy. And, while not neglecting opportunities for material advancement—because he believes it is better to borrow and go ahead rather than to wait for an opportunity that may never come—Mr. Schwab would above all things have men famed for the achievement of something for the betterment of mankind generally rather than be bruited about as the hoarders of great wealth.

Mr. Schwab has quite a reputation as a money getter. But it may be in the long run rather that he will be famed and esteemed for having in an embittered world kept alive the fires of optimism and for having inspired continued faith in the humanity of man to man.

Reader's Comments on Current Topics

Editor of the Record and Guide.

I was deeply interested in Mr. John J. Pulleyn's article in your Dec. 27 number. It carried the head: "Savings Banks Oppose Exemption of Realty Mortgages," and I read and re-read the article for the purpose of finding how far Mr. Pulleyn was opposed to the exemption of the income from mortgages from taxation under the income tax laws.

I could find nothing in Mr. Pulleyn's own words to justify such a head, except with reference to the bonds of the Land Bank of the State of New York. To all that he had to say about the pending bills in Congress to establish Federal loan banks of one kind and another, for the ostensible purpose of furnishing money for construction purposes, by employment of the national credit, no great exception could be taken.

All these measures, in the minds of most people identified with the financing of building operations, are but efforts to put another small army of office-holders on Uncle Sam's pay-roll. To be at all effective they would have to do business at less than cost or to take dangerous chances at extra-legal rates of interest. Such loan banks would open the doors wide to all sorts of opportunities for graft and deception, against which no effective means of protection could be devised.

It is quite a different thing, however, to oppose the one measure now pending in Congress to free the building industry from the strangle hold the government has put upon it by the income tax law, which is the McLaughlin Bill (H. B. 8080), which Mr. Pulleyn did not mention, directly or indirectly, in his article, and which it is reasonable to assume he would have specified, had he been opposed to it, for he knows all about it.

This bill does not seek a general exemption of mortgages from taxation. It exempts only the income from mortgages in individual ownership, in amount not to exceed $40,000 in any one case. Small investors who are heads of families were under the income tax law of 1915 given an exemption of $4,000. So that, having no other income, they were secure in the ownership of mortgages paying 5 per cent. up to $80,000. There were thousands of such holders in this country up to the time when in 1918 this exemption was cut down by half, to $2,000. Above that exempt line the income tax applies, beginning at 4 per cent. and running up to a possible 65 per cent.

The McLaughlin bill would in effect restore the $4,000 exemption, but only to such as would use their money to help the production of housings by investing it in mortgages and fractional parts of mortgages. It would cost nothing for additional administrative machinery, for new office holders and tax-eaters.

Neither would the government lose anything in the long run from the exemption, but would probably gain by it, because the money that would pour into the mortgage market would so promote new construction that the profits and annual income from it (all taxable) would more than offset the amount of the mortgage exemption. Beside which the new construction would to the extent of its entire cost increase the body of municipal and state taxables.

Beside all which, as Mr. Pulleyn well knows, it is a condition which confronts us in the shortage of all manner of construction, not a mere theory, and the foremost business of the hour for all people having to do with the financing of construction is to meet the demands of that condition (as to this city a serious emergency) without loss of time. The McLaughlin bill will do this quicker, surer and cheaper than any other means yet suggested.

That is why the McLaughlin bill has received the endorsement of every responsible real estate organization which has thus far expressed itself, and of every financial institution engaged in the financing of building operations.

The savings banks will also gain, in great increase of business, by enactment of the McLaughlin bill, and while they are not enthusiastic supporters of the bill have not the heart to seriously oppose it. JOHN L. PARISH.

Permit me to express my admiration of your leading article in the last issue (1919-1920). Most of our writers appear obsessed with self-conceit and the desire to disparage their government. You celebrate ourselves.

Lockwood Committee Offers Bills Affecting Realty

Provide that Landlords Must Prove Tenants Are "Objectionable" and Exempt Income from Mortgages up to $40,000 from Taxation.

Albany, January 9.

INSISTENCE upon initiation of a policy of retrenchment in the expenditure of county and city moneys, particularly in the counties comprising the City of New York, will be one of the chief recommendations of the Davenport legislative committee which has been investigating taxation. The adoption of this policy, the report will point out, constitutes an immediate offset to the burden shifted upon real estate by the growing expenditures of the municipalities of the state. The Davenport committee report will be submitted within the next few weeks.

Among the first batch of legislative bills introduced when the Legislature convened on Wednesday were a series recommended by the Lockwood Joint Committee on Housing. These included:

Providing that where a proceeding is instituted to recover possession of real property by reason of termination of a lease as a result of a provision contained therein giving the landlord the right to terminate the time for occupancy, should he deem the tenant objectionable, said proceeding shall not be maintainable unless the landlord shall establish to the satisfaction of the court that the tenant is objectionable.

Exempting from the state income tax interest on the whole or part of the principal of a mortage or mortgages upon improved real estate not exceeding $40,000 in amount.

Making it a misdemeanor for the lessor of any building or part thereof wilfully to fail to furnish water, heat, light, power, elevator or telephone service when the same are necessary to the proper use of the building, if the furnishing of such service is required by the terms of the lease or contract.

Providing that no tenancy in New York City shall be valid for more than one month unless there is an agreement in writing.

Requiring a landlord to give tenants from month to month and monthly tenants 30 days' notice to quit instead of 20 days as at present. This bill provides this length of notice to all tenants in New York City. The benefit of the law is now limited to occupants of tenement houses.

Giving the New York City municipal court discretionary power to stay the execution of a warrant for eviction for not more than 30 days, insetad of not more than 20 days as at present, upon the deposit of rent at the old rate.

Two other bills affecting real estate were included in the first batch of legislation. They follow:

Senator Gibbs.—Licensing real estate brokers and salesmen on and after next October 1 by the Secretary of State.

Senator Schackno.—Creating a rent commission of seven members for New York City. The Mayor is given the power of appointment and the commissioners will receive $3,000 a year. The commission, under the terms of this bill, is empowered to investigate and determine whether the rent, charges and service and other terms of leases and contracts for the use and occupation of real property are fair and reasonable.

Governor Smith Will Send in Special Message on Housing

Albany, January 9.

ENACTMENT of a State-wide municipal ownership law. Legislation vesting the public service commsisions with power to suspend the enforcement of higher public utility rates until a determination of the cases involving rates is reached.

Equipment of the barge canal with grain elevators and other freight handling facilities in order to bring the transportation efficiency of this water route to maximum.

Repeal of the ratification of the prohibition amendment to the federal constitution by New York State and the submission of a referendum on prohibition to the people at the 1920 election.

Adoption of the pay-as-you-go policy in the construction of state highways and adherence to the policy of building roads of durable type with an eye to diminishing maintenance costs.

Exercise of the greatest economy in the expenditure of state moneys for the next fiscal year.

Vesting in the cities of the state broader powers of home rule or self-government.

Placing the burden of collecting the new state income tax upon the cities of the state which receive 50 per cent of this tax.

Consideration of the various reports of the Governor's reconstruction commission to be submitted later. These reports will deal with the problems of housing, consolidation of state departments, retrenchment in state expenditures and improvements of the state budget system.

These are the outstanding features of Governor Smith's second message to the Legislature, delivered when that body convened this week for the 1920 session, in which real estate investors and owners will find interest.

More important than any of these recommendations to the real estate interests of New York City is the prospective submission of a realty tax limitation measure similar in some respects to the measures passed last year and vetoed by Mayor Hylan. It is expected that the bill to be introduced at this session will be an amendment of the State Tax Law rather than of the New York City charter, and in the event of its passage no necessity will exist for obtaining the approval of Mayor Hylan. The expectation is that with the passage of such a measure Governor Smith, who has indicated several times that he appreciates the burden New York realty is carrying, will approve it.

Advocating the enactment of municipal ownership legislation, the Governor said:

"Every city in this state, through the Conference of Mayors, has petitioned the Legislature to enact laws empowering

Brooklyn Chamber Approves City Reorganization

Adopts Report of Committee on Retrenchment Calling for Commission to Recommend Necessary Legislation.

THE Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce has approved the report of its committee, of which Victor A. Lersner is chairman, recommending the appointment of a commission on municipal reorganization and retrenchment. The committee reported as follows:

"Since the consolidation of the five boroughs into the Greater City in 1899, there has been a constant and rapid increase in the city's annual expenditures. From an expenditure of approximately $95,000,000 in 1899, the budget increased to $156,000,000 in 1909 and to almost $250,000,000 in 1919—in all, an increase of more than 250 per cent. in twenty years. If this same rate of increase is maintained for the next twenty years, the annual budget of this city will have climbed to the rather startling figures of more than $500,000,000 in 1940.

"County government has been likewise increasing rapidly. From a budget of $3,594,649.57 in 1899, it has mounted to $5,175,796.23 in 1909, and to more than $7,500,000 for 1919, or an increase of more than 100 per cent. in the twenty years.

"Not only has the annual appropriations of the city for operation increased rapidly during recent years, but the increases in indebtedness for outlays and permanent improvements have been quite as rapid. From a total of $359,620,986.40 in 1899, and to approximately $1,250,000,000 in 1919, an increase of more than 300 per cent. in the twenty years.

"Already the debt charge of this city amounts to more than $75,000,000 annually and constitutes nearly one-third of the total annual expenditure.

"If this rapid increase in the cost of government and growth in indebtedness were confined to the city it might be viewed with some degree of equanimity in the light of the rapidly increasing taxable values in Greater New York. But when it is considered that the cost of state government is increasing just as rapidly, with a state budget exceeding $95,000,000 for this year and a prospective large increase for 1920; and that federal taxation has increased enormously as a result of the war, with a proposed budget for 1920 exceeding $5,000,000,000, the time seems appropriate for urging a study of the city charter and local laws and ordinances for the purpose of determining the extent of the waste due to overlapping and duplication of offices and functions, and to recommend such changes as will assist in keeping expenditures at the lowest point consistent with the proper discharge of public functions and the reasonable extension in municipal activities.

"When it is understood that more than $127,000,000 of the $215,000,000 (which is the city's portion of the 1920 budget) will go to meet the payroll of the 85,000 city employes; that nearly $7,000,000 of the approximately $9,000,000 county budgets are spent on salaries and wages alone; that 78 per cent. of the county expenditures and nearly 40 per cent. of the city's expenditures are mandatory; i. e., required by legislation from Albany and, in that sense, not voluntary on the city's part; and that in the period of twenty years since consolidation, laws and charter amendments establishing new offices and creating new functions have been added with far too little regard to existing offices and functions; we believe that most citizens will agree that, in the fact of rapidly increasing public expenditures, a comprehensive survey to determine how far the city can go in adopting a policy of retrenchment and economy may well be inaugurated.

"This is not an entirely new suggestion. Surveys have been suggested and tried before. No less than four charter commissions have been appointed to ascertain defects in the city government and to recommend legislation and charter revisions to remedy them. Each of these commissions has failed to accomplish the results, either because of peculiar political conditions or because the commission attempted to secure sweeping and fundamental changes not only in the framework of city government, but also in the general principles embodied in the city charter.

"Your committee, therefore, recommends that the Board of Directors take such steps as are deemed necessary to secure the enactment of legislation providing for the appointment of a commission on municipal reorganization and retrenchment, with power and funds sufficient to make the necessary surveys, to ascertain wherein reorganization of offices and departments will effect economies in the city and county governments within Greater New York, and to prepare such legislation as may be deemed necessary.

municipalities to acquire, own, operate and control their public utilities.

"Transportation, light, heat and power are vital to the life and health of great municipalities. History must have taught the unprejudiced mind that these facilities should be under the control of the people who directly use them. I am strongly in favor of the opinion that we have reached the point where the state might well confer this power upon the municipalities, and I urge upon your Honorable Bodies legislation to bring it about."

Requests for appropriations for the fiscal year of 1919-1920 by state departments, commissions and bureaus aggregate about $140,000,000. The Governor's demand for the exercise of economy on the part of the Legislature, it is anticipated, will bring the total of appropriations down to approximately $120,000,000. Requests for new construction will be pared down, it is expected.

As the public service commissions law now stands it is possible for a public utility corporation upon 30 days' notice to increase its rates and the public service commissions are powerless to suspend such rates until after the reasonableness of the new charges has been determind. The Governor strongly urges the Legislature to amend these laws and give the commissions power to suspend these rates in the interval of determination.

With respect to home rule for cities, the Governor's message declares:

"Each session of the Legislature records the passage of a large number of purely local bills regulating the business and management of municipalities. These bills consume considerable time on the part of the Legislature and the Executive, and they bring to Albany from all parts of the state people interested on both sides of the questions involved. They are in most cases matters of purely local interest which should be settled by some power within the locality itself. Every political platform adopted in this state for as many years back as any one can remember has always contained the promise of a broader and larger measure of local self-government for municipalities; but the temptation to retain control at Albany has never so far been successfully resisted. The municipalities themselves, through their Conferences of Mayors, have at every opportunity petitioned the Legislature for this broader grant of home rule. It may be that, in order to bring this about, the Constitution would have to be amended. If that be so, I urge that whatever can be done by legislation be done and the necessary amendments required to carry forward this principle into force and effect be passed by your Honorable Bodies."

Comparative Building Statistics for 1919 and 1918

Plans For Construction During Last Year Reached High Figures—Greatest Activity in Brooklyn Houses and Apartments.

PLANS filed in the various boroughs during 1919 reflect a decidedly improved situation in the building field. Large increases may be noted in the number of projects filed with the various superintendents of buildings. In Manhattan there was a striking advance in the number of plans filed for new buildings during the twelve months of 1919 as compared with the corresponding period of the previous year. The records of the superintendents of buildings show that 379 new buildings were planned in this borough involving a total of $72,283,061, as compared with 182 buildings costing $8,507,000 in 1918, indicating an increase in number of 197 and in cost of $63,776,061. The biggest individual increase is in office building projects, whereas only eight of these, to cost $398,500, were projected in 1918.

The acute housing shortage was reflected in large increases in the number of projected residential operations. Manhattan shows a substantial increase, but Brooklyn was even more active. In this borough total number of plans filed for new buildings reached an aggregate of $68,137,966, as compared with only $17,858,425 in 1918. Plans involving $12,156,150 were filed for 1,462 one-family brick houses costing less than $20,000 each, and for 3,379 one-family frame houses costing in the aggregate $16,601,075.

Considerable interest also centered upon stable and garage projects in Brooklyn, of which a total number of 3,962 were filed, involving a cost of $7,494,522. The total number of plans filed in Brooklyn for structures of all types was 12,889 as against 2,815 for 1918, indicating an increase in number of 10,074 and an increase in cost of $10,279,541.

In the Bronx striking advances may also be noted in plan filings, which reached 1,084 in number, costing $21,006,865, as compared with 206 costing $3,991,900 in 1918. This indicates an increase in number of 878 and an increased cost of $18,014,965. The principal increases in this borough affected tenement houses, of which 95 were projected at an estimated cost of $9,654,000.

In the borough of Queens plan filings for 1919 totaled 8,732, costing $45,6117,214, as compared with 2,228 costing $6,768,138 the preceding year, indicating an increase in number of 6,504 and a cost of $38,505,403.

Review of Real Estate Market for the Current Week

Buying Activity Well Diversified in All Sections of City With Several Deals Preliminary to Large Building Operations

THE opening days of 1920 brought forth a group of notable transactions which showed a marked increase in business over the deals consummated during the closing days of last year. The activity followed general lines with buyers displaying an interest in property of practically every type.

Figuring among the important transactions of the week was the purchase of the 12-story structure at Fourth avenue and Thirty-second street by Schwarzenbach, Huber & Company, one of the largest manufacturers of silks in this country. The purchasers heretofore occupied the building for some years as tenants. Several important deals forecasting structural operations were closed, among which was involved the property at 17 to 23 John street, comprising several old four and five-story buildings which occupy a plot of about 10,400 square feet, taken over by the Exchange Buffet Company, which intends to erect a new building on the site, part of which will be for its own occupancy. Another transaction of a similar nature was the purchase by the Gotham National Bank of the four-story building at 307-9 West Fifty-ninth street, giving the bank an additional frontage on Fifty-ninth street of 84 feet upon which they contemplate the erection of a 22-story office building, from plans by Sommerfeld & Steckler, architects, to cost approximately $2,000,000. The deal whereby the General Education Board acquired for the Lincoln School of Teachers' College the northeast corner of Fifth avenue and 102d street, will provide a building site for a proposed school for experimental education along lines adapted to the experiences of life. The site will also be utilized in part for playgrounds for the pupils.

A number of apartment houses changed hands this week, numbering among them the Alwyn Court at the corner of Seventh avenue and Fifty-eighth street, originally valued at $2,000,000; the three four-story apartments at 168, 170 and 172 East Seventy-fourth street, which will provide a costly building site for James C. McQuire & Company, purchasers, who have erected some of the finest apartment houses in New York; and the large corner apartment at Fifth avenue and Ninety-seventh street, which was bought by a syndicate organized by Taylor, Knowles & Hack, attorneys, who will improve the structure with an 11-story fireproof apartment house.

Speculative and investment interest continued to manifest ehemselves, the two largest transactions closed this week along these lines concerning the 16-story office building at 320-324 Broadway, which was sold by H. L. Moxley & Co., Inc., operators, to a speculator who is negotiating a resale of the property to a prominent investor, and the acquisition by the National Biscuit Company of additional properties at the northwest corner of Ninth avenue and Fifteenth street for investment, thereby extensively increasing its holdings in the same general neighborhood.

PRIVATE REALTY SALES.

THE total number of sales reported but not recorded in Manhattan this week was 125 as against 134 last week and 41 a year ago.

The number of sales south of 59th street was 56 as compared with 48 last week and 16 a year ago.

The number of sales north of 59th street was 69 as compared with 86 last week and 25 a year ago.

From the Bronx 52 sales at private contract were reported as against 68 last week and 22 a year ago.

Statistical tables, indicating the number of recorded instruments, will be found on page 52 of this issue.

Another Fifth Avenue Apartment.

Pease & Elliman sold for the estate of General Lloyd S. Bryce, represented by Gifford Pinchot and W. Bourke Cockran, the northeast corner of 97th street and 5th avenue, 100 feet on 5th avenue and 200 feet on 97th street, to a syndicate organized by Taylor, Knowles and Hack, attorneys. This property will be improved with an eleven-story fireproof apartment house with two apartments on a floor. The building will have a frontage of 150 feet on 97th street, and a portion of the balance of the prcperty wil be aranged as a garden to assure permant east light to the building. To the north is the low building of the St. Bernard School, one of the finest private schools in the city, which will assure unusual light in the rear of the apartment house.

The building will be designed by J. E. R. Carpenter. The plan cals for a corner apartment of 16 rooms with 5 masters' roms and 6 servants' rooms, with unusualy large entertaining rooms, and an apartment on 97th street, facing south, consisting of 15 rooms with 4 masters' and 5 servants' rooms. The syndicate purchasing this property proposes to offer for sale four of the apartments to parties who will become interested in the enterprise. The rentals will be from $9,000 to $15,000 for these apartments.

National Biscuit Company Buys

Brown, Wheelock Company sold for the Baron Astor estate, represented in this country by Charles A. Peabody, president of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, the northwest corner of 9th avenue and 15th street, the eight-story and six-story fireproof buildings covering plot 108.7½ feet on 9th avenue and 275 feet on 15th street, and the three-story garage known as 445 West 14th street, running through to 438-40 West 15th street, on plot 75x206.6. The purchaser is the National Biscuit Company, who, earlier in the year, through the same brokers, purchased the balance of the block from 15th to 16th street and from 9th to 10th avenues, also the entire square block from 15th to 16th streets, 10th avenue and Marginal street, from the Bradish Johnson estate. All of these properties were under lease to the National Biscuit Company on long term net leases and the company has now found it advisable to become the owner rather than the tenant. The Astor holdings and Bradish Johnson estate holdings purchased earlier in the year were valued at $2,500,000 and the buildings on the land were erected by the Biscuit Company and are valued at $7,500,000, making a total investment by the Biscuit Company in this location of about $10,000,000.

Fifth Avenue School Site.

The northeast corner of 5th avenue and 102d street has been purchased by the General Education Board for the Lincoln School of the Teachers College as a site for a proposed school for experimental education along lines adapted to the experiences of real life. The sellers of the property were Klein & Jackson, and the brokers were William A. White & Son. The plot fronts 100 feet on 5th avenue and 300 feet on 102d street. The school will be erected by the General Education Board and Columbia University, which has for three years conducted a similar experimental school at 646 Park avenue and 56 East 67th street. Besides a modern building the site will be utilized for playgrounds for the pupils.

Exchange Buffet Company Buys.

The sale of an interesting parcel in John street has just been concluded after negotiations extending over a period of more than two years. Through Manning & Trunk, the Exchange Buffet Corporation acquired from the Volkening estate 17 to 23 John street, old four and five-story buildings occupying a plot of about 10,400 square feet. The property was held at about $675,000. It is the intention of the buying company to erect a new building on the site. The lunch company will occupy part of the ground floor, all the basement and subbasement in the new structure and will lease the balance of the space. The plot has an interesting history. Between 1800 and 1810 it was the site of the old John Street Theatre, which was located at the rear of the plot and reached by a ten-foot alley, still in existence. In the front of the property there was a refreshment park and lawn, where it was the custom of those attending the performance to obtain refreshments during the intermissions. About five years ago the property was leased to the late William Cockroft, but his death terminated improvements contemplated at that time.

Silk Firm in Big Deal.

Schwarzenbach, Huber & Company, one of the largest manufacturers of silks in this country, purchased the modern twelve-story commercial structure at the southwest corner of 4th avenue and 37th street. They now occupy quarters in this property under lease and bought it to make them permanent.

The price paid for the realty was said to be $1,100,000. It comprises a plot 83.6x116, the later frontage facing the Park Avenue Hotel, the structure, which is principally occupied by silk merchants, being fully rented with a yield of approximately $100,000 per annum. The sale was negotiated by J. G. White & Company and Wiliam J. Hamilton.

Operators Buy 320 Broadway.

H. L. Moxley & Company, Inc., sold for the Central Syndicate Building Company, the sixteen-story office building, 320-24 Broadway, northeast corner of Pearl street, on plot 75x150, held at $2,500,000 to the Morgenstern Brothers Syndicate. Baldwin H. Schupp, president of H. L. Moxley & Company, negotiated this sale and states that the deal involved the renewal of the lease on the ground floor and basements with the Citizens' National Bank for a long term at a considerable increase in rent. This building was built by the seliing company in 1896 for the purpose of providing a permanent home for the bank. It has among its important tenants the Arkwright Club, The Standard Textile Products Company, each occupying two entire floors; the United States Finishing Company and many other bleachery and cotton goods houses, as well as many prominent attorneys and real estate operators active in the present market. H. L. Moxley & Company, who have managed the property for many years, will be retained as the managing agents by the new owners. Negotiations are pending by the same brokers for a resale of the property to a prominent investor.

Acquire Costly Building Site.

Pease & Elliman have sold for Simon Lewald, the three four-story apartments at 168, 170, and 172 East 74th street, occupying a plot 90.2x102.2, on the south side, between Lexington and 3d avenues, to James C. McGuire & Company, who have erected some of the finest apartment buildings in New York. The buyers have no definite plans at the present time for the improvement of this property, which was held at $130,000. Some of the other occupants in this block are Stowe Phelps, Charles W. Boring, William M. Sloane, Blair S. Williams, Seymour L. Cromwell, Henry A. Alexander and Charles H. Mills.

Alwyn Court Is Sold.

Alwyn Court, at the southeast corner of 7th avenue and 58th street, which is said to have cost the original owners close to $2,000,000, has been sold by Elgar & Feinberg for the Orean Company, Inc., Frank Hughes, president. The new owner is the Grenell Company, represented by H. B. Davis. The selling company acquired the property at auction in January, 1918, as plaintiff in foreclosure proceedings. It represents a syndicate of bondholders, which foreclosed the second mortgage.

Alwyn Court is twelve stories high, on a plot 125x100. It was erected about twelve years ago by the Hedden Coonstruction Company from plans by Harde & Short, and for a time held the record for high apartment rentals.

Buys 23d Street Loft Building.

L. J. Phillips & Co., in conjunction with Robert F. Bonsall, sold for the County Holding Company, William Crittenden Adams, president, the modern twelve-story and basement fireproof building 153 to 157 West 23d street, on plot 60x98.9. The building is of heavy construction, capable of carrying 300 pounds to the square feet. The property was held at $475,000. The purchaser is the Palo Company, S. Schimmel, president, manufacturers and dealers in scientific instruments and chemicals, who have been located for many years on Maiden lane.

Y. W. C. A. Buys Trowmart Inn.

Wm. A. White & Sons sold for Alfred E. Marling, Robert Thorne and George Leask, trustees for W. R. H. Martin, the Trowmart Inn property, being the block front on West 12th street, between Hudson and Greenwich streets. The building is a six-story fireproof structure, containing 258 rooms, and was built some years ago by Mr. Martin for a working girls' home. During the war it was taken by the Government and used as a nurses' home. It has been purchased by the Metropolitan Board of the Young Women's Christian Association and will be opened, after it has been renovated, as a resident home for self-supporting business girls and conducted along the lines of the other dormitory buildings owned by this organization.

Hup Realty Co. Active.

The Hup Realty Company, J. Chr. G. Hupfel president, has purchased from the New York Life Insurance and Trust Company, as trustees for the estate of Noah Norris, and from Thomas K. and Edward Norris, the following parcels: 229 and 235 East 41st street, two four-story factory buildings on plot 100x1000, running through to 226 East 42d street, and the northwest corner of 2d avenue and 41st street, on lot 24.8x80, an old frame dwelling erected prior to Revolutionary days; also the three-story dwelling at 209 East 39th street. The 41st street and 42d street properties will be modernized to meet the present demand in the Grand Central zone for showroom, factory and office purposes. This property has been in the seller's family since 1855. Henry Hof was the broker in the deals.

Lease Knox Building.

Contracts were closed for the leasing of the Knox Building, a ten-story structure at the southwest corner of Fifth avenue and 40th street, for a period of twenty-one years, to the newly organized Fifth Avenue & Fortieth Street Company, composed of Benjamin Mordecai, E. C. and F. G. Potter. The building occupies a commanding site, 33x110 feet, opposite the New York Public Library, and was leased by the Farmers' Loan & Trust Company, as trustee, for the heirs of the Knox estate. The property is generally rented on leases, most of which have about eight years to run, and was acquired by the Potter-Mordecai interests as a proposition for future development.

Bridge Plaza Project.

The Bridge Plaza facing the Long Island City end of the 59th street bridge is to have another large building operation. Roman-Callman Company, in conjunction with James I. Brokaw, sold to the Standard Steel Car Company of Pittsburgh a five-story building, to be used as a service station, containing 150,000 square feet and to be built on a plot of 30,000 square feet, being the block front on South Jane street, from Ely avenue to William street, Long Island City. The building with the land, involving a total outlay of $500,000, is to be constructed by the sellers, the Midwood Building Corporation, and will be of reinforced concrete construction, containing ramps 16 feet wide from floor to floor, oil and gas tanks with pumps on each floor, large stock rooms and complete machine shop equipment on the top floor.

Sixteen Months Ahead on 14th Street.

Robert M. Kern and Jacob Amron, who recently leased the building at 116 and 118 East 14th street from August Luchow for twenty-one years from May 1, 1921, have sublet, through the Cross & Brown Company, the large westerly store to Nedlog Realty Company for a Golden Shoe Shop. The tenant thus secures this location sixteen months in advance for a similar term of twenty-one years.

Big Seventh Avenue Lease.

John R. and Oscar L. Foley and J. Arthur Fischer leased for the estate of Anna Loughram Daly, deceased, to James F. Ogden, of Altoona, Pa., 462 to 468 7th avenue and 209 and 211 West 35th street, northwest corner, six five-story buildings, on plot 85x100. The lease is for a term of sixty-three years at an aggregate net rental of more than $2,500,000. Mr. Ogden is the present of the Altoona Music Roll Company and plans to erect on the site a sixteen-story mercantile building, a part of which will be used for offices and showrooms for his own companies.

Leases Hotel Ormonde.

The Hotel Ormonde property, at Broadway and 70th street, has been leased by the James Butler syndicate to J. C. La Vin, formerly proprietor of the United States Hotel at Saratoga Springs. Harvey B. Newins negotiated the transaction. The property, which is now being rebuilt, will be renamed the United States Hotel and opened about August, 1920, as a family and transient hostely. It was leased for twenty-one years at a total rental of $2,500,000.

Big Bronx Film Structure.

The Jackson Film Studios Corporation, William H. Weissager president, acquired a plot fronting 224 feet on Westchester avenue and 180 feet on Jackson avenue, with an area of 50,000 square feet. The company plans to erect one of the largest and best equipped film studios in this country. The stage proper will be located on the ground floor and will cover approximately 22,000 feet. There will be a smaller stage, and ten companies can work at the same time. There will be an indoor swimming pool, three projecting rooms, fifty dressing rooms, miniature theatre, etc.

$500,000 Apartment Resale.

Frederick Brown sold to a client of Blandy, Mooney & Shipman, through Worthington Whitehouse, Inc., the nine-story apartment house at 40 East 62d street, on a plot 66.4x100.5, near Madison avenue. The property was held at $500,000 and returns an annual rental of about $45,000. Mr. Brown recently acquired the property through Byrne & Bowman.

Georgian Court for Bing & Bing.

The Cross & Brown Company has sold for the Taylor estate to Bing & Bing the twelve-story Georgian Court apartment house, 100x125, at the southwest corner of Central Park West and 66th street, assessed at $525,000.

To Improve 55th Street Plot.

Edward M. Simmonds has sold for William Astor Chandler to Louis Gold, builder, a plot of seven lots on the north side of 55th st, west of 10th av, through to 56th st, upon which the buyer will build a factory or garage. Mr. Chandler is abroad and was represented by Morris & McVeigh, as attorneys.

The John Alden in Trade.

The ten-story John Alden apartment, at 44 West 10th street, has been sold by Harby, Abrons & Melius, who built the structure in 1917. The buyer, an investor, gave in part payment the Teviot and Tintern, seven-story apartment houses, 100x100, at 2465 to 2471 Broadway, between 91st and 92d streets. Eventually the builders will improve the Broadway property.

New Firm Sells Fortress Twice.

The newly formed brokerage firm of Spotts & Starr, Inc., sold for Dr. Goldberg to Katz & Auerbach the six-story elevator apartment house known as the Fortress, at the northwest corner of Fort Washington avenue and 169th street, on a plot fronting 97 feet on the avenue and 111 feet on 169th street. The same brokers immediately resold the property to a Mr. Fruchter, of Yonkers, an investor.

The Knickerbocker Building Sold.

The Knickerbocker, an eleven-story apartment at the southeast corner of 5th avenue and 28th street, held at about $800,000, has been sold by the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company to a syndicate. The structure, 86.10x125, probably will be altered into a commercial structure at the expiration of the present leases. It was one of the first co-operative apartment houses erected in Manhattan. W. Albert Pease, Jr., and M. B. Loewenthal were the brokers.

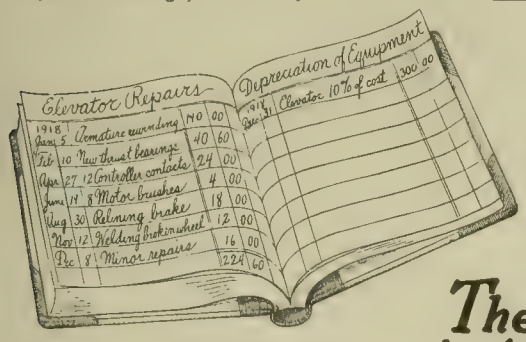
Plans Service Building.

The Sidney B. Bowman Automobile Company bought through Cross & Brown from Archibald D. Russell the westerly block front on Broadway, between 131st and 132d streets, 200x100, on which the concern will erect a service quarters building, containing 100,000 square feet of space. A building and permanent loan has been arranged through William A. White & Sons to carry out the project. The plans are by Dodge & Harrison, and the building will be erected by the Standard Concrete Steel Company.

Garage for Park & Tilford.

Frank B. Taylor sold for Mrs. Anna Schneider, George Reichard and Mrs. Bertha Herbert 537 to 541 West 43d street, 75x100.5, for improvement with a three-story garage, which will be occupied by Park & Tilford under a long lease. The property adjoins the seven-story candy factory of Park & Tilford, now under construction, running through from 43d to 44th street.

Squares Downtown Holdings.



Frederick Brown resold to C. H. & E. S. Goldberg the seven-story loft, 100x125x137x137, at 585 Hudson street, and occupying the block square bounded by Hudson, Bethune, Greenwich and Bank streets, through the Cruikshank Company. The structure contains about 110,000 square feet and will be occupied by the purchasers.

It Is Good Judgment to Start Building Now

IT is our opinion that a new price level has been established by economic conditions created by the world war and that building costs have been stabilized at a point below which they are not likely to fall for many years.

In view of this fact and the imperative need of buildings for housing, commerce and industry, we urge those who have deferred construction in the hope of lower prices to go ahead. The somewhat higher cost of building will be more than offset by increased rentals, assuring a safe, profitable investment.

We are confident of the future prosperity of this country and are demonstrating it every day, as we have done in the past thirty-seven years, by assisting in financing the construction of well-located hotel, apartment, industrial, mercantile, office and warehouse buildings, where the margin of security is ample for safety and the earnings sufficient to meet principal and interest payments. We make no loans in amounts less than $500,000.

Write for our booklet explaining the Straus Plan of financing real estate improvements. It will interest you.

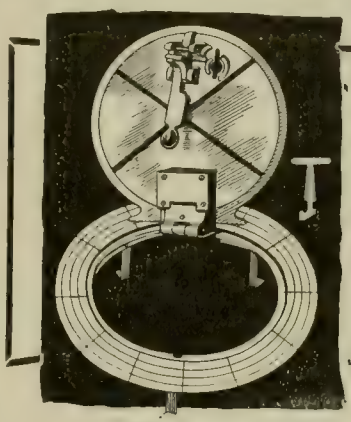
Real Estate CAN BE MADE TO PAY Dividends



Those old buildings that have been operated at a loss for years can be made to return a profit on the money invested.

Alterations, properly planned and executed, will transform them at a relatively slight cost into modern structures of the type for which there is now such an insistent demand. Rental returns will pay for these improvements in a short time.

BUILDING SECTION

Two New Buildings For Grand Central Terminal Zone

At Madison Avenue and 41st and 42nd Street Corners Will Be Occupied by Office Structures to Cost Ten Million Dollars.

UNLESS the present plans miscarry there is every likli-hood of a greater volume of building activity in the Grand Central Terminal Zone during 1920 than has been apparent for some years past. At the present time working drawings are being prepared for two very important structural projects that together will involve an investment of approximately $10,000,000. There are other operations pending that will undoubtedly mature during the current year that will give to the district some of the largest individual building operations in the Metropolitan district.

PROPOSED BUILDING AT MADISON AVE. AND 41ST ST.

Announcement was made this week that the Liggett-Winchester-Ley Company, of which Fred T. Ley is president, had concluded negotiations for a long term lease of the Millbank property at the northeast corner of Madison avenue and 42d street, upon which would be constructed a modern store and office building. Albert B. Ashforth, Inc., brokers, negotiated the deal, and will act as managing agents of the new building.

Carrere & Hastings, architects, 52 Vanderbilt avenue, have been commissioned to prepare the plans and specifications for this operation which will cost upward of $4,000,000 for construction alone. Fred T. Ley & Company will be the builders.

In discussing this important project with a representative of the Record and Guide this week, Mr. Ley stated that it was planned to commence active construction about May 1. The tentative plans call for a building twenty-two to twenty-four stories in height, with facades of granite and limestone, designed so as to harmonize architecturally with other strictly modern structures in this locality. Every possible safety devise and convenience for the tenants will be installed in an effort to make the building a model of construction of this type.

In close proximity to this project, at the northwest corner of Madison avenue and 41st street, the Fred. F. French Company plans to commence the construction of a sixteen-story store and office building, several stories of which this firm intends to occupy as offices. This structure will have a Madison avenue frontage of 50 feet and will extend back 75 feet in 41st street. Plans for this building are now being prepared by the Fred F. French Company and it is anticipated that active operations will be started within a few weeks. The tentative plans provide for banking facilities on the first floor and basement and a trust company is now negotiating for this space for a branch office.

The facades of the French building will be probably of marble or limestone to the height of the third floor, above which face brick and architectural terra cotta will be employed. Mr. French recently stated that this operation will involve an outlay of approximately $2,500,000 and that work would be started as soon as possible so that the building would be completed and ready for occupancy early next autumn.

Mayor Hylan announced on Tuesday that he had named A. J. W. Hilly, a lawyer of 302 Broadway, chairman of the Mayor's Committee on Rent Profiteering, to succeed Nathan Hirsch, who resigned when the mayor failed to give the committee an appropriation of $30,000 to carry on its work during 1920. At the same time the mayor created a new committee, but named two of those who have served since its inception. These are Peter J. Brady and Edward L. Hannah, both labor leaders. The new members are Mrs. Oliver Harriman, of 830 Park avenue, and Albert Sokolski, a real estate dealer at 220 Broadway. The members of the committee replaced by the two latter appointees are Henry Bloch, attorney, and Rev. A. Ray Petty, pastor of the Judson Memorial Church.

Walk-out of Bricklayers Tie Up Some Local Buildings

Unauthorized Strike for Higher Wages Before Arbitrator Renders Decision. Not a Serious Set-Back to the Industry

DESPITE the optimistic attitude on the part of the building fraternity that the agreement recently arrived at between the Building Trades Employers' Association and the Building Trades Council regarding wage rates, hours of labor and general working conditions during 1920 would eliminate labor disturbances in Greater New York and Long Island, the new year has opened with a discussion amounting dangerously near to an open breach between the labor interests and the Iron Ieague Erectors over the question of an open shop, and an unauthorized strike of a number of bricklayers who insist upon an immediate increase of wages without waiting for the decision of the arbitrator selected to adjust this matter.

Although the open shop fight has to date affected but one operation, the office building addition at the corner of Madison avenue and Twenty-fourth street, for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, it is feared that other projects where non-union steel erectors are working might possibly become involved unless some immediate action is taken to adjust this problem.

The determination of the Building Trades Council to enforce the closed shop, or union principle, will mean an open fight with the Iron League Erectors, who are prepared to stand firmly by their open shop declaration against the closed shop agreement.

Robert P. Brindell, president of the Building Trades Council, stated that action against other active building operations in this city upon which non-union structural steel workers are now employed, would be taken immediately. He stated that at the present time there were not more than six buildings in course of construction on which non-union ironworkers were employed, but it is understood, however, that all of them will be halted if necessary to enforce the closed shop, as demanded.

As far as the walkout of the bricklayers is concerned the Building Trades Employers' Association is not seriously agitated. It was stated at the headquarters of this association Thursday afternoon that the strike affected but a relatively small number of bricklayers, comprising largely a group of impatient men who quit work without the sanction of their proper authorities in order to enforce their demands for higher wages without waiting for the decision of the arbitration board appointed to adjust this matter. The strike, or walk-out, is not general and was wholly unauthorized, and up to the present time only a few jobs are affected, and these not seriously.

Unusual Features in New Apartment

Replicas of the famous hanging gardens of the palaces of ancient Babylon will be among the distinctive features of a fifteen-story apartment house to be built at 145 West 55th street. These elaborate gardens are planned for the very top of the structure, while at the various set-backs the same decorative scheme will be carried out. Thus occupants of the building will have real front yards of plant life and greenery. This will be the first time that any building in New York has been planned with the view of utilizing the set-backs in such an artistic manner. Another unusual feature of this improvement will be a tile swimming pool which will be restricted to the use of the tenants and their guests. On the main floor and facing a terrace arranged as a sunken garden will be the restaurant. There also will be facilities for serving meals in the apartments.

Construction work on the apartment building, which will be known as Holbrook Hall, will begin at once. The site was purchased from the Barney Estate for $195,000 and the building plans call for 280 rooms with servant accommodations. The architectural design of the entire facade will be of the Italian Renaissance type. The first three floors will be faced with white stone while the apartment are arranged in suites of three rooms, consisting of living room, chamber, servant's pantry and bath. The land and building represent a valuation of $1,238,000, on which S. W. Strauss & Co. have undewritten an amortized first mortgage 6 per cent. serial bond issue of $850,000. The borrowing corporation is the 110 West 55th Street, Inc.

In connection with the financing of the operation the owners and contractors, Fred T. Ley & Co., have estimated the annual earnings at more than $210,000, or an average of a little more than $60 per room per month, which is considered a conservative estimate for the district in which the structure will be built.

It is believed that this operation marks the beginning of considerable renewed activity in the section immediately south of Central Park where there is a heavy demand for apartment house accommodations.

Before the war new building operations in this section were active, and during the last year there has been a great amount of alterations, particularly in West 57th street. The completion of the B. R. T. subway through the district at 57th street and 7th avenue has given the section superior transportation facilities.

Housing and Business Projects Grow in Number and Value

Figures of F. W. Dodge Company Show Important Increase in These Types of Construction in Metropolitan District

REPORTS of new building projects in New York State and New Jersey, north of Trenton, during the closing days of 1919, failed to indicate any material decrease in the volume of planning that has marked the past month or so. During the period from December 27 to December 31 inclusive reports of newly projected building and engineering operations in this territory numbered 255 and were valued at $18,178,800, according to the F. W. Dodge Company. At the same time contracts for construction were awarded for a total of 160 projects representing an outlay of $5,842,500.

Among the projects for which plans were announced as in progress were included 48 business and commercial structures, such as stores, offices, lofts, commercial garages, etc., $1,443,000; 14 educational buildings, $1,381,000; 3 hospitals and institutions $1,025,000; 28 industrial operations, including factories, shops, warehouses, storage buildings, etc., $966,500; 1 structure for the U. S. Navy, $4,500; 2 public buildings, $6,000; 11 public works and public utilities, including roads, sidewalks, sewers, bridges, culverts, etc., $350,800; 4 religious and memorial buildings, $103,000; 137 residential operations, including apartments, flats and tenements and one and two-family dwellings, $11,585,000; and 7 social and recreational projects, $1,314,000.

The list of 160 operations for which contracts were awarded during the same period included 23 business and commercial structures of various types, $962,500; 3 educational buildings, $906,000; 22 factory and other industrial projects, $808,500; 1 building for the U. S. Army, $4,500; 4 public structures, $46,-800; 15 public works and public improvements, $948,200; 2 religious and memorial projects, $8,000; 86 residential operations of different types, $2,123,000, and 2 social and recreational buildings, $35,000.

Residential construction continues to be the most active type of building at this time in both number of projects and total valuation. Recently, however, there has been a marked increase in the number of business and commercial projects and also in the factory and industrial building activity throughout the local territory. The vast amount of planning activity that marked the end of 1919 indicates a forthcoming building season of unusual proportions and prosperity.

PERSONAL AND TRADE NOTES.

Trenton Potteries Co. announces the appointment of George E. Hoffman as sales manager of the company.

Charles Brady severed his connection with the Bureau of Buildings on December 31, 1919, and has re-entered the building construction business with the Brady-Butler Company, with offices at 18 West 34th street.

Thomas M. Kellogg was recently appointed manager of the New York office of the Haynes Selling Company, Philadelphia, marketers of Haynes modulating valves and Hoffman specialties. Mr. Kellogg is an engineer of note and is well equipped through training and experience to manage this important post. Formerly he was associated with the W. G. Cornell Company as New York assistant manager of the water supply and irrigation department. During the war Mr. Kellogg has a varied experience, first on the Mexican border, later with the 27th Division at Spartanburg, S. C., and finally in France, where he was commissioned captain, engineer corps.

Co-operative Apartment for Park Ave.

Douglas Elliman & Company have obtained for a group of co-operative owners headed by Walter Russell, an option for a lease of a total of sixty-three years on an entire block, bounded by Park and Vanderbilt avenues and 48th and 49th streets, from the New York Central Railroad Company.

Fred T. Ley & Company, Inc., will erect upon this property a sixteen-story modern apartment house with hotel features. The ground floor will contain a large restaurant, which will be operated by a prominent restaurateur and service from this restaurant will be furnished to all the apartments in the building, whether they are of three rooms and two baths or nine rooms and three baths.

The architects, Warren & Wetmore, have been in consultation with Mr. Russell, Fred T. Ley & Company, Inc., and the prospective owners for some months and have procured a design which brings into consideration the difficult problem of the times, such as the servant problem and the service problem. It is their opinion that the designer of a modern apartment must give double the attention to these problems than he has ever done before.

The modern apartment must have every facility for full housekeeping, and yet it must be absolutely independent of the servant problem. What has come to be known as the double service system has been evolved to perfection in this building. Double service means that a family may fall back upon the service of the building outside of his apartment, or supplement his own household service by the facilities which the building itself offers. The restaurant and hotel service provides this so far as food is concerned, and the hourly maid service system provides it so far as household service is concerned. It means a staff of maids, valets and butlers are on hand to be called at any time, for any purpose, from making beds to serving at a formal tea, for which services they are paid by the hour. This makes it possible to cut one's staff of servants or dispense with a fixed retinue all together if one desires.

Instead of having eight and ten servants' rooms, three or four answer the purpose in the double service system. Special attention has been given to domestic labor saving devices to simplify cleaning. Kitchen walls are tiled to the ceilings, and steel cabinets with steel porcelain shelves are used in place of wood. Every attention is given to the details of household economy in so far as labor devices are concerned. The refrigeration is electric: the iceman will not knock at the door. Store rooms sufficiently large to contain fifteen or twenty trunks are provided for every apartment, within the apartment. One of the special features of this building is the fact that it will not have any mortgage. It is to be paid for all in cash by the subscribers who will live in two-thirds of the building and rent the other third, which other third will give an income of about $270,000 a year. This $270,000 is more than the running expenses; therefore, the owners will be able to live in their apartments for the interest on their investment, reducing their rent to about one-third of the schedule rental.

Work will commence as soon as Mr. Russell completes his group of co-operative owners, which will be within the next thirty days, at which time the names of the owners will be made public and not until then. This new operation is directly south of the new Sherry Building and opposite the Hotel Chatham and 270 Park avenue. Occupying as it does an entire block, it will have unusual light facilities on four sides with ample courts. The rent for the first twenty-one years will be approximately $2,000,000 and the cost of the building $4,000,000 making a total involved in the operation of $6,000,000.

Douglas Elliman & Company will manage this building for the group of subscribers under an executive committee of three elected by the directorate.

TRADE AND TECHNICAL SOCIETY EVENTS.

National Builders' Supply Association will hold its annual convention at the Hotel Sherman, Chicago, Ill., February 9-10, 1920.

American Society of Mechanical Engineers.—Monthly meeting the second Tuesday of each month. Calvin W. Rice, secretary, 29 West 39th street.

New York State Retail Hardware Association will hold its annual convention and exhibition at Syracuse, N. Y., February 17 to 20, inclusive. Headquarters will be at the Onondaga Hotel. The exhibition will be in the State Armory in Jefferson street. John B. Foley, 607 City Bank Building, Syracuse, N. Y., secretary.

American Road Builders' Association is perfecting the plans for the forthcoming Seventeenth Annual Convention, Tenth American Good Roads Congress and the Eleventh Good Roads Show that is scheduled to be held in the First Regiment Armory, Louisville, Ky., February 9 to 13, 1920. E. L. Powers, 150 Nassau street, New York City, secretary.

New York State Builders' Supply Association will hold its 1920 convention at the Hotel Arlington, Binghamton, N. Y., Thursday and Friday, January 15-16. According to Secretary T. E. Wright, the forthcoming convention promises to be the most important and interesting that the association has ever held. Local dealers are planning a supplementary program that will involve a number of unusual features.

Gotham Bank Will Build.

The Gotham National Bank has bought from the Jones estate, the four-story building at 307-9 West 59th street, 64 feet west of Columbus Circle. This plot covers 54x100.5 and adjoins the 30-foot plot to the east recently taken by the Gotham National Bank under a ground lease from Mrs. Louise Rutherford, for twenty-one years with privileges of renewals for 21-year terms. The purchase of the Jones estate plot gives the Gotham National Bank a combined frontage of 84 feet on 59th street upon which will be erected a twenty-two-story office building connected with and having an entrance through the present bank buildings on Broadway and Columbus Circle. The amount involved will be about $2,000,000. Huberth & Huberth were the brokers who negotiated both transactions. Sommerfeld & Steckler, architects, have been commissioned to prepare plans for this project.

CURRENT BUILDING OPERATIONS

ALTHOUGH the recent agreement between representatives of employers and workmen in the building trades of Greater New York was though to have stabilized the labor situation for 1920, the new year has started with an unauthorized strike by a number of bricklayers who are too impatient to wait for arbitration and a somewhat cloudy atmosphere engendered by the disagreement with the Iron League Erectors over the question of an open shop.

When new important structural projects are considered, the new year seems to have commenced in an auspicious manner. Announcement early this week that Carrere & Hastings were preparing the plans for a twenty-two-story store and loft building to cost approximately $4,000,000 at the corner of 42d street and Madison avenue, coupled with the recent report that the Fred. F. French Company was soon to start the erection of a sixteen-story store and office building one block further south indicates that he Grand Cenral Terminal Zone will be one of the busy districts of the city during the coming year.

The local building situation generally is most promising. Architects, engineers, contractors and material dealers are all making active preparations for one of the busiest building seasons in history. The only factor that will operate against this will be a shortage of materials of construction amounting to a famine. At the present time, the production end of the building material industry is considerably behind in its orders and it is impossible to predict what will happen by the time the industry gets fully under way next spring. One thing is certain and that is that production of essential commodities will have to be materially increased if the industry is selling at $23 a thousand, wholesale in now outlined.

For the past week or two there has been a steadily advancing price trend in the building material markets and dealers are of the opinion that the movement has not as yet reached its limit. Brick today is selling at $23 a thousand, wholesale in cargo lots; lath at $20 a thousand, and almost impossible to obtain even at that figure. Limes, plaster and other commodities are mounting in cost and yet there is no appreciable decrease in the demand. Builders are generally willing to stand whatever prices are quoted so long as they can be assured of deliveries when wanted and this condition will become more noticeable as the demand grows in volume with the coming spring. It is now certain that high material prices will be no bar to building progress particularly in this section and that owners will go ahead with their projected operations despite inflated material prices.

Common Brick—The local wholesale market for Hudson River common brick passed through a very quiet week with no arrivals and but three barge loads disposed of, all of which were consigned to points in Manhattan. Although the price obtained for these loads was $23 a thousand, the ruling quotation for the barges remaining unsold is $25 a thousand and there are some folks who are of the opinion that this level will hold for but a comparatively short period. There is a fair demand for brick for winter building operations but recent bad weather has made it difficult to deliver. The outlook at present is for a tremendously busy spring season in all lines of structural activity and both manufacturers and dealers will be pushed to the limit of their capacities to supply the demand. Along the river, conditions are exceptionally quiet. Work has not stopped in all of the yards with the exception of burning the remaining green brick of the past season and as the river is practically ice-bound, there is no prospect of brick coming into the market for some months to come. Manufacturers are now making their preliminary preparations for the coming season and are considerably bothered by the prospects of labor scarcity and greatly advanced wages.

Summary—Transactions in the North River common brick market for the week ending Friday, January 9, 1920: Condition of market: Demand light, prices higher and firm at the new level. Quotations: Hudson River, $25 a thousand to dealers in cargo lots alongside dock. Number of cargoes arrived, 0; sales, 3. Distribution: Manhattan, 3.

Structural Steel—The disagreement between the Iron League Erectors and the Building Trades Council over the question of an open shop is to some extent beclouding the local situation but there is every indication that some settlement will be reached before very long that will eliminate further difficuley on this score. The amount of newly projected construction of steel skeleton buildings in this city indicates a most active season for the steel industry. Local contractors are swamped with orders and contracts and the mills turning out fabricated material for building purposes are booked for some time ahead. As a general thing it is practically impossible to arange for the delivery of shapes in less than six weeks to four months and as the spring approaches it is anticipated that deliveries will be further delayed by the rush of new business. Prices are advancing and probably will increase further in the near future.

Lumber—There has been considerable activity in both wholesale and retail lumber markets during the past week and prices are generally firm and with a continuing advancing trend. Demand from building sources, while somewhat lighter than it was a few weeks ago, is still in excess of the supply and mills are faling behind in their orders for sash and trim. There is a marked increase in the volume of orders coming from manufacturing consumers and prospects from this source are excellent. Dealers are planning ahead for the tremendous increase in business that is sure to come next spring as a result of the vast amount of small house construction that is now in preliminary stages and acording to all reports from speculative building interests in the Metropolitan district they will go ahead with their contemplated operations despite advancing construction costs as long as there is an active market for moderate priced one and two-family dwelings in both the city and suburbs.

Plaster Blocks.—The demand is fair, but the market is practically marking time pending the commencement of the spring bilding season. Dealers are looking forward to times of unusual activity during this year and are of the opinion that the demand will be greater than ever before. Prices have advanced to some extent during the past few weeks and are very likely to be further increased as the demand strengthens. According to the present trend, however, prices will be a secondary consideration with the immediate delivery of materials the prime essential of every order.

Wood Lath—The market is exceedingly firm with demand considerably heavier than the available supply and prices soaring to an extent that dealers are beginning to hesitate for sometime before making a quotation. The producing situation is steadily growing worse with manufacturers constantly falling behind with their orders and only making contracts with prices based upon the market at time of delivery which is in the majority of cases unspecified.

No Words More True

A prominent architect has said "A building outlives its original occupancy or function after fifteen or twenty years, unless wise and radical alterations are made"

The Hotel Ormonde, Broadway and 70th Street, is being altered from an old ten story apartment building to a modern twelve story hotel

The modernization includes the discarding of three old generating engines and the installation of an electrical equipment which will be entirely new and complete in every detail, the current being supplied direct from the mains of The New York Edison Company

There is nothing more modernizing, economical or reliable than the installation of Central Station Service and it is "being done" all over town

Estimates cheerfully furnished

Architects and Engineers are specifying and demanding

STEELBILT

in preference to those made of ordinary materials.

STEEL has exclusive advantages. It is non-absorbent and therefore sanitary. It does not crack; in fact, is indestructible. It has a neat, clean appearance. Costs less than other substances and is more easily and economically erected. It is the logical material.

STEELBILT Toilet Partitions are made in standard sizes, some of which are carried in stock for quick delivery. Partitions and doors are made in units, of sizes to suit any plan layout.

Write Dept. "R" for full particulars and a copy of our architects' specification sheet.

Why Large Buildings Install

MARBLELOID

"The Ideal Composition Flooring"

Marbleloid is being put into an ever increasing number of important buildings because it is a satisfactory and efficient flooring. Hard, dust-proof, durable, slow to chip or crack, it has the close texture that repels moisture and the pleasing appearance that brightens the office. Easily applied and inexpensive, it pays dividends from the day it is laid.

Where may we send you full information, samples and a list of Marbleloid installations?

Will Start Needle Trade Buildings.

Work is to commence at once on two twenty-story buildings for the garment trade to be erected by the Garment Center Realty Company, one to take in the block front on the west side of 7th avenue, between 37th and 38th streets, and the other to cover the southwest corner of 37th street and 7th avenue, at an estimated cost $6,000,000.

The building on the west side of 7th avenue, from 37thto 38th street, will cover a plot 197.6x100x irregular, and will take in the old Hotel Navarre, on the southwest corner of 7th avenue and 38th street. The other building will stand on a plot 98.9 feet on the avenue by 250 feet on 37th street extending through to 36th street, where it will have a frontage of 170 feet. These structures, according to W. M. Mason, the architect, will contain both store and factory accomodations, together with meeting rooms and restaurants, and will be equipped to meet every demand of the garment industry and trade.

To Enlarge Newark Hotel.

Practical doubling of the Robert Treat, Newark's newest hostelry, has been assured through the purchase of the adjacent land for an extension, which it is estimated will cost $1,000,000. Through Uzal H. McCarter, president of the Fidelity Trust Company, assisted by Feist & Feist as brokers, the hotel company has just concluded negotiations for the purchase of the necessary land from Stephen H. Plum and the A. L. Dennis estate, comprising Nos. 52 and 54 Park place. They comprise a lot 86x175 feet, valued at $200,000, and were secured for practically the same figure as the hotel plot purchased in 1913, but which has a depth of 342 feet. The tentative plans for the extension, carrying out the details of the hotel, have been prepared by Gilbert & Bettelle.

To Remodel Schuyler Hotel.

George T. Stockham, lessee of the Holland House, which is shortly to be converted into a business building, has leased from the United States Trust Company, as trustee, the 10-story Schuyler Hotel, 75x100, at 57 to 63 West 45th street, at a rental aggregating $500,000. N. A. Berwin & Co. were the brokers. Mr. Stockham will get possession next March and plans to remodel the Schuyler into an apartment hotel. George Whittelsey represented the lessee.

Bank Property in Long Lease.

Thomas J. O'Reilly has leaesd for the Emigrant Industrial Savings Bank the five-story business building at 206 5th avenue, running through to 1126 Broadway, on a plot 30x112, for a term of twenty-one years, at an aggregate sum of $750,000. The tenant is the 160 East 34th Street Company, Benjamin Menschel, president, who proposes to sublease the building separately as store and showrooms or in its entirety. It will be recalled that for many years the old building on this site was occupied by Theodore B. Starr & Sons, jewellers.

Garage Men Add to Holdings.

Joseph P. Day leased for William Mehrbach 152 and 154 East 24th street for twenty-one years at an aggregate rental of $155,000 to the East Twenty-fourth Street Garage, operated by H. S. Freedman and Frederick Hupper, who will utilize it in connection with their garage adjoining at 156 to 164 and which was also leased by Mr. Day originally to the Reich Garage Company.

Artificial Stone is growing in popularity

Unlike other Building Units, Artificial Stone is a NON-CONDUCTOR of DAMPNESS, COLD and HEAT. It reduces building costs and expedites construction. A wide variety of facing effects produced with crushed granite, marble, brownstone, Indiana limestone, carborundum, etc., makes it a sightly stone for every type of structure and its durability insures the lowest possible maintenance cost.

We court investigation of the most searching kind, and are always pleased to go over the subject in greater detail with anyone interested in building for permanence, beauty and economy.

"McLaury for Tile"

We want to impress strongly upon the architect, the owner, the contractor, and the builder that we have an extremely large and varied stock of tile on hand for immediate delivery.

It is by maintaining, at all times, an efficient force of workmen, and by geting our material on hand ahead of schedule that we are enabled while still making a fair profit for ourselves, to quote such reasonable prices for our product.

During the year 1919 we have been asked to examine and insure 37 titles where the policy to be issued was over $1,000,000.

Two of them amounted to $9,000,000 or more, one to $7,000,000, three to $3,000,000 and six to $2,000,000 or more.

This shows the hold that title insurance has on real estate owners in New York City and it shows that they wish to do business with our Company.

In the meantime, we have had perhaps 35,000 smaller titles.

The large purchaser and the small purchaser alike agree that to secure title insurance is the only course when they buy real estate.

Practical Men to Avert World Chaos

Practical men of affairs greatly outnumber politicians and theorists in the list of names attached to the call for a world conference of representatives of commerce and finance to determine what action is advisable in the various countries for reviving and maintaining international commerce. Although the origin of the movement is not disclosed, it is evident from a perusal of the memorandum accompanying the call that it is American bred, probably in response to the world-wide request of distressed nations that this country take the lead in the readjustment of international credit and trade. The designation of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, rather than the government, as the body to appoint the delegates to the conference points to this conclusion. In all the other countries to participate in the conference the government is asked to make the appointments. Those who drew up the call quite evidently felt that as the bulk of credit or of loans must necessarily come from America and go to Europe it was essential that all loans or credits should be made on a strictly business rather than a political basis, and that all advances to borrowing countries were only to be made upon the best security available, that, of course, being a first mortgage on government revenues.

For these reasons the Chamber of Commerce, being most broadly representative of American business methods, is the natural body to choose the representatives at the conference of the chief leading nation, while men in sympathy with the governments of borrowing nations can most readily assist in formulating a program which will involve government support in their respective countries.

Next to the memorandum outlining some of the principles on which a basis may be had for rehabilitating the commercial intercourse of the world is the promptness with which the call was issued after the treaty with Germany had become effective, excepting for the participation of this country in the terms. The plan for a conference such as is now asked for must have long been contemplated and preparations for it made some time in advance of the issuance of the formal call. The tenor of the memorandum denotes this and the number of names and their great prominence in the countries represented could not have been obtained overnight. That some such movement was under way was undoubtedly widely known in financial and commercial circles and probably accounts for the apparent indifference among financiers and business men generally to the many proposals for the cure of the disorders in the business world and the palliatives for the reduction of the swelling known as the H. C. of L. They felt that no restricted measure, nor one drawn on philanthropic or altruistic lines, would avail. It must be comprehensive and business-like, such as probably will be promulgated by the proposed conference.

That the findings and recommendations of the conference will be noteworthy is assured by the character of the men initiating the movement, their high standing being indicated by the signatories from this city, who are: Cleveland H. Dodge, A. Barton Hepburn, Darwin P. Kingsley, Alfred E. Marling, J. P. Morgan, William Fellowes Morgan, Elihu Root, Charles H. Sabin, Jacob H. Schiff, Edwin R. A. Seligman, James A. Stillman, Frank A. Vanderlip and Paul M. Warburg.

Big Business, with its banking connections, is proverbially timid when politics are to the fore. Therefore the call awaited the putting into effect of the treaty. It has been held in abeyance until the political status of Europe was settled. Probably it would have been still further delayed if it was not substantially assured that this country will within a short time join with the Allies and Germany in a formal world peace.

The signatories of the call conclude the memorandum accompanying it with the following words: "The outlook is dark. We desire to reiterate our conviction as to the very grave urgency of these questions in point of time. Every month which passes will aggravate the problem and render its solution increasingly difficult. Critical days for Europe are now imminent and no time must be lost if catastrophes are to be averted."

This is the sane and matured judgment of the leading men in financial and business circles in America and Europe. A crisis in Europe would react disastrously on this country, however rich and prosperous it is. This is, then, another of the many forceful reasons why the Senate and the President, through satisfactory compromise, should act quickly and in accord to accept for this country participation in the treaty and the League of Nations.

Passing of the Old Landmarks

The remodelling of the Holland House into a high-class store and office structure, together with the steady progress on the work which is converting Sherry's for similar use, serve to bring again to public notice the growing number of famous hotels in Manhattan which have fallen victims to the shifting currents of trade and fashion and to the steady northward business expansion of the city.

Old-time New Yorkers have noted with keen regret the demolition of such popular hostelries as the Fifth Avenue Hotel, Gilsey House, Hoffman House, Albemarle, Victoria, the old Continental, Morton, Sinclair, St. Denis, Windsor, Bristol, Cambridge, Grand Union, Brunswick, the Astor House and the famous Fourth avenue coterie, including the Ashland House and the Everett, all of which fell before the advancing host of office and loft buildings within a comparatively brief period of time, most of them within the last decade. Now the Union Square Hotel alone remains as a solitary reminder of the former glory of these old-time residential, shopping and amusement neighborhoods where a generation ago swarmed the same kaleidoscopic traffic which has since shifted northward beyond Thirty-fourth street.

These famous old caravanseries have been superseded by the newer type of mammoth hotel structure exemplified in the Biltmore, the Commodore and the Pennsylvania, recording new high marks in the hotel development of New York City. Nevertheless, they have passed not so much because they were unable to cope with this kind of competitors as because of the ever-changing character of New York City neighborhoods. Authorities have claimed that the economic existence of the modern hotel does not exceed twenty years. Many of the biggest hotels in this city have long since passed this allotted span and still retain their old-time popularity despite the steady increase in the number of huge modern building embodying all the enterprise and ingenuity of the American hotel builder, with which they have had to compete. The older types of surviving hotels have been, with few exceptions, established in localities that have felt little or no effects of the northward expansion of business. Their longevity will be even more prolonged now that the wisdom of the Zoning Resolution has manifested itself.

The history of New York City's growth shows clearly enough that its hotels have been replaced by buildings of other types not so much because of physical deterioration which operated to reduce their financial usefulness to a limited span of years, but rather by the ever-variable trade movements creating new factors which have had to be considered in order that the maximum amount of revenue might be derived from the land.

The march of progress has steadily claimed its toll with the northward advance of business. But in the present established hotel, amusement and residential sections even the older types of hostelries have little to fear provided they keep in touch with the trend of the times as far as the operation, maintenance and equipment of their properties are concerned. The Zoning Resolution guarantees them immunity from depressing and oft-time ruinous changes in the character of their neighbors, changes which have brought with them the destruction of so many of our most beloved landmarks and the last remaining physical links which bound present-day New York with the New York of bygone generations.

In this issue the Record and Guide gives a digest of the bills affecting realty introduced in the Legislature of 1920, with the action of the Legislation and Taxation Committee of the Real Estate Board of New York in approval or disapproval of the measures. Installments of this digest, which will be found on Page 820, will form one of the regular weekly features of the Record and Guide as in former years, thus assuring to its readers accurate information respecting the attitude of the Real Estate Board towards pending bills, and supplementing the special telegraphic summary of legislation affecting realty which has in the last few years kept those interested in real estate in constant touch with the situation at Albany.

THE recent decision of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court sustaining the right of a landlord to remove tenants under the so-called "objectionable" clause in leases follows precedent. The most recent case, the Waitt Construction Company, landlord appellant, vs. Jeanne Loraine, tenant respondent, has caused much comment.

Justice Lehman's opinion reads in part: "The landlord has brought summary proceedings against his tenant on the ground that she holds over and continues in possession of the leased premises without the permission of the landlord after the expiration of her term. The petition alleges that on or about the 21st of April, 1919, the landlord entered into an agreement with the tenant whereby the tenant hired certain premises for the term of October 1, 1919, to September 20, 1920, and * * * that the term for which the premises were hired by said tenant has expired for the reason that paragraphs 14 and 23 of the above mentioned lease provide as follows:

"14th: In the event of the breach of any condition or covenant herein or if the landlord shall at any time deem objectionable or improper or undesirable the conduct of the tenant, or any occupant of the demised premises, the landlord at his option terminate this lease by giving the tenant a written notice of five days of an intention to terminate the same. In the event of such an election and the giving of such notice the term hereof and the right of possession of the tenant hereunder shall expire five days after the giving of such notice.

"23d: It is further agreed that that part of clause 14 which reads, 'Or if the landlord shall at any time deem objectionable or improper or undesirable the conduct of the tenant or any occupant of the demised premises the landlord at his option terminate this lease by giving the tenant a written notice of five days of an intention to terminate the same,' shall be interpreted to mean that the character of the tenancy is to be decided entirely by the landlord and that it shall not be necessary for the landlord to prove in what way the tenant's conduct shall have been objectionable or improper or undesirable, the same being entirely a matter to be decided by the landlord and upon the landlord's decision to be binding.

"When the case came up for trial the trial justice dismissed the complaint upon the pleadings holding that this particular clause in the lease gave no right to maintain summary proceedings."

This opinion led many landlords to conclude, after advice from attorneys who had read the opinion, and in some cases without such advice, that they could oust tenants on the mere statement that they were undesirable, without offering any proof of that fact.

For the purpose of clarifying the situation the following statement concerning the decision was made at the office of the Appellate Term:

"There seems to have been a wrong construction put upon the opinion of Justice Lehman in the case of Waitt Construction Company vs. Loraine. A careful reading of the opinion does not bear out the statement made in several of the publications that Justice Lehman holds that where a lease contains a clause to the effect that, if the landlord 'deems the tenant undesirable,' all he need do is to give the tenant a notice to vacate the premises. Nowhere in the opinion is any such law laid down, nor can any legitimate inference be drawn to that effect from anything contained therein. In order, however, to correct a widespread and erroneous construction of the opinion Justice Lehman has inserted in the opinion the specific statement that not only must the landlord allege in the petition that he deems the tenant 'undesirable,' but that he must also prove it."

Legislature Gets Flood of Bills Affecting Real Estate

Promises Are Made for Exemption of Mortgages from State Income Tax and for Investigation of and Control of Landlords and Tenants

Albany, January 16.

CRAMPED housing conditions and their effect upon the real estate market are reflected in the flood of bills introduced in the Legislature this week. Bills affecting real estate have been introduced in large number, something entirely new so early in the session and manifestly the result of a demand for an improvement of the conditions which now discourage extensive building or real estate investment.

Of primary importance among the bills is one favored by the New York City Real Estate Board exempting from the State income tax interest on mortgages on real property up to $40,000. The fundamental purpose of this bill is to encourage building and investment in realty in New York City especially. Without a law of this character, advocates of the measure pointed out, the task of interesting new capital in realty will become a burdensome task.

A second bill providing for a rent commission to investigate and determine complaints in New York City was introduced this week by Assemblyman Ullman. The bill provides for the appointment of a commission of five members to be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the senate. The commission among its other powers would be able to determine the reasonableness of rents charged by owners of dwellings.

Another exemption bill, introduced by Assemblyman (Mrs.) M. L. Smith, is an amendment to the tax law and exempts from the income tax interest upon mortgages upon real property upon which a dwelling house of permanent character is in course of construction, provided that interest upon mortgages on the same lot shall not be exempted from the income tax for more than two successive years.

Assemblyman Dimin introduced a bill providing that real estate in New York City improved for dwelling purposes within four years after the enactment of his bill shall not be subject to any increase in assessed valuation because of such improvement for four years.

Assemblyman McWhinney of Westchester introduced the same bill submitted in the Senate last week providing for the licensing of real estate brokers and salesmen. Another bill of this character was submitted by Senator Dodge providing for the licensing of real estate brokers in cities having a population of 200,000 or more. His bill gives the mayors of such cities the power to issue licenses.

Agreements for occupation of real estate in New York City which do not particularly specify the duration of occupancy shall be deemed to continue until May 1 next, after possession commences, under the terms of a bill introduced by Assemblyman McKee.

Assemblyman Ross has caused to be drafted a measure giving the municipal court of New York City discretionary power to stay the execution of a warrant for eviction for not more than 60 days instead of 20 days as at present upon the payment or deposit of rent at the old rate. His bill applies to houses, rooms or apartments occupied for dwelling purposes whether in a tenement house or not. Another bill of this character fixes the stay at 30 days.

An amendment to the real property law affecting recording of conveyances was introduced by Mr. Pette, providing that a conveyance shall not be recorded unless there is endorsed thereon the date, liber and page of the convyance of the immediate grantor.

Two amendments of the real property law introduced by Majority Leader Adler of the Assembly would permit any person during his life time to convey by grant in writing any real estate or personal property to a trustee or trustees of a corporation or society for the purpose of establishing a home for charity or an educational institution, a board of trade, chamber of commerce or other quasi-public organization.

The Davenport Taxation Committee, which for the past year has been investigating taxation, is expected to incorporate a recommendation bearing upon realty tax limitation in its report to the Legislature. This committee is scheduled to meet in New York City on January 29-30 at which time it is expected this matter will be discussed.

Real estate interests in New York City will be interested to learn that the up-State public service commission in its report to the Legislature recommended the enactment of legislation which would permit the commission to increase rates of fares on local trolley lines where it was apparent that operation under a five or six cent. rate resulted in a deficit. Upon a similar recommendation of this character last year the Carson-Martin bill was introduced, but before the merits of such legislation could be discussed a scandal precipitated by Senator George F. Thompson, who charged that he had knowledge that a fund of $500,000 had been raised to accellerate the passage of the measure, precluded the possibility of sane consideration of the measure. The investigation made of his charges disclosed that he could offer nothing more substantial than hearsay evidence.

The up-State public service commission declared that the public service commissions are to continue they must at least have power to take steps to prevent the destruction of the public utility corporations regulated by them.

In keeping with a recommendation made in Governor Smith's message to the Legislature, Assemblyman Slacer this week introduced a bill vesting in the public service commissions power to suspend increases in gas, electricity and telephone rates until the reasonableness of such rates is determined. At present a public utility corporation furnishing gas, electricity or telephone service may increase its rates upon a notice of 30 days and the public service commissions are without the power to reduce such rates until a decision after investigation is reached.

Governor Smith sent his budget to the Legislature this week. The important features of this budget are:

Requests for appropriations.....	$141,824,691
Total estimated revenues.....	103,109,484
Total estimated resources.....	122,973,037

The Legislature will endeavor to prune the requests for appropriations by State departments and institutions to something like $120,000,000 or a figure within the total estimated resources. The Governor's budget indicated that the total available cash balance on July 1 next will be $19,863,553, which added to total estimated revenue will give the total estimated resources.

Review and Forecast of the Real Estate Auction Market

Success of Big Sales in Last Year Indicate That the Coming Season Will Be Record Breaking

Prominent realty auctioneers have given the Record and Guide the following statements showing the past and future of the auction sales business:

J. CLARENCE DAVIES:

During the year 1918 the auction market for real estate had been almost entirely eliminated. The conditions were such that no one could tell how long the war would last or how much more the Government would have to borrow. For that reason it was felt by those people who had the good of the Government at heart and for patriotic motives that all the money available should be at the disposal of the Government. For that reason no auction sales were held and I did not think it was desirable or patriotic to put any property on auction during the year of 1918.

During the fall, however, a number of auction sales were held. In September the Stern Estate was put up on the Bronx and Pelham Parkway. And every lot was absolutely sold and taken title to at fair prices by the public. This was followed by the Claflin Estate, Sound Realty Company properties, the Van Cortlandt Estate, the Crimmins Estate and the Johnson Estate. The most notable and most successful of these sales was the Van Cortlandt Estate, of which there were about 150 lots on Broadway, opposite Van Cortlandt Park, between 242nd and 256th streets. At this sale every lot was absolutely sold at good prices, the total being $954,000. Both the public and the owners were well satisfied with the results.

As the auction season drew to a close in November, the results were not so satisfactory—after some of the property disposed of at prices far below the expectations of the owners, and, in fact, cheaper than they had been sold for many years before at private sale. This was to be expected, as such a large amount of lots had been attempted to be marketed at a fair price.

The fundamental conditions in real estate today are absolutely sound. Since 1907 real estate had been absolutely dead—so far as the improvement in values was concerned. In 1914 the war started. From that time on there was little, if any, building; from 1917, when we entered the war, to 1919, practically none at all. The result was, at the end of the war, that the city was five years under-built and the demand greatly exceeded the supply, which is the condition today. In the meantime, the value of every commodity has increased from 100 per cent. to 300 per cent. And this includes everything that is necessary in the erection of a building, so that at the present time it is a fair statement to make that a building today costs 30 per cent. to 40 per cent. more than it would have cost five years ago.

Vacant property can be built upon even at the higher cost of building and made a good investment at the higher cost of building material. It naturally follows that the land should be worth just so much more in proportion. Vacant land is generally the last thing to feel the effect of a rise in the prices of commodities. Vacant land can be bought cheaper today in many case than it could twelve years ago, in 1907. Vacant land must rise—and will rise—for the next two or three years in the same proportion as all other commodities. And in my opinion this field offers a splendid opportunity for speculation and for investment today.

The inherent conditions are sound. Lots are at the bottom. It is but common sense that they should rise in the same proportion that everything else has risen.

HENRY BRADY:

The results obtained from property sold at public auction are always indicative of the condition of the real estate market. Since 1907 there were daily offerings of properties under foreclosure and ninety-nine out of one hundred of them were purchased by the plaintiff. In the latter part of 1918 here and there a purchaser other than the plaintiff was the successful bidder and as the months passed, outside buyers became very numerous until towards the end of 1919 it was unusual if there was not competitive bidding on every piece offered.

Just now there are very few properties being offered at foreclosure sales. When the market is such that real estate cannot be sold privately, there is very little chance of it being sold publicly. For the past four or five years executors, trustees and individuals have refrained from offering their property for sale at public auction, which would lead one to believe that the year 1920 will be a banner year for the auction room, as they will now rush to dispose of this property at public auction, which is the first real opportunity they have had in a great many years. Six thousand vacant lots were disposed of at public auction within the past year, which is a wonderful record considering that even today there is not a market for vacant land at private sale.

The real estate auctioneers gauged the buying power very skillfully and only offered a sufficient number of lots that the public could absorb and then stopped, as there were signs of the buying power being exhausted.

It is strange that vacant property cannot be satisfactorily sold at private sale in this market, but let it be properly advertised and thousands of lots can be sold at public auction. My only solution of this is that people are attracted by the advertisements whom a broker trying to negotiate a private sale would never dream of soliciting.

I look forward to a very successful year in the auction room and feel that there will be a great deal of improved property successfully sold.

I. LINCOLN SEIDE:

This active market is largely due to the extraordinary demand for dwellings and the anticipation of the great building movement which will, no doubt, commence in the early spring.

As evidence of this fact, we need only drive along the Concourse where we observe numerous apartment houses now in the course of construction, which is, undoubtedly, due to the great transit facilities afforded by the operation of the new Jerome Avenue line. By way of comparison, lots recently purchased at auction at the Claflin, Bennett, Van Cortlandt and Stern sales will, undoubtedly, be improved in the near future as the transit facilities and the present rental market warrant it.

The outlook for 1920 is exceptionally bright and especially so for unimproved property. We have scheduled for the early spring, several large lot sales and without desiring to appear too optimistic, we wish to state that we look forward to phenomenal success in disposing of these developments. As we have above referred to the large auction sales of lots conducted during the past few months, we wish to call attention to the fact that although some of the prices paid for the lots were at the time considered high, the purchasers in several instances received very substantial profits. It is therefore expected that the voluntary auction market for the coming year will attract some of the old time operators and builders, many of whom have been inactive in recent years but who have again been attracted by the newly created rental values and the prices paid by investors for modern apartment dwellings in desirable sections of both Manhattan and the Bronx.

In conclusion we would say that the opportunities offered during the coming spring, summer and early fall seasons should attract the attention of some of the old estates which own land in any of the five boroughs to advantageously dispose of their holdings.

Review of Real Estate Market for the Current Week

Mid-Town Business Buildings Are Features of Strong Buying Movement Controlled by Both Investors and Operators

BUSINESS was well distributed this week, the demand being even more variable than in previous weeks. Both investors and speculators vied with each other in acquiring desirable income producing properties. The outstanding feature of the week's trading, however, was the buying of mid-town office and loft buildings.

Some of Manhattan's most noted business structures passed into new ownership, among them the Marbridge Building, held at $5,000,000, which was bought by an investor from the trustees of the Martin Estate, which has been disposing of its large holdings in the immediate neighborhood. Investment interest also acquired the Century Building on the same block, at 1 West Thirty-fourth street, and the Mecca Building, at Broadway and Forty-eighth street. Speculative interest continued to center principally upon apartment house properties, although Daniel H. Jackson acquired the Craftsman Building at 5-7 East Thirty-eighth street, and Robert E. Simon added to his holdings in the Pennsylvania station zone by acquiring the Herald Square Hotel.

It is interesting to note that despite the season of the year builders are interested in the acquisition of desirable construction sites, several transactions of this nature being closed which indicate the beginning of important structural operations in the spring.

The leasing market continued to be limited, a situation easily explained by the prevailing scarcity of space of all kinds in practically all parts of the city. The largest individual lease of the week and one which may take a leading position in the business of the year, involved a total of $8,000,000 which the Travelers Insurance Company will pay for a 16-story John street structure under the terms of a long term lease. The transaction further strengthened the insurance district in the vicinity of William street from John to Fulton street.

PRIVATE REALTY SALES.

THE total number of sales reported but not recorded in Manhattan this week was 139, as against 12[illegible] last week and 35 a year ago.

The number of sales south of 59th street was 63, as compared with 56 last week and 14 a year ago.

The number of sales north of 59th street was 66, as compared with 69 last week and 21 a year ago.

From the Bronx 55 sales at private contract were reported, as against 52 last week and 18 a year ago.

Statistical tables, indicating the number of recorded instruments, will be found on page 84 of this issue.

Marbridge Building Sold.

Morton Stein, attorney, has purchased the Marbridge Building, at the northeast corner of Broadway and 34th street, and occupying all of the block front in Herald Square North to 35th street except the immediate corner. The property is improved with an eleven-story structure, erected in 1906 by the late W. H. R. Martin, president of the Rogers Peet Company.

The site has a frontage of 178.8 feet in Broadway, 150 feet in 34th street and 92 feet in 35th street. The 35th street corner has been owned for many years by the McAleenan estate. When the property was assembled by Mr. Martin a large price was offered for the corner, but Mr. McAleenan said that he would not sell unless he could obtain an equally good corner for his business. The Marbridge Building is reported to yield an annual rental of $440,000. It carries a first mortgage of $3,750,000, held by the New York Life Insurance Company. It is assessed at $4,400,000. The holding price was $5,000,000. The trustees of the Martin estate, Alfred E. Marling, Robert Thorne and George Leask, recently sold the Martinque Hotel property, at Broadway and 32d street, and also the Martin Building, at Broadway and 31st street.

Jackson Buys Craftsman Building.

Daniel H. Jackson has bought from the Cram Corporation, J. Sergeant Cram, president, the Craftsman Building, at 5-7 East 38th street, and running through and including 6-8 East 39th street, a twelve-story mercantile structure, on plot 37.6x198. The site was formerly covered by the residence of J. Sergeant Cram. The present building was erected by the John Hopper Construction Co. in 1914. It has among its tenants Underwood & Underwood, Globe-Wernicke Co., Aldrich Publishing Co., F. W. Seybel & Co., Jones & Brindisi, E. F. Hodgson Co., Federal Magazine Co. and other prominent concerns. The property was held at about $1,000,000. The firms of Horace S. Ely & Co. and James Boyd were the brokers in the transaction.

Sale of Century Building.

The Century Building, at 1 West 34th street, which occupies part of the site of the A. T. Stewart mansion, has been sold for about $1,000,000 by the Equitable Trust Company, as trustee, to a client of Stroock & Stroock, said to be a clothing manufacturer in the Fifth avenue section. The Century Building was erected fifteen years ago by the late William H. Chesebrough, as president of the Century Realty Company. It occupies a plot 50x111, opposite the Waldorf-Astoria. It adjoins on the east the Columbia Trust Building, upon which ten additonal stories are about to be erected, and on the west by the store of McCreery & Co.

B. H. Schupp in Big Deal.

One of the recent realty transactions running into the millions bring prominently to public attention, Baldwin H. Schupp, president of H. L. Moxley & Co. Mr. Schupp negotiated the sale of the sixteen-story modern fireproof office building, 320-24 Broadway, northeast corner of Pearl street, known as the Central Syndicate Building, in which the Citizens' National Bank occupies the ground floor and basements, to the Morgenstern Brothers Syndicate. The deal involved the renewal of the lease with the bank for a long term at a considerable incerase in rent.

The property was held by the owners at $2,-

B. H. SCHUPP.

500,000. The building was built by the Central Syndicate Building Co. in 1896, in order to provide a permanent home for the bank. It houses many important firms in the drygoods and professional line, as well as the Arkwright Club.

Mr. Schupp started his real estate career in the office of John T. Williams, architect and builder, who built and sold many office and loft buildings in the latter part of the last century.

H. L. Moxley was Mr. Williams' business manager, and in 1898 Mr. Moxley and Mr. Schupp embarked in the real estate business, making a specialty of sale management and leasing of business properties.

In 1918, upon Mr. Moxley's retirement from business, Mr. Schupp became the president of H. L. Moxley & Co. In addition to the many properties managed by the concern in New York City, they manage the large and finest office building in Rochester, N. Y., known as the Insurance Building, for the Great American Insurance Co. H. L. Moxley & Co. have been identified with many important sales and leases and number among their clients many prominent and influential corporations and individuals.

Vanderbilt Sale Rumored.

No additonal information has became available regarding the reported sale of the Cornelius Vanderbilt mansion at 57th street and Fifth avenue, which has an assessed valuation of $3,725,000, by Mrs. Alice G. Vanderbilt to a syndicate, which plans to erect a twenty-one-story hotel on the site. Before disposing of the property, however, Mrs. Vanderbilt, to whom her husband's will bequeathed a life interest in the estate, will have to procure a Supreme Court order legalizing the sale. The disposal of the Vanderbilt property, which is a foregone conclusion either now or in the very near future, owing to trade encroachments and increases in taxes, will remove one of the best-known modern landmarks in the city and destroy one of the finest examples of French architecture in America. The structure, which was completed in 1893 from plans by George B. Post & Sons, cost about $3,000,000. The original Vanderbilt house, built in the eighties on 57th street, was rebuilt and made about three times as large in 1891, but it was not until about 1893 that the work was finally completed, owing to the great amount of time spent on details.

"United" Dinner Next Saturday.

Governor Alfred E. Smith will be the principal guest of honor and speaker at the annual dinner of the United Real Estate Owners' Association to be held in the ball room of the Hotel Astor on Saturday evening, January 24. Arangements have been completed for the entertainment of at least 1,000 guests. Many phases of both national and local industrial and civic problems will be discused by prominent speakers. Special attention is also expected to center upon the Hill bill introduced in Congress which seeks to create a Federal Urban Mortgage Bank.

New Branch for Title Company.

In order to provide facilities for its ever increasing Westchester County business and for the convenience of its clients in the lower end of the county, the New York Title and Mortgage Company has opened a branch office at 3 South Third avenue, Mount Vernon, N. Y.

Bid for Women's Hotel.

The Hotel Martha Washington, at 27 to 31 East 29th stret, through to 30 East 30th street, is about to figure in the first change of ownership since its erection, nearly twenty years age. Pease & Elliman announced that they had made an offer of $800,000 to the Woman's Hotel Company, Arthur Coppell, president, on behalf of an investing client, and that the offer had been accepted by the directors, subject to approval by stockholders at a meeting called for January 26.

The property is under lease until February, 1927, to the Northern Hotel Company, which has operated it for many years as an exclusive women's hotel. The new owner is said to be a well-known investor, who wil take the property subject to the existing lease.

Join Bulkley & Horton Co.

J. T. Burrill, who for the past 20 years has been connected with Burrill Bros., of the park slope section, has joined the selling organization of Bukley & Morton Co., and will make his headquarters at their Bay Ridge office, 7520 3d avenue.

Robert P. Liptrott, well-known Flatbush broker, has also associted himself with the firm of Bulkley & Horton Co., making his headquarters at 1214 Flatbush avenue.

Drive Corner for Builders.

The plot at the south corner of Riverside drive and 105th street, bought several years ago by William Randolph Hearst as a site for his residence, has been purchased by Paterno Bros., and is to be improved with a thirteen or fourteen-story apartment house. The plot was held at $200,000 and the entire operation is expected in involve about $850,000. The buyers plan to have the house ready for occupancy next October. It will have four suites on a floor of four, five and six rooms. Earle & Calhoun and Huberth & Huberth were the brokers in the deal. The Hearst property fronts 80 feet on Riverside drive and 100 feet on 105th street, and is one of the most attractive corners in that vicinity. Title to it is held in the name of the Randolph Realty Company, a holding company for Mr. Hearst.

R. E. Simon Buys Hotel.

Robert E. Simon has completed negotiations for the purchase of the Herald Square Hotel property at 114 to 120 West 34th street, comprising a twelve-story building, 80x100, and an eight-story building, 25x100. Dudley Olcott and other members of the family of the late S. P. Olcott, former president of the Central Trust Company, are the sellers. Possession of the property, which is in the busy Herald square section, opposite Macy's and west of Broadway, is to be obtained within six months. The transaction was negotiated by E. Bass and J. L. Phillips & Co.

Presbyterian Hospital Sells.

Trustees of the Presbyterian Hospital have sold, through Wm. A. White & Sons and the Brown, Wheelock Company, the block square bounded by Avenue A, 67th, 68th and Exterior streets, comprising about forty-two lots. The property was given in 1909 to the hospital by John S. Kennedy, and it was expected at that time that the institution would erect a structure on the site and move from Madison avenue and 70th street. The three blocks to the south, 64th to 68th street, are owned by the Rockefeller Institute, and it is rumored that interests identified with the latter institution are the buyers.

Big Sixth Avenue Deal.

Dwight, Archibald & Perry (Inc.), sold for Vincent Astor to a syndicate represented by Louis and Harry Kovner, the entire block front on the east side of Sixth avenue, between 25th and 26th street, known as 414 to 430 Sixth avenue and including 53-57 West 25th street and 52-64 West 26th street. This plot is 200 feet on Sixth avenue, 125 feet on 25th street and 127.3 feet on 26th street. The entire property was held at $1,000,000, and has been owned by the Astor family for generations. The purchasers contemplate extensive alterations to meet the present demand for space along this part of Sixth avenue.

Chicagoans Buy Rector's.

The Mecca Building, better known as Rector's, at Broadway, Seventh avenue and 48th street, has been sold by the Juillard estate, which owned it in fee, to Samuel and Abraham J. Cooper, who control five cafeterias in Chicago. The structure and leasehold brought about $700,000 and rental for ninety years will abount to about $9,225,000. The structure, which is to be remodeled, is ten stories high, fronts 114 feet on Broadway, 105 feet on 48th street, and 113 feet on Seventh avenue. It was erected by the Studebaker Automobile Company. Mark Levy and H. B. Nevins, Inc., were the brokers.

$1,000,000 Home for Hospital.

The Hospital for Deformities and Joint Diseases purchased the following properties adjoining their present holdings, and on the entire plot will construct an eight-story hospital at a cost of $1,000,000: from Dr. A. A. Himwich, 1913 Madison av, a four-story dwelling; Annie Marks, 1925 Madison avenue, a four-story dwelling; Luella Duysters, 1927 Madison avenue, a four-story dwelling, and from Florence Blasdell, 48 East 124th street, a three-story dwelling. Benjamin Bernstein was the broker in all the transactions.

Dey Street Resale.

The Broadway-John Street Corporation, Elias A. Cohen president, has resold to the Seitz Realty Co., through Rice & Hill, the vacant plot at 5 and 7 Dey street, 52x99, located 100 feet west of Broadway, and comprising the old site of the "Globe." The buyers will begin the erection, as soon as plans can be completed, of a twelve-story office building. This completes the resale of two properties at this point recently acquired by Mr. Cohen from the Searles family, the other involving the sale of 187 Broadway to Hanan & Sons, shoe dealers. The property just sold is opposite the American Telegraph and Telephone Co. skyscraper.

The site was later resold to the T. A. Gillespie Company, Thomas H. Gillespie, president, contracting engineers, now in the Hudson Terminal Building. The new owners plan to erect on the property a twelve-story building, in which they will occupy large space. This sale was arranged by the Brown, Wheelock Company.

South Church Site Resold.

S. Osgood Pell & Co. have sold the southeast corner of 38th street and Madison avenue which Mr. Heckscher purchased in 1917 from the Reformed Dutch Church. The property measures 98.9 on Madison avenue by 125 on 38th street. There is an interesting history connected with this valuable plot. Some years ago, when the South Church first decided to sell, a sale was entered into with the consent of the Supreme Court to Mandelbaum & Mandelbaum, but the deal was never consummated. Some time later it was sold to Bing & Bing with the understanding that the Church would deliver the property free from restriction against an apartment house, but this the Church was unable to do. After this deal fell through, the Church began litigation to break the Murray Hill restriction, so that a multi-family structure could be erected. A short time later it was purchased by Mr. Heckscher. As a result of this and subsequent litigation, the plot has recently been made available for the purpose of an exclusive apartment hotel. Title to the property is eventually to be taken by a corporation formed for the purpose. It is reported that the sale price was in the neighborhood of $700,000 and that already negotiations are under way for a resale.

Alwyn Court Resold.

The Grennell Co., which acquired last Saturday the Alwyn Court apartments at the southeast corner of 7th avenue and 58th street, has resold the property to the Winter Realties Co., Benjamin Winter, president. The building is twelve stories high, on a plot 125x100, and was erected about twelve years ago by the Hedden Constr. Co. from plans by Harde & Hhort. It contains two apartments of fourteen rooms and five baths on a floor. The selling company bought the property from the Orean Company, Inc., Frank Hughes, president. Elgar & Feinberg negotiated both transactions.

Brown Resells 36th Street Loft.

Frederick Brown resold to an investing client of Leitner, Brener & Leitner, Inc., the twelve-story fireproof loft building, 50x98.8, at 63 West 36th street, near 6th avenue, valued at $450,000. The structure has 100 per cent. sprinkler system, and rents for $44,500. It was acquired by Mr. Brown last November from the 63 West Thirty sixth Street Co., Benjamin Mordecai, president.

Allerton Hotel for Women.

Allerton House Co., J. S. Cushman, president, purchased from Robert E. Simon and others a plot containing about 9,000 square feet of land at 690 to 694 Lexington avenue, southwest corner of 57th street, through William B. May & Co. The company will erect on the site a seventeen-story hotel for women, from plans by A. L. Harmon, architect. The building will contain about 700 rooms and be along the same lines as the Allerton House for Men, at 143 East 39th street. The same company is now building a similar building at the northeast corner of Madison avenue and 55th street.

Deal in Cotton District.

Wright Barclay, Inc., sold for Dr. Harold Barclay, et al, to Cristel & Cristel, 321-23 Broadway, two old buildings with store, on plot 50x100. This property has been in the Barclay family for over three hundred years and in the Barclay name for over two hundred years, and was held at $250,000. The buildings now erected on the property were originally old private dwellings and about eighty-five years ago were altered into lofts and stores. The two stores have been occupied for the last twenty-three years by John J. Dowd's famous restaurant, well known to the merchants of this section. Plans are now being prepared by George & Edward Blum for a modern six-story store and loft building which will be ready for occupancy about May 1, 1920. It is the intention of the purchasers to make this building a textile building, especially adapted to the requirements of the cotton trade. For a long time it was intimated that the cotton business, which for many years has been located in this section, would move uptown, but this rumor was dispelled in January, 1919, when, after the reorganization of the H. B. Claflin Co, the Claflin Co. purchased the property in Church and Thomas streets, which for many years they had under lease. This now gives Claflin Co. the entire block front bounded by Thomas and Worth streets, West Broadway and Church street. The next block further east bounded by Thomas and Worth streets, Church and Broadway, in which the property just sold is located, is entirely tenanted at the present time by cotton firms, many of which are making extensive alterations to the property, assuring the permancy of the cotton business in this section, which is now known as the "Cotton Bale." Some of the well known firms established in this block and in the immediate vicinity are: Converse & Co., M. C. D. Borden Sons, A. D. Juillard & Co., Willington Sears & Co., Emery Brown Co., J. Spencer Turner, James F. White & Co., Campbell Co., Minot Hooper Co., Amoskeag Mrf Co., Clarence C. Collins & Co., William Iselin & Co. and others. Wright Barclay, Inc., report that negotiations are well under way with well known cotton firms for the leasing of the stores and some of the upper parts of the proposed building.

Sell Burr Printing House.

The Charles F. Noyes Co. has sold to George H. Chatillon, represented by William H. Klenke, the Burr Printing House property, taking in the entire block on Frankfort street, from Jacob to Cliff streets; also the six-story building adjoining at 14 Jacob street. The Chatillon interests are the owners of four adjoining buildings and through this purchase now own a plot of 25,000 square feet, with frontages of 153 feet on Cliff street, 159 feet on Frankfort street and 146 feet on Jacob street. This, the brokers state, is the largest block front south of the Brooklyn Bridge held under one ownership. Fraser, Spier & Meyer were the attorneys for the estate selling the Burr Printing House plot, which in itself contained about 15,000 square feet. It is considered likely that the new owners will reimprove the plot when leases on the existing buildings expire. Laurence McGuire represented the sellers in the transaction and attended to the financial arangement.

Sells Teviot and Tinturn.

Harry K. Savage, of Slawson & Hobbs, sold for the John Alden Realty Corpn., the property known as the Teviot and the Tinturn, at 2465 to 2471 Broadway, between 91st and 92d streets, two seven-story elevator apartments having a frontage of 101 feet on Broadway, and the southerly house having a depth of 150 feet and the northerly house 100 feet. The property was held at $450,000.

Estate Sells on Broadway.

L. Tanenbaum, Strauss & Co. sold for Ranald H. MacDonald, as executor of the estate of Josephine MacDonald, the eleven-story basement and sub-basement building, 718-720 Broadway, on a plot in size 50x137. This building was built by Mr. MacDonald in 1906, and is one of the best buildings of its type in the district. The purchaser is a syndicate headed by F. L. Reis.

Apartment Investment Purchase.

Douglas L. Elliman & Co., in conjunction with M. H. Gaillard, sold the nine-story apartment house at 152 West 58th street, for the Marcaro Corpn., Laurence McGuire, president, on a plot 60x100. It has been held at $425,000, and the rents are over $50,000. The purchasers are Irving Judas and Joseph Silverson, who have bought the property for investment.

Big Cloak and Suit Project.

H. M. Weill Company sold for William Nelson 213 West 35th street, a six-story warehouse, 24x100; also, for the Lindemann estate, the adjoining three tenements, 66x100, making a total plot of 90x100. The buyer is a large cloak and suit concern, which will erect a sixteen-story loft building. Plans are now being prepared. This property adjoins a contempated new sixteen-story building which is to be erected on a plot 100x88, controlled by Pennsylvania interests.

Hotel Warrington Sold.

Albert B. Ashforth, Inc., sold for Herman Woog to the Holworthy Chambers Corporation, Frederick L. Lavanburg president, the Hotel Warrington, a twelve-story fireproof structure at 161 and 163 Madison avenue, with an "L" to 28 East 33d street. The avenue property measures 49.4x100 and the 3dd street property 16.9x98.9.

Complete Big Warehouse Site.

M. & L. Hess, Inc., sold for the Community West Houston Street Garage, Inc., the plot 585-589 Greenwich street, 300 West Houston street, northeast corner of West Houston street and Greenwich street, of the dimensions 78.5x113, to the Three Ninety-five Hudson Street Corporation. This sale was for all cash and completes the purchase by the Three Ninety-five Hudson Street Corporation of the entire block bounded by Greenwich, Hudson, West Houston and Clarkson streets, acquired through the same broker. The buyers are affiliated with the Western Electric Co. and the New York Telephone Co., and the entire plot will be improved with an eight-story and basement building for the use and occupancy of these two corporations for warehouse and general offices. Improvement of the land and building will involve close to $3,000,000.

Buyer for Graphic Building.

I. Randolph and Everett Jacobs have sold the eight-story fireproof Graphic Building, at 80-82 4th avenue, size 50x92, to Arthur Greenbaum. The gross rental is $36,000 and the holding price was $250,000. Harry B. Cutner was the broker.

Firm Plans Addition.

Wm. A. White & Sons hae sold for James M. Brennan to the Powers-Weightman Rosengarten Co. 27-31 Depeyster street, on a plot of approximately 60.3x50.3. The property immediately adjoins the present building of the purchaser and it is their purpose to erect an addition to their building on the newly acquired site.

Sale in "Street Beautiful."

Lawrence Blake & Jewell sold for the Samoth Realty Co. 132 East 19th street, a seven-story apartment house on a plot 30x104 feet. The building has three apartments on each floor, one of the unusual features being that one of the apartments has a studio thirty feet wide. This block is known as the "Street Beautiful" because of the many attractive houses erected and altered on it in the past five years. The building was erected by Ronald H. MacDonald about eight years ago and brings in an annual rental of nearly $23,000 a year. L. Rodney Berg represented the sellers.

Hebrew Home Replaces Library.

The old Astor Library Building, at 423 to 439 Lafayette street, near Astor place, has been purchased as a home for the Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society. It is on a site fronting 220.1 feet and having a depth of about 100 feet. Land and building cost the society $325,000, and it is said that $75,000 will be spent upon alterations to the building. For several months the Seventy-seventh Division veterans used the building as a clubhouse, but recently moved to 27 West 25th street. The site was buoght for $25,000 in 1848, when construction of the library was begun. John Jacob Astor left $430,000 to the city to found the library. In 1911 the books were moved to the present library, at 5th avenue and 42d street.

Attorney Buys Hotel.

Walter T. Stern, of the law firm of Coleman, Stern & Ellenwood, purchased as an investment the nine-story hotel, on plot 50x100, at 420 West 116th street, between Amsterdam and Morningside avenues. The house contains 144 rooms and 70 baths, and its sale includes the full equipment and furnture. The property, which has a dining room seating 150 persons, now is being operated as a hotel by the sellers, the 420 West 116th Street Corporation.

The sale was negotiated by Thomas J. O'Reilly on an asking price of $300,000.

"Staats-Zeitung" Building Sold.

Wm. H. Whiting & Co. sold for the "New Yorker Staats-Zeitung" to Schmoll, Fils & Co., leather and hide merchants, its property on the northeast corner of William and Spruce streets, a six-story fireproof buildng, known as 182 William street. The property has a frontage of 23.6 on William street, widening in the rear to 48.4. The Spruce street front is 93.9. The late Herman Ridder acquired this parcel in 1907 and extensively remodeled the building to accommodate the needs of the "Staats-Zeitung," which shortly prior to that time had disposed of its old home, immediately north of the Brooklyn Bridge, to the city as part of the site of the new Municipal Building. The building is to be remodeled into an office structure, after which the new owners will occupy several floors as their executive offices and the remaining space wil be offered for rent. Wm. H. Whiting & Co. have been appointed agents for the property.

Plan Marble Hill Homes.

A. N. Gitterman has sold for the Cathedral Parkway Co. thirty lots at the corner of West 225th street and Adrian avenue, purchased some time ago from the Famous Players Film Co. after the enactment of the zoning law prohibited the carrying out of their studio plans on Marble Hill. The new owner is the Marble Hill Development Corporation, which has had plans prepared for the improvement of the site with twenty-eight semi-detached six-room stucco houses, which with a garage placed on a 25x100 foot lot will be sold for $10,000. The entire plot is assessed for tax purposes at $112,500, a trifle under $4,000 a lot, and was held at $120,000.

$900,000 Block for Bing & Bing.

The two-sotry taxpayers, comprising the block front on the east side of Broadway, between 82d and 83d streets, one of the few available sites for reimprovement in this section, have been sold to Bing & Bing by the Franklin Building Co., Lewis Cass Ledyard president, which had been holding the property at $900,000. F. A. Wyckoff, of the Wood-Dolson Co., negotiated the sale, which was for cash. The property comprises about twelve lots and fronts 200 feet on Broadway and 142 feet on each street. The leases all expire next May. The site was assembled by the late N. A. Higgins and has not been sold since 1871. The opposite northeast corner of Broadway and 83d street was purchased by Marcus Loew recently for a theatre.

Apartment building at 3 East 85th Street, New York. Fullerton & Weaver Realty Co., Owners. Equipped with a Kewanee Smokeless Firebox Boiler and Kewanee Water Heating Garbage Burner.

If you are a hard coal user, you will remember that there never was a year when you did not have some kind of trouble or annoyance connected with the supply, price or delivery of hard coal.

KEWANEE

will take these troubles out of your life forever, for they are designed and built to burn soft coal only, to burn it smokelessly, to get more heat out of it than can be got from hard coal, and finally to get 22% more heat out of the fuel than can be got by ordinary boilers.

Look into KEWANEE—now—and let us give you a list of responsible engineers, owners, architects, builders, etc., who swear by KEWANEE and have learnt to appreciate its full value. Where may we send our book, "Cutting Coal Costs in New York City"?

RECENT LEASES.

$8,000,000 Insurance Lease.

Charles F. Noyes Company has negotiated probably the largest lease ever handled in the insurance district, and one of the largest downtown leases ever negotiated. At an aggregate rental of $8,000,000, including taxes, ground rent and operation, the Noyes Company has leased for the Underwriters Building Company the sixteen-story Hilliard Building at 51-57 John street, the northeast corner of Dutch street, the Commercial Union addition 4-6 Dutch street, and the adjoining plot at 8-10 Dutch street to the Travelers Insurance Company for twenty-one years. The lease is made subject to all existing leases in the building, many of which have a number of years to run. The buildings leased cover a plot with frontages of 180 feet on Dutch street and 81 feet on John street. Eventually the Travelers will remove from 76 William street, their present location, and occupy the premises just secured. This is the second largest lease made by the Noyes Company during the past few weeks in the same general district, the other lease being the $3,000,000 Aetna lease for five floors and one-half of the corner floor of the Woodbridge Building, one block east at John and William streets. Mr. Noyes in discussing these two transactions stated that it was his opinion that these two leases will center the heart of the insurance district for all time in the vicinity of William street, from John to Fulton, and that already negotiations are pending by insurance companies for the securing of premises on William street, and one active deal is under negotiation.

Builder Leases West Side Block.

William A. White & Sons and John R. and Oscar L. Foley leased for Henry A. C. Taylor to Thomas L. Cunningham the "Newport," a six-story elevator apartment building, on the south side of 52d street, from Broadway to Seventh avenue. The property fronts 170.11 feet on the street and 40.5 feet on Broadway and Seventh avenue. The term of the lease is for twenty-one years at a rental of more than $800,000. Mr. Cunningham is president of Cunningham & Foley, Inc., building contractors, who have done a great deal of alteration work in the immediate neighborhood.

Candy Shop Expands.

Mary Elizabeth, whose candy shop and tea room is at the northwest corner of Fifth avenue and 36th street, has found it essential that she should have more room to take care of her rapidly expanding business, and she has therefore leased through Manning & Trunk from Proctor & Co. about 10,000 square feet in 3-5 West 36th street, which adjoin her present quarters. It is planned to connect all this space up with the Fifth avenue shop and to have it ready for occupancy about the first of March. The lease, which is for a term of fifteen years, calls for the payment by Mary Elizabeth of some $200,000 in rent.

Schulte Co. in Lease.

Henry Shapiro & Co. have leased for the Schulte Cigar Stores Co. to the 218-20 West 34th Street Corporation to two five-story buildings, on lot 33.1½x98.9, at 218-20 West 34th street, for a term of twenty-one years, at an aggregate rental of $200,000. This property adjoins the altered buildings recently leased to the C. & C. Lunch Co. for a long term. The buildings will be extensively altered into stores and show rooms. Henry Shapiro & Co. have been appointed renting agents.

Harlem Industrial Development.

Shaw & Co. have leased for the estate of Henry A. Cram the entire block between the east side of Fifth avenue and the west side of Madison avenue, from 136th to 137th street, the frontage being 200 feet on each avenue and 385 feet on the streets, making a ground space of 77,000 square feet. The property has been known for some years past as the Olympic Ball Fields. The lease is for a long term, the rental involving over one million dollars. The tenant is Theodore Klein, a builder, who will improve the property with buildings for industrial purposes.

AMES & CO. leased for the estate of Willmarth A. Robinson to Isaac Goldberg the three buildings 446-48-50 7th av; also leased in conjunction with J. W. Cushman & Co. the two 4-sty buildings at 208-10 West 27th st.

BRETT & GOODE CO. leased the 4th floor in the Art Color Bldg, 209-19 West 38th st, to the Anchor Press and the Premium Press, at a rental of about $125,000; also in 536 5th av the front half of the 3d floor to Kosiner, Inc., and space on the 3d floor at 211-15 Centre st to the Mutual Talking Machine Co.

CUSHMAN & WAKEFIELD, INC., leased for the Commerce Chamber offices at 48 East 41st st to John H. Van Deventer, and for the Brunswick Realty Co. executive offices in the Commercial Engineers' Building, at 35 West 39th st, to J. Jacques Wolfe.

CHARLES F. NOYES CO. leased for William Cruikshank's Sons the building 14 Fulton st to Charles De Bedts; a floor at 11 Lispenard st to Maisel & Hochberg, and a floor at 45 Lafayette st, for Herman P. Suerken to the Consolidated Ribbon & Carbon Co.

PEASE & ELLIMAN leased furnished for Maitland Dwight of Washington to S. Sloan Colt an apartment in 122 East 76th st, and for W. J. Zimmerman to Edward S. Nauberg an apartment furnished in 9 West 68th st; also for Jane Everett to "Homer," a dressmaker, the parlor floor in 7 East 55th st.

GEO. R. READ & CO. rented for E. H. Ludlow & Co. the entire 5th floor at 82-84 Broad st to Mecke & Co.

WM. A. WHITE & SONS leased at 56-58 Pine st offices to John E. McTernan and J. Myron Murphy; at 28-30 East 12th st, space to Frank Finkelstein; at 161-163 West 125th st, additional space to the Mutual Life Insurance Co.; also at 71 Washington pl, an apartment to Raymond M. Hood.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE

LAWYERS MORTGAGE COMPANY

RICHARD M. HURD, President

JANUARY 1, 1920

Guaranteed Mortgages have come through the World War with the best record of any security, not a dollar having been lost by their holders. The reason for this is threefold: First, the wide margin of safety in the real estate mortgaged; second, the strength of the guarantee, and third, the fact that mortgages are short-time investments. The sales of guaranteed mortgages for the year 1919, including extensions, amount to $41,676,849, and the total Guaranteed Mortgages outstanding now amount to $141,297,960.

The Assets and Liabilities of the Company have been verified and the Company's accounts certified as to December 31, 1919, by The Audit Company of New York.

The Outstanding Guaranteed Mortgages of the Company are divided among the customers of the Company as follows:

53	Savings Banks	$16,042,362
1,571	Trustees	33,033,517
5,027	Individuals	66,709,430

LEGISLATIVE BILLS AFFECTING REALTY

Measures Introduced at Albany Approved or Disapproved by Real Estate Board of New York

THE Legislation and Taxation Committee of the Real Estate Board of New York, at its meeting held January 14, 1920, took action on the following bills:

Senate Int. 16, Pr. 16, Lockwood, (Same as Assembly Int. 84, Pr. 84, McWhitney). To amend the Code of Civil Procedure, in relation to summary proceedings to recover the possession of real property.

This measure relates to summary proceedings to recover possession of real property under the so-called "objectionable tenant" clause incorporated lately in apartment leases. The bill was drawn to off-set the effect of a recent decision of the Appellate Term of the First Department, wherein it was held that the landlord was the sole judge of whether or not a tenant was objectionable. The decision has since been amended to hold that whether or not a tenant is objectionable is a matter to be judicially determined, upon appropriate allegation and after due proof. Under these circumstances Mr. Lockwood's measure seems to be redundant.

Senate Int. 18, Pr. 18, Lockwood, (Same as Assembly Int. 86, Pr. 86, McWhinney). To amend the Penal Law, in relation to furnishing water, heat, light, power, elevator or telephone service.

This measure is self-explanatory. The most pernicious feature of this bill is that it leaves landlords at the mercy of implications respecting their duty to furnish heat, light, etc., when all such matters should be the subject of expressed agreements which, to check the ever increasing tide of landlord and tenant litigation should be in writing and signed by the parties thereto.

The bill is also vicious in that it makes the breach of a contract to furnish heat, light, etc., a crime, when the aggrieved party has adequate means of redress by civil action. The substitution of criminal prosecution for the remedy provided by the civil law for the redress of private grievances is a radical departure from sound legal principles which thoughtful lawyers and jurists will hardy approve. The bill is, therefore, disapproved.

Senate Int. 19, Pr. 19, Lockwood, (Same as Assembly Int. 8, Pr. 8, Caulfield). To repeal section two hundred and thirty-two of the real property law, relating to certain agreements for the occupation of real estate.

This measure would repeal Sec. 232 of the Real Property Law, as amended by Ch. 303, L. 1918, which provides "an agreement for the occupation of real estate in the City of New York shall create a tenancy from month to month, unless the duration of the occupation shall be specified in writing by the parties thereto or by their lawful agents.

The declared purpose of the amendment of Sec. 303 was to safeguard the interests of tenants against the unfairness of certain landlords. Its enactment was assuredly in the interest of tenants, but at the same time the measure promoted the stability of tenancies and for that reason was highly desirable to landlord and tenant alike.

The result of the repeal of the section will be to prevent the creation of tenancies from month to month by implication, which will be distinctly to the disadvantage of honest and square dealing tenants. The bill is disapproved.

Senate Int. 22, Pr. 22, Gibbs (Same as Assembly Int. 32, Pr. 32, McWhinney). To amend the Real Property Law, in relation to the licensing and regulation of real estate brokers and salesmen.

This measure makes provision for licensing and regulating real estate brokers and salesmen. The bill is approved. It is based upon the tentative bill approved by the Real Estate Board of New York, which it was found necessary to amend to change its provisions respecting the administering authority. The measure approved by the Real Estate Board created two administering boards to carry into effect the substantive provisions of the bill. The pending proposition authorizes and empowers the Secretary of State to do this work and further authorizes him to create a bureau in his office to take over the job, the head of which shall have had at least ten years' experience as a real estate broker.

The exemption clause of the original bill has been amended so as to exempt only public officers and the officers and agents of courts from the necessity of complying with the provisions of the measure, and the fees for licenses, in places outside of New York City have been increased, at the suggestion of upstate realtors.

With the exceptions indicated the Gibbs bill is identical with the measure prepared for and approved by the Real Estate Board of New York and, as a matter of fact, the final draft of the pending measure was prepared by the Special Counsel of the Board after conferences with and at the request of authorized representatives of the New York State Association of Real Estate Board, the Brooklyn Board of Brokers and the Real Estate Board of New York.

Senate Int. 24, Pr. 24, Lockwood. To amend Chapter two hundred and three of the laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, re-entitled "An act in relation to summary proceedings to remove monthly tenants in the Cities of New York and Brooklyn for holding over," by chapter three hundred and fifty-seven of the laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, in relation to notices to tenants.

This measure would amend the law relating to notice to quit by requiring that the notice shall be given thirty days instead of twenty before expiration of the tenants' term. It also makes the law, as amended, apply to tenants from month to month as well as monthly tenants.

These propositions apply only where the tenant is holding over his term, although it is not clear how a tenant from month to month can possibly be a holdover.

Under the present conditions of housing, this measure may be necessary for the protection of tenants against unscrupulous landlords, but it should not have a permanent place in the law unless the tenant be placed under like obligation to give notice of his intenton to quit. In its present form the bill is disapproved.

Senate Int. 25, Pr. 25, Lockwood. To amend the New York City Municipal Court Code, in relation to proceedings for eviction of tenants.

This measure would extend the application of the provision authorizing the granting of a stay of a warrant in summary proceedings, for the eviction of a tenant, to all tenancies, instead of tenants of tenement houses as the law now stands, and extends the length of the stay that may be granted from 20 to 30 days. The bill is disapproved as it unnecessarily extends to all tenancies—industrial and mercantile—the provisions of last year's amendment of the Municipal Court Code, which was adopted upon the plea that it was indispensable to a solution of the residential housing problem.

Senate Int. 26, Pr. 26, Schackno. To regulate rents in the City of New York, and Assembly Int. 51, Pr. 51, Ullman, to create and establish a Rent Commission for the purpose of determining the fair and reasonable rents and charges for dwelling purposes in cities of the first class, and for enforcing such determinations by such commission.

These measures make provision for the creation of Rent Commissions to regulate rents in the City of New York. The bills are disapproved in that the restrictions they would place upon the private ownership of real estate are so radical and vicious as to render the proposition unworkable and unconstitutional. Their enactment would end for all times the construction of additional housing facilities in this city, for reasons plainly to be discovered upon even a cursory perusal of its provisions.

Senate Int. 40, Pr. 40, Kaplan. To amend the Real Property Law, in relation to certain agreements for the occupation of real estate.

This measure would amend Sec. 232 of the Real Property Law to provide that an agreement for the occupation of real property which does not particularly specify the duration of the occupancy shall be deemed to continue until the first day of October next after possession commences under the agreement, and rent thereunder is payable on the usual quarter days for the payment of rent. This bill is disapproved. Its purpose is problematical, unless it be to destroy the opportunity to create a tenancy from month to month by implication and make rents payable quarterly instead of monthly.

Senate Int. 50, Pr. 50, Dodge. To amend the General Business Law in relation to licensing and regulating the business of lessees of real property.

This measure requires that persons engaged in the business of leasing and sub-leasing real property shall take out a license, the annual fee for which shall be $500, and give a bond of $10,000 conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties and obligations pertaining to the business so licensed, which may be sued upon by any person aggrieved by the license.

The license must designate the particular piece of property in which the licensee shall deal. The licensee must keep books showing rent paid and received by licensee and the expenses of operating the property for which the license is issued.

The bill relates only to lessees of apartment houses and violations of its provisions are misdemeanors, in addition the Mayor may also impose fines or penalties of from $25 to $100 for violations.

This measure would no doubt be held to be unconstitutional if enacted, for it is not only discriminatory but imposes a license fee that in many instances would be confiscatory.

Senate Int. 2, Pr. 2, Fowler. To amend the general construction law, in relation to standard time.

This bill is disapproved. It is believed that the opinion of the people in this city generally is that daylight saving is of great benefit to the community and when the matter of the repeal of the Federal Measure was brought to the attention of organizations it was vigorously opposed. New York City passed an ordinance some months ago providng for daylight saving and at a hearing on the matter it was disapproved by only two or three people. This showed the approval of the people of the City of New York for daylight saving. This repeal should be vigorously opposed.

REAL ESTATE NOTES.

SAMUEL H. MARTIN has been appointed agent for 148 West 65th st by the estate of Marie Tuchler.

HAGGSTROM-CALLEN CO. has been appointed managing agent of the 4-sty building 250 West 70th st.

HAAGSTROM-CALLEN CO. has been appointed managing agent of the 5-sty apartment house at 128 West 63d st.

NEW YORK TITLE & MORTGAGE CO. has made a building loan of $165,000 to the Uniford Constr. Co. for the purpose of erecting a 6-sty apartment house at the northeast corner of University av and Fordham rd. The building is expected to be ready for occupancy in the early summer.

BULKLEY & HORTON CO., having the most succesful season in fifty years, distributed bonuses ranging from 10 to 20 per cent. of the yearly salaries of its force, acording to the length of time mambers have been with the company and in appreciation of their close cooperation and services.

WILLES RAY, who for many years was identified with the W. S. Anderson Co., has severed this connection and established his own offices at 970 Lexington av, where he will conduct a general real estate and insurance business. For some time Mr. Ray has been recognized as one of the enterprising young men in the local real estate field and has a large acquaintance with the property interests of the city and vicinity. His recent activities in negotiating several important déals, including the sale of 163 East 72d st and 1258 3d av for the Thomas E. Crimmins estate, 159 West 97th st for Mrs. Caroline B. Deraisnes, 203 East 72d st for the Miamo Realty Co., and 217 East 72d st for Mrs. Clara B. Ellis, of California, are indicative of success in his new enterprise. He is at present negotiating other transactions involving large interests in commercial and industrial lines, which will be consummated in the near future and be of interest to the realty men of the city. Associated with Mr. Ray will be Wiliam F. McConnell, secretary of the New York Board of Trade and Transportation, and Edmond Simpson, formerly with the Hanover National Bank.

BUILDING SECTION

Two New Office Buildings For the Times Square Section

Addition to the Bush Terminal Building and a Thirty-Story Structure for New Venture of the Proprietor of Claremont Inn

IN the building announcements of the past week the Times Square district assumed a prominent place by virtue of the reports that two large structural projects, involving a total outlay of approximately $10,000,000, would shortly be commenced. For some time there has been a steadily increasing volume of building activity in this part of the city and in the Grand Central Terminal Zone, immediately adjoining, that has resulted in again drawing attention to the mid-town section of Manhattan as one of the important building centers of the Metropolitan district.

The building fraternity was particularly interested by the announcement that R. A. Gushee, for a number of years proprietor of the Claremont Inn at 126th street and Riverside Drive, had decided to discontinue the operation of this famous resort and had concluded the preliminary arrangements for conducting his restaurant business upon a greatly enlarged scale in the Times Square district. For this purpose Mr. Gushee has just closed negotiations for a one hundred and five year lease of the property at 141 West Forty-second street, running through the block to 138-142 West Forty-third street, upon which he proposes to construct a modern restaurant and office building at an early date. The contemplated structure will cost in the neighborhood of $2,000,000, exclusive of the value of the leasehold, which is said to be not less than $5,000,000. George A. Bowman negotiated the deal.

Although Mr. Gushee was not prepared to announce the name of the architect who will prepare the plans for the new building, he announced that it will be as high as the building laws of the city will permit, probably thirty stories. According to the Zoning Resolution a height of 200 feet is permitted in Forty-second street, above which an additional four feet is allowed for every foot of setback from the building line. In Forty-third street the height limit for the main structure will be 120 feet, with setbacks in the same ratio. The projected office building will materially change the skyline of this part of the city and will provide another interesting architectural achievement similar to the Bush Building, immediately opposite.

According to the tentative plans, Mr. Gushee proposes to utilize the basement, ground and second floors of the new building as a cafeteria, in which food of only the best quality will be sold at a minimum cost, through a system of self-service now being used in restaurants and hotels in a number of Western cities. Many novel features heretofore unknown in the East will be installed in order to facilitate quick and efficient service. The floors above those used for restaurant purposed will be planned to lease as offices and show rooms.

Another important building operation in this neighborhood was brought out by the announcement that the Thompson-Starrett Company had obtained from the Bush interests a general contract calling for the construction of a nine-story fireproof office and show-room building to adjoin the structure of a similar size and character in Forty-first street, that was built some months ago as a part of the handsome Gothic Tower building in Forty-second street. The facilities provided by the Bush Exposition Building for the display of merchandise of out-of-town manufactures, and the office and club features that were provided in this structure for non-resident buyers, created a strong demand for similarly equipped space. In order to accommodate those seeking identity with these interests, Helmle & Corbett, architects and engineers, 190 Montague street, Brooklyn, were commissioned to prepare plans and specifications.

These working plans are now being prepared and the work of demolishing the old buildings on the site is under way. The new structure will occupy a frontage of 50 feet in Forty-first street and will have a depth of 100 feet. The construction will be of reinforced concrete, with facades of buff face brick to harmonize with the adjoining structure, of which it will become an integral part. In its facilities for the advantageous display of merchandise and service features that have made the present building such a popular industrial headquarters, the new addition will be a duplicate.

Contract for West Side Apartment

Announcement was made this week that the Fred F. French Company, 299 Madison avenue, had been retained as designers and builders of the high class multi-family dwelling to be erected at a cost of $350,000 in the north side of 75th street midway between West End avenue and Broadway. The operation will occupy two plots, aggregating 59 feet 6 inches by 100 feet, recently purchased by 275 West 75th Street, Inc., Stewart Hemingway, treasurer, and Charles L. Adams, treasurer, owner of the proposed structure.

One of the properties, known as 245-247 75th street, 40x100 feet, was owned for thirty-five years by Stephen G. and Belden Roach. The adjoining plot, 249 West 75th street, 19 feet, 6 inches by 100 feet, was held by Stewart Hemingway, who recently acquired it from Sally A. Lloyd.

The projected apartment house will be planned to provide suites of one, two and three rooms, each with private bath. In these units large combination dining and living rooms will be special features. Complete kitchens will be provided in the three-room suites and in the one and two-room units efficiently equipped kitchenettes will be installed.

In selecting the design for this operation the architects have decided upon a modified English Tudor style, with facades of dark red face brick, with half timber over stucco, beneath the eaves of the long slanting roofs. The Fred F. French Company was the first to adopt this style of architecture to New York apartment houses. The general design is a fortunate and pleasing contrast to the usual urban multi-family structure. From its adoption by New York apartment house owners it has met with popular favor.

The Federal expenditures during the last fiscal year were the greatest for any year in the history of the country. The grand total of all disbursements for the year was $34,841,386,515. This sum included $16,000,000,000, spent for the retirement of certificates of indebtedness and bonds. Such expenditures are not actual outlay but are in the nature of a "standoff." For instance, the Government borrowed the money one month on certificates and paid it back the next month.

Bricklayers' Strike for $12 Day Upsets Building Program

Work on Many Jobs at a Standstill Pending Settlement of the Wage Question—Open Shop Difficulty Still in Dispute

PRACTICALLY the entire building industry of the city, along with a large number of architects, engineers and property owners who plan to improve their holdings in the near future, are vitally concerned by the walkout of the bricklayers in order to enforce their demands for an immediate increase in wages.

Although negotiations underway at the close of 1920 forecast an early and amicable settlement of the dispute between the mason builders and the bricklayers, and preliminary arrangements were underway to arbitrate the question of wage increase, the bricklayers, without the sanction of their governing body, took the initiative into their own hands and left their jobs immediately after the commencement of the new year. At the present time the work of bricklaying has ceased upon a number of important building projects in Manhattan and Brooklyn and hundreds of men are idle who might otherwise be at work pending arbitration.

Speculative building and operations generally in the outlying districts of the city have not as yet been affected by the walkout of the bricklayers, as the employers in these instances are not, as a rule, members of either the Mason Builders' Association or the Building Trades Employers' Association. On the other hand, the majority of the important building projects now under construction in Manhattan, the Bronx and Brooklyn are in the hands of contractors who are governed by the rules of these organizations and they are vitally affected by the walkout.

Mason builders without exception consider the present demand of the bricklayers for a wage rate of $12 per day of eight hours to be altogether out of proportion to the rates now being paid to workmen in other trades affiliated with the industry, and are prepared to stand solidly against any such wage rate being paid. The employers are willing and have been for some time to make a reasonable concession to the bricklayers. The employers fully realize that owing to extremely cold weather, rain or snow, and other conditions beyond their control, bricklayers are not able to work the same number of days during the year that other trades can, and therefore agree to a somewhat higher rate. They offer $9.50 per day for eight hours of labor, with overtime in the ratio that other trades obtain.

Just before the close of 1919 the bricklayers agreed to submit their case to an arbitrator and abide by his decision. The entire question was to be gone over and the wage determined upon some figure between the amount previously paid and the $10 a day at that time demanded by the workmen. Since then, however, radical and impatient workmen have been responsible for a further demand upon the employers which they say positively will not be considered.

Thursday afternoon, Frank E. Conover, of the Mason Builders' Association, stated that although the situation was far from pleasant at this time, and furthermore that a number of building operations were being held up on account of the walkout, the negotiations now pending would in all likelihood clear the atmosphere within a short time. It is understood that the employers and representatives of the bricklayers will shortly get together in conference regarding increased wages, and it is hoped that the original plans calling for the submission of facts from both parties will speedily be carried out.

During the past week there has been practically no change in the dispute between the Building Trades Council and the Iron League Erectors' Association over the question of open shop. Both sides are holding firmly to their original declarations and it now appears as though this affair might be drawn out for some time to come.

Annual Meeting of the Building Managers and Owners Association

THE annual meeting of the Building Managers and Owners Association of New York held at the Advertising Club, Tuesday evening, January 13, with president Charles B. Best in the chair. After the usual informal dinner the meeting was called to order and the regular business of the meeting proceeded. Reports of officers, standing and special committees, covering their activities for the past year were read and approved. These reports all showed in a conclusive manner that the organization was in a flourishing condition, with increasing membership and that considerable excellent work had been accomplished during the year despite the many difficult problems that presented themselves during the period. Scarcity of workers, advancing costs of materials and supplies and other factors all contributed their share in making the past year one of doubt but in practically every instance the problems were solved to the mutual benefit of the members of the organization.

The report of the nominating committee presented for reelection the names of those officers who for the past year so conscientiously and ably guided the affairs of the association, and, upon a unanimous vote the secretary was ordered to cast one ballot proclaiming their election.

President Best then addressed the meeting and thanked the officers and members for their co-operation and assistance during the past year and forecasted a brilliant future for the association if all of its members would continue their lively interest and co-operation in its activities.

After the regular business of the meeting was brought to a close R. L. Browne, representing the Metal and Thermit Corporation, gave a most interesting talk upon the subject of thermit welding. This address was illustrated by lantern slides and moving pictures, showing the various phases of operation in making a thermit weld and the application of this process to the speedy repair of industrial and marine equipment. Mr. Browne described in detail the workings of the process and told how it would save time and expense to building managers in making quick repairs to heavy castings, machinery, etc. At the conclusion of the address he demonstrated the process by making a thermit weld for the assembled members of the association.

Transit Construction Commissioner John H. Delaney has called a hearing, to be held at his offices, No. 49 Lafayette street, January 20, at 2:30 p. m., at which consideration will be given to petitions and proposals for readjusting, redistributing or diverting rapid transit passenger traffic in the central section of Manhattan. These proposals are several in number, and include suggestions for the construction of a moving platform under 42d street, Manhattan; extension of Queensboro subway west to Eighth avenue, under 42d street; a change in the route of the Queensboro subway through 41st street instead of 42d street, west of Park avenue; a subway loop through 42d street and 34th street and certain north and south avenues, and a proposal for a local service connection between the East and West Side subways.

Last May the "franchise tax on manufacturing" was changed to "franchise tax on business corporations." From this class, the state actually received $20,049,059, against $14,801,119 collected during the previous fiscal year. In his forthcoming report to the Legislature the Comptroller will recommend the need for amending the law in order that all franchise tax liabilities be determined prior to the granting of decree by the state in relation to the merger, dissolution or withdrawal of such class of corporations.

First Week of 1920 Produces Much New Construction

F. W. Dodge Company Figures Indicate a Continued Growth in Both Number and Value of Local Building Operations

REPORTS of new building and engineering construction being planned by architects and engineers for locations in New York State and New Jersey, north of Trenton, for the week of January 2 to 9 inclusive, indicate that the new year has begun in an auspicious manner and that the predictions of the latter part of 1919 regarding building activity during the year to come would most likely be borne out. According to figures prepared by the F. W. Dodge Company, covering projected construction in this territory, a total of $23,248,000 will be expended upon work for which plans are now being prepared. During the same week the total of contracts awarded for new construction amounted to $11,721,000.

There was a total of 422 new operations being planned last week which were grouped as follows: 115 business and commercial buildings, $4,664,500; 8 educational projects, $1,030,000; 3 hospitals and institutions, $73,000; 49 factory and industrial buildings of various types, $3,187,500; 1 structure for the U. S. Navy, $32,500; I public building, $12,000; 18 public works and public utilities, $2,691,000; 4 religious and memorial projects, $145,000; 212 residential operations such as apartments, flats and tenements and one and two family dwellings, $9,972,500, and 11 social and recreational buildings, $1,440,000.

Among the 269 projects for which contracts were awarded during the week of January 2 to 9 inclusive were included 63 business and commercial buildings such as office and loft buildings, stores, commercial garages, etc., $2,153,500; 4 educational projects $1,027,000; 3 hospitals and institutions, $183,900; 27 industrial buildings of various types, $2,866,100; 3 military and naval projects, $1,021,500; 1 public building, $45,000; 13 public works and public utilities of different kinds, $1,149,900; 3 religious and memorial projects, $118,000; 149 residential operations including apartments, flats and tenements and one and two family dwellings, $2,926,000, and 3 social and recreational projects, $231,000.

According to the present rate of planning activity by architects and engineers in this territory the current year will undoubtedly pass in both number and value of operations the high record established during 1919.

PERSONAL AND TRADE NOTES.

William Emerson, a prominent New York architect, recently accepted the directorship of the Department of Architecture at the Massachusetts Institute of Tehnology.

George W. Backoff, George Elwood Jones and J. Frederick Cook announce the formation of a co-partnership for the general practice of architecture under the firm name of Backoff, Jones & Cook, with offices in the Union Building, 9-15 Clinton street, Newark, N. J.

Frederick Law Olmsted received a medal from the American Society of Landscape Architects at its recent annual meeting at the Architectural League, 215 West 57th street. The award was in recognition of his services in city planning. Mr. Law was also re-elected president of the society for the ensuing year.

Scott & Prescott, architects, William O. Prescott, R.A., and David Cairns Scott, R.A., have announced their removal to a larger studio at 34 East 23d street. During the war Scott & Prescott were architects for the Army Hospital for shell-shock patients, the Soldiers' and Sailors' Club of New York, the recreation building for the Navy Aviation Camp at Montauk Point, L. I., and the Navy Post Office. They are now working on several business buildings, factories, apartments, etc.

Architects Ask Housing Investigation.

In view of the continued shortage of housing accommodations throughout the country President Wilson's Industrial Conference has been asked to make a thorough investigation of the situation. Declaring that in New York City alone more than 30,000 new dwelling places are immediately required, the American Institute of Architects has called attention to the crisis in a letter to all members of Congress. The Institute says in part:

"The causes for this condition are no doubt many and various. They relate to the war, to the cost of buildings, to wages, rents, land and building speculations, and, incidentally, to the whole fabric of our industrial system. The house and home are an indissoluble part of the national fabric. They cannot be isolated and studied as detached symptoms. They must be considered as a part of the whole problem, and we believe the Government of the United States should at once take steps toward making a complete and impartial investigation into the problem of adequate shelter for its increasing population."

L. F. Pilcher Again State Architect.

BY a unanimous vote, Professor Lewis F. Pilcher, of Brooklyn, was confirmed as State Architect for a term of five years. For a number of years Professor Pilcher has occupied this important post and his work in the department has been of such high efficiency that Gov. Smith considered no other man for the position. During his term of office. Mr. Pilcher saw to completion of a number of important tasks, among which included the reconstruction work on the State Capitol and had exclusive direction of all of the big building projects undertaken by the State during the past ten years. During his tenure of office, the New York State Department of Architects has developed into one of the largest and most important architectural bureaus of the country.

After the nomination, Democratic Senate Leader James J. Walker asked for unanimous consent for the immediate confirmation of Professor Pilcher. He said:

"May I just say that the great work of building the hospitals and prisons of the State of New York was started and has progressed to the absolute satisfaction of those charged with the responsibility, throughout the State, and to the satisfaction of the people of the State generally, and it is the opinion of those who have the responsibility that this work could not have continued as well without Professor Pilcher's experience as it certainly will with it."

Republican Senate Leader Henry Walters followed with these remarks:

"I can but echo the sentiments of the Senator from the Twelfth. It would have been a pity had the Governor not reappointed Professor Pilcher, our architect, at this time. It is true that we have great construction work under way and plans for more construction to follow, and it is a pleasure and a privilege to testify at this time to the competency and the ability and the efficient way in which Professor Pilcher has conducted the affairs of his department. I am very pleased to join in confirming his nomination.

TRADE AND TECHNICAL SOCIETY EVENTS.

National Builders' Supply Association will hold its annual convention at the Hotel Sherman, Chicago, Ill., February 9-10, 1920.

American Society of Mechanical Engineers.—Monthly meeting the second Tuesday of each month. Calvin W. Rice, secretary, 29 West 39th street.

American Road Builders' Association is perfecting the plans for the forthcoming Seventeenth Annual Convention, Tenth American Good Roads Congress and the Eleventh Good Roads Show that is scheduled to be held in the First Regiment Armory, Louisville, Ky., February 9 to 13, 1920. E. L. Powers, 150 Nassau street, New York City, secretary.

Prizes Offered to Architects.

The New York State Reconstruction Commission has made a proposal to cooperate with the Joint Legislative Committee to conduct an architectural competition for the best solution of a block of typical old-law tenement houses. Prizes amounting to $6,000 for the successful competitors are proposed and $6,000 is already subscribed. Of this amount Alfred E. Marling, one of the commissioners, has subscribed $2,500, Vincent Astor, $2,500, and the New York Foundation, $1,000. This is a practical and liberal proposition that will undoubtedly interest a number of leading architects of the city.

CURRENT BUILDING OPERATIONS

BUILDING interests of this city have been gratified by the announcements during the week of a substantial number of large contracts awarded for new building construction and the projects placed under contract are but a relatively small proportion of the work already planned, that will be released in the near future. Among the important operations for which contracts were let were the store, office and loft building on Seventh avenue, for the Amaron Building Co., G. Richard Davis & Co., general contractor; a ten-story office building in Liberty Alley for the Lawyers Title & Trust Co., G. B. Beaumont Co., builder; a twenty-two story office building at 67-73 Wall street, for the Munson Steamship Line for which the Geo. A. Fuller Company obtained the contract and the high-class elevator apartment in West 75th street to be designed and constructed by the Fred F. French Company, These are only a part of the new work contracted for and according to the volume of construction now figuring the coming weeks will produce an even larger list of projects placed under contract.

The strike of the bricklayers for increased wages has stopped this branch of work upon some of the important building operations in Manhattan but there has been no cessation of activity in the outlying districts of the city and in the suburbs other than that resulting from the excessively cold weather of the past week or so. For the most part builders are now busy finishing up existing contracts and making active preparations to handle the greatly increased volume of construction that will be released early next spring.

Construction work in New Jersey has recently been tied up to a considerable extent by the strike of the yard men and drivers in the building materials and supply lines. This strike commenced shortly after the beginning of the new year and according to late accounts it is likely to continue for some time yet.

Local dealers in building materials and supplies report an excellent volume of new business, with inquiries for early spring deliveries forcasting an amount of business that will seriously tax the facilities of dealers and manufacturers. There is already some difficulty in obtaining adequate supplies of some commodities and the outlook is for a continued shortage with increased prices. The price situation is very firm and likely to remain so for many months.

Common Brick—As a combined result of the exceedingly cold weather and the walk-out of a number of bricklayers on some of the large Manhattan building operations the past week was rather a quiet period in the wholesale market for Hudson River common brick. There is considerable inquiry for future deliveries and the outlook for the coming months is good provided sufficient brick is available. Prices took another jump this week going to $25 a thousand wholesale, to dealers, alongside dock. Notwithstanding the large amount of ice in the river three barges arrived from Haverstraw during the week. All of these barges had been ice-bound and had to be broken out by tugs and it required the work of four tugs to convoy the tow to the city. This in itself was a costly process and if continued will unquestionably be responsible for further price increases. One of the

MATERIALS AND SUPPLIES

Staten Island brick yards also sent a barge-load of brick to Manhattan this week which was immediately disposed of.

Summary—Transactions in the North River common brick market for the week ending Friday, January 16, 1920. Condition of market: Demand steady; prices advanced and firm at the new level. Quotations: Hudson Rivers, $25 a thousand to dealers in cargo lots, alongside dock. Number of cargoes arrived, 3; sales, 4. Distribution: Manhattan, 1; Brooklyn, 1; Astoria, 1; New Jersey, 1.

Face Brick—Dealers have experienced fairly busy times during the past month or so and are generally confident that the coming spring will witness a new high mark in the volume of business booked. Their problem at present is chiefly confined to production and with manufacturing costs steadily advancing and some scarcity of labor it is practically a certainty that face brick prices will be materially inreased as the coming building season advances.

Structural Steel—Fabricating mills report a growing shortage of steel that will undoubtedly affect both deliveries and prices in the near future. Locally there has been considerable new business booked by contractors for large building projects and the operations now being planned forecast a substantial increase in the volume of tonnage that will be required to supply the fabricated steel demand of the Metropolitan district. The award last week of contracts for several tall office and loft buildings in Manhattan will call for a large total tonnage of fabricated material. Figures for this steel are now being taken and it is likely that contracts will be placed within the next week or ten days.

Linseed Oil—The market is dull with buying light and inquiries negligble. Prices range from $1.79 to $1.81 per gallon for lots of five barrels or more and $1.81 to $1.84 per gallon in less than five-barrel lots.

Cast Iron Pipe—There has been but little buying activity of late but prospects are generally encouraging. The recently increased prices are accepted without comment by the trade who practically all realize that advanced raw material and manufacturing costs have made the new price essential. Quotations are as follows: 6 in., 8 in. and heavier, $67.30; 4 in., $70.30; with $2 a ton additional for Class A and gas pipe.

Window Glass—There is a scarcity in this material that is daily growing more acute and dealers are put to considerable difficulty in filling orders. At the same time the demand for both plate and window glass is strong and steady and likely to increase in force just as soon as the small house builders resumed activity next spring. There is also a heavy call for glass from manufacturers that is depleting the available supply. All prices are subject to the amount of stock in the hands of dealers.

Portland Cement—Production of this material has recently increased and the mills are now practically back to the normal rate of output, but the demand is considerably greater than the supply and no reserve stocks are being stored. As long as labor costs continue to advance there is likely to be an upward trend of building commodity prices and cement is no exception.

Lumber—The local situation is unchanged. Demand continues strong from both building sources and manufacturing consumers, with prices generally secondary to preferential delivery. Stocks are almost without exception low and badly broken and wholesalers and retailers are not optomistic as regards the possibilities of obtaining adequate supplies for some time to come.

Seventh Avenue Again

A short time ago the first of the new buildings in the needle trades district on Seventh Avenue contracted for Edison Service

The second one in this new industrial center is an immense twenty story structure on Seventh Avenue from 28th to 29th Streets. In addition to 6000 lamps, there will be a power installation aggregating 1560 horse power, to be used partly for building services and partly for the manufacturing requirements of the tenants

The elevator equipment of six passenger cars and six combination passenger and freight cars will be operated by electricity. In addition, power will be supplied for two sidewalk lifts, two house pumps, a sprinkler system, two ventilating fans and a compressor

It is a prophecy that the economy and the reliability of Central Station Service will be popular in this new garment area

Architects and Engineers are specifying and demanding

STEELBILT

in preference to those made of ordinary materials.

STEEL has exclusive advantages. It is non-absorbent and therefore sanitary. It does not crack; in fact, is indestructible. It has a neat, clean appearance. Costs less than other substances and is more easily and economically erected. It is the logical material.

STEELBILT Toilet Partitions are made in standard sizes, some of which are carried in stock for quick delivery. Partitions and doors are made in units, of sizes to suit any plan layout.

Write Dept. "R" for full particulars and a copy of our architects' specification sheet.

Artificial Stone is growing in popularity

Unlike other Building Units, Artificial Stone is a NON-CONDUCTOR of DAMPNESS, COLD and HEAT. It reduces building costs and expedites construction. A wide variety of facing effects produced with crushed granite, marble, brownstone, Indiana limestone, carborundum, etc., makes it a sightly stone for every type of structure and its durability insures the lowest possible maintenance cost.

We court investigation of the most searching kind, and are always pleased to go over the subject in greater detail with anyone interested in building for permanence, beauty and economy.

"McLaury for Tile"

The proper use of tile will do more to improve the general conditions of living than any other article. There is nothing more productive of better health in the home or factory than rooms finished in neat, clean tile. Its sightliness, durability and sanitation make TILE the logical material in all up-to-date buildings.

Let us interest you in tile for the home, factory, garage, or in fact ANY kind of building.

Bookkeeping a Nuisance?

The bookkeeping of an estate is often quite a complicated matter. An individual trustee is tempted to regard this bookkeeping as something of a nuisance and neglect it accordingly.

This corporate institution, under the control of the State Banking Department, keeps books showing in detail every transaction in the management of an estate—information instantly available whenever needed.

EDITORIAL

When to Call a Halt

Realization that the costs of the government have reached unbearable heights and that one of the most effective methods for reducing the cost of living is by drastic curtailment of appropriations, is reported from Washington. The prospect of a national budget o fsix billions with a deficit of three billions has alarmed Congressmen, who have at last heard the wail of the people that relief from excessive taxation must be had. Senate and House committees have, it is said, agreed that there shall be no public building bill at this session; that the diplomatic and consular appropriation shall be cut three millions lower than last year; that $42,000,000 proposed for the education and Americanization of foreigners shall be reduced to $6,500,000, and that the River and Harbor bill shall be pared down from $42,000,000 to $12,000,000. Further reduction in the appropriations for other federal departments is promised.

A year ago there was a general demand for large governmental appropriations for public works to give employment to returning soldiers and to give business in various lines a start after the paralysis occasioned by war. At present such measures are neither necessary nor wise. There is a shortage of labor, especially of the unskilled kind. And there is greater need of tenements, which the government cannot build, than of new post offices and court houses. There is now no lack of private dwelling projects and no stimulus other than the great demand for housing and office space is needed by builders to encourage them—all they are looking for is labor and mortgage money.

The reports of the immigration officials show that the tide has again set in the direction of our shores, so that there is likely to be more and more of common labor for work on buildings, in mines and mills and on transportation lines. From about 12,000 a month at the beginning of 1919 the number of immigrants rose steadily throughout the year until in December there were over 40,000 arrivals in this port alone and probably 60,000 in the country. These are not record-breaking figures, but they are promising. The prosperity of this country, now so widely advertised, and the lure of princely wages, cannot fail to prove an irresistible attraction to the half-fed peoples of southern Europe and the Near East.

Reduction of taxation, if accomplished, will help the money market. And in this connection it should be incumbent on the Legislature to take to heart the words of Senator Henry M. Sage, a recognized authority on state finances, as to the increase in the expenditures in New York State. In 1910 the appropriations were $38,000,000; in 1919, $78,000,000; 1919-20, $95,000,000, and the requests for the present year amount to $141,000,000. Every department has increased its expenses, and Senator Sage, in drawing the attention of the Merchants Association to the rapidly-mounting costs of the state government, took no antagonistic attitude towards the increased activities of those representing the people in carrying out the proposals they had enacted into law through their representatives in the legislature.

"The question is," declared Senator Sage, "not whether a more efficient Health Department and a better Labor Department and higher paid school teachers are desirable or not. But it is a question of how far the state ought to go."

Senator Sage would have the people stop and consider whether it is not, at the present abnormal moment, the time to call a halt on uncurbed appropriations and, like the prudent business man, when outgo exceeds income, cut overhead to the bare necessities. The Senator's suggestion is well worth consideration in view of the announcement of the Federal Department of Agriculture that the wholesale prices of staple meats and vegetables in New York City had increased from 10 to 100 per cent. since August 15, when the campaign to reduce the cost of living was started. This, evidently, is not the time to increase taxation.

Give private business a chance to get going; then, when it is established over a firm basis, will be time enough to consider projects that are well enough in their way, but not essential.

Deflation

Bankers hold that inflation, necessary in war times, if maintained during peace, results in continuation of high prices. Under our system of banking the Federal Reserve Bank can now exercise the same control over the money market as the Bank of England always has exercised by fixing the discount rate. The unification of the banking powers under the Reserve system, new to the financial community, is a powerful factor in stabilization of the money market and will aid in the re-establishment of business on a normal basis. With the raising of the discount rate to six per cent. the Federal Reserve Banks of the three Eastern Districts have taken a step that was expected, although the rate is higher than was anticipated. That it is a higher rate than the consensus of opinion in financial circles thought probable is evidence that in the view of the Reserve officials there is need for drastic measures in bringing about deflation. That this will be the immediate effect of the high discount rate is without question and the country may soon expect a distinctly favorable turn to prices in all markets.

That something more was necessary in fighting the high cost of living than mere governmental commissions to prosecute profiteers is proved by the figures published by the Department of Labor showing that prices of necessities are constantly rising notwithstanding all efforts to control them. Putting the dollar back on a true dollar basis will do more to bring prices down to their real level than all the pronouncements of theorists. The other one thing that will really help matters is production. If everybody gets down to business and does a full eight hours' work each and every day the period of cheap money and high prices will soon pass.

There are signs that this idea is spreading throughout the working community. It will, if every man who believes in it makes it his business to circulate this truth in every quarter he can reach.

Editor of the Record and Guide:

We hear a good deal about speculative prices of land and houses. Prices of living have about doubled—prices of building have increased about 75 per cent. Is real estate selling at double the prices of two years ago? Where then is the speculation in land? Western lands have gone up for say, $250 an acre, to, say, $350 and $400—say from 40 to 80 per cent. At present value of the dollar compared with three years ago, that is no advance at all.

With some notable exceptions, the same seems to be true of stocks.

Further, I see no chance of "over-production" (more goods than the people can buy back) for at least two or three years. I feel sure that the demand for houses and land will not be met for another three years.

How can we have depression with a short market for goods and no material reduction of inflation?

Editor of the Record and Guide:

In the present time, homes, apartments and buildings are largely the subject of daily discussion.

I advocated some time ago the building of large apartment houses, housing many families, and of the most modern construction, in large parks, laid out beautifully and making the surroundings lovely to live in. These large apartments can be built on land costing less than $10,000 per acre and the present cost will not be so large as to make the rents high to the tenants. They should be built in the city and suburbs where all conveniences are to be had—gas, electric light, proper sanitary connections and reasonable labor construction.

With proper investment of money in these large apartments, with small fare, 5 to 10 cents, life can be made happy for any and all without crowding our cities to excess.

Good Prices Realized at Auction of Sage Holdings

THE auction sale of the real estate owned by the late Margaret O. Sage, widow of Russell Sage, held at the No. 14 Vesey Street Salesrooms, on last Tuesday, aggregated $2,619,250. There were thirty five parcels in Manhattan and Long Island. The original offering included sixty-seven small dwellings at Cedarhurst, which were taken over by a syndicate at privatc sale. The auctioneer was Joseph P. Day.

The Sage residence at 604 Fifth avenue, between Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth streets, was bid in by Michael Dreicer, the Fifth avenue jeweler, on behalf of Charles Thorley, the florist, at $441,000. The assessed valuation of the property is $430,000.

Samuel Augenblick paid $117,000 for the leasehold of 632 Fifth avenue, a five-story and basement business building occupied by one tenant. This property is owned by Columbia University and was leased by the Sage estate until May 1, 1928. Its assessed valuation is $490,000.

James Brannan purchased the two apartment houses at the corner of Central Park West and 102d street, paying $155,000 for the corner and $90,000 for the inside house. The eleven-story loft and office building at the northeast corner of Fifth avenue and Fifteenth street was sold to Newman Dube, clothing manufacturer and director in the Metropolitan Bank, for $435,000. The four-story tenement at Nos. 45 and 47 West 125th street was purchased by the Neumont Realty Company for $63,000.

Charles V. Paterno, builder, bought the three-story garage, 25.6x100.5 at 117 West Fifty-fourth street, for $47,000.

The two six-story apartment houses, 100x100, at the northwest corner of Central Park West and 102d Street, were bought by James Brennan for $245,000. The group of five four-story and basement private dwellings at the northeast corner of Madison avenue and Sixty-fourth street, went to Robert E. Dowling for $337,000. This property is assessed at $333,000 by the city. They were sold as one parcel.

Robert E. Dowling and Robert Simon bought the choice block front of vacant property on the east side of Riverside Drive between Cathedral Parkway and 109th street for $435,000. Thi sproperty is surrounded by high-class apartments like the Hendrick Hudson and the Bonavista.

The only parcel of Harlem realty, 45 and 47 West 125th street, a four-story brick flat wit hstores, on a plot 40 by 99.11, assessed at $65,000 was sold to the Neumont Realty Company for $63,000.

The southeast corner of Park avenue and Ninety-eighth street, five apartments, was sold as follows: No. 1,269 Park avenue to Philip Gasner for $28,350; Nos. 1,263, 1,265 and 1,267 to H. Brown for $16,000, $16,300 and $16,500, respectively, and No. 104 East Ninety-eighth street to S. Lipschitz for $16,000.

No. 1,325 Park avenue was purchased by August Dunwitz for $29,000; No. 1,570 Lexington avenue by J. Bregstone for $35,700; No. 1,572, adjoining, by Joseph Jacobs, for $25,000; No. 1,374 by Isidor Sacks, for $25,250; No. 1,576 by Margaret Stabler, for $25,500, and No 123 East 100th street, adjoining, all five-story tenements, for $27,600; No. 123 East 100th street went to J. Gillman and John Lione for $17,750; No. 107 to Gaetano Tomasula for $17,600, and No. 109 to E. F. Altohul for $26,000. The Open Stair Tenement Company bought for $12,500 Nos. 515 and 517 East Seventy-sixth street, vacant.

The corner at intersection of Hunter avenue and Prospect street, Long Island City was sold for $15,300 to the Kingsborough Development Company, and the dwelling in the east side of Hamilton place, 225 feet north of Central avenue, Far Rockaway, was bought by the Frank Realty Company for $18,000. H. Frankfort bought the northeast corner of Central avenue and Hamilton place, Far Rockaway, for $15,700; the Frank Realty Company the plot in the east side of Hamilton place 150 feet north of Central avenue for $6,000, and David isenberg the block front in the west side of Hude street, between Central avenue and John street for $16,300.

AS A real estate barometer the records of Register James A. Donegan's office reflect the true condition of the realty market in Manhattan. During the year just ended they show an increase in transactions of more than 80 per cent.

Recorded leases on all kinds of realty were nearly trebled, as compared with the year 1918. Many, covering property in the downtown and midtown sections, were for terms ranging from five to thirty years and at rentals running from $1,000 to $225,000 per annum.

There was an increase of 24,701 instruments in 1919 over the year 1918. This increase consists of 5,789 mortgages, 7,135 deeds, 9,348 chattel mortgages, 1,792 satisfied real estate mortgages, and 576 satisfied chattel mortgages, 51 block changes and 10 miscellaneous papers.

Briefly summarizing the income of the register's office for 1918 and 1919 the result is: 1919, $172,453.46; 1918, $108,073.18; increase, $64,380.28. The ratio of increase has been fully maintained during the first few days of 1920.

Realty Legislation Delayed by the Socialist Hearing

Activity of Many Members in Proceedings on Eligibility of Five Assemblymen Prevents Constructive Committee Work

Albany, January 23.

REAL ESTATE and housing bills, like all other legislation, is feeling the effect of the proceeding to determine the eligibility and qualifications of the five Socialists recently suspended by the State Assembly. The hearings of the Judiciary Committee in this matter are being held in the Assembly Chamber, at the time ordinarily given to the consideration of legislation.

The prompt introduction of several bills designed to exempt the interest on the principal of mortgages on real property up to $40,000 from the State Income Tax gave rise to the belief that these measures would be among the first to be given hearings. All these bills were referred to the taxation committees. The Socialist inquiry will interfere with this program, because several of the members of the Judiciary Committee are also on the Taxation Committee.

Before many weeks the Legislature will have before it the report of the Davenport taxation investigating committee and it is believed that this report will discuss the limitation of taxes on realty.

The advocates of the limitation measure which passed last year now contemplate framing a bill which will limit the burden of taxation which can be placed upon realty at a certain percentage of the budget of a city. In the preliminary discussion the suggested percentage was 75 per cent.

Within the next few weeks several bills favored by the New York City Real Estate Board and having for their ultimate purpose the reduction of the city budget by the elimination of useless bureaus will be introduced. One of these bills will call for the abolition of the sinking fund and another will provide for the payment of taxes in New York City into a single bureau doing away with several departments which now receive taxes. These bills were discussed and tentatively framed this week at a conference attended by John P. Leo, of the Bureau of Standards and Appeals, David Hirschfield, Commissioner of Accounts, A. C. McNulty, counsel for the Real Estate Board and Edward P. Doyle, also representing the Real Estate Board.

Another bill shortly to be introduced will revive and extend the corporate existence of the New York Real Estate Association. Under the terms of this bill the corporate existence of this association is revived and "declared to be a valid corporation with the same force and effect as the same existed on June 25, 1919, and prior to the expiration of the period for which said corporation was created." This organization, chartered 50 years ago, through inadvertence permitted its charter to expire. There is little doubt about the speedy enactment of such a measure.

Senator Dunnigan introduced a bill this week amending the General City Law by providing for the acquisition by cities of lands for the purpose of erecting dwellings upon such land and renting such dwellings at cost.

Minority Leader Donohue in the Asembly submitted an amendment of the New York City Charter which provides that no tax lien for unpaid taxes, water rents or charges or assessments on any real estate shall be sold by the city unless the word "arrears" shall have been written in a bill for taxes upon the same property previously delivered.

Both the Senate and Assembly have adopted a resolution calling upon Public Service Commissioner Nixon to file a report with the Legislature showing whether or not his investigations have disclosed if it is possible for the traction companies operating in New York City to render adequate service at the present rate of fare, together with any recommendations he believes will relieve traction conditions in New York City.

This action by the Legislature is significant in view of the recent consideration of the report of the up-state public service commission, as well as a report from Commissioner Nixon, urging the enactment of legislation vesting the commissions with power to fix local traction fares irrespective of franchises agreements and statutory limitations.

There is a strong sentiment in the Legislature in favor of granting the public utility corporations relief from the stress they have felt by reason of the increased cost of wages and materials. This sentiment is especially pronounced among the representatives from up-state cities, where the local traction lines are facing ruin unless permitted to increase their fares. Several opinions by the Court of Appeals have indicated that the duty of relieving local traction companies rests with the Legislature. This court has pointed out that where franchise agreements or statutes fix the maximum rates to be charged the courts are powerless to intervene.

Strong opposition has developed in the Legislature to several bills providing for the licensing and regulation of real estate brokers and dealers. One of these bills places the licensing power in the Secretary of State and the other in the mayors of cities whose population exceeds 200,000. The attitude of the opponents of the bills is that the real estate situation all over the state is such that nothing should be done to check the activities of real estate brokers or limit their efforts to relieve housing conditions. It is pointed out that present cramped housing conditions are largely the result of excessive war prices for materials and not the outcome of the acts of individuals.

A new rent commission bill made its appearance in the Assembly this week. The measure, introducer by Assemblyman Jesse, would create two rent commissions, one for the first district embracing New York City and another for the second district, including Buffalo and Rochester. A commission of three members will operate in each district. The members will be named by the governor. Under the terms of the bill the commissions may on their own initiative or upon complaint investigate the reasonableness of rents and other charges imposed for occupancy of real estate and determine what such rents and charges shall be.

Another bill introduced by Assemblyman Jesse provides for the exemption from increased valuation of real property improved for dwelling purposes in New York City, the valuation not to be increased over that on the day the building plans are approved until the assessed valuations for 1926 are fixed, provided plans have been approved on or before October 1 next and the building ready for occupancy before December 31, 1921.

Victory Hall Will Be Built by Popular Subscription

Plans for $15,000,000 Monument in Pershing Square Now Being Prepared by Herts & Robertson, Architects

UNLESS the present plans miscarry, Victory Hall, the proposed monument to New York's dead and living heroes of the World War, will be one of the noteworthy public structures of the country. The site selected for this structure is the block lying south of the Grand Central Terminal, between Forty-first and Forty-second streets, Park and Lexington avenues. The west half of this block is now owned by the city and is being used for subway purposes, but in no way will this interfere with the construction of the projected structure.

In both plan and design this structure will embody a number of unusual features. Herts and Robertson, the architects, are now working out the details and it is hoped that the preliminary arrangements will be completed so that this $15,000,000 project may be started before the close of the current year.

A complete description of this building is impossible at this time because the details have not yet been finally worked out. On the level of the Fourth avenue esplanade there will be a great auditorium and convention hall into which processions may march from the esplanade, through the main portal of the edifice, which will be a triumphal arch incorporated into the Fourth avenue front. It may also be reached from the Forty-second street level by elevators and numerous stairways. This auditorium will be in the form of a lofty amphitheatre. A majestic monumental colonnade will surround it upon the exterior. The roof will be an uninterrupted span with a ceiling carefully devised to secure the best acoustic effects. In the center will be an oval arena 120 feet in width and 270 feet long that will admit of a running track, ten laps to the mile.

This auditorium has been planned to provide for tournaments, great musical festivals, pageants, athletic games, large civic gatherings and public assemblages, including those of a dramatic nature, and will afford as well to the children of the public schools an athletic practice arena for which a great need now exists. This hall will seat 5,000.

Around the walls of this great auditorium there will be a broad continuous band bearing in bronze or gold letters the name and unit of each soldier, sailor and marine, as well as of each man and woman from the city of New York, belonging to the Red Cross, Salvation Army, Y. M. C. A., Jewish Welfare Workers, K. of C. and Army Nurse Corps, and of all others who died in the service. The roof of the auditorium will be sustained by horizontal girders 20 to 30 feet deep. The space between these will be available for separate meeting and club rooms.

Provision is being made in the plans to devote considerable space for the use of the American Legion.

The great American Legion hall will be surrounded by other rooms to be given over to auxuliary and patriotic bodies. The central part of this floor will be 235 feet by 112 feet and will form a hall for the meetings, dances and other entertainments of the organization and of the other societies affiliated with it. Surrounding this central hall, which will be of great dignity and illuminated by large clerestory windows, will be a balcony looking down upon the hall. Beneath this balcony will be a corrider giving access to a number of rooms which will be assigned to the G. A. R., Loyal Legion, and the auxiliary societies, patriotic groups and other organizations that carried on war activities.

On the floor below the street level will be located the imposing Memorial Shrine and Hall of the Allies. These apartments will be reached from the street level and from the subway station by four broad monumental stairways, descending from the great foyers running north and south and one to the east and another to the west, and by elevators.

From the eastern end of this hall a double intramural stairway will lead into a lofty memorial hall or crypt, 70 feet square, hewn from solid rock underlying this section of the city. In the center of this crypt will be placed an altar, upon which there will forever burn a fire or beacon that will serve as an "Inner Shrine of Memory" and to symbolize the purpose of Victory Hall.

Review of Real Estate Market for the Current Week

Many Important Multi-Family Houses Figure in Recent Transactions and Buyers of Plottages for Improvement Were Active

CONSIDERABLE buying activity developed this week in the real estate market, the business reflecting a lively interest in practically every kind of property. The chief contributing factor in the large number of transactions closed was the heavy trading involving large apartment houses which was stimulated largely by speculative interest.

Among the notable transactions of the past week figured the 12-story apartment house at 405 Park avenue, which was purchased by tenants from J. C. Mayer and Millard Shroeder, who acquired the property several weeks ago, and who further displayed their confidence in Park avenue holdings by acquiring this week another large fireproof apartment at 640 Park avenue, valued at $1,400,000. Other large apartments which changed hands were The Turin at 331 to 335 Central Park West, acquired by the Realty Syndicate, Inc.; The Verona, at Sixty-fourth street and Madison avenue, held at $1,100,000; The Bellguard, valued at $700,000, which was bought by Joseph Shenk, who also added to his holdings a number of other multi-family houses on Washington Heights and in the Bronx; the apartment house at 777 West End avenue and Ninety-eighth street, held at $750,000; three apartments on Washington Heights purchased by an operator and numerous others.

In spite of prevailing high construction costs, sites for structural operations are still in demand. In the financial district the Lawyers Mortgage Company purchased the three old 5-story buildings at the corner of Maiden Lane and Nassau street, where they intend to erect a building of at least 12 stories in height for their own use. On upper Fifth avenue interest again centered around Fifty-seventh street, where the John L. Riker Estate, located at 19 West, was sold for $500,000 to a buyer who is planning to erect an 8-story business building on the site.

Operators, too, claimed their share of the business. Harris & Maurice Mandelbaum, Fisher & Lewine again figured in a million-dollar purchase involving the 15-story office building at 395 to 399 Broadway. The loft structure at 43 to 47 West Twenty-fourth street, held at $500,000, was sold by Isaac Schiff to the Elias Gussaroff Realty & Construction Company.

It is interesting to note the immediate effect of prohibition on realty, as with the advent of "dry" days came reports of many leases of hotel space. Conspicuous among these was the rental to the United Cigar Stores of the century-old Eastern Hotel at the lower end of Manhattan for a 21-year term at an aggregate of $2,500,000. The same company also leased earlier in the week the Saks department store building at Herald Square for a 21-year term at a total rental of $8,500,000. Another 21-year lease in the same vicinity involved the property at 138 West Thirty-fourth street at a rental of $700,000. The Silver Lunch Company signed a million-dollar lease for the 2-story building at 1663 to 1696 Broadway, also for 21 years.

The shortage of space and the persistency of the demand was emphasized by the alacrity with which available space was absorbed and in many cases its occupancy secured by leases of unusually long terms.

PRIVATE REALTY SALES.

THE total number of sales reported but not recorded in Manhattan this week was 151, as against 139 last week and 49 a year ago.

The number of sales south of 59th street was 68, as compared with 63 last week and 14 a year ago.

The number of sales north of 59th street was 83, as compared with 66 last week and 35 a year ago.

From the Bronx 61 sales at private contract were reported, as against 55 last week and 22 a year ago.

Statistical tables, indicating the number of recorded instruments, will be found on page 115.

Annual Report of Title Company.

In the annual report of President Clarence H. Kelsey of the Title Guarantee and Trust Co. he calls attention to the interesting fact that the Record and Guide, under date of January 3 of this year, published a list of thirty-one real estate transactions during 1919, each involving two and one-half million dollars and upward. Of the thirty-one all but seven were examined and insured by this company.

The company sold to investors in 1919 $36,477,728 in mortgages, as compared with a little over $19,000,000 in 1918. The largest record in mortgage sales ever made by the company was in the years 1905 and 1906, when the sales amounted to about $74,000,000 each year.

The recorded mortgages for the year 1919 in Greater New York exceed those recorded in 1906, the report continues. The reason why the mortgage business of the company was not as large as in 1906 apparently is that a large proportion of the real estate boom of 1919 has been financed by the owners of the property in the way of purchase money mortgages and not by lending institutions and individuas. They have not been willing to furnish the money and the mortgage market has been much restricted by the Federal income tax.

President Kelsey says:

"In New York it was necessary to devise some method of disposing of our larger mortgage investments, for the individual buyers for them had been frightened off by the income tax. Our participation certificates have been very helpful in this respect. During the year we have sold 3,193 certificates, amounting to $5,033,603 in New York, and 1,406 in Brooklyn, amounting to $1,194,712. These certificates are increasing in popularity as the general public becomes better acquainted with them. We take one large mortgage, have it guaranteed by the Bond & Mortgage Guarantee Co. and sell it to our investors, giving to each one the exact amount of investment that he desires. The plan is very elastic, as it permits reinvestment each three years as interest rates change. It also allows for a revaluation of the property and the adjustment of the amount of the mortgage, should change of value require at any time.

"The title losses for the year amounted to something over $31,000, which is perhaps a little below our yearly average, which has been about $50,000 since the organization of the company.

"The profits from the banking business itself show a satisfactory advance in New York and Brooklyn and a very decided advance in Jamaica and Long Island City in Queens.

"The total deposits at the end of 1919 amount to something over $35,000,000, as compared to $28,000,000 at the close of 1918. This amount is the largest in our history at the close of any year. The increase amounts to $3,000,000 in New York, $3,000,000 in Brooklyn, $400,000 in Jamaica and nearly $50,000 in Long Island City. The increase is due partly to better times and partly to a very determined effort on the part of our banking department to increase its usefulness in the community. The number of accounts has increased from 10,931 to 11,834, a gain of almost 900 in the year.

"The income from trusts shows an advance of approximately $30,000 above the figures of last year."

Cobb-Macey-Dohme, Inc., Will Move.

Cobb-Macey-Dohme, Inc., have leased for twenty-one years the four upper floors of the building, 412 Broadway, for offices and display purposes, at an aggregate rental of about $130,000. The Charles F. Mayes Company made the lease for Frank D. White and G. F. Heublein. Adolph F. Dohme, president and treasurer of the leasing company, in commenting on this lease, stated:

"Our business was the first office equipment business to move north of Franklin street. Ten years ago we selected 412 Broadway as the future center of the office furniture and office equipment business. How near right we were is best emphasized by the fact that during the past two or three years the largest firms in the city including Globe-Wernicke, Mosler Safe Co., Herring-Hall-Marvin Safe Co. and Remington Typewriter Co. have purchased buildings right in this section of Broadway close to Canal street. We selected 412 Broadway because it was in the Canal street block and because we knew that all subway lines in New York City would have stations on Canal street and this would make this Broadway section near Canal street the most convenient of all downtown sections for business purposes. Our business has grown largely at 412 Broadway, and we find that we have outgrown for showroom purposes the store and basement that we have been occupying. Double the space was required, so the lease that we have just made gives us over 20,000 square feet of the very best display premises in New York, and here we will be located for many years to come.

"Ground floor space in New York City has become so expensive for merchants that the price is prohibitive to those firms who wish to sell their goods on a close margin. It is my prediction that within fifteen years the leading firms in our line of business will be transacting their business above the ground floor, and this is right along the lines of economy and exactly the same as is being done in several western cities such as Chicago with its Republic Building filled with retail firms of high standing, and in St. Louis. Not only do large upstairs salesrooms permit of economy in operation, but the premises are better for salesroom purposes on account of better ventilation, better light and better facilities for showing our product. Our building at 412 Broadway directly faces Lispenard street and the upper floors of the building have natural light and sunshine at every point. Our executive offices will occupy the top floor of our new quarters; our second floor will be devoted entirely to the display of mahogany furniture; our third floor to oak furniture, and on the fourth we will display steel furniture and office filing equipment. With double the amount of space that we have ever had before, we expect to show the most representative line of goods that is shown in New York City, and we will be able to look out for the furniture trade as well as it is humanly possible to do and continue to sell our goods at a moderate or fair margin of profit."

Mr. Dohme has seen the center for the office furniture business extend north from Liberty street to Nassau and from Broadway and Worth street to the present point where it will probably remain for all time, and it is very close to the financial district and at the same time convenient for uptown shoppers. When he originally moved his business from lower Broadway to 412 Broadway, many in the same line thought he was making a rash innovation, but within a very few years many others followed. It is believed that many others who are unable to get ground floor locations in the exact centers that they wish to locate, will follow Mr. Dohme's lead, with the result that merchandising above the ground floor will be the next important development in the New York real estate market. This has been tried successfully with clothing, shoes, women's apparel, and it is pointed out that there is no reason why it cannot be done with marked success by almost any other line of business.

Stoddard & Mark, attorneys, represented the owners of the property. Williamson & Bayles represented the leasing company. Charles F. Noyes Company sold the property to the present owners, and only recently reported a lease for twenty-one years of the store and basement at an aggregate rental of $200,000, to the Exchange Buffet Corporation.

Brooklyn Brokers to Dine.

The annual banquet of the Brooklyn Board of Real Estate Brokers will be held at the Hotel Bossert tonight at 7 o'clock.

The guests of the evening will include United States Senator William M. Calder, State Senator Henry M. Sage, Hon. Edward Riegelmann, President of the Borough of Brooklyn; Rev. Paul Moody, rector of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church of Manhattan; J. Willison Smith, lately manager of the housing division, U. S. Shipping Board, Emergency Fleet Corporation, and others.

William Raymond Burling, president of the board, it was incidentally learned today, has a big surprise for the members, the exact nature of which he refuses to divulge, although rather unwillingly admits it to be something entirely new in the arrangements for this year's dinner.

The committee in charge are James B. Fisher, chairman; Fred B. Snow, George Horton, Joseph W. Catharine and George H. Gray.

Franklin Simon Co. Secure Addition.

Franklin Simon & Co. have purchased 5-9 West 37th street from Wolf Bros. & Co., of Philadelphia, which will add more than 90,000 square feet to their present floor space. The new addition is a modern fireproof twelve-story building and is in the rear of their present 38th street buildings. The lower six floors will be used for selling purposes and the upper six floors for manufacturing, stock rooms and reserve stock rooms. The individual floors will be occupied as soon as the leases of their respective occupants expire, the majority of which only have a short time to run. Franklin Simon & Co. will do all their shipping, receiving and delivering on 37th street, thus relieving the congestion on 38th street, which on account of its excellent transit facilities has become one of the best specialty shop side streets in New York City.

Operators Acquire $1,000,000 Loft.

The Forty-fifth Street Exchange Building, at 141 to 147 West 45th street, held at $1,000,000, has been sold by the Arthur Carter Realty Company to Vogel & Schultz, through the Knap & Wasson Company. The building is thirteen stories high, 70x100. The annual rental is about $125,000. The leases expire in about a year. The thirteenth floor is given over to the storage of films. The sellers acquired the property last September from Frederick Brown, who gave in part payment a large estate at Mount Kisco, N. Y. Morrison & Schiff were the attorneys.

Trinity Church Corp. Sells Chapel Site.

The Charles F. Noyes Company sold for Trinity Church to Adolf Pricken for his Coastwise Warehouses, Inc., the plot of 33,600 square feet, on which stood for over a century St. John's Chapel, at 34-50 Varick street, extending through to St. Johns lane, with frontages of 240 feet on each street and a depth of 140 feet. Mr. Pricken is taking up with the city of New York the matter of the extension of York street so as to bisect the property into two plots, each about 100x140, on which he will erect two eight-story fireproof warehouses to contain 150,000 square feet of space each. The total operation will represent an investment of approximately $2,000,000.

The plot is opposite the St. John's Park freight depot of the New York Central lines. With this improvement the warehouse company will control approximately 1,000,000 square feet of space in lower Manhattan.

Verona Apartment Sold.

Benjamin Winter, who has dealt extensively in apartment properties on the West Side in the last few months, turned his attention to the East Side this week. From the Thornhill Corporation he has purchased the ten-story Verona apartment, at 32 East 64th street, on plot 132.6x100. This is one of the finest apartment houses in the Madison avenue section, and was erected about ten years ago, meeting with continuous success since its opening. It won a first prize in a contest for its interior finish. It has two apartments to a floor of twelve rooms and four baths each. Leopold & Herbert Weil represented the purchasers and Douglas L. Elliman & Co. the sellers.

Buyers Plan Eight-Story Structure.

Brown, Wheelock Company, Inc., and Royal Scott Gulden sold for the estate of John L. Riker the four-story dwelling, 50x100, at 19 West 57th street. The brokers report that $500,000 was paid for the property, or $10,000 a front foot. The buyer will erect on the site an eight-story business building. The property was held free and clear, but the estate allowed a purchase money mortgage to remain. It is reported that an owner of a single lot further down the block has refused an offer of $2[illegible],000 for this house.

Operators Buy Broadway Building.

Harris & Maurice Mandelbaum, Fisher & Lewine purchased from the Equitable Life Assurance Society 395 to 399 Broadway, the southwest corner of Walker street, a fifteen-story office building, with a frontage of 51 feet on Broadway and 147 feet on Walker street. The property was held at $1,000,000.

Builder Adds to Holdings.

The Holland Court Realty Co. has sold the eleven-story apartment at the northwest corner of Park avenue and 92d street, fronting 100.8 feet on Park avenue and 130 feet on 92d street. This property was purchased by the present owner as a possible future site for Miss Spence's school for girls. It stands at the crest of Carnegie Hill, near the large house and gardens of George Ehret and the new home of Francis Q. Palmer, on the northwest corner of 93d street. The buyer is the Apartment Management Co., Edgar A. Levy, president. Douglas L. Elliman & Co. were the brokers.

Big Long Island City Deals.

William D. Bloodgood & Co., Inc., have sold one-half of the block bounded by Pierce, Eighth and Ninth and Washington avenues, Long Island City, to a New York moving picture company for a studio. This plot is but one block from the big studio now being erected by the Famous Players-Lasky Co. The same realty firm has also sold a factory at Hamilton street and Freeman avenue, Long Island City, to the Chemical Novelty Co. of New York, and have leased to the Maxwell Motor Car Co. for its Long Island City agency the garage on Hancock street, near Webster avenue.

Lawyers' Mortgage Co. Buys.

One of the most important real estate transactions that has been effected in months was that closed this week by the Lawyers Mortgage Company, Richard M. Hurd, president, for the northeast corner of Maiden lane and Nassau street, opposite the site of the proposed Federal Reserve Bank. It is the intention of the Lawyers Mortgage Company to erect a building for its own use of not less than twelve stories in height.

The property aquired consists of three old five-story buildings with a frontage of 43 feet on Nassau street and 57 feet on Maiden lane. The buildings are known as 58 Nassau street and 29 and 33 Maiden lane.

The brokers in the transaction were Cammann, Voorhees & Floyd.

Considerable time and trouble were involved in assembling the properties and acquiring title. Most of the tenants had long leases and hesitated to surrender them because of the shortage of space downtown and the desirability of the location. It was not until then that the "lease snarl" was untangled and the way opened for the great improvement contemplated.

Park Avenue Apartment Sold.

J. C. and M. G. Mayer and Millard Shroeder, who recently purchased and resold 405 Park avenue, gave further evidence today of their faith in Park avenue by purchasing from the Shafpa Realty Company, through Robert C. Knapp, of Douglas L. Elliman & Co., Inc., the thirteen-story fireproof apartment house at 640 Park avenue, the northwest corner of 66th street. The building was erected by the Fullerton-Weaver Construction Company in 1914. The plot contains more than 9,500 square feet and is considered one of the finest apartment houses on Park avenue. The building is arranged with one apartment to a floor, containing 18 rooms, 6 baths, 40 open wood-burning

It Is Good Judgment to Start Building Now

IT is our opinion that a new price level has been established by economic conditions created by the world war and that building costs have been stabilized at a point below which they are not likely to fall for many years.

In view of this fact and the imperative need of buildings for housing, commerce and industry, we urge those who have deferred construction in the hope of lower prices to go ahead. The somewhat higher cost of building will be more than offset by increased rentals, assuring a safe, profitable investment.

We are confident of the future prosperity of this country and are demonstrating it every day, as we have done in the past thirty-seven years, by assisting in financing the construction of well-located hotel, apartment, industrial, mercantile, office and warehouse buildings, where the margin of security is ample for safety and the earnings sufficient to meet principal and interest payments. We make no loans in amounts less than $500,000.

Write for our booklet explaining the Straus Plan of financing real estate improvements. It will interest you.

fireplaces, cedar wood closets and individual laundries. Rentals, $140,000; asking price, $1,400,000. Among the tenants are George D. Pratt, Robert Franklin Adams, W. V. S. Thorn, Andrew Fletcher, Edward Drexel Godrey and Charles A. Coffin. Stoddard & Mark, attorneys, represented the purchaser and Nathan Smyth the sellers. Douglas L. Elliman & Co. will continue as managing agents of the apartment house.

West End Apartment Sold.

Elgar & Feinberg resold for Clements Realty Company to Reznick & Zimmer 777 West End avenue, southwest corner of 98th street, twelve-story elevator apartment house. Rentals, $85,000; asking price, $750,000. The house was built eight years ago by Edgar A. Levy. Frank Locker represented the buyers and H. B. Davis the sellers. The same brokers sold the property recently for J. C. and M. G. Mayer.

Shenk Figures in Several Deals.

Joseph Shenk bought from a client of Morrison & Schiff the Bellguard, a twelve-story apartment house at the southeast corner of Broadway and 89th street, 101x80, held at $700,000; also bought from a client of the Duross Company the southeast corner of Broadway and 141st street, two six-story apartments, 120x100, held at $400,000. Mr. Shenk sold through Max Rosenfeld to Philip Wattenberg, Nos. 1394 to 1402 Clay avenue, three six-story apartments, 135x100, held at $275,000; also to a Mr. Gerdino through A. Walkenberg the six-story apartment at the northeast corner of Haven avenue and 169th street; also sold through William S. Baker to the Jules Realty Company Nos. 503 and 507 West 133d street, two six-story apartments, held at $150,000.

Syndicate Acquires the Turin.

Feinberg & Reiss, Inc., sold for the Benenson Realty Company to the Realty Syndicate, Inc., J. W. Doolittle president, the Turin, a twelve-story elevator apartment house, 125.8x173.4, at 331 to 335 Central Park West, northwest corner of 93d street. There are one six, two seven, two eight and one nine room apartments to a floor. Asking price, $1,500,000. Fifty of the seventy-two leases expire on October 1, when the new owners expect to derive an annual income of close to $200,000 from the property.

Tenants Buy 12-Story Apartment.

A group of tenants bought the twelve-story apartment at 405 Park avenue, northeast corner of 54th street, from J. C. and M. G. Mayer and Millard Schroeder, who purchased it several weeks ago from a syndicate of New York and Massachusetts interests.

The purchasing syndicate of tenants was represented by Walter C. Wyckoff, who has managed the property since its completion, about eight years ago.

The building has a frontage of 100 feet on Park avenue and 90 feet on 54th street, and is one of the most attractive in the Park avenue section, having a facade of Indiana buff limestone and red brick. It contains every modern convenience, is arranged in two suites on a floor of ten and twelve rooms, and was erected in 1912 from plans by Cross & Cross. The attorneys in the transaction were Stoddard & Mark, for the seller, and Dorman & Dana, for the buyer.

Polo Company Buys.

L. J. Philips & Co. and Robert F. Bonsall have sold for the County Holding Company, William Crittenden Adams, president, the modern twelve-story building at 153 to 157 West 23d street, 60x98.8, between Sixth and Seventh avenues. The property, which was sold for all cash above the first mortgage, was held at $475,000. The purchaser is the Palo Company (S. Schimmel, president), manufacturer of laboratory supplies, that has been located for many years at 90 Maiden lane.

Syndicate Buys Two Block Fronts.

A syndicate composed of Michael Retzker and Herman B. Selvin has purchased from Sonn Brothers the St. Helena and St. Augusta at 408 to 420 West 130th street, two six-story elevator apartment houses, 289x100, containing eighty-nine suites, showing a rent roll of about $100,000. The property was held at $600,000. This syndicate also purchased from Morris Schinasi 459 to 477 Manhattan avenue and 352 West 120th street, adjoining, eleven four-story dwellings, held for $165,000. L. J. Philips & Co. negotiated the sale. Wise & Seligsberg represented the seller and Abraham Leitcher the purchaser. Negotiations for the resale of several of these buildings are pending.

Operator Figures in Four Deals.

Isaac Portman, operator, figured in four transactions recently. Through Pease & Elliman he purchased from Benjamin Chase the six-story apartment house at the northeast corner of Fort Washington avenue and 161st street, on a plot 108x130x irregular, arranged for forty-two families, and held at $300,000. He also bought from Nicholas Seely, through the Nehring Company, 576-580 West 176th street, a

The pursuit of EFFICIENCY

THAT the importance of first-class office equipment is fully recognized, was brought home to us recently when we equipped throughout the suites of offices in the Kings County Court-House and also the three very up-to-date and scientifically planned offices of the Morris Plan Co. Greater efficiency, greater speed, greater accuracy and the satisfaction of working with the best tools obtainable, are possible if proper attention is given to the selection of equipment. Our line features the famous Macey product, consisting of filing cabinets in both wood and steel, steel safes, filing supplies, office desks and sectional bookcases.

RECENT LEASES.

Leases Large Site for Theatre.

Edward Margolies, exclusive representative for the Shuberts in assembling their many theatre sites in Manhattan, has leased thirty or more buildings on the west side of Eighth avenue, between 54th and 55th streets, and extending back more than 375 feet on 55th street and 150 feet on 54th street, from Winthrop A. Chanler and others, representing the Chanler and Henry Astor estates.

Mr. Margolies said yesterday that in all probability a theatre that will seat 5,000 persons would be erected on the site from plans which are now being prepared by Herbert J. Krupp, architect. It hasn't been decided yet, Wm. Margolies said, whether the house will be turned over to the legitimate drama or to motion pictures.

Lunch Company Leases Building.

Another $1,000,000 lease has just been closed in the heart of the automobile section. Through Hill & Rice, Colonel George R. Fearing, of Newport, leased 1662 to 1696 Broadway, through to 792 to 796 Seventh avenue, a two-story building, midway between 51st and 52d streets. The avenue frontages are about 66 feet each, the depth being about 166 feet. The lessee is the Silver Lunch Company, which acquires the property for twenty-one years from May 1, with a privilege of renewal, the rental for the first term approximating $1,000,000.

Lease in Herald Square Section.

An interesting lease was closed this week in the Herald square section. Albert A. Levi leased to the No. 138 West 34th Street Corporation, Sidney R. Loeb, president, the five-story business building, 25x100, at that address. The lease, which was closed by the Lewis L. Rosenthal Company, is for twenty-one years, with one renewal for like period. The aggregate rental is about $700,000. Extensive alterations are to be made, including the raising of the basement floor to the street level, installing an elevator and arranging the upper floors for salesroom purposes. The property was purchased in 1859 by Isaac Meyer, Mr. Levi's father-in-law, and has remained in the family ever since.

United Cigar Store Leases Hotel.

With the announcement recently that the United Cigar Stores had closed a lease with John Bittner for the old Eastern Hotel, overlooking the lower end of the Battery, for a twenty-one-year term, with renewals, at an aggregate rental of about $2,500,000, came the statement that with the enactment of prohibition the familiar barroom and popular restaurant of the hotel would be closed, but that the upper floors would continue to be used for hotel rooms for some time to come. The lower floor will be extensively altered for business uses.

The Eastern Hotel has for a long time been famous as the oldest hostelry on Manhattan Island, and next May it will celebrate its ninety-eighth birthday. It covers a plot of 109 feet on Whitehall street by 43 feet on South street. During its career it has been the resort of searfaring men and many of the well-known captains and skippers of early days. John Bittner, who has been its proprietor for many years, purchased the property in January, 1918, from the Cole estate. The original two-story building there was erected by John Cole, a prominent merchant with large shipping interests. He lived near by, on State street, the site now occupied by the South Ferry building.

The Eastern Hotel was opened in May, 1822, first being known as the Eagle Hotel. The patronage was so great that soon after it was enlarged to its present height of five stories. C. J. Costello, who has been room clerk there for twenty-five years, said that the hotel has sixty-five rooms and they are all occupied.

This was the second lease made by the United Cigar Stores during the week, as three days before the concern leased the Saks department store building at Herald square for twenty-one years at $400,000 a year, aggregating for the term nearly $8,500,000.

Long-Term Harlem Lease.

Huberth & Huberth have arranged a lease on behalf of Judge George L. Ingraham and Phoenix Ingraham of the block front of 200 feet on Second avenue, from 126th and 127th streets, with a depth of 475 feet on 126th street and 500 feet on 127th street, with buildings thereon, for a long term of years at a gross rental of approximately $600,000. This plot and buildings were occupied for a number of years by the Sulzers and known as Sulzer's Harlem River Park. The present tenant is the International Film Co., which will occupy the premises for studios and production purposes.

$2,500,000 Broadway Lease.

The R-W Realty Corporation leased for a term of twenty-one years at a rental of $2,500,000 the westerly block front on Broadway, from 51st to 52d street, from the Girard Trust Co., of Philadelphia, through Charles R. Sshliess, of the office of William B. May & Co. Extensive alterations are contemplated after the expiration of the present leases.

War-Time Clubhouse Leased.

Bryan L. Kennelly leased for the Roman Catholic Diocese of New York to Irving Finkelstein 15 to 19 East 30th street, through to 20 East 31st st, three and five-story buildings, 75 feet in 30th street and 25 feet in 31st street, twenty-one years at a net rental of about $500,000.

Bank Will Pay Big Rent.

The Union Exchange National Bank figured in a $1,000,000 real estate deal, when a lease was signed for a term of years for a new home at the northeast corner of 5th avenue and 30th street. It will occupy a space of 80x150 feet on the ground floor of the proposed new Textile Building, work on which will shortly be begun. The basement of the building will be used by the bank for its safe deposit vaults. In 1903 the Union Exchange National Bank took possession of its first quarters, at the northeast corner of 5th avenue and 20th street, remaining there for two years, and in the latter part of 1905 moving to its present home, at the corner of 21st street and 5th avenue.

JAMES S. ANDERSON & CO. rented the 7-sty building at 35 Goerck st, facing the Delancey St. Bridge, for Louis B. Hasbrouck as trustee of the estate of Eugenia B. Underhill to Samuel Cohen. He will occupy a portion of the building for his own use; also leased for Marion Davis Collamore and Emma Collamore Partridge to Max Lowy the 5-sty building 79 Grand st.

CHARLES E. MITCHELL, president of the National City Co., presented his residence, a 4-sty dwelling, 25x150, at 933 5th av, to his wife, Elizabeth R., as a Christmas present. The property adjoins the large residence of Mortimer L. Schiff and was at one time the home of the late Lamar V. Harkness. Mr. Mitchell acquired it in October, 1918, from Mr. Schiff, when it was assessed at $275,000.

CUSHMAN & WAKEFIELD, INC, has been appointed agent by the Fred F. French Co., of the new 16-sty office building they are about to erect on the northwest corner of 41st st and Madison av. The building will be of the highest type of fireproof construction and replete in all details. The upper floors will contain 3,000 square feet and will have natural light on all four sides. The store and lower floors are designed for occupancy by a banking institution. It will be ready for occupancy next fall.

JOSEPH P. DAY sold for William G. Grieb 100 lots located at Nepera Park, Yonkers, to Ralph R. Mulligan, who has declared his intention of improving the parcels with one and two family houses, to be ready for occupancy in the spring. Mr. Grieb has owned the property for thirty years. Mr. Mulligan has developed several properties purchased through Joseph P. Day at auction.

CHARLES F. NOYES CO. sold for Ellis P. Earle to Franklin Page the Peter Dyckman-Cruger estates consisting of 250 acres of ground with several buildings and located at Crugers-on-Hudson, N. Y. The property is valued at $200,000 and has a frontage of three quarters of a mile on the Hudson and extends inland to the Albany Post Road. Mr. Page secured in the deal full riparian rights.

FISH & MARVIN, one of the of the oldest and largest concerns operating in Westchester County, announce that they have opened an office at 355 South Broadway, Yonkers, in order to handle their business throughout that section. This makes the ninth office which Fish & Marvin have opened in the county, the others being located at Bronxville, Scarsdale, Mount Vernon, Pelham, Pelham Manor, New Rochelle, Larchmont and Rye.

LEITNER, BRENER & STAR have sold for William McDonald of Boston, Mass., the block front on Harvard Square, fronting 110 feet on Massachusetts avenue and 330 feet on Boylston avenue, opposite the Harvard University. The property is now improved with stores. The purchaser is David V. Picker, moving picture exhibitor, who will improve the site with a large theatre, seating 3,000; store and office building. The purchaser expects to have the buildings completed in the Fall of 1920.

PEASE & ELLIMAN sold for Julius Tishman & Son the Takanassee Hotel, Long Branch, West End, N. J., which they recently purchased from the Prudential Life Insurance Co. of Newark. The buyer is Harry Schiff, owner of the Monterey Hotel, at Broadway and 94th st. The plot on which the hotel stands comprises all the land within the square bounded by West End Plaza, West End, Ocean and Brighton avs, excepting a small parcel in the northwest corner, known as the Graf property. The hotel is completely furnished. The value of the property, including equipment and furnishings, is said to be close to $225,000.

LEGISLATIVE BILLS AFFECTING REALTY

Measures Introduced at Albany Approved or Disapproved by Real Estate Board of New York

THE Legislation and Taxation Committe of the Real Estate Board of New York at its weekly meeting held on Wednesday, January 21, took action on the following bills:

Senate Int. 67, Pr. 67, Dodge, (Same as Assembly Int. 105, Pr. 105, O. J. Smith). To amend the County Law, in relation to the election of public defenders.

This bill is disapproved. It amends the County Law to provide for the election of public defenders for a four year term in counties of a million or over, at $15,000 a year. The bill is wrong in principle as proper provision is now made by law for the appointment of attorneys by the Courts to protect the interests of those charged with crime who are financially unable to employ counsel.

Senate Int. 42, Pr. 42, Dodge. To amend the Greater New York Charter, in relation to the power of the Board of Standards and Appeals and of the Board of Appeals, through the Chairman, to administer oaths and compel the attendance of witnesses.

The sole purpose of this bill is to enable the Board of Standards and Appeals to have before it in the consideration of a case testimony as to the true state of facts surrounding the case, as well as the physical conditions existing in the structure or adjacent to the plot on which it is proposed to erect a structure. It inflicts no hardship whatever on anyone but will serve as a deterrent to those who by false statements seek to obtain privileges to which they are not entitled. The bill is, therefore, approved.

Assembly Int. 14, Pr. 14, Dimin. To amend the Greater New York Charter, in relation to the exemption from increased assessed valuation of real estate improved for dwelling purposes.

The obvious purpose of this bill is to encourage the building of much needed housing. It is equally obvious, however, that any such encouragement will not have the slightest influence in achieving the desired result, as the outstanding obstacles in the path of building; viz., excessive cost and lack of mortgage money, are deterrents, which cannot be overcome at present.

At the present time, and in New York, suitable for moderate priced apartments and homes, is generally over-assessed. As the inducement to build, contained in this bill, is the temporary prohibition of increased assessment of over-assessed land, it is evident how inappreciable a factor this tax saving, if any, would be in inducing building. For these reasons the bill is disapproved.

Senate Int. 74, Pr. 74, Carroll. To amend the Greater New York Charter, in relation to salary of Borough Presidents.

This bill is approved. The Board feels that the Borough Presidents are inadequately paid for the vast amount of important work which they perform, especially the great sums of money which they authorize to be spent to carry on the government of the Greater City.

Senate Int. 80, Pr. 80, Dunnigan. To amend the General City Law, in relation to the acquisition of cities of lands for the purpose of erecting dwellings thereon and the renting of such buildings to the inhabitants of such cities.

This measure would authorize the cities of the state to acquire lands for the purpose of erecting dwellings to be rented at cost, through dwelling house commissions, appointed locally, to inhabitants of such cities. The moneys necessary to effect the purpose of the act are to be raised by taxation, but where the amount raised by taxation shall be inadequate, revenue bonds or other temporary certificates of indebtdeness shall be issued and sold in anticipation of taxes.

Municipal ownership of housing facilities appears to be the extreme so far proposed in the movement to put municipalities into business to compete with their own taxpayers.

This measure would hardly stand the test of litigation and, practically, is obviously unworkable. It is, therefore, disapproved.

Assembly Int. 30, Pr. 30, McKee. To establish a Minimum Wage Commission and define its powers and duties, and to provide for the fixing of minimum wages for women and minor workers, and to provide penalties for violation of this act.

This bill is disapproved as the Real Estate Board objects to the principle of a wage commission. Its effect would be to deprive numerous women and minors of employment and to drive industries out of the state. The bill creates a new and expensive commission. The Factory Investigating Commission, which studied this question very thoroughly several years ago, did not favor a minimum wage or commission.

Assembly Int. 48, Pr. 48, Ullman. To amend the Workmen's Compensation Law, in relation to compensation from day of disability.

This bill is disapproved. Its object is to do away with the waiting period and providing compensation from the day of disability. It will result in a substantial increase in the cost without any corresponding benefits and will serve to fritter away the insurance fund in payment for injuries of a trifling character.

Assembly Int. 49, Pr. 49, Ullman. To amend the Workmen's Compensation Law, in relation to the amount of compensation to be paid for disability or death.

This bill is disapproved on the ground that if enacted it would not, in any case, aid in the administration ofthe law and in some particulars would be a serious disadvantage.

Assembly Int. 52, Pr. 52, Ullman. CONCURRENT RESOLUTION OF THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY. Proposing an amendment to sections eighteen and nineteen of article one of the constitution, in relation to damages for injuries causing death, laws for the protection of the lives, health or safety of employees, and workmen's compensation for injuries or death, from accidents or occupational diseases.

This bill is disapproved on the ground that if enacted it would not, in any case, aid in the administration of the law, and in some particulars would be a serious disadvantage.

Assembly Int. 59, Pr. 59, Ross. To amend Chapter three hundred and three of the laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, re-entitled "An act in relation to summary proceedings to remove monthly tenants inthe cities of New York and Brooklyn for holding over," by chapter three hundred and fifty-seven of the laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, in relation to notices to tenants.

This measure proposes to amend the act relating tothe summary removal of monthly tenants, as amend by Chapter 649, of the Laws of 1919, by increasing the term of the notice to quit required to be given 'hold-over" monthly tenants from 20 to 30 days.

The effect of this measure is to place monthly tenants upon the same footings as tenants from month to month respecting notice to quit, without reciprocal obligation to give notice to the landlord of the tenant's intention to surrender the leasehold. For this reason the bill is disapproved.

Assembly Int. 130, Pr. 130, Pette. To amend the Real Property Law, in relation to the recording of conveyances of real property.

This is an amendment to Section 291 of the Real Property Law, "such conveyance shall not be recorded unless there shall be endorsed thereon the date, liber and page of the conveyance of the immdiate grantor." It prohibits the recording of the instrument unless the date, liber and page of the previous deed is inserted.

This amendment imposes an additional unnecessary burden on the draftsman of a conveyance. It is certainly unnecessary in the City of New York. If, for instance, the wrong date and liber and page were inserted in such a deed it might not be noticed. The bill is disapproved.

Assembly Int. , Pr. , Donohue. To amend the Greater New York Charter, in relation to the form of bills for taxes.

This bill is approved. The word "arrears" should appear on a tax bill if there are unpaid taxes.

Available Lumber Supplies Not Equal to the Demand

Both Retail and Wholesale Dealers in Metropolitan District Find It Difficult to Fill Orders from Their Reduced Stocks

BUILDING interests throughout the Metropolitan district are now thoroughly awake to the problem of material shortage that confronts them and it is feared that unless immediate steps are taken to increase the production of building commodities of practically every kind that the existing structural program for the year will have to be seriously curtailed. If the scarcity existed in only one or two lines the problem would be easily solved by the substitution of other materials, but, according to recent market surveys, there seems to be a growing demand for all building commodities and at the same time a decreasing or at least stationary rate of production.

Common brick, hollow tile, cement, etc., are all in heavy demand and the available supply is steadily dropping to a lower point. Owing to labor troubles at producing points the manufacturers of these materials have been forced to slow down their production to a considerable extent. At the same time architects, engineers and contractors are busier than they have been for years past upon new building operations that have created a demand for materials that is unusually heavy. Builders are now wondering where they are going to turn to obtain the materials they must have in order to complete their contracts.

During the past year the lumber situation in the Metropolitan district has developed many serious symptoms. Notwithstanding the steadily advancing prices for lumber products of every kind and description the demand has increased to a point where it is at present considerably in excess of the available supply. Both wholesalers and retailers have felt the force of the buying movement that started early in 1919 and that grew in proportions throughout the year until they are aware that the demand has completely outstripped the supply and that it will require many months of maximum production to get caught up with the actual requirements, to say nothing of providing a reserve stock for emergencies.

At the present time the local lumber situation is without distinguishing features other than those that have for many months stood out as the dominating factors in the market. Prices in all lines continue to evidence the upward trend that has created price levels higher today than they were ever known in the history of the industry.

Reports from the lumber trade indicate that conditions affecting supplies show no change and production continues below normal with but a slight chance of increasing for some time to come. As far as the future is concerned all signs point to a steadily increasing volume of activity in building and industrial lines so that there is but little likelihood of lower prices. Certainly prices will not recede while the demand is in excess of the supply to the extent it is at present. Throughout the lumber industry there is now less talk of reduced prices than was heard a month or so ago, but, on the other hand, there is a feeling gradually developing that the top level of lumber prices is about reached and that for some time at least the existing schedule will hold firmly.

The car shortage that exists in practically every part of the country is said to be one of the principal factors for the present scarcity of lumber products in this market and that just as soon as some of the transportation difficulties are eliminated supplies will be available that will very largely relieve the present depressing situation.

BUILDING SECTION

Ready to Start $8,500,000 Church and Office Building

New Structure on Madison Avenue, Opposite Biltmore Hotel, Will Embody a Number of Unusual Features

ACTIVE building operations will be commenced February 2 on the twenty-one story church and office building to be erected on Madison avenue between 43d and 44th streets. With the exception of two small plots this project will occupy the entire block frontage on the west side of the avenue and will extend back 179 feet in 43d street and 145 feet in 45th street. This structure, which will be known as the Madison Avenue Building, will be one of the largest and best equipped office buildings north of 23rd street. One of the interesting features of this operation is the manner in which the auditorium, Sunday school room, reading room and clerk's offices of the Fifth Church of Christ, Scientist, have been incorporated in the plans of the building.

The construction of this project will be under the direction of the William J. Taylor Company, under a general contract, for the Madison Avenue Offices, Inc., F. Colburn Pinkham, president, owners. The plot to be improved includes the southwest corner of 44th street which was originally owned and occupied by St. Bartholomew's Church, now located at the corner of Park avenue and 50th street.

In connection with the financing of this operation S. W. Straus & Co. have underwritten an authorized first mortgage serial six per cent. bond issue of $5,500,000. The Fifth Church of Christ, Scientist, will raise $2,000,000 to be secured by a second mortgage bond issue bearing six per cent. interest which will be retired serially in twenty years from 1923. The land and improvement will represent a total outlay of $8,500,000. A. D. Pickering and Starrett & Van Velck, associated architects for this operation, have designed the facades in the classic style of architecture, with columns and ornamentation adapted from the Greek. The facades will be constructed of stone for the first three stories, with face brick, stone and terra cotta above. The exterior of the church in the 43d street side of the building is marked by four Ionic columns at the entrance. The interior of the church has also been designed in the Greek style of architecture. The auditorium will have dimensions of 92-81 feet, with a height of 44 feet, and will provide seating accommodations for 1,800 worshippers. The sum of $250,000 will be expended on the furnishings and decorations of the church. The interior of the church will be of marble with eight great free standing marble columns. The ceiling of the main auditorium will be of ornamental plaster. A gallery will be constructed around three sides of this auditorium, and there will be an auxiliary gallery above at the rear for the organist. Instead of the conventional pews the new edific will be equipped with comfortable opera chairs set in the usual pew formation. The Sunday school room, committee rooms and offices for the clerk will be located in the basement beneath the main auditorium.

PROPOSED CHURCH AND OFFICE BUILDING.

Although it is anticipated that this structure will not be finished and ready for occupancy before January, 1921, there already has been an unusual demand for office space. Owing to its advantageous location

Board of Appeals Disposes of Many Cases During 1919

THE Board of Standards and Appeals and the Board of Appeals began the year 1919 with 70 cases pending, received 1,005 new cases, and reopened 73 cases, making a total of 1,148 actions.

The boards heard and disposed of 1,058 cases, granting relief to property owners in 621 cases, or in nearly 60 per cent. of the cases heard. The year ends with 90 cases pending, 42 of these being cases heard and laid over for further hearing, including 20 appeals from fire department orders, all of which are similar to several cases decided by the board adversely to the railroads and which are now before the courts for review of the decision of this board. The other 48 cases on the calendar were filed too late for hearing in 1919.

An important phase of the work of the Board of Standards and Appeals in the year has been to formulate fuel oil rules, revise the sprinkler rules, revise the revolving door rules, revise the elevator rules, and adopt methods of tests for anti-siphon traps.

Out of a budget allowance of $38,050, the board turned back $4,293.61 and turned over to the City Chamberlain $571.75 received in subscriptions to the "Bulletin" published weekly by the board, making the net cost of the year's work, exclusive of printing and stationery supplies, $33,184.14, or about $3.30 per case disposed of.

The various laws and decisions bearing on the works of the board and the rules adopted by the board have been compiled by Edward F. Hammel, formerly engineer for the board, and Wm. Wirt Mills, secretary to the board, and will shortly be published in form similar to the Building Code.

in the heart of the uptown financial district, this building is certain to be focal point of a heavy demand for office space. The present renting plans provide that the floors from the second to the fifth are to be divided into large units, while the floors from the sixth to the twelfth will be arranged as small offices to take care of the popular demand for space of this character. The floors from the twelfth to the twenty-first will be rented in their entirety to tenants who require as much as 20,000 square feet on a floor. Cushman & Wakefield, Inc., will have charge of the renting and management of this operation.

Located within a short distance of the two great railroad terminals, the Fifth Church of Christ, Scientist, will afford facilities for worship to its members who live or are in this section of the city, and also for the thousands of transient members and guests quartered in the great hotels in this part of the city.

Reports of New Projects Indicate Unusually Busy Year

Figures of F. W. Dodge Company Show Decided Increase in Practically All Types of Building and Engineering Construction

CONCLUSIVE evidence of the satisfactory manner in which the building situation is developing and some idea of the tremendous amount of new construction that will be undertaken during the ensuing year is possible by the figure showing both the proposed operations and the work actually placed under contract for the week of January 10 to 16 inclusive. These figures, prepared by the F. W. Dodge Company, include all new building and engineering construction projects in New York State and New Jersey, north of Trenton, and, according to reports coming in from this territory, there is likely to be a steady and consistent increase as the year progresses.

The report for the week shows that in this territory architects and engineers were at work on the plans for 323 new building and engineering construction projects that will undoubtedly mature some time during the year. This work will call for an expenditure of approximately $43,386,100. During the same period there were contracts awarded for 161 operations in this territory that will require an outlay of $18,672,400.

The list of 323 operations being planned during the week of January 10 to 16 inclusive is subdivided as follows: 65 business and commercial buildings, such as stores, offices, lofts, commercial garages, etc., $7,477,000; 11 educational projects, $1,788,400; 2 hospitals and institutions, $116,200; 57 factory and industrial buildings, $8,574,500; 2 military and naval structures, $153,000; 2 public buildings, $25,000; 19 public works and public improvements, $20,990,000; 7 religious and memorial projects, $317,000; 154 residential operations, including apartments, flats and tenements and one- and two-family dwellings, $3,790,000, and 4 social and recreational building projects, $155,000.

Among the 161 operations for which contracts were placed were 29 business and commercial projects, $1,531,000; 5 educational buildings, $1,575,400; 30 factory and industrial projects, $1,634,500; 1 structure for the navy, $800,000; 1 public building, $40,000; 8 public works and public improvements, $10,561,500; 1 religious building, $12,000; 81 residential operations of various types, $2,022,000, and 5 social and recreational projects, $496,000.

PERSONAL AND TRADE NOTES.

Harry M. Vieux and F. F. J. Klebold, architects, announce that they have associated for the general practice of their profession and have opened offices at 738 Broad street, Newark, N. J. Both have been connected with the local profession for some years past. of this issue.

American Road Builders' Association is perfecting the plans for the forthcoming Seventeenth Annual Convention, Tenth American Good Roads Congress and the Eleventh Good Roads Show that is scheduled to be held in the First Regiment Armory, Louisville, Ky., February 9 to 13, 1920. E. L. Powers, 150 Nassau street, New York City, secretary.

Max Baumann, of New York City, was elected treasurer of the National Association of Building Trades Employers at the first annual convention of this organization recently held in Indianapolis, Ind. Other officers elected included. Andrew Lanquist, Chicago, Ill., president; George Donley, Cleveland, O.; V. R. Gould, Omaha, Neb., and E. J. Thomas, Memphis, Tenn., vice-presidents.

Roi B. Woolley, who has been director of publicity of the Society for Electrical Development for the past two years, is now with Thos. F. Logan, Inc., advertising agency, New York City. Mr. Woolley, who has been seventeen years in sales and advertising capacities, joined the society after services overseas. He will specialize on electrical and merchandising accounts.

H. L. Moore, widely known among lumber interests in the Metropolitan district, was recently appointed manager of sales for the L. C. Smith Co., Inc., Brooklyn, wholesale and retail lumber manufacturers and dealers. Mr. Moore is now engaged in developing a sales force for the purpose of making greater efforts in the retail field and will devote special attention to the requirements of the building industry.

Franklin W. Loomis has joined the staff of the Society for Electrical Development. His many years' experience, covering the contracting, manufacturing and central station fields, will prove of great value in his new position. Mr. Loomis was at one time in business for himself as an electrical contractor, then in the Power Department of the Narragansett Electric Lighting Company, from which company he went to the Edison Electric Illuminating Company of Brooklyn as Power Agent, then to the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Co. as salesman, afterwards being connected with Stone & Webster Management Corporation as Commercial Advisor, H. W. Johns-Manville Company as Lighting Specialist, and the Holophane Company as Sales Engineer.

Hon. Jesse S. Phillips, Superintendent of Insurance, has issued an order to the New York Fire Insurance Exchange requiring that body to remove the unfair discrimination found to exist in violation of the law in the rating of buildings equipped with Conran revolving sprinklers. Under authority granted by the law prohibiting unfair discrimination on the part of fire insurance companies, Superintendent Phillips conducted hearings at which the fire underwriters had opportunity of presenting their side of the case. John P. Leo, chairman of the Board of Standards and Appeals, and John Kenlon, chief of the New York Fire Department, also testified at such hearings, and numerous exhibits bearing upon this matter were placed in evidence. Based upon the testimony offered at the hearings and the other evidence placed on record, Superintendent Phillips reached the conclusion that a denial of any credit for the installation of the Conran sprinklers constituted an unfair discrimination within the meaning of the law and the order above referred to followed.

New York Architects Hold Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the New York Society of Architects was held at the United Engineering Societies Building, 29 West 39th street, Tuesday evening, January 20. President James Riely Gordon presided. Notwithstanding the inclement weather conditions there was an excellent attendance. The matter of the formation of a Junior League in affiliation with the society, which has been under consideration for some time past, was discussed, and it was finally decided to hold a conference with other architectural organizations regarding the Union of Draftsmen. A committee of five members was appointed to represent the New York Society of Architects.

The bill giving to the Board of Appeals power to subpoena witnesses was discussed at considerable length. Opposition to this measure in its present form developed, and it was finally ordered that the Senate Cities Committee be notified that the society is opposed to the bill and desires public hearings on the same.

Plans are now being made for the annual dinner of the New York Society of Architects, that will precede the next meeting.

TRADE AND TECHNICAL SOCIETY EVENTS.

National Conference on Concrete House Construction will be held in the Auditorium Hotel, Chicago, Ill., February 17, 18 and 19.

National Builders' Supply Association will hold its annual convention at the Hotel Sherman, Chicago, Ill., February 9-10, 1920.

American Society of Mechanical Engineers.—Monthly meeting the second Tuesday of each month. Calvin W. Rice, secretary, 29 West 39th street.

Building Trades Employers' Association will hold its annual meeting and election of officers Tuesday afternoon, February 17. The nominating committee has prepared the following ticket to be voted on at that time: For president, Ronald Taylor; for first vice-president, Fred B. Tuttle; for second vice-president, Albert N. Chambers; for chairman of board of governors, Charles J. Kelly, and for treasurer, J. P. Ryan.

Builders' and Traders' Exchange of Newark held its annual meeting at 45 Clinton street January 15. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Frederick Bowden, president; Hugh Kinnard, vice-president; William C. Clift, secretary, and Lewis C. Rusling, treasurer. The following directors were also elected for a term of three years: Ira J. Ingram, John F. Dey and William C. Clift. A special meeting of this organization will be held March 2 to vote upon proposed amendments to the by-laws.

Westchester Builders Elect.

At the recent annual meeting of the Westchester County Building Trades Employers' Association, held at Yonkers, representatives from organizations in all parts of the county attended. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Frank N. Goble, New Rochelle, president; Charles R. Richards, White Plains, secretary, and Reginald Whamond, White Plains, organizer.

A report from the wage scale and trade agreement committee was read and approved. Considerable discussion was given to the results of the meeting held at White Plains on January 10 between representatives of labor organizations, the building trades employers' organization and this committee. The next meeting of the wage scale and agreement committee is scheduled for Saturday afternoon, January 24, at White Plains.

CURRENT BUILDING OPERATIONS

LOCALLY the building industry has experienced a fairly active week, with contracts awarded for a number of large building projects and announcements that others would shortly be commenced. According to the number of plans now out in the trade for estimates, the major portion of which will probably result in the award of contracts during the next three or four weeks, the prospects for a busy spring building season grow steadily brighter.

During the past few weeks there has developed considerable new interest in the construction of high class apartments on the upper West Side. The Paternos, A. Campagna and others, who some years ago were exceedingly active in operations of this character, have prepared to resume work on an important scale and within the next month or six weeks it is anticipated that a number of the contemplated projects will be commenced.

It was also announced this week that work will soon be started on the twenty-one story church and office building that will be constructed at a cost of $8,500,000 on the block front on the west side of Madison avenue, between 43d and 44th streets. William J. Taylor Co. has the contract for this operation.

Although the bricklayers are still out on strike for increased wages, negotiations are underway for the early settlement of this dispute, and contractors are of the opinion that before long this matter will be settled to the complete satisfaction of both employer and workmen.

Local building material and supply dealers report a steady growth in the volume of business and would be completely satisfied with the conditions if they could have the assurance of producers that adequate supplies of new materials would be available by the time the spring demand manifests itself. According to present conditions, it is doubtful if dealers will be able to supply the demand next spring unless production is greatly increased. Prices are firm and unchanged.

Common Brick.—Owing to the weather conditions and the congestion of snow in the streets there has been but little activity in the wholesale market for Hudson River common brick. Actual buying was lighter than it has been for some time, but inquiries denote lively interest in the future of this market. The price is holding very firmly at $25 a thousand alongside, in cargo lots, and dealers are of the opinion that this will be the top-most level for this year. No barges arrived during the week, owing to the fact that the river is completely frozen to a point below Haverstraw, and, according to authentic reports, navigation will not be possible for some weeks to come, even with a heavy thaw. Recent reports from the East indicate a considerable shortage of common brick throughout Connecticut and Massachusetts, with prices higher than they ever have been in the past. One dealer reports that common brick prices in Connecticut average between $24 and $27 a thousand on the cars in the yards, with brick scarce at this figure and buyers looking to New York manufacturers to supply some part of their requirements.

Summary.—Transactions in the North River common brick market for the week ending Friday, January 23, 1920. Condition of market: Demand light; prices firm and unchanged. Quotations: Hudson Rivers, $25 a thousand to dealers in cargo lots alongside dock. Number of cargoes arrived, 0; sales 3. Distribution, Manhattan, 3.

Structural Steel.—Although the building industry generally is well occupied with new construction and a large number

CITY HALL
SAVED

This beautiful example of American Colonial architecture will be preserved to posterity by the Obelisk Waterproofing Company. The Caffall Process is the means employed. This has protected the Obelisk in Central Park for 35 years past. Buildings and monuments of any nature, of stone, brick, terra cotta or cement, may be treated in the same way to keep out dampness and prevent exfoliation and building salts.

MATERIALS AND SUPPLIES

of important structural projects for locations in Greater New York have been announced during the past week or so, there is apparently some hesitancy about booking steel for these operations and it will probably be some weeks yet before the industry begins to experience the increased tonnage demands resulting from this new business. At the present time, however, steel contractors have a large volume of business on their books, and they will be forced to materially increase their facilities in order to take care of the large volume of structural work that will shortly be commenced. That the demand for fabricated material is at present only slightly behind the available supply throughout the country is evidenced by the recent report of the Bridge Builders and Structural Society for the month of December, 1919, which shows that during that month 85 per cent of the entire capacity of the bridge and structural shops was contracted for. Prices for fabricated material remain firm and unchanged at the present writing, but are likely to advance in the near future.

Masons' Materials.—Notwithstanding the recent inclement weather conditions and the snow-blocked streets that made the hauling of building materials exceedingly difficult, there has been a satisfactory volume of business in this line and dealers are generally pleased with the outlook. In some lines the current demand is in excess of the supply and manufacturers are not optimistic that they will be in a position to catch up for some weeks to come. Meanwhile the inquiries for future material and supply deliveries indicate that the early spring months will inaugurate one of the heaviest building movements that this city has ever experienced, and unless production is greatly increased there is a likelihood of considerable shortage. Masons' material prices are firm and unchanged.

Linseed Oil.—The local market is extremely dull, with little or no buying activity and prices steady and unchanged since last week. Dealers are making plans to handle the greatly increased volume of business that is sure to arrive with the coming spring, as there is a vast amount of new construction underway in this territory that will create a heavy demand for paints and oils.

Nails.—There has been no change in the nail situation for some time and none is anticipated until production is materially increased. The American Steel & Wire Co. is holding the base price of wire nails at $3.25 per keg, but the demand is so excessive that producers are only able to supply an insignificant part of the orders on file. Cut nails are exceedingly scarce and prices are fluctuating.

Roofing and Building Papers.—Demand for these commodities is very strong and there are numerous indications that as the spring building season approaches both manufacturers and dealers will be able to supply only a relatively small part of the requirements of local building interests. Prices generally are advancing and are likely to continue the upward trend for some time to come, particularly if the demand grows further in excess of the available supply. Tar paper is quoted by jobbers as follows: No. 1 ply, $2.65 per roll; No. 2 ply, $1.75 per roll; No. 3 ply, $2.20 per roll. Red rosin sheathing paper, 25-lb. roll, $1.50; 30-lb. roll, $2.05, and 40-lb. roll, $3.

Cast Iron Pipe.—Business has picked up to some extent, but as yet there is no great buying activity either from municipal or prviate sources. There have been a number of plans prepared for public improvements that will require this commodity in heavy tonnage, but it is likely to be some weeks before these lettings are announced. Prices are steady and unchanged.

Large Downtown Alteration.

Fred F. French Company, architects, engineers and builders, have obtained the contract for plans and construction in connection with the extensive alterations to be made to the four--story building at 62 Broad street, for the stock brokerage house of L. L. Winkelman & Company. The owner is a client of Lawrence, Blake & Jewell through whom title to the property was acquired last month from the Calvin Stevens Estate. The plot has a frontage of 23 feet 3 inches on Broad street and runs back 130 feet to a 25 foot rear line. It contains approximately 3,200 square feet. Fred F. French Company is drawing plans which will involve a new front and an additional story to the present four-story building, at a cost of approximately $100,000.

Two floors of the new building will be occupied by the owner. Leases are being closed for the remaining space with other high class financial firms for May 1st occupancy. A bank is already negotiating for the ground floor and basement. At present the building is practically vacated except for the store and a restaurant upstairs. Harm Hildebrandt, age 91 years, still occupies the top floor. Mr. Hildebrandt has been living in the building for over fifty years. He moved in during the administration of Mayer C. Godfrey Gunther who at that time owned the building.

STEELBILT

in preference to those made of ordinary materials.

STEEL has exclusive advantages. It is non-absorbent and therefore sanitary. It does not crack; in fact, is indestructible. It has a neat, clean appearance. Costs less than other substances and is more easily and economically erected. It is the logical material.

STEELBILT Toilet Partitions are made in standard sizes, some of which are carried in stock for quick delivery. Partitions and doors are made in units, of sizes to suit any plan layout.

Why Large Buildings Install
MARBLELOID
"The Ideal Composition Flooring"

Marbleloid is being put into an ever increasing number of important buildings because it is a satisfactory and efficient flooring. Hard, dust-proof, durable, slow to chip or crack, it has the close texture that repels moisture and the pleasing appearance that brightens the office. Easily applied and inexpensive, it pays dividends from the day it is laid.

Where may we send you full information, samples and a list of Marbleloid installations?

OUR facilities for supplying marble and executing contracts with promptness and dispatch are exceptional. We specialize in the interior marble work and use only the most carefully selected marble, of which we have a large stock constantly on hand—imported as well as domestic. We have executed contracts for marble in many prominent structures, and shall be glad to send you a partial list of these on request.

MAY WE HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO WORK WITH YOU ON YOUR NEXT UNDERTAKING?

Hoover's Food Warrants for Starving Europe devised to make it easy and certain to get food at once to hungry friends or relatives in Europe.

If you wish to furnish $10 or $50 worth of food to any one in the famine districts, buy a Warrant at the office of the Title Guarantee and Trust Company. Mail it to your friend in Europe. He presents it at one of the American Relief Administration's foreign depots and gets the food.

These depots are in Prague, Warsaw, Budapest, Vienna and Hamburg. The food has already been sent there. Its transfer to any one you wish to help is made immediately and without trouble and with no risk of loss of property or time.

This simple plan is another great tribute to Hoover's genius and capacity to do things. We are glad to help carry out this plan and put the services of the Company at the command of all our clients, and particularly the foreign born, who are so much concerned about their relatives in the old country.

Warrants can be bought at all of our offices and the simple workings of the plan explained to any one interested.

Basic Business

That there are good grounds for confidence in the continued prosperity of this country, notwithstanding the croakings of the crape hangers, is indicated in the figures made public this week as to the steel business, the building industry and the banking of the nation. The surprising quarterly report of the United States Steel Corporation, showing income after payment of Federal income and war excess profits taxes of over thirty-five millions, was far in excess of anything that had been anticipated. Perhaps the most interesting thing about the report is that the business done last October when the strike of steel workers was at it height was only nine per cent. less than in the month preceeding the strike. In November business was again on the up grade and in December was back almost to the high figures of July and August. A strike that affects such a fundamental business as the steel industry a matter of only nine per cent. can hardly be reckoned a great success from any standpoint. No wonder that Judge Gary preferred letting the report speak for itself rather than to make any comment on it as he is accustomed to do.

Not less striking than the steel report is the report of the banking resources of the country as showing the substantial basis upon which optimism rests. Comptroller of the Currency Williams in comparing the situation today with that of twenty years ago has presented figures to prove that the banking power of the nation is becoming decentralized. While the East continues to hold the largest proportion of banking resources and while these have increased nearly eight billions of dollars in the period mentioned, it is shown that proportionately the banks of the South and the West have gained far more in relative importance. While the Eastern banks have increased their resources 277 per cent., those of the South have increased 889 per cent. and now have 15 per cent. of the total banking resources of the country instead of only half that amount; and the banks of the Western states have increased 500 per cent. while those of the Middle West have increased 363 per cent.

The Eastern banks still hold 46 per cent. of the banking resources of the whole country, which makes them the controlling influence. That other sections of the country are increasing their relative importance is rather encouraging than occasion for disquietude. The systematic development of every part of the country can only react favorably on the city which will always remain the Metropolis. The centre of a partially-developed territory, however prosperous it may seem, cannot compare in reality with the importance and power of a city that is the chief market place of a nation prosperous to its remotest boundaries.

Readers of the Record and Guide are familiar with the forward condition of the building industry. But it is worth while to call attention to the F. W. Dodge Company statistics in which the contracts awarded during the week ending January 23 are given as $36,000,000 for the Metropolitan district. That $31,000,000 of this total is for industrial buildings is only another indication of the way in which general business is booming. When such a demand for manufacturing space exists the tide of prosperity is running in the right direction.

1107—Count 'Em—1107

That all the men in the real estate business are not "land poor" is a fact disclosed by the latest available figures of the income tax returns. In official circles a millionaire is one whose income is $100,000 per annum or over. There are nearly 7,000 of these much talked about personages in the country and of these fifty-two are classed as real estate brokers. The most fortunate of broker millionaires has an income of a million and a half; five have incomes of half a million, nineteen range between $150,000 and $400,000 a year, while twenty-seven manage to get along on an average of $100,000 each.

But when the figures for New York City are scanned the really interesting fact is developed that there are in this town 1107 men and women down on the income tax rolls as real estate brokers. No census has ever before recorded the exact number. The joint income account of these 1107 brokers is given as $19,089,655, which figures out an average income of $17,244.50 for each of them.

Not so bad—with the real estate business just recovering from one of the most disastrous periods in realty history. If 1107 brokers made nearly twenty millions last year, what'll they make in 1920? It will be some money!

Lawyers and the Uptown Movement

One of the interesting results of the scarcity of office space in the down-town district is the news that a group of lawyers has formed a corporation and bought a seven-story building at Liberty and Washington streets to provide offices for its members. The Record and Guide learns that the question of office space has become a critical one for numerous lawyers, some of whom are considering the advisability of making their future headquarters uptown instead of below Fulton street.

The lack of building because of the war furnishes an explanation of this development. While there has been practically no increase in the supply of office space in the down-town district, the demand for space for banking and other financial enterprises has increased greatly, particularly since the armistice. In one down-town office building the many lawyers with offices there are confronted with the necessity of moving or paying three times as much rent as formerly. While disturbed over the situation confronting them, these attorneys as a rule are not finding fault with their landlords but frankly express their appreciation of the fact that changed conditions have given to floor space in the down-town office buildings a greatly added value. Some, at least, of these attorneys take the philosophical view that if their present offices are worth more to others than to themselves they have only one problem to solve, namely, finding elsewhere, at less than the new down-town rentals if possible, quarters adapted to their needs.

New buildings in the Forty-second street district, the Record and Guide is informed, are being inspected by not a few of the attorneys who find themselves forced to abandon their old offices downtown. Lawyers interested in this uptown movement point out that some of the advantages which they might lose by no longer being located down-town would be in part compensated for by their proximity to the Bar Association and the many clubs uptown.

Strong Opposition Develops to Municipal Housing Legislation

Albany, January 30.

VIGOROUS opposition to Senator Dunnigan's bill which would authorize the cities of the State to acquire land and build dwellings thereon to be rented to inhabitants at cost has developed during the past week. The Real Estate Board of New York, which is opposing the measure, is supported by a large contingent of legislators in each house. The prospects are for a bitter fight against the bill.

The opponents of the bill point out that generally it is patterned after a measure introduced in the Assembly last year by the Socialist delegation from New York City. Short shrift was made of this measure. It never reached the hearing stage, because a majority in each house was convinced it represented another phase of Socialistic propaganda. The Dunnigan bill will be attacked on the same score and the expectation is that any attempt to advance it will meet with the most violent opposition of the up-State legislators.

Another argument against the bill is based on the impracticability of the scheme. This argument hinges largely upon the present cost of labor and prices of building materials. The opposition also declares that it is impossible for the cities of the state to build houses and rent them at cost. They declare that it cannot be done without charging a rental in excess, far in excess, of present rents.

Assemblyman Cuvillier this week introduced a bill exempting from taxation real property purchased from the proceeds of a bonus or insurance granted by the United States or New York State for military or naval service and owned by the person receiving such bonus or insurance, the exemption not to exceed $5,000.

Recommendations made by the public service commission for legislation vesting them with authority to increase rates on local traction lines in excess of the amount fixed by franchise agreements or statute are bearing fruit. The problem of granting relief to the local traction lines is one of the most complex facing the Legislature, because of the scandal that grew out of the charges of the use of money to accellerate the passage of the Carson-Martin bill of last year. To avoid a repetition of this scandal, which had the effect of deferring the enactment of a relief measure for the traction lines, the problem has been approached in a different direction this year. Under a bill introduced by Assemblyman Warren I. Lee provision is made for the appointment of a commission comprising three Assemblymen, three Senators and six other members not in the Legislature to investigate the condition of traction companies of the state and determine whether or not the fare now authorized is sufficient, just and reasonable. An appropriation of $50,000 is made to cover the cost of the investigation. There is considerable sentiment in the Legislature for the creation of such a commission.

Assemblyman Dimin introduced another rent bill this week. This measure provides that where rent for the use of buildings or parts thereof for dwelling purposes is fixed in May or at any time thereafter such fixed rental shall be the maximum amount of rent per month to be charged for the consecutive months until the following month of May, notwithstanding the provisions of any statute to the contrary.

A bill by Assemblyman Leininger authorizes the assessment by New York City of real property held by the state for barge canal terminal purposes for the benefit derived by said terminal lands by reason of the opening and physical improvement of streets and avenues.

Something in the nature of a surprise was sprung in the Senate late this week when Senator Schackno introduced a bill calling for the repeal of the mortgage tax law. This law is one of the oldest statutory instruments on the books. The advocates of the measure believe that the new State Income Tax will raise sufficient moneys for revenue purposes and will do away with the necessity of the mortgage tax. Influential legislators are opposed to the measure. It is expected that the backers of the bill will vigorously push the fight for its enactment. At the same time a bill providing for the repeal of Article 15 of the Tax Law (Investment Tax) was introduced by Assemblyman Judson. This bill was introduced on the same theory that prompted the submission of the mortgage tax law repeal.

Another effort to grant the cities of the state a larger measure of home rule was made this week by Senator Law, who introduced a concurrent resolution providing for an amendment of the State Constitution which will enable the Legislature to give municipalities broader powers of self government and control of local affairs.

Instant opposition was manifested this week to a plan incorporated in the report of Governor Smith's milk investigating committee which provided for the appropriation by the City of New York of $200,000 for the equipment of a milk plant and the purchase of the necessary accessories for the handling of 50,000 quarts of milk per day. The plan was proposed as one solution of the milk problem in New York City. The plan is opposed by the very forces who are opposing the Dunnigan municipal housing bill and upon the identical ground—that it savors of Socialism. The suggestion of the Governor's milk committee is regarded as only a step in the direction of municipal control and operation of the milk industry in New York City. One of the subjoined reports in the committee's communication to the Governor advocates municipal ownership of the milk industry, claiming that it partakes of the nature of a public utility.

Elisha Sniffin, Chairman of the Real Estate Board's Banquet Committee, reports that the entire seating capacity of the Banquet Hall of the Hotel Commodore, where the banquet will be held on the evening of Saturday, February 7, has been sold out.

Governor Alfred E. Smith will address the board's members and guests. Honorable James W. Gerard, former Ambassador to Germany. Honorable Henry M. Morgenthau, recent Ambassador to Turkey, and City Statistician Edward James Cattell, of Philadelphia, are among the speakers. President Stephen H. Tyng, of the Real Estate Board, will act as toastmaster.

James D. Smith, former mayor of Utica, was nominated by Governor Smith last week for State Tax Commissioner to succeed Chairman Walter H. Knapp. His nomination went to the Senate on Monday night and was immediately referred to the Finance Committee. In the event of his confirmation it is likely Commissioner Michael J. Walsh will be named chairman of the commission.

Landlord and Tenant Litigation Normal During 1919

Increase of Less Than Two Per Cent. in Summary Proceedings, Despite Popular Belief It Was Unprecedented Year

DESPITE widespread opinion that the amount of landlord and tenant litigation during 1919 had reached an unprecedented volume, examination of the actual situation reveals the fact that the increase in the number of summary proceedings instituted during 1919 amounted to less than two per cent. over 1918, an advance which is practically negligible. The Record and Guide has learned from the office of Aaron J. Levy, President Justice of the Municipal Court of the City of New York that during 1919 there were 107,054 landlord and tenant cases instituted in the Municipal courts in the five boroughs, recording an advance of only 2,185 cases over 1918, the figure for that year being 104,869. In 1916, when conditions were practically normal, and in a year when 21,359 apartments had been added to the city's supply, there were 104,818 cases or only 2,236 cases less than 1919, a year characterized by an unusual dearth of residential building operations. There were only 89 new tenements actually completed in the entire city last year adding only 1,481 apartments to New York's rapidly diminishing supply.

It is interesting to note that there was a marked decline in the number of summary proceedings in Manhattan during 1919 as compared with 1918, a decrease so great that it was almost able to offset the advances in Brooklyn, Bronx and Queens.

There were 53,932 landlord and tenant cases instituted in the Manhattan Municipal courts during 1919 as compared with 66,916 in 1918, 57,593 in 1917, and 71,551 in 1916. Of the 53,932 cases in this borough during the past year only 4,080 cases were brought to trial. The great majority of these were settled in one form or other. Of about 12,000 dispossess proceedings in the Seventh District Court of Manhattan at 5th Avenue and 110th Street there were not more than a dozen evictions. The increases, however, were noted in Brooklyn and in the Bronx. It is in these boroughs that the so-called "leaster" was particularly active. In the Borough of Queens there was an increase and in the Borough of Richmond a decrease in the number of 1919 dispossess cases as compared with those begun in 1918.

The table, reproduced on this page, which indicates the total number of dispossess proceedings in the five boroughs during 1916, 1917, 1918 and 1919, refutes the radical and obviously unfounded contentions that have been made within recent months to the effect that the Courts have been swamped with litigation of this character far beyond precedent. Further analysis of the figures indicate that the 2 per cent. increase in the city is rendered even more negligible by virtue of the fact that every landlord and tenant case brought into court is not necessarily the result of a rent controversy. Refusal to pay rent is only one of the causes of action upon which the landlord institutes proceedings to evict a tenant. There are hundreds of actions brought where a landlord desires to get possession of an apartment because the tenant has defaulted in the payment of his rent; where there have been violations of important covenants in leases; where tenants held over after expirations of leases and where premises have been used for immoral or illegal purposes. If it were possible to ascertain the exact number of apartment so-called "profiteering" cases the probabilities are that the percentage would shrink to below 1 per cent.

In 1918 there was a total of 104,869 landlord and tenant cases which recorded a substantial advance over 1917. This large increase was directly traceable to the famous "no heat-no rent" agitation in January and February of that year, which first begun to focus attention of the real estate operators who have since been designated as "leasters" and who have been proven to be largely responsible for most of the present day landlord and tenant trouble. In both Washington Heights and in the Bronx this system had been permitted to flourish for some years previous.

Justice J. R. Davies of the Municipal Court in Harlem, at the dinner of the building Managers and Owners Association of New York several months ago, discussed litigation in his court and emphasized the fact that as far as regular landlords are concerned the men who owned the properties and who are interested in their development had rarely been responsible for the trouble. He said at the time: "Trouble between landlords and tenants has been due to a great extent to so-called 'leasters' and lessees. We had occasions back in 1918 days when the same lessees would be in court continuously. I remember I had one of them twenty or thirty times in January. I went from one court to another and after I got back on the first of April there was our old friend again. We did not have trouble with heating arrangements if the landlord showed that there had been a break-down in the heating apparatus or showed that there was trouble with the coal company. The tenants would be lenient after a discussion between the landlords and the court, but these 'leasters' we had to get after and that brings us down to the present situation and the same old profiteering lessee."

There is every reason to believe that the great bulk of 1919 litigation was instituted by the same type of realty holder.

The Board of Estimate and Apportionment authorized the widening of Madison avenue from 46th street to 61st street, yesterday, an improvement which has been agitated for the last seven years. Resolutions adopted by the Board call for the change in the roadway and sidewalk widths on the avenue from the north curb line of East 46th street to the south curb line of East 61st street, and for the removal of all street encroachments between these two points. The new roadway width of 54 feet is expected to relieve materially the steadily growing traffic congestion on the thoroughfare.

Action on the proposed change of the roadway and of the easterly sidewalk of Madison avenue, between the northerly curb line of East 34th street and the southerly curb line of East 35th, and for the removal of encroachments on the easterly and westerly sides of Madison avenue, between 34th and 35th streets, was postponed for two weeks.

Banquet of Brooklyn Board of Real Estate Brokers

U. S. Senator Calder Declares That Building Costs Will Go Much Higher, But That Construction Work Will Continue

NEW YORK builders will be confronted this year with the problem of even higher costs of building materials," declared Senator W. M. Calder last Saturday night at the Eleventh Annual Dinner of the Brooklyn Board of Real Estate Brokers. Senator Calder stated that although he believed that in 1920 the cost of building materials would be 35 per cent. higher than during the last year, he was sure that the real estate men and builders would adjust themselves to the higher cost and that the coming year would be the greatest home building period the country had seen for some time past.

Senator Calder said that he was certain that the demand for homes in Brooklyn was no greater than in many other cities throughout the entire country, and that the entire country was facing the same problem.

"One thing," said the Senator, "which would greatly lessen the cost of building would be a decrease in the cost of transportation of building materials."

Speaking of the methods which might be adopted in the hope of giving an added impetus to home building, the Senator referred to the bill which he recently introduced in the Senate. This bill provides that mortgages given to individuals shall be exempt from taxation. "Such a move as this is sure to bring more money into the mortgage market," he declared.

Addresses were also made by State Comptroller Eugene M. Travis, State Senator Henry M. Sage, Borough President Edward Riegelman, Frank Bailey, J. W. Smith of Philadelphia and the Rev. Paul D. Moody. Others at the guest table included Robert H. Wilson, George A. Fleury, James Frank, Lewis H. Losee, Henry S. Acken and Henry B. Davenport.

William Raymond Burling, president of the Board, said:

"Let us not forget that tonight, the 24th of January, is the first anniversary of two momentous occasions in the world's history, when one year ago the Peace Conference adopted the League of Nations project and also one year ago today the 59th Division, composed of Brooklyn's own, baptized in the fire of Bellau Wood and the Argonne, reached the port of New York and home, typifying the end of a job well done.

"In these same three years we have seen many changes in that commodity which furnishes us our livelihood—I refer to real estate. We have seen the change from a dull listless market to one of extreme activity, and yet exceptional as this may seem to the layman, we find that it is based on natural laws, the laws of supply and demand.

"With the increase in wages and the influx to New York City of citizens of the middle and upper classes from other parts of the country, there has been a tremendous increase in the demand for steam-heated apartments and small homes, with the natural result of an appreciable increase in both rental and fee values.

"I hold that every time a real estate broker sells a home to a person who has previously been only a tenant, that he has not only consummated a sale, not only collected a commission, but placed another brick in that wall of good citizenship which will stem the Red tide.

"The Brooklyn Board of Real Estate Brokers has also shown an appreciable growth since 1917. At the time we met here last our membership was 97 members, and it is with considerable pride that I am able to report tonight that under the able leaderhip of my predecessor, William P. Rae, the membership since that time has increased to 117 active members and 79 associate members, making a total of 196."

One of the features of the dinner was a mock trial, Lewis H. Pounds, former Borough President, being tried as a rent profiteer. George Gray impersonated "Kitty McCarthy," the plaintiff, and David Porter acted as judge. The jury for the trial, picked from the guests, was composed of many prominent men of the borough.

Annual Dinner of the United Realty Owners

GOVERNOR ALFRED E. SMITH was the principal speaker at the annual dinner of the United Real Estate Association at the Hotel Astor last Saturday night. Governor Smith discussed the program of his State Reconstruction Commission and urged property owners to support its plan for the reorganization of the State government. He commended the work which President Browne of the United had done for the last seven years at Albany.

Mayor Hylan, another speaker, departed from his usual custom of reading from manuscript by delivering an extemporaneous address in which he discussed the local traction situation and various phases of the investigation now under way. Bainbridge Colby strongly criticized the policy of the Federal government in infringing upon States' rights. He directed considerable of his argument against the Prohibition amendment to the Constitution.

Other speakers included Dr. Henry W. Berg, Julius Henry Cohen and Laurence McGuire. Stewart Browne acted as toastmaster. Among the guests of Honor were the James W. Gerard, Senator Wm. M. Calder, Rear Admiral Bradley A. Fiske and Samuel S. Koenig.

Despite the inclement weather the dinner was well attended by 840 property owners and their guests, including 100 women. The interest in the speeches was so well maintained that practically everybody in the banquet hall waited until the last speaker had finished, which was at 11.40 P. M.

Building managers, owners and tenants of building, are urgently appealed to by the New York Telephone Company through the medium of the Record and Guide to make their demands at the present time upon the facilities of that organization as conservative as circumstances will permit. The prevailing epidemic of influenza has made serious inroads upon the working forces of the telephone company, as it has of every other concern having large numbers of employes. It is only fair that the request of the management that the telephone be used only when absolutely necessary shall meet with a hearty response. The operating force is working under a handicap which is not local to the telephone offices but is common to the people of the whole city. Under these abnormal conditions co-operation with the telephone officials, which means economical use of the telephone, will result in betterment of the service for all concerned.

Amendments have been prepared by Martin Bourke for presentation to the legislature to pattern the Torrens law to follow the model of the laws of Massachusetts, Illinois and other states, the Philippine Islands and Hawaii. The proposed changes contain two amendments, which passed the Assembly last year, but did not reach the Senate. The amendments would place the county back of the assurance funds; eliminate title companies from acting in place of the official examiners of title; changes in procedure, and a mortgagee's duplicate certificate of title to be issued to the holder of a registered mortgage.

Under the present Torrens law adopted in 1918 titles are being registered in increasing numbers. The city provided salaried places, beginning January 1, for official examiners of title in the counties of New York, Bronx, Kings and Queens at a salary of $3,500 a year.

Review of Real Estate Market for the Current Week

Market Stimulated by Purchases of Investment and Speculative Builders Who Acquire Desirable Construction Sites

DEALS forecasting important structural operations were featured in the business of the week which continued to develop additional strength. Not in weeks have there been more transactions closed by builders, of both a speculative and investment nature, involving commercial and residential properties. Big office and loft structures are planned for a large site in West 38th street assembling from ten owners; fourteen dwellings in East 75th street will be remodeled into a garden improvement; nine stories will be added to the Columbia Trust Company building which was bought by the Columbia Graphophone Company in a $3,000,000 deal; a syndicate of lawyers, forced out of their present locations, took over a 7-story Liberty street building for their own use.

Speculative interest centered largely upon apartment houses although Frederick Brown added to his down-town holdings by acquiring the Wyllys Building at 92 William street and Elias A. Cohen bought business buildings at 62 William street and 106-8 Fulton street. Among the better known residential properties which passed into the ownership of this class of purchaser was the Hotel St. Louis in East 32d street; the Hotel Bonta-Narragansett at Broadway and 94th street; Riverside Drive properties at 148th street and 84th street; and Roxborough at Broadway and 92d street.

In connection with the news of recent weeks, it is interesting to note that there has been no diminution in the interest of operators or investors in realty despite the great amount of restrictive legislation which has been introduced at Albany affecting the ownership and operation of real estate.

Assemble Big Mid-Town Plot.

Pease & Elliman have been successful in assembling a plot of 22,500 square feet in the heart of the retail section of this city, between 5th and 6th avenues, with a frontage of 108 feet on West 38th street and 113 feet on West 39th street. This plot consists of ten parcels which have been owned by various owners for many years, and has been purchased by a syndicate which intends to erect a large office and salesroom building. This plot is unique in that it is equally distant from the Pennsylvania and Grand Central terminals and is in the immediate vicinity of most of the large hotels and retail stores, and has favorable transportation facilities, with an elevated railroad station on 6th avenue and the Brooklyn Rapid Transit and Interborough subways within easy reach. The properties comprise the following: 48 West 39th street, held at $75,000, four-story dwelling, which was sold for Mrs. Henry W. Everitt; 50 West 39th street, four-story dwelling, the home of the artist, DeWitt Lockman, held at $100,000; 52 West 39th street, for Edward W. Gascoe and Mrs. W. C. Herbert, of Katonah, N. Y. This house has been under lease for a number of years to the Home Bureau and was held at $100,000. 54 West 39th street and the abutting property 55 West 38th street, for Jackson & Stern. These two houses were remodeled for business some time ago and were purchased through Pease & Elliman about fifteen years ago by the present sellers. 53 West 38th street, for Dr. Corning, a four-story dwelling; 49-51 West 38th street, two four-story and basemen dwellings, for A. A. Hageman, who recenly purchased them from George Peabody and Dr. J. W. McLean, which were held at $160,000; 45-47 West 38th street, for Dr. W. E. Lambert, and which Pease & Elliman sold to Dr. Lambert some years ago, held at $200,000.

This neighborhood has been exceedingly active during the recent few months and the 5th avenue end of the block is improved with the building which was leased by Pease & Elliman for F. V. & J. H. Burton to Lord & Taylor. The new building is to be erected from plans now being prepared by Clinton & Russell, which provide for a twenty-four story fireproof building of the finest type. It is expected that the building will be ready for occupancy in the early part of 1921 and will have the largest floor area of any building in the central mercantile zone available for tenants. The entire operation will involve a total cost of approximately $3,000,000.

East Side Dwelling Improvement.

The Seventy-fifth Street Syndicate, Inc., purchased from various owners, through Douglas L. Elliman & Co. and Harris & Vaughan, Inc., fourteen dwellings in the north and south sides of East 75th street, between Lexington and 3d avenues. The properties sold include eight four-story flats, about 20x100 each, at 157 and 159, for the Ravenswood Company, W. A. Clark, president; 163 for John Burke; 165 for Thomas Callahan; 167 for Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald; 169 for Nathan Brumer; 171 for Mrs. M. Miller, and 173 under option from a Mrs. McCabe. These buildings are in the north side of the street and abut the Church of St. Jean Baptiste and rectory, which occupy most of the block in East 76th street.

The other properties, in the south side of 75th street, include 176, a four-story garage, 18x102.2, sold for Patrick Conway; 180, a three-story dwelling, 16x102.2, for Max Benjamin, and four four-story flats, each 18x102.2, at 182 to 190, for B. Kornminsky, Mrs. H. Stern and the Siegerts Realty Company, respectively.

It is the intention of the buyers to remodel the buildings along the lines of the Hewitt improvement in East 65th and East 66th streets, where twelve houses acquired from the Gerry estate were remodeled and a large garden formed from the twelve real yards.

J. Irving Walsh New Treasurer.

J. Irving Walsh, recently elected treasurer of the Real Estate Board of New York, has just finished his seventeenth year of active association with the New York City real estate market. Mr. Walsh began his real estate career with W. J. Roome & Co. in 1902 and seven years later he became identified with the organization of John H. Dye at 73 West 11th street. In 1911, after the death of Mr. Dye, Mr. Walsh succeeded him in the business. He has always made a specialty of property on the west side of the city from Chambers street to 23d street, in which district he manages a number of large properties and in which he has negotiated a number of important transactions.

Mr. Walsh has for a number of years been active in the affairs of the Real Estate Board. He is a member of the Executive Committee of the Board of Governors, and also a member of the Floor Committee, the Records Committee, the Dinner Committee and the Membership Committee. This is his first term as treasurer of the board, having succeeded Alfred V. Amy, who served in 1917, 1918 and 1919.

Mr. Walsh represented nearly 50 per cent. of the property owners and testified as an expert in the proceedings against the city growing out of the 7th avenue extension and the widening of Varick street. He is a strong advocate of the "build now" movement. "In spite of high building costs a person can build cheaper now than he will be able to for several years," he said. "All building costs are going up. A good many of these studios, buildings and private houses that are being turned into apartments are not going to last, as they do not adhere to the building laws.

"It will be the same old story that these new buildings will always fill up more rapidly than the old ones. It will be profitabe to build because of the high rents and because of the movements in real estate. That is, the investors who have been hit hard in Wall Street will no doubt turn to real estate. The building of mercantile buildings is at present profitable and will continue to be so for some time.

PRIVATE REALTY SALES.

THE total number of sales reported but not recorded in Manhattan this week was 159, as against 151 last week and 60 a year ago.

The number of sales south of 59th street was 59, as compared with 68 last week and 14 a year ago.

The number of sales north of 59th street was 100, as compared with 83 last week and 46 a year ago.

From the Bronx 47 sales at private contract were reported, as against 61 last week and 33 a year ago.

$3,000,000 Columbia Graphophone Purchase.

Max N. Natanson sold through Byrne & Bowman to the Columbia Graphophone Co. the four-story Columbia Trust Co. Building, at 360-362 5th avenue, northwest corner of 34th street, 61.9 feet on 5th avenue by 100 feet on 34th street. The asking price was $3,000,000. The Columbia Graphophone Co. acquired the property as a permanent home, having chosen it on account of its splendid location and accessibility at all points. Immediately opposite to the east is Altman's large store, and on the southerly corner the Waldorf-Astoria is located. The Columbia Graphophone Co. will immediately commence the erection of nine additional stories to the present building, and upon the completion of the work will occupy most of the floors as executive offices, etc. McKim, Mead & White are now preparing plans. During the alteration an ornamental bridge will be constructed around the building, and it is intended that the work will be carried on with the minimum of inconvenience not only to the customers of the trust company, but also to the general public.

The original building was designed by McKim, Mead & White and is one of the architectural landmarks of the city. It was originally built with the idea of adding to its height, and so the foundations were made sufficiently strong for the erection of the additional stories. It is estimated that the projected improvement will cost in the neighborhood of $1,000,000. Mr. Natanson purchased the property from the Columbia Trust Co. on November 25, 1919. It was formerly the site of the residence of the late A. T. Stewart and was occupied for a number of years by Margaret Howard, the well-known modiste. The parcel was purchased in January, 1901, by Charles T. Barney for the Knickerbocker Trust Co. from three different interests—the Butler family, the Clinch family and Bessie T. White, wife of Stanford White. The property then included an additional 40 feet on 5th avenue and an additional 50 feet on 34th street, which land was subsequently sold for other improvement. The Knickerbocker Trust Co. erected the present building as banking quarters for one of its branches. In June, 1912, the Knickerbocker Trust Co. merged with the Columbia Trust Co. and title to the property has since been held by the latter. The Columbia Trust Co. has retained a long lease on the ground floor. The Columbia Graphophone Co. is the manufacturer of the well-known phonographs and dictaphones of that name and has large factories in Connecticut and Delaware.

Brown Buys Wyllys Building.

Frederick Brown has purchased through the Charles F. Noyes Company the twelve-story Wyllys Building at 92 William street, south corner of Platt street, valued at nearly $1,000,000, on plot 32.5x111. The building is considered one of the best in the fire insurance district. It was erected from plans of Howells & Stokes and the front and sides are of granite, Indiana limestone, brick, marble and terra cotta. The entrance halls are finished in white Italian marble and the woodwork throughout the building is quartered oak of cabinet finish. It is interesting to note that, while the average rental in the building is about $1.50 per sq. ft., the last leases made by the sellers were at the rate of $4.25 per sq. ft. The property is in the same block with the Royal Insurance Company Building. Opposite from Platt to John street is the fourteen-story Woodbridge Building, covering a plottage of 19,000 sq. ft. It is in this building that the Aetna Life Insurance Company has just leased five floors and a portion of the ground floor through the Noyes Company. Among the prominent insurance tenants that occupy the Wyllys Building are Fidelity & Casualty Company, Sprinkler Leakage Insurance Company, Miller & Maltbie, William F. Moore, London Guarantee & Accident, L. T. Hollister, Max Joseph, Ocean Accident, Royal Exchange Assurance, S. I. Libowski .

Lawyers Buy Building.

To accommodate lawyers who are being forced out of their offices by large space leasing on the part of large corporations, the seven-story office building at 140 Liberty street, the south west corner of Washington street, has been bought by Arthur W. Marcell, Theodore T. Lane and Allen Bragaw, who are forming a stock company, all members of which will be tenants in the building. Each floor will have a director on the corporate board. The structure stands on a plot fronting 21 feet on Liberty street and 57 feet on Washington street. Mr. Marcell said: "We have been looking at various buildings in the downtown district for some time and both the location on Liberty street and the fact that no alterations will have to be made actuated us in our choice. The great demand for office space and the exceedingly high rents in the downtown district have resulted in this co-operative law building plan." The Stebbins Realty and Construction Company, the sellers held the structure at $150,000. J. V. Graham and Herman C. Sherman were the brokers.

Seabury Building Deal.

Home Insurance Company purchased the Seabury Building, a seven-story structure, 39.1x 18.10, at 59 and 61 Maiden Lane, adjoining the four-story building at 57 and abutting the North River Insurance Building, at 93 to 97 William street, recently reported sold. The Cruikshank Company represented the Home Insurance Company in its purchases of 93 to 97 William street and 57, 59 and 61 Maiden Lane.

Operator in $1,900,000 Deals.

Elias A. Cohen, as president of the Broadway-John Street Corporation, purchased two downtown properties, having a combined value of $1,900,000. From the National Liberty Fire Insurance Co. Mr. Cohen's company bought 62 William street, southeast corner of Cedar street, an eight-story office building, covering a plot fronting 33 feet on William street and 123 feet on Cedar street and having a rear line of 43 feet. This structure, which has a foundation that will allow for the construction of four additional stories, is reported to have been held at $1,100,000. An unusual feature of the transaction is that the buyer is to get immediate possession, this being one of the very few buildings near the busy financial zone not tied up under leases. Fred J. Whiton negotiated the sale.

The fifteen-story Downing Building, at 106 and 108 Fulton street, forming an "L" around the southeast corner of Dutch street, has also been acquired by the Broadway-John Street Corporation through the Charles F. Noyes Co. The sellers were F. Paul Sorg and Ada Pritchitt, of Ohio. Tenanted chiefly by firms in the jewelry and insurance business, whose leases expire next May, this building covers a plot fronting 50 feet on Fulton street and having a depth of 102 feet, with a 22-foot outlet to Dutch street. It was erected some years ago by John Pettit. The asking price is reported at $800,000. Mr. Cohen is negotiating the resale of the property through the same broker.

Hotel Deal Closed.

Stockholders of the Women's Hotel Co., owners of the Hotel Martha Washington, at 29 East 29th street, have ratified the sale of the property to the Bell Apartment-Hotel Co., headed by William Johnson, manager of the Hotel Netherland, Great Northern and Navarre of New York and the Hotel Plaza of Chicago. The present lease held by the Northern Hotel Co., George C. Brown president, holds until February 1, 1927. The structure is twelve stories high, and adjoins the northeast corner of Madison avenue and 29th street. It is said the price paid was in the neighborhood of $1,000,000. Pease & Elliman were the brokers.

Advertising Agency Buys.

The Frank Advertising Agency bought through Pease & Elliman the five-story building at 14-16 Stone street, on a plot 30x60, adjoining the southwest corner of Stone and Broad streets. The Frank Advertising Agency recently purchased the Trinity Church parish house, at the corner of Thames and Church streets, for its own use, from William Kilpatrick, and inside of a few days' time resold it at a large profit to the New York University as a headquarters for their downtown classes. After this they purchased the property at 14-16 Stone street, and within an hour's time they were also offered by the representative of Pease & Elliman, who closed this sale, an excellent profit for the resale of this property. Real estate is now very active in this section, and some of the property that has been sold is the Merchants' Building, a seven-story office building at 2-4 Stone street, running through to 19-21 Bridge street, which was sold for the Bowling Green Realty Co. to the Broadway-John Street Corporation. No. 11-13 Stone street was sold for Helen T. Hopner to Norman S. Reisenfeld, and 92 Broad street, which was recently sold at auction for Edgar B. Mangan to Gustav Schwab, who now controls a plot 52 feet on Broad street and 58 feet on Stone street. The Frank Advertising Agency expects to make extensive alterations to this building, putting on two additional stories, and the purchase of the property, including alterations, will involve about $150,000.

Sells Hotel St. Louis.

Frederick Brown resold to Michael Kaufman the Hotel St. Louis, a ten-story apartment hotel at 34 and 36 East 32d street, on a plot 40x98.9, between Madison and Park avenues. The property was held at $275,000 and is leased for twenty-one years at $25,000 per year, the lessees to pay all the expenses except interest, taxes and fire insurance. The structure contains 126 rooms. Mr. Brown recently acquired the property.

Buys Bonta-Narragansett.

The Hotel Bonta-Narragansett, at the southeast corner of Broadway and 94th street, has been purchased from the Selma Realty Co. by Frederick Brown. The structure consists of a twelve-story building, with a seven-story annex, and fronts 143 feet on Broadway and 146 feet on 94th street. It is completely furnished as an apartment hotel, and Mr. Brown was influenced in buying it because of the fact that possession was to be had immediately. The property, it is said, cost the buyer about $1,000,000. William Sinclair was the broker.

Resell 640 Park Avenue.

Resale has been made by J. C. & M. G. Mayer and Millard Schroeder of the thirteen-story apartment house at 640 Park avenue, northwest corner of 66th street, which they purchased a week ago from the Shafpa Realty Co. The new deal was arranged by Douglas L. Elliman & Co., the purchaser being an investor, who plans to occupy one of the apartments in the house. The structure stands on a plot 80x100 and has a rent roll of about $140,000. It was erected by the Fullerton-Weaver Construction Co. in 1914. It has one suite on a floor of eighteen rooms and six baths.

Kensington Court Resold.

Kensington Court, a six-story elevator apartment house at the northeast corner of Broadway and 151st street, has been sold by the Ranger Realty Co., S. Klar president, to a client of Myron Sulzberger. It occupies a plot 150x100, contains forty-five apartments and six stores that yield more than $50,000 in rentals, and was held at $400,000. The seller acquired the property last May from Frederick Brown.

Twenty-fourth Street Loft Sold.

Elias Gussaroff Realty and Construction Company purchased through Samuel Matz from Isaac Schiff the twelve-story loft, 62x100, at 43 to 47 West 24th street, held at $500,000. Otterbourg, Steindler & Houston, attorneys, represented the purchaser.

Drive Apartment Deals.

Union Chemical Glassware Co. (I. Portman) bought from Samuel Barkin, through Spotts & Starr, the ten-story apartment at the south corner of Riverside Drive and 148th street, 105x95, held at $600,000 and renting for about $75,000. Mr. Portman's company sold through Charles Berlin 504 West 172d street, a five-story apartment, 41x95, held at $60,000; also sold through Spotts & Starr to a Mr. Herskovitz 574 and 576 West 176th street, a five-story apartment, 75x88.

Charles Galewski bought from the Empire Trust Co., as trustee for the Guardian Trust Co., through Slawson & Hobbs, the nine-story apartment, 57.4x79, at 120 Riverside Drive, northeast corner of 84th street, and the twelve-story apartment at 125, adjoining, 74.82x130.9x irregular, renting for about $95,000 and held at $800,000.

Ford Building for Tire Company.

Joseph P. Day sold to the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. the Ford Motor Co.'s plant, near the Bridge Plaza, Long Island City. The property was held at $2,000,000. The Ford company established a large plant on tidewater at the head of Newark Bay, on the property of the Newark Factory Sites, where assembling and export business is handled. Shortly after the company decided to sell the government acquired the plant and established the "gas mask" department there. When the armistice was signed the Quartermaster's Department used the building for storage purposes. The purchasing company owns and occupies a large building opposite the Ford building, but needed large additional space. The structure just purchased is eight stories high and contains about 500,000 square feet of loft space.

Aimone Galleries Buy.

Pease & Elliman sold for Mrs. Lawrence Jacob, represented by W. Albert Pease as agent, the property 42-44 East 49th street, 43x100, on the south side of the street, between Madison and Park avenues, consisting of two four-story and basement dwellings, which have been in possession of the seller for a great many years. Teh purchaser is the Aimone Galleries, now located at 257 Madison av, but for many years located at the northeast corner of 45th street and Madison avenue. The buyers are dealers in antiques and objects of art, and were largely influenced in buying this side street property on account of the early erection of a hotel by the DuPont interests on the westerly side of Park avenue, between 48th and 49th streets.

Roxborough Sold Again.

Samul Reznick and Isidor Zimmer acquired from a syndicate composed of Harris and Maurice Mandelbaum, Irving Judis, Joseph Silverson and Fisher and Irving I. Lewine the twelve-story Roxborough apartment house at the northwest corner of Broadway and 92d street, which the sellers bought last October and held at $1,200,000. The Roxborough contains fifty-seven apartments of six, seven and eight rooms and eight stores and is said to return upward of $160,000 annually in rents. It covers a plot fronting 107 feet on Broadway and 125 feet on 92d street and was erected in 1911 by Isaac and Henry Mayer, who bought the site the same year from Franklin Pettit. M. V. Rosenberg was the broker in the present transaction.

The Importance of Office Equipment can scarcely be over-estimated in these days of perfected efficiency methods. The co-ordination and classification of all file matter cannot be carried out to the best advantage without the proper equipment, and the present shortage of office help and the necessity under modern conditions of taking care of increasing business without adding to the payroll make careful study and planning imperative. Our experts will be glad to study your problem and give you their advice. Our line features the famous Macey product, and we are specialists in the entire equipment of an office from floor coverings to specially built furniture to fit the general requirements of the individual.

RECENT LEASES.

Big South Street Lease.

John Bittner, who recently leased the old Eastern Hotel, at 1 South street, corner of Whitehall street, to the United Cigar Stores Co., leased from Walter C. Suydam for twenty-one years, with privilege of renewal, for about $300,000, the six-story building adjoining, 40.6x 120.2x irregular, at 2 and 3 South street. Mr. Bittner wanted to buy the property, but the owners declined to sell. It is reported the United Cigar Stores Co. intends to add two stories to the old hotel and are negotiating with Mr. Bittner for 2 and 3 South street, so as to remodel the two structures into a modern office building. The alterations probably will cost between $80,000 and $100,000.

$1,000,000 Broadway Lease.

Rice & Hill leased for Col. George R. Fearing, of Newport, R. I., 1662 to 1666 Broadway, running through to and including 792 to 796 7th avenue, a two-story building, midway between 51st and 52d streets, with a frontage on both Broadway and 7th avenue of 66 feet each and a depth of 166 feet through the block. The lease is for a term of twenty-one years from May 1, 1920, with privilege of renewal, and the rental for the first term will approximate close to $1,000,000. The tenant is the Silver Lunch Co., which plans very extensive improvements to the property.

Leases Edgemere Club.

The Lewis H. May Co. leased for Max N. Natanson the Edgemere Club property, fronting on the Atlantic Ocean, at Edgemere, L. I., to H. Burger for a term of years. The property consists of main building, separate bathing casino, tennis court, cottages and outbuildings. The lease is for a term of years and totaled $200,000. The property was recently acquired by Mr. Natanson through the same brokers.

Big Bronx Rental.

L. J. Phillips & Co. leased for Hon. Arthur H. Murphy to the United Cigar Stores Co. of America the entire block front on the northerly side of Fordham road, from Webster avenue to Decatur avenue, with frontages of 79.10 on Webster avenue and 93.10 on Decatur avenue. The property is covered by a two-story and basement building now used for store and office purposes. This property is located in one of the best business sections and fastest growing parts in the Bronx, where there has been a great deal of activity in the last few years, there being several theatre and business buildings under construction in this section on Fordham road at the present time. The lease is for a term of about twenty-five years and the net rental to be paid thereunder, exclusive of taxes, is nearly $400,000.

AMES & CO. leased for the Greenwich Associates, Inc., the 3d loft at 164 Madison av to Schoen & Newman.

GOODWIN & GOODWIN, in conjunction with Wood Dolson & Co., rented the store at 2455 Broadway to the Epperson Corporaiton.

F. J. GUILFOYLE & CO. leased for the Dyckman Building Corp. the 12th floor at 508 5th av to the U. S. N. Candy Stores, Inc., for executive offices.

LEGISLATIVE BILLS AFFECTING REALTY

Measures Introduced at Albany Approved or Disapproved by Real Estate Board of New York

AT a meeting of the Legislation and Taxation Committee of the Real Estate Board of New York held Wednesday, January 28, action was taken on the following bills:

Assembly Int. 173, Pr. 173, Jesse. In relation to rent commissions and to regulate renting conditions of rental property and apartments in cities of the first class, constituting chapter seventy-two of the consolidated laws.

This measure would authorize the creation of rent commissions in cities of the first class, to investigate and determine rent controversies involving residence properties, including tenement houses.

The commissions are to be empowered to determine the fair and reasonable rental value of such properties and are to have authority to enforce their determinations.

The measure utterly abrogates the right of property owners to make leasehold contracts and completely effaces from the statute books the existing law of landlord and tenant, so far as it applies to residence property. No more complete and effective embargo could be laid upon the construction of much needed additional housing facilities than would result from the enactment of this bill. What is needed are laws that will encourage, not discourage, the construction of new residence buildings. This bill would operate to the disadvantage of renters and should be vigorously opposed.

Assembly Int. 212, Pr. 212, Dickstein. To amend chapter two hundred and three of the laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, re-entitled "An act in relation to summary proceedings to remove monthly tenants in the cities of New York and Brooklyn for holding over" by chapter three hundred and fifty-seven of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, in relation to notices to tenants.

This measure would amend the law relating to summary proceedings to remove monthly tenants for holding over by making its provisions apply also to tenants from month to month and increasing from twenty to sixty days the period of notice to quit, service of which is prerequisite to an action to regain possession for holding over. The title of the bill is defective because it refers only to monthly tenants when the act itself relates also to tenants from month to month.

The bill is unfair in that it requires a landlord to give sixty days' notice to quit without imposing upon a tenant the requirement that he shall give a sixty day notice of his intention to quit. These requirements should be reciprocal to be just. The bill is disapproved.

Assembly Int. 194, Pr. 194, Evans. For the relief of the people of the State during milk and other food shortages in times of industrial crises and emergencies, and making an appropriation therefor.

This bill proposes to put the State in business to sell milk, meat, flour, bread and other food necessary in times of industrial disputes, crisis or emergency, and appropriates the sum of $1,000,000. The bill is absurd and its execution impossible.

The cost of feeding the people of this city every day is about $7,000,000, and there is no way by which the Governor could make an impression upon the food supply of the city with an appropriation of $1,000,000, nor could he accomplish any useful purpose with it aside from the wrong principle of putting the State in business. The bill is disapproved.

Assembly Int. 220, Pr. 220, Leininger. To authorize the assessment of real property acquired by the State of New York for barge canal terminal purposes within the city of New York, for benefit derived by said lands by reason of the opening or physical improvement of streets and avenues.

This bill was drawn by the city of New York and is to authorize the payment of the expense for the acquisition of real property for widening streets leading to barge canal terminals by the State of New York; the idea being that the barge canal proposition is a State one, and the cost locally should not be put upon local property. The bill is approved.

Assembly Int. 172, Pr. 172, Jesse. In relation to the exemption from increased assessed valuation of real property improved for dwelling purposes.

This bill is practically the same as Assemblyman Dimin's bill, Int. 14, Pr. 14. Its obvious purpose is to encourage the building of much-needed housing. It is equally obvious, however, that any such encouragement will not have the slightest influence in achieving the desired result, as the outstanding obstacles in the path of building—viz., excessive cost and lack of mortgage money—are deterrents which cannot be overcome at present.

At the present time land in New York suitable for moderate priced apartments and homes is generally over-assessed. As the inducement to build contained in this bill is the temporary prohibition of increased assessment of over-assessed land, it is evident how inappreciable a factor this tax saving, if any, would be in inducing building. For these reasons the bill is disapproved.

Assembly Int. 174, Pr. 174, McDonald (Same as Senate nIt. 515, Pr. 548, Dunnigan; same as A. Int. 863, Pr. 1814, McDonald, year 1919). Amending Chapter 594, Laws of 1907, by providing that compensation of commission for preserving waters of Bronx River from pollution shall be fixed by New York City Board of Estimate. No obligation shall be incurred by commission for salaries, rent or incidental expenses unless first authorized by Board of Estimate.

This measure would amend the Bronx Parkway Law by requiring that the compensation of attaches of the commission shall be fixed by the Board of Estimate and that before an expense or obligation is incurred for the acquisition of any part or parcel of land the assent thereto of the Board of Estimate to the proposition shall be had.

This bill is approved. Undoubtedly the Board of Estimate should regulate the compensation of employes of the Parkway Commission and control the acquisition of real estate for its purposes, but it is probable that the manner in which Section 19 of the Parkway Act is amended, while affecting the purpose of restricting expenditures for the acquisition of real estate, removes the original restriction concerning all other expenditures of the commission, which is desirable and probably was not intended to be repealed.

REAL ESTATE NOTES.

Approaching Settlement In the Strike of Bricklayers

Officials of International Union Are Now in New York in Effort to Produce Harmony Between Employers and Workmen

QUITE a number of important building operations in New York have been held up on account of the strike of the bricklayers for $12 a day of eight hous. Practically all work under contract by members of the Building Trades Employers Association has been affected to some extent and the only operations that are able to go ahead are those under the direction of firms and individuals not members of the organization.

At the present time negotiations are underway that are hoped will result in a settlement of the existing difficulty. The Mason Builders Association maintain that their position of refusing to arbitrate until the men return to work is the only possible one as the bricklayers walked out after having agreed late last year to submit their demands to arbitration before an umpire and abide by his decision. Despite this agreement they refused to go to work January 2 and demanded $12 per day which was even more than they had originally asked for.

Some of the officials of the International Bricklayers' Union have come East within the past week or so and they are making a determined effort to bring the matter to a head. These officers have met with a number of the local unions and have urged that the men return to their jobs in order to facilitate the arbitration of their claims. It is now likely that the men on strike will favorably consider the advice of their International officials and in this event the employers will immediately arrange for the selection of an umpire and the arbitration of the points in dispute.

During the past week or so there has developed a further feeling of unrest in building circles caused by the fact that the laborers plan to strike in the near future for a rate of $7 per day. The laborers were not included in the agreement between the Building Trades Employers Association and the Building Trades Council that was consumated in the latter part of 1919. For some time there has been a growing scarcity of common labor for building operations in the Metropolitan district and employers have been more than willing to pay advances above the scale in order to keep their jobs going. The labor scarcity is now acute. Many of the workmen formerly employed by the building industry as common labor have drifted into other lines where the scale of wages was higher. Some have entered the skilled trades and as there has been practically no influx from European ports, the the previous source of supply for substantially all of the common labor in structural work, the supply has decreased and there have been no new sources opened.

Contracts for Buildings in Japan

The Japanese contract of the George A. Fuller Co., New York, for the construction of buildings in Tokio, is for about $5,000,000 and includes only two buildings to be erected in Tokio; a 7-story office building about 160 x 160 ft. for the Japan Oil Co., and a 7-story office building about 160 x 290 ft. for the Japan Steamship Co. The engineers being sent to carry out the contract sailed from San Francisco January 30, and according to the George A. Fuller Co., plans now under consideration cannot be completed until these engineers have gone over the ground and reported. Although the company has other construction projects in view in Japan and China, at the present time there is no certainty of any other work being done.

Fire Destroys Architectural League Exhibition

Fire in Fine Arts Building in 57th Street Quickly Spreads, Damaging Valuable Paintings and Other Works of Art

OWNING to a disastrous fire that broke out in the Vanderbilt Gallery of the Fine Arts Building, 215 West 57th street, Friday morning, the Architectural League of New York has been forced to indefinitely postpone the opening of its thirty-fifth annual exhibition. At the present writing the exact damage to the building and its contents, including practically all of the works of art, furniture, hangings, etc., that were to have been included in the exhibition has not been determined and it will require some time to completely survey the loss sustained by the Architectural League and its exhibitors. The exhibition was to have been opened with the usual league reception and private view this afternoon and the annual banquet of the Architectural League at which the medals for architecture, danscape architecture, painting and sculpture were to have been awarded was also postponed for the present.

VIEW OF DECORATIONS FOR LEAGUE EXHIBITION.

The 1920 exhibition would have marked another step in the progress of organized collaboration of the building arts and crafts and would have interested not only the architect, the sculptor and the rural painter, whose works were to be displayed, but also everyone having home-building and home-furnishing projects in mind.

Unlike most exhibitions of this character the destroyed league exhibition was not the result of the perfunctory labor of salaried officers and business promoters, but of the organized accomplishment of pure good will and unfeigned enthusiasm for fine things on the part of many of America's well-known architects, painters and decorators.

For some time past it has been realized that there is a distinct advantage to everyone concerned if the architects and the craftsmen who execute their beautiful conceptions cooperate to the fullest extent. To this end the familiar Fine Arts Galleries had been transformed into a wonderful and novel setting designed by Howard Greenley as a background for the exhibits of architecture, sculpture and painting. Alcoves were formed and each space thus provided had been assigned to a prominent architect in which to create a livable room, as beautiful and as fitting as his creative vision, fulfilled by the expertness of craftsmen and material manufacturers can make it. These rooms were complete in every detail, containing artistic furniture, fabrics and tapestries; ornamental plaster, carved wood and stone, lighting fixtures and all of the accessories as they would be installed in a room to make it habitable and inviting. They were, however, in no sense glorified salesrooms, where purchases were to be solicited.

In addition to the decorative features presented in the upper galleries, there was a display of useful and practical apparatus and materials in the room under the Vanderbilt Gallery. Everything from the foundation to the roof of a building was to be shown in this display thus making the thirty-fifth exhibition of utilitarian as well as of artistic value.

The Architectural League has demonstrated more forcefully than ever before ts conception of what constitutes architctural progress and its members are to be congratulated and supported in their diligent and comprehensive effort to give an exhibition which is universal in its interest. Many would have gone to see this exhibition who would not be attracted by the ordnary academic affair.

The four committees responsible for the exhibition have worked under the leadership of the following chairmen; Howard Greenley, Committee on Architecture; A. Sterling Calder, Committee on Sculpture; Arthur Crisp, Committee on Decoration, and Russell F. Whitehead, Committee on Catalogue.

The committees which worked so diligently in order to make this exhibition a success immediately upon the outbreak of the fire were called into session to make every effort to hold the exhibition in the near future. It is hoped that some part of the work exhibited will be salvaged and that duplicates of othes may be obtained. Announcement of the plans for this event will be made as soon as possible.

Value of Gas Heating for Homes and Business Buildings

New and Improved Appliances for Steam and Hot Water Plants Obviate Necessity for Use of Coal

FREQUENTLY a house owner or tenant makes the mistake in considering the heating of his premises by gas, of taking into consideration only the present high price of coal and the uncertainty of the coal supply during the immediate months. No greater error could be made. Gas heating is not a makeshift, nor to be so considered. Neither should it be thought of entirely as an auxiliary means of heating. Gas heating may be used in the latter way in certain circumstances and conditions, but the use of gas for heating homes, offices, stores and factories should be adopted on its merits as a fuel. The price of coal, and the shortage or abundance of that fuel, is only one element to be considered. There are scores of other reasons to lead you to adopt a fuel that has every advantage over coal and none of its disadvantages, says "Gas Logic."

During the last few years gas heating has made remarkable strides in New York City. At one time the popular heater of the cylinder type was very extensively used, and it is still widely used. Then came the heaters of the "reflector" type, more ornate in appearance. In thousands of cases these took the place of other kinds of fuel—coal, wood and oil. The radiator heaters were contemporaneous with those of the "reflector" pattern. These three types of heaters were used with tubing, but later the much more reliable and satisfactory connections by means of a permanent gas pipe attachment were adopted and are now much in vogue.

The development of gas heating has now brought into use the castiron gas and gas steam radiators, such as have heretofore been used for steam and hot water heating. In fact, there are now radiators much in use, where both steam and gas may be used. This permits the use of gas where the steam heat has failed, a not infrequent complaint.

It is only within a few years that the gas companies of this city have been installing the most recent and approved type of boilers in the cellars of private homes, by which those entire houses are provided with heat. Old coal burning furnaces and boilers have been discarded in all these cases, and the appearance of the cellars has been greatly improved by the removal of coal and ash piles and the heaps of kindling wood.

These gas boilers have a thermostat attached, which regulates the heat automatically. The device is set to operate at the degree of heat desired, and when that degree is reached, the gas is automatically shut off, and it remains off, until it is again automatically turned on by the thermostat when the temperature falls below the householder's heat requirements. Thus entirely without human thought or attention, the boiler performs its work.

It was during the winter of 1917-1918 that this city was in the throes of zero—and below zero—weather for many days. Coal was not to be had, and thousands of families suffered. The gas companies in Manhattan and the Bronx were called upon suddenly to supply a volume of gas unheard of in the history of gas-making throughout the world. Gas companies all over the country had to discontinue the sale of gas heaters. The scarcity of coal and oil limited the manufacture of gas. Here in Manhattan and the Bronx, the companies replenished their supply of gas heaters, furnished them to those who needed them and delivered a phenomenal amount of gas to use through them. It was found that many buildings, both business and apartment, were not properly equipped with gas pipes. Since then many property owners—having taken the lesson to heart—have installed gas-piping, and have adopted gas exclusively for heating. It does not do to buy gas heating appliances promiscuously. A "low price" often means a cheap and unreliable appliance. The best heaters are selected and are the convected and radiant types. Convected heat is heat taken up by air passing over heated surfaces; radiant heat is heat thrown off from a hot surface to another surface somewhat cooler than the heat itself, without heating the air between.

In all gas heaters there is a combination of the two forms of heat, and the value of the heater is determined by the amount of radiant heat in excess of the convected heat. Radiant heat acts like the rays of the sun and warms the floor, furniture, occupants of the room or whatever the rays of heat strike. For this reason radiant heat is more valuable than convected heat, as convected heat rises to the top of a room.

When gas is used for heating, the heat is always available. No fire has to be made and watched. No coal need be stored and carried. The instant the gas is lighted that moment you get the desired warmth. Individual rooms may be heated to certain temperatures, unused or unoccupied rooms need not be heated. There is no ash or coal dust to be distributed air is not contaminated by dust particles containing germs. throughout the house, to soil furnishings and clothing. The air is not contaminated by gas particles containing germs. The gas has a good ventilating effect and consumes the impurities in the air. When a boiler in the cellar furnishes the heat, the gas-fired system possesses every advantage of convenience, comfort and temperature control.

Coal burning appliances deteriorate rapidly. The fire box and combustion chamber crack easily in hot-air systems. This destroys drafts and permits smoke and products of combustion to enter airducts to the rooms being heated. In hot-water and steam systems, there is also faster deterioration than is found in the case of gas-burning boilers.

A technical survey or study of the premises to be heated should be made. There are many things to be considered. In cold weather, for instance, there is a continued loss of heat from the room to the surrounding colder air. Heat must be furnished to replace that loss. The quantity of that loss per hour depends on many things, such as the construction of the buildings, the temperature to be maintained, ventilation, exposure and outside temperature.

Frank Hedley, president of the Interboro Rapid Transit Company, announces that all the unused real estate in New York City held by the company, valued at several million dollars, would be sold at public auction to the highest bidder by Joseph P. Day in April.

Among the more important properties listed to be sold are 156-158 East 42nd street, a three-story fireproof store and office building with foundations for two additional stories.

Also in Manhattan, 150 lots on the east side of Broadway, between 218th street and the Harlem Ship Canal, taking in three and one-half blocks of Broadway property at this point. Then in the Bronx most of the west side of Broadway from 238th to 242d streets, comprising about eighty-nine lots; also the tract of about 7.8 acres, having approximately 800 feet frontage in Baychester avenue at and near White Plains road, and additional frontage in additional streets and avenues; also four lots in City Island.

Also in Manhattan, the square block bounded by 147th and 149th streets, Lenox avenue and Exeter street.

In Long Island City a block front on the north side of Fourth street, from Jackson to Vernon avenue, and improved with apartment and store buildings.

Also in Long Island City, the twelve and a half lots with old buildings at the northwest corner of Fourth street and West avenue, through to Fifth street, subject to a forty-five-foot wide sub-surface easement, for the Queensboro Tunnel; the valuable industrial waterfrontage on the south side of Eighth street, Long Island City, 100 feet west of West avenue and consisting of about sixteen upland lots.

Millions of Dollars Involved in Newly Projected Building

Figures of F. W. Dodge Company for Third Week of January Show Vast Improvement in Volume of Building and Engineering Construction

ALTHOUGH the strike of the bricklayers and the recent inclement weather have materially retarded building progress in the Metropolitan district for the past two weeks there has been a tremendous improvement in both the number and value of new operations planned and also in the amount of work placed under contract. According to the figures prepared by the F. W. Dodge Company, including projected building and engineering construction in New York State and New Jersey, north of Trenton, there were, during the week of January 17 to 23, inclusive, a total of 330 projects reported as being planned by architects and engineers, that will involve an expenditure of $20,955,700. During the same period contracts were placed for 184 new structural projects that will require an outlay of $36,336,600.

The statistics indicate a vast growth in the number and value of commercial, industrial and residential operations throughout the territory and indicate that provided materials and supplies are available the current year will pass into history as the most active since these records were compiled.

The list of 330 contemplated operations includes 71 business and commercial buildings such as stores, offices, lofts, garages, etc., $4,087,500; 9 educational buildings, $1,270,000; 4 hospitals and institutions, $175,000; 67 industrial operations including factories, warehouses, shops, etc., $9,691,500; 6 public buildings, $84,500; 11 public works and public utilities, $309,700; 4 religious and memorial buildings, $150,000; 148 residential operations including apartments, flats and tenements and one and two-family dwellings, $3,722,500 and 10 social and recreational buildings, $1,465,000.

The group of 184 projects for which contracts were awarded during the week of January 17 to 23, inclusive, is sub-divided as follows: 23 business and commercial projects, $1,109,500; 5 educational buildings, $518,000; 3 hospitals and institutions, $144,000; 43 factory and industrial buildings, $31,091,900; 1 public building, $90,000; 16 public works and public utilities, $912,700; 1 religious project, $35,000; 88 residential operations of various types, $2,277,500 and 4 social and recreational projects, $158,000.

New York State Association of Builders will hold its twenty-fourth annual convention at Syracuse, N. Y., Wednesday and Thursday, February 4 and 5, with headquarters at the Onondaga Hotel. Edward A. Keeler, 425 Orange street, Albany, N. Y., secretary. The following members of the Building Trades Employers' Association of New York have reserved accommodations as delegates: C. G. Norman, Lewis Harding, Nathaniel Webb, Fred B. Tuttle, Frank E. Conover, William T. Ritch, Frederick R. Usher, Frederick T. Youngs, Mr. Whiting, J. O'Dell Whitenack and Harry G. French.

Important Addition to Plant.

The Kewanee Boiler Co. has recently acquired ten acres of land west of its old plant at Kewanee, Ill., and has let contracts to the Lackawanna Bridge Co. for buildings to cover about 3.3 acres for additions to boiler plant and foundry. Most of the buildings will be 80 feet wide and the total area will equal a building about 80x1,750 feet. The buildings will be mostly steel and glass and will require in round numbers 1,500 tons of steel.

When the company moved to its present location, in 1900, it then acquired about five acres of land, and with the securing of ten acres the total area belonging to the company will be approximately thirty acres. The buildings are to be erected at once and the contractors have indicated they will be ready for occupacny by the middle of the summer. These additions will add approximately 50 per cent. to the capacity of the present boiler shop and will give room for the employment of more than 300 additional men. This improvement will make the plant investment thirteen times greater than it was twenty years ago, when the company moved to its present location.

The company has also recently acquired the property, 100x100 feet, at the corner of Washington and Green streets, Chicago, and this spring will begin work on a four-story office building with basement. Upon the completion of the building the Chicago office, now located at Washington and Market streets, will be moved to the new location.

William T. Ritch, Inc., in New Offices.

William T. Ritch, president of William T. Ritch, Inc., who has devoted many years to the study of all forms of insurance pertaining to the building industry, announces the removal of his offices on February 2 from the eleventh floor of the Builders' Exchange, 34 West 33d street, to the twelfth floor of the Loring Building, 29 West 34th street. In addition to contract liability, workmen's compensation and other forms of building insurance, Mr. Ritch handles a general line including fire, life, plate glass, steam boiler, tourists', burglary and automobile paymasters' hold-up.

For many years Mr. Ritch has been prominently identified with the activities of the building industry in the Metropolitan district and numbers among his intimate friends many of the leading and most influential men affiliated with the building trades. The remarkable growth of his business has been the direct result of his personality and his determined effort to be of real service to the industry.

Mr. Ritch has been extremely active in the affairs of the Building Trades Employers' Association and in point of services is one of the oldest members of this organization. In the past he has served on the Board of Governors and also upon many of the important committees in charge of its affairs. He is one of the remaining pioneer members of the Mechanics and Traders' Exchange.

Mr. Ritch has been fortunate in having associated with him a staff always willing to give their utmost in an effort to develop the various phases of his business, and it has been their loyalty and industry that has largely assisted in its growth. The organization of William T. Ritch, Inc., comprises William T. Ritch, president; Stanley Ritch Smith, vice-president; Miss Anna B. Heller, secretary and office manager, and Peter Edrich, treasurer and cashier.

Arrangements are being perfected for holding a joint session with the National Conference on Concrete House Construction. Rudolph P. Miller, Superintendent of Buildings, New York City, chairman of the Building Officials' Conference, has perfected the final details of the meeting and its success is assured.

CURRENT BUILDING OPERATIONS

BUILDING operations in New York City has been retarded somewhat during the past week by the strike of the bricklayers, which has tied up a number of important projects. Although negotiations are now under way having for their object the settlement of the difficulty between the workmen and the employers, it is likely that some time will elapse before an agreement is reached and work resumed. Another phase of the bricklayers' strike is the fact that projected buildings are being held in abeyance because owners are not willing to award contracts and then not know just exactly when their structures will be commenced.

The extremely bad weather of the past week or so has been another important factor in reducing the volume of actual building in the Metropolitan district. The condition of the streets has made material hauling almost impossible and there are a number of projects that, while not affected by the strike of the bricklayers, have been forced to suspend work owing to the lack of materials.

According to the weekly report of the F. W. Dodge Company, there is a tremendous increase in the volume of proposed building and engineering construction in this territory and if labor disturbances are settled and the supply of essential materials and supplies assured, 1920 will be one of the greatest building years in history.

Recently there has been a steady improvement in the amount of speculative construction planned and the building trades are looking forward to a vast quantity of work from this source. In Brooklyn, the Bronx and Queens the most of this type of construction will be centered, but reports from the suburban districts also indicate that the construction of the coming spring and summer will largely concern buildings of the speculative nature.

For the most part the local building material and supply markets are quiet, with dealers doing their utmost to obtain supplies essential to the building program as now outlined. There is a decided scarcity in certain lines and information from the sources of supply does not create an optimistic feeling by any means, as at present the demand is far in excess of the production, and when the season opens the demand will increase manifold, while producers will be limited by the factors that have prevented an increased output for some time past.

Prices are generally steady and there are many in the industry who are of the opinion that the top level has been reached in the majority of lines and that for some time prices will be stabilized. There is no certainty, however, regarding material prices, as the future will largely depend upon the ability of the manufacturers to meet the demand.

Common Brick.—The local wholesale market for Hudson River common brick has been rather quiet during the week as a result of the congested condition of the streets that has prevented the hauling of brick. Buying was light, with but two barges disposed of, but inquiry current denotes that the coming months for both producers and dealers will bring a brisk demand for brick. The price is holding firmly at $25 a thousand, and it is the general opinion that the price for this commodity will not go higher and that just as soon as new supplies are available the market will drop to some extent. There are at present about ten covered barge loads of brick in the city pending sale, and the feeling is expressed that the brick remaining unsold in the wholesale market, combined with what the dealers have in their yards, will be sufficient for all building demands until the new supplies are available.

Summary.—Transactions in the North River common brick market for the week ended Friday, January 30, 1920. Condition of market: Demand light; prices firm and unchanged. Quotations: Hudson Rivers, $25 a thousand to dealers in cargo lots alongside dock. Number of cargoes arrived, none; sales, 2. Distribution: Manhattan, 1; Brooklyn, 1. Covered, 10.

Lumber.—The strike of the driers and yard men has slowed down activity in the lumber business to some extent, but it is likely that this difficulty will be settled within a short time. Buying activity in both wholesale and retail markets continue and dealers are experiencing considerable trouble in filling the demands made upon them. In certain lines there is a decided scarcity and the situation is largely the result of the car shortage that has prevented new lumber shipments from reaching the local market. The mills are working to capacity, but, as they are generally loaded with orders for many months ahead, it appears as though the supply will be much below the demand for some time to come. Lumber prices have steadied somewhat, but there is yet an advancing trend to the market.

Structural Steel.—There has been but slight change in the local situation as it applies to structural steel. Contractors are well booked with contracts, but are experiencing some difficulty in obtaining material from the mills, which are practically sold for months ahead. There are a large number of important building operations being planned by architects and engineers in this section that undoubtedly will be ready for estimates in a short time, but some doubt has been expressed as to whether or not these structures will be able to go ahead owing to the scarcity of various kinds of materials. Prices are somewhat easier than they have been.

Cast Iron Pipe.—The market is quiet, with buying activity light and inquiries infrequent. Recently, however, there has been considerable inquiry from foreign sources and manufacturers are looking to this market for a percentage of their business. During the past week or so some contracts for municipal work have been awarded, but the total tonnage involved is not large. Prices are firm and unchanged.

Linseed Oil.—The market is very dull and there seems to be no buying interest of any description. Dealers have been getting some inquiry, however, that indicates considerable business next spring. Prices are firm, ranging from $1.77 to $1.79 per gallon in carload lots.

Nails.—There is a scarcity amounting almost to a famine in both wire and cut nails and prices are practically anything the dealer is able to get. At present writing there is little prospect of relief in sight and it is likely to be some months before the supply is equal to the demand.

Plaster.—The demand for plastering materials is indicating marked signs of improvement owing to the general increase in the number of active building operations throughout the local territory. During the past week a number of price advances were announced. Neat wall cement in cloth bags is up $1.20 per ton to $23.50. Both lath and brown mortars have advanced $0.50 to $16.50 per ton. Quotations on finishing plaster in 250-lb. barrels are now $4.10 and for 320-lb. barrels, $5.20.

Face Brick.—Local dealers are generally satisfied with trade conditions. The demand for this product is steadily improving and a number of manufacturers are booked ahead for some time to come.

Flexibility

A great advantage of Edison Service is the ability to care for any important growth of the demand for electric current supply

It was found recently that the private generating plant in the Stock Exchange Building was unable to carry an additional load of 500 lamps and 75 horsepower. Before purchasing a new generating unit an Edison Service proposition was considered

The investigation showed Central Station Service to be economical and dependable. It also showed how easily arrangements could be made to handle a sudden increase in demand

Before purchasing new generating equipment consult our engineering staff as to the possibilities of Edison Service

Architects and Engineers are specifying and demanding

STEELBILT

in preference to those made of ordinary materials.

STEEL has exclusive advantages. It is non-absorbent and therefore sanitary. It does not crack; in fact, is indestructible. It has a neat, clean appearance. Costs less than other substances and is more easily and economically erected. It is the logical material.

STEELBILT Toilet Partitions are made in standard sizes, some of which are carried in stock for quick delivery. Partitions and doors are made in units, of sizes to suit any plan layout.

Write Dept. "R" for full particulars and a copy of our architects' specification sheet.

Artificial Stone is growing in popularity

Unlike other Building Units, Artificial Stone is a NON-CONDUCTOR of DAMPNESS, COLD and HEAT. It reduces building costs and expedites construction. A wide variety of facing effects produced with crushed granite, marble, brownstone, Indiana limestone, carborundum, etc., makes it a sightly stone for every type of structure and its durability insures the lowest possible maintenance cost.

We court investigation of the most searching kind, and are always pleased to go over the subject in greater detail with anyone interested in building for permanence, beauty and economy.

An Urgent Appeal To All Telephone Users

During the Epidemic of Influenza and Pneumonia use the telephone only when absolutely necessary.

THE prevailing sickness has caused thousands to remain at home and turn to the telephone not only to reach physicians, hospitals, nurses and others directly concerned with the epidemic, but also to transact social and business matters. As a consequence the already abnormal telephone traffic has been greatly increased.

Our operating force, seriously depleted by sickness, is meeting an exceedingly difficult situation in a manner deserving of the highest praise and the most kindly cooperation. In the interest of the public health and safety—Cooperate. Every unnecessary call places an unnecessary burden upon the operators, and may delay a vitally important message.

Help keep the telephone lines free to carry the necessary messages.

Before you telephone, make sure the call is essential

The Record and Guide under date of Jan. 3d of this year published a list of 31 real estate transactions during 1919, each involving $2,500,000 and upward.

The Title Guarantee & Trust Company was called upon by the purchasers to examine and insure all but seven out of the thirty-one.

This certainly indicates the popularity of this Company among those who buy properties of this size.

New Census Figures Soon

The taking of the Federal census for 1920, it is announced, is very nearly completed in New York City and approximate figures may be given out shortly. Work on the Federal census has progressed more rapidly here in the metropolis than in other parts of the United States, and it is quite likely that New York City, which has a habit of being first in so many different ways, will be first, as usual, in the matter of the new census.

It is the estimate of those in charge of the census work that the total population of the United States at the present time will be shown to be above 110,000,000. The last Federal census, taken in 1910, showed the population of the country to have been 91,972,266 at that time. This was an increase of approximately 16,000,000 during the preceding decade.

Agreement is quite general that during the last ten years the ratio of increase has been much greater than during the previous period. Not much surprise will be occasioned, therefore, if the new census shows that the population of New York City now exceeds 6,000,000 by official figures. The census of 1910 gave New York a population of 4,766,883 for the boroughs of Manhattan, Bronx, Brooklyn, Queens and Richmond. If this year's figures prove, as do unofficial figures, that the metropolis has grown into a city of 6,000,000 souls, the ratio of increase here during the past ten years will have been much in excess of the ratio of growth in the United States as a whole.

Enough is known already about the 1920 figures to indicate that the Borough of Manhattan, for all these years the keystone of what is now the City of New York, may have to take second place to the Borough of Brooklyn in the matter of population. Manhattan has been growing right along, of course, but Brooklyn also has been growing more rapidly than the borough on the west side of the East River. The fact that Brooklyn has been making great strides in population is reflected in the number of voters in that borough during the past few years. It may be, when the census figures for 1920 are completed, that Brooklyn will find herself still running second to Manhattan in total population, but all signs indicate that it will not be long before Brooklyn will be first in population among the five boroughs of Greater New York.

A Hint to the Wise

The violent fall in foreign exchange has had one beneficial effect even if in itself it discloses serious international financial conditions. With practical unanimity expert opinion both in this country and in Europe insists on the necessity for ending the orgy of extravagance that swept over the whole world immediately the armistice was signed, and for extraordinary effort for increased production in every line of human endeavor as the remedy for existing conditions. There are indications that if individuals are not yet convinced of the need of curbing extravagance and for saving instead of spending, forces over which they have no control will gradually exert pressure to bring about a more normal state of affairs in the budgets of those who have been indulging themselves in unwonted luxuries.

The Seventh Federal Reserve District bank, with headquarters in Chicago, in its recent report hints at the nature of the forces which are at work.

"On one side," it says, "there are forays against high prices, society women engineering film propaganda and quasi boycotts against this or that commodity at the prevailing price, or else pledges to refrain from buying until concessions are made. On the other side there is the obstinate fact that demand for commodities outruns any possibility of providing a supply—that production is low in volume because labor is inefficient and because raw materials are available in quantities much below necessary requirements. These factors, combined with a car shortage, motive power famine, inadequate transportation facilities and strike rumor, constitute a total of risk elements against which the average business man dreads to pit his capital."

Crowning all the difficulties, says the report, is the foreign exchange situation, which is declared to be the most unfavorable in its bearings on American business hopes. "The American businessman," the report continues, "realizes that increased production is the only remedy that will right the situation. So far the rank and file of labor, and those directly interested in maintaining the high price level, either have failed to grasp the significance of this idea or are ignoring it."

But they will soon be obliged to take it into account. European nations, hard hit by the war, are at last making strenuous efforts to regain commercial and financial equilibrium. Belgium has been most successful of our allies in recovering from the effects of the war. England has temporarily stopped importing cotton from us and will export its finished products to us at prices which our mills cannot meet in order to equalize the exchange rate, and intends to drastically reduce its inflated currency. France is issuing a loan, part of which will be taken in this country, for the same purpose of equalizing exchange. France, too, may be depended on to scrimp and save in living expenses, as it did after the Franco-Prussian war.

The certain curtailment of our exports to Europe will have the effect of increasing supplies of necessities in this country and consequent reduction in their prices. Already prices of some commodities have been marked down as the result of the failure of the expected export demand to materialize. When Europe does not take our goods merchants will seek trade with South America and our exchange there, which runs against us, will be benefitted.

It has taken over a year for the world to realize that retrenchment in expenditure and the maximum of production are as necessary in the reconstruction period as during the dark days of war. It is as necessary for us to retrench and save as it is for the less fortunate peoples of Europe, for it is up to us to provide the credits by which the business of the world can be re-established and we cannot do this if we waste the resources which the fortunes of war have given us. Now that this truth seems to have been grasped by the leaders of American thought it is likely that the rank and file of Americans will characteristically put the idea into execution, and that the embarrassments of the moment will give way before the common sense and energetic application to business of a nation that has never yet failed to meet an emergency.

A City's Health Comes First

The people of New York City have become accustomed to the habit of dissatisfied employes taking advantage of emergencies to enforce their demands either for higher wages or shorter hours or both. Despite their eye-opening experience along this line, however, not many level-headed citizens could avoid being shocked by the threat of engineers and firemen to go on strike at the height of the "flu" epidemic and to make the metropolis a city of cold apartment houses, cold hotels and cold office buildings. Fortunately, the energetic efforts of Health Commissioner Copeland resulted in averting the threatened strike, but for this happy outcome no credit is due to the engineers and firemen of the city's big buildings. The only reason why they did not go ahead with a strike which must have proved calamitous to hundreds of thousands of people was that their demands were granted. It is a point of no consequence in this connection whether their demands were reasonable or unreasonable. The only point of vital public concern is that they showed an absolute disregard for the lives and health of a large portion of the city's population, and at a time when every official and private effort was being made to check a dangerous epidemic.

Commissioner Copeland's prompt action to ward off the danger to the public health which was threatened deserves and has received high commendation. It was grossly unfair that in such a crisis his attention should have had to be diverted from other vital duties until he could ward off the added danger which the strike threatened.

The Record and Guide also regrets that Commissioner Copeland has found it necessary to warn some landlords that they must not undertake to evict tenants suffering from influenza or pneumonia. Any landlord who would resort to such action under these circumstances would deserve and would get severest public condemnation. "In a time of widespread illness," Dr. Copeland rightly says, "it appears the duty of the landlord, even where it involved personal loss, to aid health authorities in their efforts to control the epidemic." This same public-spirited principle applied with equal force to the engineers and firemen who threatened a heat strike, but they preferred to take advantage of a grave situation in order to enforce their demands.

The health of a city of 6,000,000 people is of far greater importance than the wages or hours of engineers and firemen in buildings or the percentage of profit of any landlord of buildings where humans dwell or work.

MANY important matters were considered at the annual meeting of the Bronx Board of Trade, held on Wednesday evening, January 26, at the board room, 137th street and Third avenue.

Among the many propositions were plans for increased activity in the matter of securing an appropriation to build the Bronx Post Office Building on the Government-owned site at 149th street and Mott avenue, the annual dinner of the Bronx Board of Trade, which will be held on Tuesday, March 2, at the Hotel Astor; the Rice Memorial Stadium and Athletic Field, anti-strike provisions in the Railroad Bill, proposed trotting-track in Van Cortlandt Park, increased use of the Bronx Barge Canal Terminal.

The following officers were elected: President, James Brackenbridge; vice president, Frederick A. Wurzbach; members of the board of directors, to serve until January 1, 1923, Olin J. Stephens, Richard W. Lawrence, Herbert A. Knox, Robert J. Moorehead, Martin Walter, Alexander Haring, Rev. William H. Kephart, D.D., Cyrus C. Miller, George S. Ward and August F. Schwartzler.

The annual reports of the officers, the secretary, the treasurer and the various bureaus and standing committees were filed and the contents ordered printed in the Year Book of the Bronx Board of Trade for 1920, which is expected to be ready for distribution in the latter part of February

The United Real Estate Owners Association, at its regular meeting on Monday, at the Hotel Astor, adopted the following resolution:

"Whereas, It is a recognized fact that unconscionable rent profiteering is being indulged in by a few realty owners and by unscrupulous "leastors" to the great detriment of the majority of realty owners; and

"Whereas, This association fully approved of the Hirsch Anti-Profiteering Committee and co-operated with it as a means of bringing landlords and tenants into harmony over reasonable rent increases; and

"Whereas, There has been introduced at Albany the two following bills, providing for the licensing of "professional leastors" and providing for a State commission to fix maximum rents.

"Be it therefore resolved, That this association goes on record as in favor of the principle of licensing "leastors," as also in favor of a State conciliation commission to bring landlord and tenants together, for suggesting what rents should be charged, with the power of subpoena and production of records and examining under oath, similar to the Hirsch Anti-profiteering Rent Committee, but without the power of enforcing maximum rents."

The 23rd Annual Banquet of the Real Estate Board of New York will be held at the Hotel Commodore tonight.

Governor Alfred E. Smith will come down from Albany to tell the real estate men and their guests something about state affairs. Speaker Thaddeus C. Sweet of the Assembly will also speak. Other speakers include Hon. James W. Gerard, the last ambassador to the late Imperial German Government; Hon. Henry Morgenthau, former Ambassador to Turkey; Frank Hedley, president of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, and Edward J. Cattell.

President Stephen H. Tyng of the Real Estate Board of New York will act as toastmaster.

Fifth and Park Avenues Become One-Way Traffic Streets

Vehicles Will Move South on the First and North on the Second from Ten to Five o'Clock, Beginning February 16

IMPORTANT traffic experiments will be given a thirty-day tryout beginning February 16, by the New York City Police Department. On that day, beginning at 10 a. m. and continuing until 5 p. m. daily traffic between Thirty-fourth Street and Fifty-seventh Street will move south only on Fifth avenue and north only on Park Avenue, forming a belt line of "rotary traffic." If it is a success it will be regularly adopted and extended to other congested sections of the city.

Special Deputy Police Commissioner Harriss made this announcement for the control of traffic in the shopping district on Thursday, at a luncheon given by the Uptown Club, at 11 East 45th Street. Commissioner Harriss worked out the details of the new scheme with Inspector O'Brien, who commands the Traffic Division. The two-way traffic on Madison and Sixth Avenues will not be affected by the new rules.

Traffic police stationed in the signal towers now in course of erection on Fifth Avenue at Fifty-seventh, Fiftieth, Forty-second, Thirty-eighth and Thirty-fourth streets, will flash red, yellow or green lights in directing the maze of vehicle and pedestrian traffic.

Reduction of almost 60 per cent. in the time required to traverse Fifth Avenue from Fifty-seventh to Thirty-fourth Street, at the busiest traffic periods of the day, according to Dr. Harriss, is assured with the successful working of the plan.

Regulations under the new system provide briefly as follows:

Signals to be flashed from the towers up and down Fifth Avenue, day and night, are:

Red signal—Traffic shall move on Fifth Avenue, and all cross traffic from the side streets shall stop behind the building lines, or white lines marked on the roadway.

Yellow signal—All traffic on Fifth Avenue, as well as on side streets, shall stop behind the building lines, so as to give clear directions.

Green signal—Traffic from the side streets shall proceed.

The signals will be in operation from 9 a. m. until 12 midnight and will regulate the movement not only of vehicular traffic but also of pedestrians in crossing roadways.

Before 10 a. m. and after 5 p. m. traffic on Fifth and Park Avenue will be both ways, but on Fifth Avenue under control of the men in the towers and at the other street intersections where the semaphores will be maintained. The same signals will be alternately flashed, or as required by any emergency, always having the same signification.

Traffic on Madison Avenue, which bisects the belt line area, and on Sixth Avenue will be maintained as two-way traffic.

Vehicles going north or south on Madison or Sixth Avenue may turn at any available block (according to one-way traffic regulations in force on the cross streets) to reach Fifth or Park Avenue, and the same may be done on leaving either Fifth or Park Avenue, east or west, to reach any point desired.

The floor of the towers will be 12 feet above the roadway, to afford a clear view for their occupants, and the towers will be so provided at the base as to sheer off passing vehicles, thus becoming, in addition to their specific purpose, "isles of safety" for pedestrians crossing the avenue at these points.

By conservative estimates, the police official added, a vehicle under the plan may start from Fifty-seventh Street and reach Thirty-fourth Street in from seven and a half to ten minutes. At present, at busy hours, this passage requires as long as forty minutes.

He explained that at the Grand Central Station one of the most serious danger spots will be eliminated by using the ramp on Forty-second Street.

The suggestion is made with all the force of an urgent request that every individual operator of a motor car endeavor to observe the new regulations and cooperate with the Police Department, particularly during the first days of the new plan's operation. Chauffeurs and private car owners are requested when using either thoroughfare during the one way hours, to drive along the side from which they intend to turn off, or on the side on which they intend to park their cars. During the one way hours cars may be parked on either side of Fifth or Park avenue, but must be headed south on Fifth avenue and north on Park.

Although the new arrangement is primarily for the control of vehicular traffic, it will be of the utmost importance for pedestrians to acquaint themselves with the meaning of the new signals. The yellow signal will be displayed to warn the approach of fire apparatus. It is hoped eventually to install a system whereby the approach of fire apparatus will be automatically signalled from fire headquarters.

Fifth Avenue traffic congestion has become one of the most serious problems confronting the Police Department. During the day twenty-eight vehicles pass through the focal point at Forty-second Street every minute. The total of cars passing that point in ten hours last June was 15,997, and the number is larger now. Taking their observations over a period of several days six months ago statisticians of the B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company made this hour-by-hour table of traffic here:

Hours.	Total Per Hour.	Average Per Min.
9 to 10	1,713	29
10 to 11	1,635	27
11 to 12	1,806	30
12 to 1	1,623	27
1 to 2	1,388	23
2 to 3	1,563	26
3 to 4	1,490	24
4 to 5	1,563	26
5 to 6	1,500	25
6 to 7	1,696	28

These figures were checked by statisticians employed by the Fifth Avenue Association, who found that the average of north and south bound traffic was about the same daily—8,513 vehicles traveled northward and 8,447 southward, including 1,296 motor buses. The avenue at this point is fifty-five feet wide, the average throughout the proposed restricted section, and it is possible for six lines of vehicles to move when traffic is running both ways.

Many new fire hazards are being introduced by the fuel shortage. The most serious of these arises from the large amount of soft coal which is being stored in the basements of dwellings, apartment houses and mercantile buildings and on the premises of factories.

Assessed Value of State's Real Property $12,703,024,301

Increase in Realty Assessments in Last Five Years Is $1,500,000,000—Tax Commission Inclines to Relief of Real Estate

Albany, February 6.

THE Board of Appeals is given authority to determine appeals from orders, requirements, decisions and determination of the tenement house commissioner and in passing upon such appeals to vary or modify any law, rule or regulation relating to the construction or alteration of tenement houses in New York City under the terms of a bill introduced by Senator Dodge this week. The bill has the sanction of real estate interests in New York City generally.

The report of the State Tax Commission transmitted to the Legislature this week shows that the total assessed valuation of real property in the State is $12,703,024,301, and personal property, other than bank stock, $432,653,512, making a total of real and personal property assessment of $13,135,677,813. The net increase in the assessed valuation of real property over the year 1918 was $380,873,977. The increase in the real estate assessment in the last five years is approximately $1,500,000,000. Some of the notable increases are in the counties of Allegany, Clinton, Delaware and Orange. The highest increase was 140 per cent. in the city of Middletown, Orange County, and 158 per cent. in the town of Walton, Delaware County.

In discussing taxation, the commission makes no mention of realty in its report, which indicates a belief on the part of the members that real estate already overburdened should be relieved to the greatest extent possible by the enforcement of other taxes and the creation of new sources of revenue.

The commission urges the enactment of an amendment to Section 352 of the Tax Law so as to make all intangible personal property exempt from taxation and recommends that tangible personal property either be classified and taxed at a uniform rate or totally exempted from taxation.

Among the important amendments to the franchise tax on business corporations passed last year was the extension of this law to include substantially all business corporations, the increase in the rate being from 3 per cent. to 4½ per cent. of the net earnings and the minimum tax of $10 or one mill per share on corporations not reporting net earnings sufficient to pay at least the minimum tax. The result of these amendments, the report indicates, has been to increase the revenues of the State and localities nearly $15,000,000 this year. The corporation income tax will amount to approximately $32,000,000, and the franchise and gross earnings taxes to about $13,000,000. Of the last two taxes, the State will retain about $34,000,000 and the localities will be given about $11,000,000.

The report shows that real estate exempt from taxation is valued at $2,883,831,558, an increase of $74,038,536 over 1918. This full value of special franchise assessments of public utility corporations assessed during the year is slightly less than $659,170,121, all of which has been certified to the localities and entered upon the regular tax rolls, thus reducing taxes upon other real estate.

The mortgage tax bureau of the commission, the report points out, shows a total tax for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1919, of $2,583,859, an increase of $830,777 over the preceding year. Mortgages recorded were 100,848 as compared with 81,455 in the preceding year.

What is generally classified in legislative terms as an "old timer" made its appearance this week in the form of a bill introduced by Assemblyman Pette amending the Penal Law by providing that none but attorneys shall draw any instrument relating to the sale or exchange of or placing of any lien or encumbrance upon real property. The prohibition also extends to any instrument relating to the discharge or assignment of such lien or encumbrance or any petition, pleading or other instrument required by the rules and practices of any court of record. Similar legislation has been introduced for several years and generally died in committee before serious consideration on the floor of the Legislature.

Senator Dunnigan introduced a bill permitting the Comptroller of New York City to suspend or postpone any sale of tax liens at any time not exceeding 48 months from the day specified in the advertisement, instead of 36 months as at present. The bill is now before the Cities Committee.

Occupation agreements in New York City not specifying in writing the duration of occupancy shall provide for yearly tenancy, the rent to be payable monthly, under the terms of a bill submitted this week by Senator Shackno.

In line with the recommendations of the Governor's milk committee for municipal control of a portion of the milk industry in New York City, Senator George F. Thompson, who has introduced more municipal ownership bills than any of his colleagues in the State, this week submitted a bill which would authorize the New York City Board of Estimate and Apportionment to build or purchase and operate a milk pasteurization plant or plants and provide employes for such plants. The milk from these plants is to be distributed by the city health commissioner at a price fixed by the board. The health commissioner is authorized to purchase such supplies of milk as the board may allow. The bill is not dissimilar to provisions embraced in a bill introduced last year by Senator Thompson which provided for municipal ownership of public utilities, milk supply, grain elevators and in townships comprising towns and villages of agricultural implements used by the farmers in the localities. Less radical legislators believe the milk situation in New York City should receive some attention, but are not willing to accept the municipal ownership idea as applied to milk distribution.

All departmental estimates representing requests for appropriations by New York City department heads shall be published in the City Record not later than September 20 of each year in such detail as the Board of Estimate may prescribe, according to the terms of Assemblyman Simpson's bill submitted this week. The bill also provides for hearings on such estimates and requires that the schedules be made as definite and comprehensible.

The Board of Estimate is authorized to provide for the laying out, opening and improving of a public street in Brooklyn to connect Highland Park with the former city water station south of Fulton street near the beginning of Conduit street by a bill introduced by Assemblyman Forbell.

Assemblyman Fearon has a measure adding new section 16-a to the General City Law authorizing any city having existing pension funds entitled to part of excise moneys, to raise annually or appropriate from general funds and pay into such pension funds during 1920-1921-1922 a sum not exceeding the income of such pension funds from excise moneys for the year 1917.

Senator Davenport has introduced a bill authorizing the Governor to appoint an additional tax commissioner for the State for a four year term beginning Jan. 1, 1920. The present State tax commissioners are continued in office until the expiration of their terms. The bill provides that under the quadruple commission not more than two commissioners shall be of the same political faith. The salaries of the commissionerships are increased from $6,000 to $8,00.

Assemblyman Dobson presented a bill this week providing that whenever a mortgage or mortgages for indefinite amounts have been recorded without the payment of a tax, and the tax commission after a hearing decides that the failure to pay such tax was due to a misconception as to the nature of the instrument or its taxability, the commission may permit the recording officer to file a statement nunc pro tunc as of the date of recording the mortgage.

Commissioner Mac Stay Shows Ash Removal Difficulties

Strikes, Accidents to Tugs, Ice in Harbor and Lack of Sufficient Workmen Prevent Normal Activity

STREET CLEANING COMMISSIONER ARNOLD B. MAC STAY, replying to the recent letter of the Merchants Association relative to the ash removal situation in the downtown section, points out the various difficulties which have seriously interfered with the city's efforts to give adequate service. His letter reads:

"Permit me to state that since practically the first of the year our dumps on the North River have been blocked with ice so that for days at a time it has been impossible to get a scow in or out. At least four tug boats which we have employed to break up the ice in the slips have been so badly damaged, through breaking of propellers, shafts, etc., that we now find it impossible to charter boats for this work, as the owners are not willing to take the risk to their property.

"Furthermore, for the second time in the last twenty-five years the unloading plant at Riker's Island (the main disposal plant for ashes and rubbish) is shut down on account of the ice. The boat which carries the employees to and from this plant has been unable to reach the landing place on the island, and these men have taken their lives in their hands and walked at least a quarter of a mile on the ice in order to reach the plant.

"On January 22, a harbor strike took place, which still continues. The department is able to secure only a very small part of the service required for the removal of loaded vessels and the return of empties.

"Under these extraordinary conditions the department has been obliged to reserve such scow service as it has for the reception of household wastes. No one regrets more than I do the necessity for taking this step, and the resulting inconvenience and annoyance to the merchants of this city. We can only hope for a speedy settlement of the harbor strike; then, with favorable weather conditions, we will soon be working on a normal basis."

Further discussing the situation with a Record and Guide representative this week, Commissioner Mac Stay declared that a shortage of labor was operating to restrict the activities of his department.

"We are 1,500 men short in the Street Cleaning Department," he said. "The Civil Service List has been entirly exhausted and no new men can be supplied from this source. We have been required to appeal to drivers and others in the department to bring in men. This method has even proven unsatisfactory, because these emergency laborers tire quickly and do not last more than a few days.

"The ice in the North River has been a serious handicap, not only to scows but even to our tugboats, one of which has been sunk and others seriously damaged by ice. Up to very recently we have not been able to move a scow north of 72d street, but, now that this been cleared, conditions should be materially relieved in a few days."

The Mercantile Association, acting upon complaints of several of its members, wrote to Commissioner Mac Stay asking why the department has curtailed its service for the removal of ashes, and requesting that it be restored.

The letter reads as follows:

"During the two winters last preceding constant and bitter complaints were received by this association from manufacturers and merchants as to their inability to dispose of ashes in the usual way by discharging them upon public scows at the public dumps. Inquiry at that time showed conditions which seemingly justified the interruption of the ordinary service in the way of ash removal through the machinery of your department.

"These conditions no longer exist. The Government has released the tug boats seized by it and a normal number are therefore available for other uses. Obstruction by ice has thus far this season not been more than normal. There has been a general or long continued strike of tug men, although there has been a partial strike during the past week. We are further informed that the number of scows available by the department for ash removal has been substantially increased since last winter. The facilities at the command of the department appear to be adequate to meet the normal and reasonable demands upon it and to provide for the regular removal of ashes, upon which regular removal the operations of many manufacturing establishments depend.

"One recent complaint was to the effect that the complainant was compelled to pay $6 per load for the transportation of ashes to available dumping places in Long Island City. Another complainant operating a large establishment and producing daily a great quantity of ashes is now compelled to pay $3.40 per load for the privilege of disposing of his ashes through the operation of private scows. Such excessive cost for ash removal, of course, in the aggregate, imposes an enormous burden of expense upon business houses.

"We are well aware that at times extraordinary conditions arise which make extremely difficult, and sometimes impossible, the wholly regular and perfect performance of the duties of your department, and we are always disposed to make proper and friendly allowance on such occasions. Nevertheless, we feel that the equipment of your department should be of sufficient extent to make irregularity very infrequent and to prevent its recurrence except under extraordinary severe and difficult conditions. If such conditions now exist, we are not aware of them and shall, therefore, esteem it a favor if you will frankly inform us of any obstacles to the performance of your work which justify the imposition upon the business interests of this cty of an enormous cost for the private disposal of ashes."

Building Managers' Association Urges Increased Insurance

THE Building Managers' and Owners' Association of New York calls the further attention of its members to an opinion recently expressed by a leading fire insurance broker that the owners of buildings have not generally increased their insurance to offset the increased cost of reproduction, less depreciation. While the subject has been brought up on several occasions by the insurance committee of the association, it is feared that many owners rely upon the companies insuring them, or their insurance agents, to notify them if they are under-insured. The companies themselves make no pretense of keeping their assured advised on such a subject and the committee's observation is that most agents approach their assured on the subject with timidity as if they were soliciting business instead of advisors. This is a great mistake and one likely to work great harm both to the assured and to the agent.

In order that the building manager may have done his duty, however, it is urged that wherever an owner is known not to have increased his insurance substantially that the manager place the matter before his principal in writing, either in an inter-office letter, if such matters are in the hands of others, or in a direct letter to the owner, which letter should abruptly call attention to his under-insurance and the fact that in case of fire loss he can only collect one-eighth of his loss for every tenth of the value of the building which was insured at the time of the fire; also that the value of the building would be determined not by what it had cost him, or what it was insured for, but what builders would estimate the cost of reproducing the building new at the time of the fire, less depreciation.

Commission for Appropriation for Brooklyn Ship Canal

Asks Legislature to Pass Bill Granting $882,910 to Purchase Gravesend-Sheepshead Bays Right of Way

THE special commission appointed last year to report on the proposed ship canal connecting Gravesend and Sheepshead bays has recommended to the legislature the appropriation of $882,910.20 for the purchase of the right of way.

Bills to carry out the recommendations will probably be introduced within a short time and an active campaign begun to pass them this winter.

The commission includes State Engineer Francis M. Williams, Dock Commissioner Murray Hulbert of New York City, and State Superintendent of Public Works Edward S.

The commission urges that a right of way 400 feet wide be acquired to "provide for a channel 250 feet wide and at least 15 feet deep." It suggests that bridges of the bascule type be built over it at convenient points, and estimates that the cost of these would be $9,500,000; it does not recommend that the State provide the money for the bridges, and it is understood that an effort is being made to persuade Congress to appropriate for them.

The report says: "Jamaica Bay is one of the most suitable points for the development of the New York side of the Port of New York. It has a vast extent of water and upland undeveloped to such an extent that only a well prepared plan is needed to inaugurate a perfect physical development. Brooklyn has already grown out to Jamaica Bay, and on the New York Bay side shipping is utilizing more and more of the Bay Ridge shore. * * * Communication may be had with other points in the harbor, chiefly by rail, by lighter, and by dray.

"There is at all times of the year an open waterway between the Upper Bay and Jamaica Bay through the Narrows, the Lower Bay and Rockaway Inlet, and when the Federal Government shall have improved the channel through Rockaway Inlet to Jamaica Bay, this line of communication will offer a deeper water than is contemplated for the waterway connecting Gravesend and Jamaica Bay. Furthermore, it has been contended that this existing route is safe enough for harbor craft.

"The board is of the opinion that, while the outside passage may perhaps be safe during most of the summer season, a part of the spring and fall and a few days in the winter, it is far from being safe at all times of the year, for all but the larger craft.

"The board believes that a scheme of operation patterned after that of the Harlem River should be adopted for the bridges to span the proposed waterway and believes that a plan can be formed which will offer no unreasonable inconvenience to any kind of traffic day or night."

Plan for Model Tenements on West Side for Garment Workers

THE Save New York Committee, having achieved its purpose to remove the cloak and suit factories from the Fifth avenue shopping district to the Seventh avenue zone, is considering a follow-up movement to provide housing facilities for the workers in this industry. Although no official announcement has come from the offices of the committee, J. H. Burton, its chairman, discussed the possibilities on the plan on Monday.

The suggested plan is to utilize the district west of the new Seventh avenue lofts, running from Ninth avenue to the North river and between, approximately, Twenty-eighth and Fortieth streets. This is largely undeveloped territory, occupied for the most part by run-down three and four story tenements which have outlived their usefulness. It is within walking distance of the new factories, and occupation of this district by garment workers, in addition to reducing rental prices, would further bring down living expenses through elimination of car-fare and permitting employes to return to their homes for their noon hour.

Furthermore, Mr. Burton pointed out, with employes' homes nearby, the Seventh avenue district would not be blighted by the throng of workers blocking the sidewalks at noon, a condition which has grown to be a nuisance on Fifth and Madison avenues.

Failing to decide upon the lower west side location for working people's tenements, the Save New York Committee may plan building on sites in Long Island City. Even here traction congestion on the Bronx subway would be relieved through the removal of thousands of garment workers to Long Island City and the utilization of the Queensborough subway and its proposed extension to Times Square in addition to the plan now being agitated for a Thirty-fourth street "belt line" connecting with the Grand Central-Times Square shuttle line. If the plan is carried out, and it will require millions of dollars, housing facilities would be provided for between 80,000 and 100,000 people.

Franklin Simon, who was present at the time Mr. Burton pointed out the many advantages of the plan, is understood to be also deeply interested in it. Its success will, however, be largely dependent upon the interest which men of great wealth take in the necessity for providing more and better quarters for the working people.

Serious Shortage of Bituminous Coal in New York City

The bituminous coal situation in this city is so serious that it may precipitate one of the worst crisis in the history of New York according to statements made on Thursday at a conference called by Public Service Commissioner Nixon. The crisis has been brought about by the storm. Unless thousands of tons of fuel are rushed to the coal bins of Manhattan complete paralysis of all public utilities service, including light, gas and power plants and the transportation facilities may ensue. As far as the Record and Guide could learn yesterday this situation only affects bituminous coal.

The anthracite coal situation in which most building managers are interested was reported to be practically normal Following advices of its Coal Committee for some months, members of the Building Managers and Owners' Association of New York have been keeping their coal bins filled and the situation as far as the operation and heating of buildings in the city is concerned, may be viewed in a decidedly favorable aspect.

A great many householders are forced to use soft coal in hard coal stoves and furnaces, requiring careful treatment. The large amount of soot deposited by soft coal is apt to clog the smoke pipes and chimneys and cause forcing of the furnaces, while the fumes and gases from soft coal will have a deteriorating effect upon the mortar in chimneys and thus lead to defective flue fires.

Fire hazards which endanger the homes should be watched with special care, as the mothers and children run the greatest risk. All heating appliances should be installed and operated with constant attention to the unusual risks due to the changes in fuel, as well as to their ordinary dangers. President Wilson says: "Preventable fires are a public dereliction," but a preventable fire in a man's home, endangering the lives of his family, should be regarded as a crime under war-time conditions.

Review of Real Estate Market for the Current Week

Buying of Commercial Buildings by Tenants Is Feature of Business—Frederick Brown Sets New Trading Record

EXCELLENT market conditions prevailed this week, the demand being about equally divided between speculative and investment interests. It is interesting to note in connection with the business of this and previous weeks, the steadily broadening "Own-your-own-home" movement instituted by merchants, professional men and institutions. A number of important transactions were closed during the week epitomizing the prevailing scarcity of space in the down-town district, which is compelling so many tenants to buy properties. A new phase which is developing in this movement is the formation of syndicates of tenants, who are taking over properties. A new corporation acquired the seventeen story building at 6-8 West 32d street, which space is to be offered to tenants under a co-operative plan. The seven-story building at 161 Madison street was acquired by a syndicate of tenants now located in a neighboring building. Among other downtown business properties acquired for occupancy were the property at 19 Beaver street taken by a brokerage company and an old tenement house at 134 Water street acquired by a consulting engineer, who will alter the property into an office building. The Kelly-Springfield Tire Company bought a valuable building site at the northeast corner of Seventh avenue and 57th street on which it plans the erection of a seventeen-story structure.

An important feature of the week's business continued to be the acquisition by both the United Cigar Stores Company and the Schulte Realty Company of desirable locations for branch establishments. The United Cigar Stores Company, by acquiring for a long term the property at Broadway and 33d street now occupied by Saks & Company, contributed to the market one of the largest leasing transactions closed in this city in many years. The rental and taxes for the term will aggregate nearly $11,000,000. It is understood that the figure to be paid by the cigar company is double that now paid by the present tenants. This transaction is especially significant in view of the fact that it emphasizes the belief in the future of Herald Square as a business center.

Speculative interest in improved properties continued undiminished during the week, Frederick Brown establishing a new record for one day by buyng and selling on Tuesday, $10,000,000 worth of Manhattan property. His operations during the entire week probably reached the $15,000,000 mark, which is unquestionably a new record for individual operations in the history of the city. Elias A. Cohen, who has also been prominently identified with the speculative market in the down-town district, added the Langdon building at 309 Broadway to his holdings. This property will be rearranged to provide quarters for lawyers who are being crowded out of the financial district.

Among other important deals in which operators figured was the transaction involving the Huntspoint apartment house in the Bronx, which at the time of its construction ten years ago was reputed to be the largest multi-family house in the city.

PRIVATE REALTY SALES.

THE total number of sales reported but not recorded in Manhattan this week was 164 as against 159 last week and 63 a year ago.

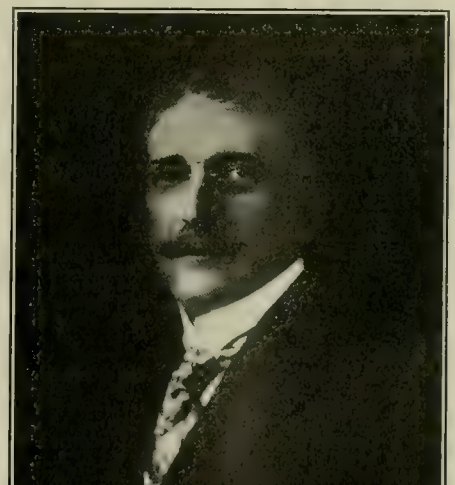
The number of sales south of 59th street was 67, as compared with 59 last week and 20 a year ago.

The number of sales north of 59th street was 97, as compared with 100 last week and 43 a year ago.

From the Bronx 49 sales at private contract were reported, as against 47 last week and 31 a year ago.

Statistical tables, indicating the number of recorded instruments, will be found on page 181.

Brown Makes Sale Record.



A record for one day's trading in Manhattan real estate was established on Tuesday by Frederick Brown when he closed contracts for properties valued at more than $10,000,000 in the aggregate. One of the largest and most important in the series of transactions was the purchase of 471 and 473 Fifth avenue, facing the Public Library, and with an "L" running through to 4 and 6 East Forty-first street, measuring 52.5 feet on Fifth avenue, with a depth of 98.4 feet, the entire plot covering approximately 10,000 square feet. The property, which was purchased from the Guardian Holding Company, adjoins the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company Building, and was held at $1,500,000. In exchange Mr. Brown gave the Cluett Building, an 11-story loft building at 19 to 23 West 18th street, running through to 22 to 28 West 19th street, near Fifth avenue, containing over 180,000 square feet, and fronting 75 feet on 18th street and 90 feet on 19th street, with a depth of 200 feet. During the war the property was occupied by the government as a supply base. It is now fully tenanted, and shows an annual rental of almost $200,000. It was held at $1,350,000. Leitner, Brener & Starr were the brokers in the transaction.

Through the Charles F. Noyes Company Mr. Brown resold to Richard T. McGonigal in a cash deal the 12-story Wyllys building at 92 William street, south corner of Platt, covering a plot 32.5x111 and valued at approximately $1,000,000. Mr. Brown purchased the Wyllys building from the Stokes family a week ago. From the Ellisdale Realty Company, a holding company, Mr. Brown purchased the 18-story loft building at the northeast corner of Fifth avenue and 12th street, containing approximately 350,000 square feet and valued at $2,000,000. The structure stands on a plot fronting 131.6 feet on the avenue and 150 feet on the street. To the Lord Realty Company Mr. Brown sold the United Cigar Stores building, 44 to 48 West 18th street, running through to 47 to 51 West 17th street, N. A. Berwin & Co. Buy Home.

N. A. Berwin & Company have joined the ranks of real estate firms who have bought properties for their own occupancy. N. A. Berwin & Company have purchased from Frederick Brown the 5-story business building at 10 East 50th street on a lot 25x100, directly opposite St. Patrick's Cathedral. It is interesting to note in connection with the transaction that the same brokers sold this property to Frederick Brown last week and now have paid him a profit in order to obtain it for their own use. It was held at $105,000. Existing leases expire October 1, although possession may be taken prior to that date. Mr. Berwin's organization will occupy the major portion of the property.

N. A. BERWIN.

N. A. Berwin, president of the corporation, began his career in the real estate business in 1900, with C. E. Harrell at 120 Fifth avenue. One year later he went into business for himself under the firm name of N. A. Berwin & Company at 115 Broadway. Some time thereafter he moved his office to 80 William street and finally came uptown to 56 West 45th street to the present location. B. J. Morse, vice-president and secretary of the corporation, became associated with Mr. Berwin in 1901.

Mr. Berwin is a member of the Real Estate Board of New York, serving on their Committee on Ethics and Commissions. He is also interested in the West End Association and is a member of the Committee on Acid Fumes which has been for several years agitating action against the fumes nuisance originating from Jersey City factories and seriously menacing the health of residents on the west side of Manhattan.

Juilliard Sale on Tuesday.

Another important sale of improved Manhattan real estate is scheduled for next Tuesday, February 10, at the Vesey Street Exchange Salesrooms, when Joseph P. Day will offer at absolute executors' sale, the eleven investment properties owned by the estate of Hlen C. Juilliard. They are located at 111 West 51st street; 14, 16 and 18 Leonard street; the block front on the south side of Laight street from Varick street to St. Johns lane; 3, 5 and 7 Vestry street; 85 Leonard street; 27 Downing street and 632-634 Broadway.

Mrs. Juilliard, who died in April, 1916, leaving an estate of about $3,500,000, provided in her will for the payment of substantial bequests to the St. John's Guild in the City of New York, Lincoln Hospital and Home, Children's Aid Society, American Museum of Natural History, New York Orthopoedic Dispensary and other well-known institutions.

Mr. Day will also sell on Tuesday, at the same place, for the estate of A. D. Juilliard, the 12-story loft building at 32-36 West 18th street, on a plot 75x92. The property is owned free and clear.

Frank A. Seaver.

Frank A Seaver, real estate broker, who has been actively identified with the development of th Bay Ridg and Dykr Heights sections of Brooklyn, died on Wednesday at the Long Island College Hospital.

Mr. Seaver was 44 years old, a native of Brooklyn and a lifelong resident of the Bay Ridge section. His home was at 219 Ovington avenue. He started in the real estate business in 1898 with an office at 12th avenue and 86th street. Later he established an office in the Bay Ridge section at 6806 3d avenue. He took a prominent part in civic movements for the betterment of Bay Ridge and was active in many of the citizens' organizations of the section. He was also a member of the Crescent Athletic Club and formerly belonged to the Montauk and Marine and Field clubs. He attended St. Phillip's P. E. Church. He was a prominent member of the Brooklyn Board of Real Estate Brokers, acting on many of the committees.

Mr. Seaver is survived by his widow, Mrs. Emmeline Burrill Seaver; and three sons, Burrill, Frank and Warren.

near Fifth avenue, with a frontage of 78.4 feet and a depth of 184 feet, a 12-story loft and office building, now occupied by the "United" for its executive offices. Harvey B. Newins, Inc., were the brokers. The property was held at $1,500,000. To the Foundation Company Mr. Brown sold the Beard Building, 120 and 122 Liberty street, through to 125 Cedar street, a 12-story office building, 45 by 112, in which over 80 per cent. of the leases expires May 1. It is understood the buyer will occupy all of the available space. The property was held at $750,000. Charles F. Noyes Company, Edward J. Hogan and Douglas L. Elliman & Co. were the brokers.

To an investing client of Sharp & Co. Mr. Brown sold the Overdene at the southeast corner of Broadway and 105th street, a 14-story fireproof apartment house, on a plot 71x145x irregular, erected a few years ago and purchased by Mr. Brown a couple of months ago. The Broadway front of the building is occupied by the Chatham and Phoenix National Bank. The property has been held at $1,100,000. Mr. Brown resold to B. Wasserman & Co., cigar manufacturers, 77 Broadway, a 6-story building, on a lot 25x75, which he purchased a few days ago from the First Baptist Church of Newark. The buyers are the tenants. The property was held at $110,000, and the sale was made through William C. Walkers Sons.

Langdon Building For Lawyers.

The Langdon Building, a 13-story structure erected about twenty years ago at the northwest corner of Broadway and Duane street as the home offices of the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance Company, was sold to Elias A. Cohen, president of the Broadway-John Street Realty Corporation. The purchase was made from Mary Stewart Brandagee, of Boston, with the view to rearranging the offices to provide quarters for lawyers who are being crowded out of the financial district by the insistent demand from banks and business concerns willing to pay rentals which are prohibitive to lawyers. The property, occupying a plot, 75x122, and held at $2,000,000, was sold through Horace S. Ely & Co. and Wright Barclay, whose grandfather sold the site to the Langdon family to build their residence opposite the Barclay homestead, which stood at the southwest corner.

Engineer Plans Office Building.

William Barclay Parsons, consulting engineer at 60 Wall street, who was identified with the construction of the city's subway system, has joined the great army of downtown business home buyers. Mr. Parsons will rebuild for his office forces the old tenement at 134 Water street, northeast corner of Pine street, which he purchased for about $100,000, from the Pine-Water Corporation. The building occupies a plot 24x49.10, and is surrounded by the 7-story Traders' Exchange Building. The Brown-Wheelock Company, Inc., negotiating the sale.

Tenants to Become Owners.

For the purpose of extending the "Own-Your-Home" campaign to commercial housing the United Chain Buildings, Inc., acquired from the Bradkim Realty Company the 17-story Pennsey Building, 6-8 West 32d street, a plot 50x100, for $685,000, with a present rent roll of over $89,500. The purchasing company has set aside the preferred stock which represents the cost of the equity over the existing mortgages which are being amortized. Half of this stock has been subscribed and paid for by the directors of the United Chain Buildings, Inc. The balance is to be offered to the tenants and to such other investors as are interested in co-operative housing near the Save New York Zone. In this way rentals will be equalized, and owners, even though tenants, must share the cost of the maintenance through increased taxes and expenses. The broker in the transaction was A. N. Gitterman.

Brokers Buy in Beaver Street.

Lawrence, Blake & Jewell sold for Frederick Brown to J. D. Sugarman & Co. the 4-story building at 19 Beaver street, with an "L" to New street. This indicates the prevailing trend among brokerage houses in search of additional space to handle the increasing volume of business coming into the financial district. Architects have been called into consultation with a view to planning the remodelling of the building, although it is possible that an entirely new and modern office structure will be erected on the site. L. L. Winkelman & Co., stock brokers, recently purchased 62 Broad street for their future home through the same brokers. Lawrence, Blake & Jewell have been appointed agents for the property.

Sale Near Carnegie Hall.

Kelly-Springfield Tire Company purchased the northeast corner of 7th avenue and 57th street, facing Carnegie Hall, which comprises seven 2-story brick stores and apartments, 100x104. This property was accumulated by the late George Helms, whose heirs recently gave an option to the Kelly-Springfield Company, which recently exercised its privilege. L. J. Phillips & Co. and A. N. Gitterman were the brokers in the deal. The seventeen story building being planned for this property by Edward Necarsulmer, architect, when completed, will be under the management of L. J. Phillips & Co.

Tenants' Syndicate Buys.

The 7-story building at 161 Washington street, next to the 2d Precinct Police Station, changed owners twice in the last week. Norman S. Riesenfeld bought it and resold it through Wm. A. White & Sons to the concerns now located in the Thames Building, at the north corner of Thames and Greenwich streets, which is to be turned into an office building by the new owner. At the suggestion of the real estate brokers the tenants organized and as a syndicate bought the Washington street building from Mr. Riesenfeld. In the syndicate are Calvert Lee Russell, Gustavus C. Emerich, J. Ullrich, Asher L. Wieland and A. J. Hemphill. The Washington street building covers a site 25.1x93.7.

Hunt's Point Apartment Sold.

Alexander Selkin sold for the Jash-Lap Realty Company, Tobias Lapan and Morris Jashnoff, to Benajmin Benenson and Marris Polsky the Hunt's Point Apartment, a 6-story structure, erected on about thirteen and one-half city lots, in the south side of Southern boulevard, between 163d and Simpson streets, having a frontage of 330 feet. Included in the sale is a plot which has been used for park purposes by the tenants. This will be improved by the new owners with an apartment house. The Hunt's Point was the largest 6-story apartment in the city at the time of its construction by James F. Meehan for the Henry Morgenthau Company about ten years ago. It contains ninety-seven suites and twenty-one stores. The same broker sold the property to the sellers in the present deal. The property was held at $1,000,000 and has an annual rental of about $125,000.

Fifth Avenue Re-Sale.

James T. Lee has purchased for investment the property at 471 and 473 Fifth avenue, opposite the Public Library, with an extension to 4 and 6 East 41st street. The property was acquired by Frederick Brown on Tuesday from the Guardian Holding Company. It has been popularly known as the Murphy property, the Murphy family having owned it for many years. It has a frontage of 42.5 feet on the avenue and 41.8 on 41st street, the Fifth avenue plot having a depth of slightly more than 98 feet and the street plot 104 feet. The total assessed value, with the existing buildings, is $1,100,000, of which $912,000 is land value. No plans have been announced regarding an improvement of the property.

S. K. Jacobs Buys Hotel Gerard.

The Hotel Gerard, a 12-story fireproof structure at 123 to 129 West 44th street, between Broadway and 6th avenue, valued at $1,000,000, has been sold by William S. Sussman for Gilbert & Kramer and S. Morrill Banner, who bought it through the same broker last November. The new owner is Samuel K. Jacobs, of Walter Emmerich & Co., the deal being for cash. Prior to the sale to Mr. Jacobs, Mr. Sussman arranged a lease of the premises for the former owners to the Keystone Hotel Company, which also operates the Madison Square Hotel, for a term of twenty-one years at a net gross rental of $1,700,000. The Gerard stands on a plot 100x100 and was erected in 1894 by William Rankin, for whom Mr. Sussman sold it in November. It was the first hostelry put up in the present hotel district north of 42d street and was operated by John Rankin, a son of the builder.

"Post" Buys In Penn Zone.

The New York "Evening Post" has bought the property at 255 to 265 West 33d street, just east of 8th avenue, and opposite the Pennsylvania station. The property measures 125x100. It is announced that the paper has no immediate plans for improving the site. Its lease on Vesey street has several years to run. The Pennsylvania railroad's large holdings adjoin the site just acquired. Harris, Vought & Co. were the brokers in the deal.

Hanover Building Resold.

The Guardian Holding Company bought from John P. Foster the 8-story Hanover building at 130-132 Pearl street, running through to Water street, between Wall street and Hanover square. It stands on a plot 39x115, was held at $350,000 and contains about 30,000 square feet. Possession may be had next May. Spotts & Starr, Inc., and I. B. Wakeman were the brokers. Mr. Wakeman sold the property to the seller recently. Negotiations are said to be under way for reselling it to a concern for occupancy.

Club Exercises Option.

The Women's City Club, Mary G. Hay, president, has exercised its option to purchase the house it occupies at 22 Park avenue, northwest corner of 35th street, size 33x100. The sellers are Mrs. Francis C. Huntington, Chas. S. and Lawrence Butler. Wm. A. White & Sons represented the owners.

Investors in $2,500,000 Deals.

The Friedist Realty Company (Friedman & Distillator) bought through Bernard London and the George Goldblatt Company from Morris

Polsky and Benjamin Benenson the 6-story apartment at the southeast corner of Riverside drive and 149th street, known as the Rochelle. It is arranged for forty-two families, rents for about $48,000 and was held at $428,000. The buyers announced the purchase of the Peter Stuyvesant apartments at the south corner of Riverside drive and 98th street through Gettner, Simon & Ascher, attorneys, and recently they bought the 13-story apartment at 650 West End avenue.

$11,000,000 "United" Lease.

One of the largest leases that has been closed in this city has been consummated by L. J. Phillips & Co., who have leased for the Morewood Realty Holding Co. to the United Cigar Stores Co. of America, the building now occupied by Saks & Co., covering the block front, Broadway and Sixth avenue, 33d street to 34th street, the plot containing about 24,208 square feet, and being 150 feet on the north side of 33d street, 79 feet on the south side of 34th street and about 204 on Broadway and Sixth avnue. The lease is for a long term, which takes effect upon the expiration of the present lease of Saks & Co. and the rental and taxes will aggregate nearly $11,000,000. The property on which the Saks building stands, was purchased by a syndicate, in which Henry Morgenthau, former Ambassador to Turkey, and the late Hugh J. Grant, ex-Mayor of New York, were largely interested, the company being known as the Herald Square Realty Co. After its acquisition by this syndicate, the present building was erected on the plot and leased to Saks & Co. for a term of twenty-one years. The face of the building is of granite, and while only 8 stories, has the height of an ordinary 11-story building, the ceilings being unusually high.

Since Saks & Co. took possession of the property, great changes have taken place at this point, the Pennsylvania Railroad Terminal having been constructed, the Hudson and Manhattan Tube Terminal built, as well as the Brooklyn Rapid Transit subway and a number of hotels, all of which have centered at this point, making it one of the most accessible in Manhattan. The Saks building was acquired by the Morewood Realty Holding Co., (Herbert Du Puy) in July, 1917, from Mr. Morgenthau and his associates in a deal involving about $7,000,000, which negotiations were also carried out by L. J. Phillips & Co. The great faith of the owner in the future enhancement of the property has been demonstrated through the present transaction, while he has repeatedly refused to dispose of the property despite very attractive offers which were made. In the negotiations James C. Ewing, vice-president, represented the Morewood Realty Holding Co., and Edward Wise, president, and James C. Bolger, vice-president, representd the United Cigar Stores Co. of America.

Greenwich Building Sold.

Frederick Brown purchased in an all cash transaction through the Charles F. Noyes Co. the $750,000 Greenwich Building, 100x100, ten stories, basement and sub-cellar, at the northwest corner of Washington pl and Greene st. The building rents for about $75,000 per annum and possession of 100,000 sq. ft. of space is available on February 1, 1921. With four elevators, 100 per cent. automatic sprinkler system and built as an office and salesroom property, the building is one of the most desirable in the section, and negotiations are now pending through the Charles F. Noyes Co. for a sale of the property to a prominent corporation, which will occupy all the available space, including the ground floor, upon expiraiton of leases. The New York University now occupies three floors of the building for its law department in connection with its university building adjoining. The property has been placed under the charge of the Charles F. Noyes Co. for management.

Operators Active in Market.

Isidor Zimmer and Samuel Reznick sold to Marco Brothers, coal dealers, the 6-sty apartment at the southeast corner of Fort Wash-

It Is Good Judgment to Start Building Now

IT is our opinion that a new price level has been established by economic conditions created by the world war and that building costs have been stabilized at a point below which they are not likely to fall for many years.

In view of this fact and the imperative need of buildings for housing, commerce and industry, we urge those who have deferred construction in the hope of lower prices to go ahead. The somewhat higher cost of building will be more than offset by increased rentals, assuring a safe, profitable investment.

We are confident of the future prosperity of this country and are demonstrating it every day, as we have done in the past thirty-seven years, by assisting in financing the construction of well-located hotel, apartment, industrial, mercantile, office and warehouse buildings, where the margin of security is ample for safety and the earnings sufficient to meet principal and interest payments. We make no loans in amounts less than $500,000.

E. A. Cohen in Five Deals.

The Broadway-John Street Corporation, Elias A. Cohen president, sold through the Charles F. Noyes Co. 104 Front street, a 5-sty building, 20x80, held at $60,000, to the Continental Food Products Co., of Boston, which will convert it into offices and occupy for their export business. Mr. Cohen's company also sold 184 Water street, a 4-sty building, 17x60, through Cammann, Voorhees & Floyd, to Jonas Monheimer and Jacob Zenn. Through the same brokers Mr. Cohen resold 11 Burling Slip, northwest corner of Water street, a 4-sty building, 17x60, to Henry Oppenheimer, who has been one of the tenants for twenty years; also bought from Jane C. Powers 16 and 18 Maiden Lane, southwest corner of Liberty place, a 5-sty building, 30x30, which was damaged by fire last week. It will be rebuilt into offices for the jewelry trade. Also resold the 4-sty building at 5 Albany street, 20x75, located within 150 feet of the proposed curb market. The buyer contemplates remodeling the building for occupancy of brokers. Lawrence, Blake & Jewell were the brokers.

Max Marx Acquires Block.

The Charles F. Noyes Co. sold to Max Marx nearly the entire block bounded by Gold, Ferry, Jacob and Frankfort streets. The properties, which are valued at $1,000,000, include the 5 and 6 story lofts 9 Ferry street, 24x122; 11 and 13 Ferry street, 31x77; 15-19 Ferry street, corner of Jacob street, 50x53; 1-3 Jacob street, 40x65; 5x7 Jacob street, 48x71; the 2 and 4 story buildings at 9-17 Jacob street, 75x113; 92 to 98 Gold street, four plots, each containing about 2,200 square feet, and the corner plot, 100-102 Gold and 49-53 Frankfort street, with frontages of about 47 feet on Gold street and 75 feet on Frankfort street. The entire plot contains approximately 34,000 square feet. The property has been placed in the hands of the Noyes company for management, and extensive improvements will be made to the buildings and they will be offered for rental or resale with possession May 1. The vacant property on Gold and Frankfort streets will immediately be improved.

$700,000 Apartment Purchase.

The Winter Realties, Inc., Benjamin Winter president, purchased from the City Investing Co. the Sterling and Carlyle, two six-story elevator apartments, covering the entire block front on east side of Columbus avenue, between 85th and 86th streets, being 204.4 feet on Columbus avenue x100 feet in depth on either street. The property was held at $700,000 and has been owned by the selling company for a number of years. A large proportion of the leases on the stores and apartments expire this year. Nearly the entire block between Columbus avenue and Central Park West, 85th and 86th streets, was purchased by the City Investing Co. in 1905 from the Clark estate and has since been improved with expensive private houses, which adjoin this property. Bernard Smyth & Sons were the brokers.

Large Investment Purchases.

Daniel H. Jackson resold to H. B. James, vice-president of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, the Carlton, located at 157-159 East 81st street, adjoining the corner of Lexington av, a nine-story elevator apartment house. The apartment contains 27 apartments of 6 rooms and 2 baths each, and is fully rented to prominent New York families for about $40,000 per annum. The property was held at $300,000. This building was erected by the John P. Slattery Construction Co. about eight years ago. Mr. James also bought from the same operator the Emerson apartments, at 3852 to 3858 10th avenue, near 207th street, two five-story new law apartments, with stores, on plot 110x140x irregular, having accommodations for 72 families and stores. The property is rented at $26,000 and was held at $175,000.

Big Brooklyn Deal.

One of the biggest deals recently reported from Brooklyn is the purchase by a syndicate of operators of the Continental Building a 5-sty structure at the corner of Court and Montague streets, and the Phoenix Building, seven storiese high, at 16 Court street and 198 Montague street, extending from the Court street corner to the home of the Title Guarantee & Trust Co. The syndicate, which is headed by Frank W. Bradford, is reported to have paid $800,000 for the properties. The buildings were erected in 1875 and were owned by the Fidelity-Phenix Insurance Co. and the Continental Insurance Co. The ground floor of the Continental Building is occupied by Joseph Nichtnauser, haberdasher. The Schulte Cigar Stores Co. occupies the ground floor of the Phenix Building and holds a lease on the entire structure. The Monroe Clothes Shop occupies the second floor of the Continental Building. The ground floor at 198 Montague street is occupied by the National Liberty Insurance Co. of America. One of the stores in the Phoenix Building is leased for a long term to the Liggett-Riker-Hegeman Co. Louis Gretch negotiated the sale of both buildings.

I. Portman Active Trader.

I. Portman bought through Spotts & Starr, Inc., the northeast corner of Madison avenue and 87th street, a six-story apartment, 50x113; also, from Alice R. Tompkins, through Nasanowitz & Geisler, 711 to 717 West 188th street, two five-story apartment houses, 110x100, containing forty suites, renting for $28,000 and held at $180,000; also, from a Mr. Gross, 464 to 470 West 150th street, two five-story apartment houses, each 58.6x100, containing fifty apartments, renting for $31,00 0and held at $200,000, and from a client of Spotts & Starr, Inc., the southeast corner of 8th avenue and 36th street, a five-story building, 25x100, held at $125,000.

Broker in Many Deals.

John Finck sold for Oscar B. Thomas to B. Rush Stoddard, president of the West Indies Steamship Co., the 6-sty apartment at 520 West 139th st., 100x100. It has a yearly rental of $30,000 and was held at $210,000. The same broker sold for Frank Lugar the Court Rebelle, a 6-sty apartment, 100x100, at 416 to 422 West 122d street; also sold for John T. and Sarah Frances Britton the two 5-sty apartments 121 and 123 West 137th street, held at $50,000; also resold for Lillian Seeholzer the 5-sty apartment, 40x100, held at $50,000, at 514 West 134th street; for the Hyde Real Estate Corporation the 7-sty loft 127 and 129 West 24th street, 50x114, held at $175,000; for Mrs. Margaret Demarest, the 4-sty business building at 32 West Houston street.

South of 59th Street. Manhattan.

BROAD ST.—The southeast corner of Broad and Stone sts, one of the smallest improved parcels in the city, and which gained fame some years ago through holding up a building operation, has been sold by the Brown, Wheelock Co., Inc., for Frederick W. Kroehle for a price between $25,000 and $30,000. When the New York Telephone Co. had in mind the improvement of the block front on Broad st, between Pearl and Stone sts, it desired to incorporate this parcel in the site, and is said to have made an offer of $80,000 to the former owners. This was refused, and the company went ahead and built a 7-sty structure around it. The small parcel contains a 2-sty building and fronts 10.6 ft. on Broad st and 20.3 ft. on Stone st. The new owner of the property is Richard Cohn, tailor, who is being crowded from his quarters in the Produce Exchange.

BROOME ST.—Max Marx purchased from the estate of Maria T. Major 438 Broome st, adjoining the corner of Broadway, the 5-sty loft building, 30x118. Charles F. Noyes Co. represented the purchaser and John C. Moore the seller.

BROOME ST.—Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church and New York Bible Society sold the 5-sty building, 460 Broome st, to Al. Lamport & Bro., cotton goods, through Wm. C. Walker's Sons.

CLIFF ST.—W. E. Dean & Co., sold for John S. Sutphen 68 Cliff st, 25x75, and 305 Pearl st, 25x117, to Samuel Brody.

ORCHARD ST.—The Central Savings Bank sold to a client of Isadore Montefiore Levy 196 Orchard st, a 5-sty building, 25x87.10.

DEY ST.—Max Marx resold 65 to 69 Dey st, two 5-sty buildings, 38x49.6, to M. K. Bowman Edson Co., the present tenants, through Geo. R. Read & Co.

FRANKLIN ST.—Daniel Birdsall & Co., Inc., sold for the estate of J. S. Dodge the 5-sty building 80 Franklin st, 25x100.

FRONT ST.—Geo. R. Read & Co. sold for Elias A. Cohen a 5-sty loft building, 19.10x85, at 100 Front st, between Wall st and Gouverneur lane, to Frame & Co., for occupancy.

HUDSON ST.—Wm. A. White & Sons sold for the Red Diamond Realty Co. to the Eighth Avenue Railroad 231-237 Hudson st and 6-8 Renwick st, forming a plot of 50 ft. on Hudson st and 33.4 ft. on Renwick, and having a depth of 150 ft. The property was acquired by Henry Heide in 1890 for his candy factory, but was never built on.

LIVINGSTON PL.—The firm of Leonard J. Carpenter sold for Lynde Catlin 6 Livingston pl, the former residence of his uncle, Nicholas William Stuyvesant Catlin, together with the abutting property, 320 East 16th st, to the New York Infirmary for Women and Children.

Before You Telephone Make Sure The Call Is Essential

300,000 calls daily have been added to the abnormal telephone traffic in New York City as a result of the epidemic of influenza and pneumonia.

In addition to a shortage of about 1,000 operators from our normal force, 2,000 operators are absent from the Central Offices on account of sickness. The girls remaining on duty are meeting the emergency with a fine spirit of service that merits the highest praise and the most kindly cooperation. But there are limits to what they can do.

Every unnecessary call places an unnecessary burden upon the operators and may delay vitally important messages.

COOPERATE! Help keep the lines open for carrying the messages to physicians, hospitals, nurses, health department workers and others directly concerned with the epidemic.

RECENT LEASES.

$1,100,000 South Street Lease.

Rice & Hill leased for the United Cigar Stores Co. the entire ground floor and basement of the Eastern Hotel, on the corner of Whitehall and South streets, to the Hanover Lunch Co. for a term of twenty-one years from February 1, 1920. The United Cigar Stores Co. retained the immediate corner store for its own business. The rental to be paid by the tenant for the period will approximate $1,100,000. This entire building, which has a frontage of 43 feet on South street and a frontage on Whitehall street of 107.6 feet, was recently leased by the United Cigar Stores Co. from John Bittner, and the entire building is to be altered into a modern office building by the lessees at a cost of about $125,000. It is interesting to know that Mr. Krim, the president of the Hanover Lunch Co., was actuated in taking this space at what is considered a record rent by the fact that this building faces the South ferry terminals of the 2d, 3d, 6th and 9th avenue elevated, the Municipal ferry to South Brooklyn, the ferry to Staten Island and the South ferry terminal of the 4th avenue and Broadway subways, making it one of the busiest transfer sections in the city.

$700,000 Fifth Avenue Lease.

The Emerson Phonograph Co. has sub-leased from the 160 East Thirty-fourth Street Co., Benjamin Menschel president, the 4-sty building at 206 5th avenue, extending through to Half of Block for Schulte.

Schulte Cigar Stores Co. leased from Ottinger & Bro. and I. S. & M. S. Korn the 7-sty Hotel Calvert property, at the northeast corner of Broadway and 41st street, together with the 3-sty building adjoining. The property takes in 1450-1460 Broadway, with a frontage of 102 feet on Broadway by 114 feet on 41st street, and adjoins the Hotel Knickerbocker on both Broadway and 41st st, the hotel occupying the northerly half of the block. Some of the store tenants are Park & Tilford, New York Telephone Co., Brill Bros., St. Regis Restaurant. The lease is for a term of twenty-one years. The property has been owned by Ottinger & Korn for over twenty years. The Schulte Cigar Stores Co. recently leased the Hotel Wallick property, at Broadway and 43d street, for twenty-one years. Henry Shapiro & Co. were the brokers in the deal and have been appointed renting agents.

Bronx "United" Rental.

The United Cigar Stores Co. leased for a long term of years from the American Real Estate Co. three large stores located in the ohnson Building, at the junction of Westchester and Prospect avenues, and directly at the Longwood avenue subway station. This same company recently leased for a term of twenty-one years the large 1-sty taxpayer directly opposite and located at the northeast corner of Longwood and Westchester avenues. Porter & Co. were the brokers who negotiated both transactions.

Big Rector Street Rental.

Henry Brady leased for Patrick McCarthy to Morris Krim, president of the Hanover Lunch Co., 15 and 17 Rector street and 90 and 92 Greenwich street, forming the southwest corner, for twenty years at an aggregate rental of $400,000. The buildings will be altered for office purposes in anticipation of the needs of curb brokers, who will wish to be near their new exchange.

Big Fourth Avenue Leases.

Two large leases have been closed in the 4th avenue section. The one by William Iselin & Co., on the store, basement and four lofts in the building 353-61 4th avenue, southwest corner of 26th street, aggregates over $1,000,000 and is for a term of years. The other, to Ernest and Herman Levy, manufacturers of ribbons, is close to $1,000,000 and is also for a term of years, for the store, basement and three lofts in 343-351 4th avenue, which is the south half of the same block. The most interesting part of both of these leases is the fact that they are not to begin until February 1, 1923, which is the expiration of the leases of the present tenants, and shows the confidence that exists in the future of this business district.

$36,000 a Year for Store.

Martin & Martin, Ltd. ,the London saddlery concern, now in southeast corner of 5th avenue and 33d street, have leased the store and basement of 618 5th avenue from Dobbs & Co. The lease is for a term of eighteen years at an annual rental of $36,000. Royal Scott Gulden was the broker in the deal.

$1,000,000 in Broadway Leases.

N. A. Berwin & Co. leased to D. A. Schulte, Inc., the northwest corner of Broadway and 99th street, owned by the Stillgebauer estate. The plot is 100x118 and is improved with a 7-sty apartment house, 50x100; a 1-sty taxpayer on Broadway and a private dwelling on the street. The lease is for a term of twenty-one years. They have also leased for Joseph M. Fishel to D. A. Schulte, Inc., the entire store front in the Edwin apartment house, at the northeast corner of Broadway and 147th street. These stores have a frontage of 100 feet on Broadway and are now divided into seven stores. This lease is also for a term of twenty-one years. The gross rental of these two leases aggregates more than $1,000,000.

Lease Old-Time Theatre.

The old Weber & Fields Theatre property, at the northwest corner of Broadway and 29th street, has been leased for a long term, with an option of purchase, by the White estate to the Lavanne Realty Co., William Guthman president. The lease is for sixty-three years at $30,000 per annum. The property has a frontage of 110.9 feet in Broadway and 140.5 feet in 29th street, with a westerly line of 98.9 feet, and leaving an irregular northerly line. It adjoins Daly's Theatre, another landmark of the former theatrical center. Henry L. Dinel was the broker.

Browning in $2,000,000 Leases.

Edward W. Browning leased seventeen more of his properties, the gross rentals being in the neighborhood of $2,000,000. The properties include 536 to 546 West 163d street, leased for a long term of years to the Jay Leasing Co., Inc., Morris Schlachter president. Mr. Browning leased to Charles Klein and Benjamin Rechson for a long term 204-210 West 119th street, 164-174 St. Nicholas avenue and 205-209 West 118th street, known as the Garden Court apartments; also leased 135-139 West 20th street to Katz Bros. Leather Goods Co. for a term of years, and No. 141, adjoining, to the same companay for a term after the present lease expirees. Mr. Browning also leased 718-722 East 11th street to Benjamin Rechson and Charles Klein.

$2,000,000 Chain Store Leases.

The newly formed National Haberdasheries Corporation, which controls well-known retail chain store specialty shops, reports through its attorneys, Maurice B. & Daniel W. Blumenthal, that it has closed leases for space in New York and other important cities involving rentals aggregating more than $2,000,000. In New York City it has leased stores at 117 and 119 West 33d street, 5th avenue and 42d street, 4 and 5 Columbus Circle, Broadway and 160th street and 19 and 21 2d avenue. The corporation also reports store leases in Brooklyn, Newark and Perth Amboy, N. J.; Bridgeport, Conn.; Johnstown, Pa.; Altoona, Pa.; Pittsburgh, Lancaster, Pa.; Norfolk, Va.; Albany, N. Y.; Buffalo, N. Y.; Rochester, N. Y.; Syracuse, N. Y.; Springfield, Mass.; Birmingham, Ala., and Harrisburg, Pa.

REAL ESTATE NOTES.

MAXIMILIAN WINSTON has moved his office from 505 5th av to 200 West 72d st.

PEASE & ELLIMAN have been appointed managers of the apartment house at 711-713 Lexington av.

GEO. R. READ & CO., with White-Goodman, were the brokers in the sale of 73 Warrent st for Eva B. Browning to the Lebertan Corporation.

CHARLES P. PERIN, an engineering expert, is the buyer of the 12-sty apartment house at 640 Park av, northwest corner of 66th st, which was sold last week by Douglas L. Elliman & Co. The buyer will probably occupy one of the apartments in the building.

NEW YORK TITLE & MORTGAGE CO. has taken a loan of $270,000 on the Cowperthwait Furniture Co.'s building, at 782 and 786 6th av, which was recently sold at auction for $503,000. It is reported that it is the intention of the New York Title & Mortgage Co. to issue certificates guaranteed as to principal and interest netting 5½ per cent. on this mortgage.

A. F. MORIARTY & E. J. HOLLAHAN, for several years associated with Frank A. Seaver & Co., of Bay Ridge, have formed a partnership, under the name of Moriarty & Hollahan, and will conduct a general real estate brokerage and management business at 6819 3d av, Brooklyn. They have sold the 3-fam. flat at 446 Bay Ridge av for D. Lutjen to a client for investment.

ANNOUNCEMENT is made that the twelve-story Jeweler's Court Building, 51-53 Maiden la, the last stand of the manufacturing jewelers, is to be converted into offices. The second floor of the building has been leased to the Northwestern National Insurance Co. for a term of years. The company is now located at 60 Maiden la, which is part of the Federal Reserve Bank site. Charles B. Van Valen, Inc., negotiated the lease as agents for the building.

CHARLES F. NOYES CO. was the broker who rented the ground floor of 474½-476 Broadway, through to 38 Crosby st, for the Exchange Buffet Corporation to Jacob R. Gold & Co., hosiery dealers. The aggregate rental is about $60,000. The same brokers leased the store and basement to th Exchange Buffet for 21 years, and this company will make extensive improvements and occupy a part of the ground floor for its cigar department and the basement for its business. About $75,000 will be spent in equipment and changes by the Exchange Buffet Corporation.

LEGISLATIVE BILLS AFFECTING REALTY

Measures Introduced at Albany Approved or Disapproved by Real Estate Board of New York

At the regular weekly meeting of the Legislation and Taxation Committee of the Real Estate Board of New York, held on Wednesday last, action was taken on the following bills:

Senate Int. 209, Pr. 211, Dunnigan. To amend the Greater New York Charter, in relation to sales of tax liens.

This bill authorizes the Comptroller under special circumstances to postpone the sale of tax liens for 48 months instead of 36 months. In many cases such a postponement is in the interest of the city and the owners of the property. It is a permissive measure and is approved.

Assembly Int. 331, Pr. 343, Simpson. To amend the Greater New York Charter, in relation to the annual city budget.

This bill would amend the Greater New York Charter in regard to the City Budget, and is designed to make hearings on the City Budget public, and to make the tentative printed budget clearer to the average taxpayer. Such a procedure would make for intelligent study of the City Budget and should help toward economy. The bill is a good one and is approved.

Senate Int. 164, Pr. 166, Shackno. To amend the Judiciary Law, in relation to salaries of attendants of the County Court of the County of the Bronx.

This is mandatory legislation affecting salaries to be paid out of the City Budget. Aside from the merits of the salary question, legislation at Albany forcing salary payments on the City of New York is wrong in principle. The Board of Estimate should determine such matters. The bill is disapproved.

Senate Int. 173, Pr. 175, Dodge. To amend the Greater New York Charter, in relation to salaries of the officers and members of the uniformed police force of such city.

This bill is mandatory, providing for an increase in the pay of the police force of New York City. The Real Estate Board of New York is on record before the Board of Estimate approving reasonable remuneration for members of the police force. The Real Estate Board has in principle always opposed mandatory legislation of this character, believing that the Board of Estimate should fix the salaries of city employes. The bill is disapproved.

Senate Int. 174, Pr. 176, Dodge. To amend the Greater New York Charter, in relation to salaries of officers and members of the uniformed force of the Fire Departmnt of such city.

This bill, like Senate Int. 173, provides for a mandatory increase in the salaries of the uniformed force of the Fire Department. The Real Estate Board of New York is on record before the Board of Estimate approving reasonable remuneration for members of the Fire Department. The Real Estate Board has in principle always opposed mandatory legislation of this character, believing that the Board of Estimate should fix the salaries of city employes. The bill is improperly drawn and really decreases certain salaries. It is disapproved.

Senate Int. 259, Dodge. Amending Sections 718-d, 719, Greater New York Charter, relative to orders, requirements, decisions and determinations of Tenement House Commissioner; to the construction, alteration of or the making of structural changes in tenement houses; and authorizing the Board of Appeals to determine appeals from such orders, etc., and, in passing on such appeals, to vary or modify any law, rule or regulation relating to construction or alteration in tenement houses.

This bill was introduced at the request of the Real Estate Board of New York.

It proposes to confer upon the Board of Appeals authority to review orders and determinations of the Tenement House Commissioner, with power, in the disposition of such appeals, to vary or modify provisions of the Tenement House Law to the same purpose and extent as the Board is now empowered to vary the Labor Law, the Building Code, and the fire prevention provisions of the Charter and the Code of Ordinances. It frequently happens that a construction in a tenement house somewhat different from that required by the Tenement House Law might be equally as good for all practical purposes, but the Tenement House Commissioner is unable to permit such a deviation from the construction required by law. In view of the good results which have flowed from the exercise of the ameliatory jurisdiction of the Board of Appeals in cases relating to the construction and alteration of all other classes of buildings, it would seem that the extension of the Board's jurisdiction to tenement houses would be helpful, particularly in the solution of many problems of the existing housing situation.

In this connection it should be noted that whereas the Tenement House Commissioner is not required to have had technical training or practical experience in the construction of buildings, at least three members of the Board of Appeals are required to possess such qualifications, and a fourth member, the Chief of the uniformed force of the New York Fire Department, contributes to insure that the decision of the Board, and particularly any variation or modification it may permit in a public safety law or ordinance, shall be sound and conservative. The bill should have general co-operation of public officers and civic organizations.

Senate Int. 233, Pr. 235, G. F. Thompson. To authorize the Board of Estimate and Apportionment of the City of New York to build or purchase and thereafter to operate milk pasteurization plant or plants and provide employes therefor.

This bill is designed to put the City of New York in the milk business. In the opinion of the Committee the entire agitation about milk is the result of propaganda pure and simple, and that the bill is bad, and the whole theory of the city going into the milk business is pernicious. It is doubtful whether such legislation would be constitutional, as the sale of milk is not a "city purpose." The bill is disapproved.

Change Firm Name.

The firm name of Harris & Vaughan, Inc., has been changed to Harris, Vought & Co., Inc. The officers are Duncan G. Harris, president and treasurer; Douglas Vought, vice-president and secretary; Raymond P. Roberts, assistant treasurer, and Jamese W. Bulmer, assistant secretary.

Walter Lindner.

Walter Lindner, solicitor for the Title Guarantee and Trust Company, who died on Friday, January 30, at his home, 924 West End avenue, was recognized as one of the leading authorities on real estate titles and taxation in the United States. Mr. Lindner had been ill for about seven weeks.

He was born in Germany, September 17, 1865, the son of Isador and Esther Freyer Lindner. He came here with his family when quite young and was educated in the public schools and the City College, and later took up law at the New York University Law School, where he received his degree of LL.B. in 1885, being the valedictorian of his class. He entered the law department of the Title Guarantee & Trust Company in August, 1889, and gradually rose until 1905, when he was made solicitor for the company. He retained that position until his death.

Mr. Lindner, who spent many years in the study of taxation, had been particularly active during the last five years in the formulation of tax legislation. The present system of selling tax liens and foreclosure for the purpose of clearing title was created largely through his efforts.

Mr. Lindner was for many years Chairman of the Law Committee of the Advisory Council of Real Estate Interests and in that capacity regularly attended all sessions of the State Legislature, appearing for and against practically all important real estate measures. He was not content with specializing in the study of taxation, but was deeply interested in practically every phase of real estate law. He lectured on real estate both at New York University and at the West Side Y. M. C. A. He was co-author of Hardy & Lindner's text book on Real Estate and Insurance.

Mr. Lindner was secretary of the Court House Board during Mayor Mitchel's administration and continued until this body was legislated out of existence. He was a member of the Bar Association and a director of the Hospital of Deformities and Joint Diseases.

Funeral services were held last Sunday at the Funeral Church and were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Nathan Krass. They were attended by members of the law and other departments of the Title Guarantee & Trust Company, by men high in real estate circles and many others prominent in public life. Interment was at the Mt. Zion Cemetery, Maspeth, L. I. Mr. Lindner is survived by his widow, Mrs. Minnie Bachman Lindner, one son and five daughters.

Interesting Method of Excavating in Sandy Soil Is Tried

Thompson-Starrett Co. Experiments With New Idea in Building Ambassador Hotel at Atlantic City

TREMENDOUS importance is attached in building and construction circles to an inovation that has been introduced by the Thompson-Starrett Company in connection with an operation now being completed in Atlantic City, N. J. As a result of the new process the contract will be completed thirty to sixty days earlier than otherwise, and, it is said, there will be no settling of the foundations.

It is said that the experiment in Atlantic City has been so successful that it will completely revolutionize construction methods where excavation is done in a pure sand soil. The improvement on which the new idea has been carried out so successfully is a 400-room addition to the Ambassador Hotel, one of the units of the Ambassador Hotels System, which is also building a $10,000,000 hotel in New York City and a $4,000,000 hotel in Los Angeles, both of which are to be called the Ambassador.

The new process consists of making holes in the sand 1 and 1½ inches in diameter and about 18 feet deep. Well-points are then sunk in these holes, and the water is pumped out at a point far below the surface. On the Atlantic City job, where the experiment has been tried out, 800 well-points are in use. The tip of each point is covered with a screen of 60 meshes to the square inch, so that no sand is sucked up as a result of the pumping process. Thus, in making excavations for the caissons, the work is being done continually in dry sand. No boxing is necessary. The work can thus progress much more rapidly, and when the job is completed there will be no settling.

A similar process of operation has been used heretofore in digging tunnels, sewers and similar classes of excavations, but the Ambassador job is the first one where the method ever has been introduced in building work of this nature. An indication of the value of the well-point is shown by the fact that one of the large Atlantic City hotels has recently spent $100,000 in repairing damages due to the settlement of the foundations.

The Thompson-Starrett Company announces that in building the new $8,000,000 Ritz-Carlton Hotel in Atlantic City, which will be erected on a site adjoining the Ambassador, the well-point process will be taken advantage of, and it is expected that the job will be shortened by sixty days. The new section of the Ambassador will be ready for occupancy by July 1, so that the management will be able to get the cream of the summer season's business for their enlarged room space, much of which would have been lost under the former methods of construction.

Why not stop burning up the existing buildings, if there are not enough to go around and more cannot be built under existing conditions? Thousands of homes are burned each month, most of them through carelessness. If housing is so important, if homes are so hard to find, why not be careful with those that we have. Apply fire prevention methods. Be careful about matches, smoking, lighting and heating apparatus and gasolene. Clear out the rubbish, inspect the flues, watch the shingle roofs. Conservation is the order of the day, and if the shortage of dwellings will cause householders to be careful about the fire hazards of their homes one criminal cause of that shortage will be greatly reduced.

Labor Problems Before N. Y. State Association of Builders

Tendency of Trade Unions to Break Agreements Discussed at Length at Annual Convention in Syracuse This Week

Syracuse, February 5.

APPROXIMATELY 100 delegates were present at the 24th Annual Convention of the New York State Association of Builders in the Onondaga Hotel, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Although the attendnace was lighter than anticipated when the first session was called to order, many additional delegates and members arrived during the day. Practically every section of New York State was represented in the gathering of builders, sub-contractors and other lines affiliated with the building industry of the State, and with very few exceptions all were most optimistic in regard to the outlook for an especially active and prosperous building season to come.

T. H. McHale, president of the Syracuse Builders' Exchange, which acted as convention host, with a few remarks, turned the meeting over to Frederick T. Young, of New York, president of the New York State Association, who then called the first session to order.

Owing to the unavoidable absence of Mayor Farmer on account of pressure of municipal affairs, the address of welcome was delivered by Hon. Walter Nicholson, commissioner of Public Works of Syracuse, who described effectively the rapid growth of his city as an industrial, business and social center, the vast amount of public and private building construction that was scheduled for the next year or so and the important part in the growth and development of the city that was the result of the efforts of the local building fraternity and finally, in a most gracious manner, extended the freedom of the city to the visiting delegates and members of the association.

Following this address Edward A. Keeler, secretary and treasurer of the association, called the roll and read the minutes of the last annual convention, which was held in Albany in February, 1919. President Young then delivered his annual report, in which he graphically traced the history of the past year, noting especially the great promise of the early months of 1919, when all conditions seemed so favorable for one of the most active and prosperous periods in the history of the State association. He followed, however, with the statement that unforeseen labor shortage, disputes about wages, scarcity of building commodities of many kinds and other deterrent factors had reversed conditions to a great extent, and that although the industry was still optimistic and the feeling quite general that the anticipated era of prosperity was only postponed, that the year had been an unusually difficult one for the building fraternity as a whole, and that really all should be extremely thankful that conditions were no worse than they have been. President Young heartily thanked the officers and members of various standing committees, who had so faithfully co-operated with him to make the past year one of success to the organization, and expressed his best wishes for the continued growth and prosperity of the New York State Association of Builders.

The yearly reports of the secretary and treasurer were then read and these showed the organization to be in a flourishing condition with a considerable increase in membership both individually and through local exchanges, and the report of the finances showed a healthy balance remaining to undertake greatly enlarged efforts during the ensuing year. Annual reports of officers and standing committees followed after which C. G. Norman, of New York, reporting for Fred G. Webber, who was unable to attend the convention, gave an interesting account of the organization of the National Building Trades Employers Association, read sections of the proposed constitution and by-laws and outlined forcibly the benefits to be accrued through supporting an organization of this character. Mr. Norman cited the fact that whenever it became necessary to discuss wage rates, working conditions and other important matters with organized labor, their strong National officials were always on hand to see that their best interests were conserved. Up to the present time the builders had to handle their sides of these controversies through committees of their local organizations and he pointed out effectively that one of the most vital needs of the building industry of the United States today was to have a powerful national organization, with capable, broad-minded and efficient executives and organizers, who would be constantly on the lookout for ways and means to maintain the industry as one of the leading economic factors of the nation.

The reports of the delegates on wages and general working conditions developed some very interesting discussions. For the past year and at the present time, the question of wages, hours of labor, and other points which have frequently been causes for disputes and serious loss of time and money to the building interests are matters of vital importance to all employers of labor in the building field. Schedules were furnished by the secretary showing the wage scales for all trades affiliated with building in various parts of the States and also the demands now being made for increase of these rates. Considerable astonishment was expressed at the wide variance at rates being paid for the same class of work in neighboring localities, and one of the important phases of the discussion centered upon an effort to determine if possible a logical and sound reason for these differences.

Mr. Norman explained in detail the agreement reached last December between the Building Trades Employers Association representing approximately forty trades and the newly formed Building Trades Council, and he also told the delegates that the bricklayers were not included in this agreement and were at present on a strike in New York City. Mr. Norman pointed out that a very large part of the labor unrest in the Metropolitan district was due to independent builders not affiliated with the organization and the speculators who were willing to pay almost any advance in order to get their structures completed and then pass on the additional cost to the purchaser of the building. He cited one enlightening example of a speculative builder who started his work paying bricklayers at the established rate of $8.50 per day. After the walls were up to the second story the bricklayers struck and demanded $9 a day, which they obtained. Somewhat later they again walked out with the demand for $10 a day, and the builder in order to carry on his work, had to pay it. Just before this building was up to the roof tier the bricklayers again demanded an increase, this time for $12 a day, and it was necessary to pay this outrageous wage in order that the work might be finished and the owner save his equity in the project. This was not a hypothetical case but one which was confirmed by the visiting officials of the International union.

In the discussion, it was brought out that continual breaking of contracts by labor unions in all parts of the state was one of the most important problems the convention had to deal with, and it was the concensus of opinion that unless the workmen can be made to realize the necessity of abiding by their agreements there is no reason for making them, and builders may then be forced into the open shop. Others who took active part in the discussion on the labor situation were President F. T. Young, C. A. Daniels of Newburgh, Lewis Harding of New York, S. J. Smith of Albany, J. O'Dell Whitenack of New York, G. C. Schierer of Buffalo, and J. D. Taylor.

The second session of the convention was called to order after the luncheon recess and consisted entirely of routine business. The nominating committee reported the names of the following to be balloted for later: E. K. Fenno, Syracuse, for president; C. W. Luther, Rochester, first vice-president; S. A. Smith, Albany, second vice-president; J. O'Dell Whitenack, New York City, third vice-president; Edward A. Keeler, Albany, secretary and Lewis Harding, New York City, chairman of the executive committee. Upon motion which was unanimously carried, the secretary was authorized to cost one ballot electing these officers for 1920 but their installation was deferred upon vote to the closing session of the convention Thursday afternoon.

Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, the Syracuse Builders Exchange acted as host at the banquet given for the visiting delegates and members of the New York State Association of Builders. Hon. J. Henry Walters, leader in the State Senate, acted as toastmaster of the evening and in his opening remarks paid a high compliment to the builders represented for their untiring efforts throughout the war and during the difficult period of reconstruction and explained how necessary it was in these times for every red blooded American to stand firmly for the highest of American ideals, particularly at this time when Bolshevism, Socialism, I. W. W.ism and other "isms" were so rampant and which were having such an insidious influence on public thought and action.

The toastmaster then introduced Arthur W. Loasby of Syracuse, who recently resigned as president of the First Trust and Deposit Company of that city in order to go to New York where his services were drafted by a prominent trust company of the Metropolis. Mr. Loasby chose as his topic, "Commodity Values and Cost Inflation," and gave some State upon the recent action of Governor Smith in reappointing Professor Pilcher to the important post of State Architect for a new term of five years and also to the State Senate for its prompt action in confirmation of this appointment. Upon a unanimous vote it was ordered that this resolution be spread upon the minutes of the 24th Convention of the New York State Association of Builders, and further, that copies of the same be forwarded to Governor Smith, the Senate and to Professor Pilcher. Thursday morning at 10 o'clock the convention reconvened for the third business session and also listened to the annual report of the counsel relative to various matters of legislation and other important problems that came up during the year. The report of the executive committee followed, after which the new officers elected at a preceding session were formally installed, each of whom made brief addresses.

The remainder of this session was devoted to various matters of new business, many of which were acted upon immediately and the balance were referred to the executive committee.

Harold J. Hichman, who was recently appointed Assistant State Architect, was a guest at the afternoon session and banquet as the personal representative of State Architect Lewis F. Pilcher. During the afternoon session the delegation from Albany offered a resolution expressing the appreciation and extreme satisfaction of the building trades of New York very interesting data supplementing his reasons for the present economic situation. Burr N. Johnson, T. H. McHale and George W. Driscoll also delivered addresses.

At 1 p. m. the association assembled for the annual luncheon which was also held at the Onondaga Hotel, and at 3.30 p. m. the 24th Annual Convention of the New York State Association of Builders was formally adjourned.

Delegates to the convention from the Building Trades Employers Association and the Mechanics and Traders Exchange of New York City were C. G. Norman, Lewis Harding, Nathaniel B. Webb, Frederick B. Tuttle, Frank E. Conover, William T. Ritch, Frederick T. Young, R. C. Whiting, J. O'Dell Whitenack and Harry G. French.

Work Soon to Start on Fifth Avenue Structure for Textile Interests

NOTABLE among the group of new structures planned for the Fifth avenue section is the sixteen story Textile Building, which will be erected on the block front on the east side of Fifth avenue, from 30th to 31st street, by George Backer. Most of the contracts have been awarded, and Mr. Backer stated yesterday that he hopes the building will be ready for occupancy by December 1, next. This operation will involve the outlay of more than $5,000,000, not including the value of the land.

The plot has a frontage of 197.6 feet in Fifth avenue, 200 feet in Thirty-first street and about 164.4 feet in Thirtieth street. One of the features of the structure will be a large interior court, 33x75 feet in size, which will be placed in the middle of the building, facing east.

Sommerfeld & Steckler, the architects, have prepared designs which call for a facade having stone for the first three stories, after which face brick will be used, the terra cotta to the roof. A pent house has been provided. This will have a set back of twenty-five feet and will be surrounded by a walk that wide. Just what disposition will be made of the pent house is still undertermined. There has been some talk of turning it into a club.

Ten elevators will be installed, six of which will be for passengers, two combination passenger and freight and the remaining two for freight. The latter four elevators start from a loading platform, which will be located at the eastern end of the Thirtieth street side of the building. A four foot passageway to the street will separate the passengers from the merchandise.

The main entrance to the building will be in the avenue frontage, in the centre of the structure. The ground floor space has been divided so that the entrances to the various units will be located at the corners.

Large Amount of Residential Construction In Prospect

Weekly Figures of F. W. Dodge Company Show Decided Increase in Planning for Apartments and Private Dwellings

ALTHOUGH the building figures for the week of January 24 to 30 inclusive show a falling off when compared with the unusually high totals for the week previous, a large amount of new building and engineering construction is assured by the announcements of the past week. According to the F. W. Dodge Company, architects and engineers in New York State and New Jersey, north of Trenton reported plans in progress for 263 new structural projects that will involve a total of $21,963,000. During the same period and in the same territory contracts were awarded for 126 buildings and engineering operations that will cost approximately $11,230,550.

Among the 263 projects for which plans were being prepared during the week of January 24 to 30 inclusive were 53 business and commercial buildings such as offices, lofts, stores, commercial garages, etc. $4,540,000; 9 educational projects, $1,995,000; 2 hospitals and institutions, $68,000; 32 factory and industrial buildings, $4,924,000; 1 structure for the U. S. Army, $25,000; 7 public buildings, $50,000; 29 public works and public utilities, $1,347,000; 5 religious and memorial buildings, $171,000; 115 residential operations, including apartments, flats and tenements and one and two family dwellings, $8,338,000, and 10 social and recreational buildings, $505,000.

These figures indicate a steady improvement in the number and value of residential operations to be undertaken throughout the remainder of the current year and according to the work already underway plus that proposed it is evident that some relief will be afforded to seekers of living accommodations in the Metropolitan district.

The list of 126 operations, for which contracts were awarded during the week of January 24 to 30 inclusive is grouped as follows: 21 business and commercial operations, $1,041,000; 2 educational projects, $225,000; 3 hospitals and institutions, $65,000; 16 factory and industrial buildings, $1,192,000; 2 public buildings, $105,000; 8 public works and public improvements, $5,709,350.71; residential operations, including multi-family houses and one and two-family dwellings, $2,825,500, and 3 social and recreational buildings, $67,400.

Recently it has been quite apparent that a large increase in industrial and commercial construction will come with the revival of structural activity next spring but residential building will be the most important factor of all.

PERSONAL AND TRADE NOTES.

Cass Gilbert was recently elected president of the National Institute of Arts and Letters.

Patten-Brown Company, electrical engineers, announce the removal of their business to 353-355 Canal street, corner of Wooster street.

George Lawrence & Co., masons and general contractors, have moved from 9 Pleasant place to 1412 Herkimer street, Brooklyn.

Alfred C. Bossom announces that he has removed his architectural offices from 366 5th avenue to the top floor of 680 5th avenue.

Wm. S. Worrall, Jr., architect, announces that he has moved his office from the Queensborough Building to 132 4th street, corner of Jackson avenue, Long Island City, L. I.

Mrs. John Wallace Riddle, architect, has been retained by the Women's Roosevelt Memorial Association to prepare the plans for the restoration of Theodore Roosevelt's birthplace, 28 East 20th street.

James E. Casale, architect, announces the removal of his office from 569 Fifth avenue, to temporary offices at 128 East 28th street. After May 1, Mr. Casale will be permanently located at 73 East 52d street.

Walter E. Truesdale, industrial engineer, formerly associated with J. H. Wallace at 5 Beekman street, has opened offices in the same building for the independent practice of his profession.

Herbert Spielman, architect, formerly a member of the firm of Samuel Hannaford & Sons, Cincinnati, Ohio, announces that he has withdrawn from this organization and is now engaged in individual practice of his profession, with offices in the Mercantile Library Building, Cincinnati. Catalogues, samples and price lists of building materials and supplies are desired.

Murphy Varnish Company begins the new year with a new president, John J. Nicholson, and with a new vice-president and member of the Board of Directors, Charles J. Roh. Franklin Murphy, Jr., retires from the presidency and becomes the chairman of the Executive Committee. Governor Murphy remains chairman of the Board of Directors.

Courses in Building Construction.

The College of the City of New York announces a special course of study in building construction designed especially for those interested in building construction, architects, architects' assistants, owners, contractors and builders, real estate agents, inspectors and foremen. The lectures are given by experts in each particular branch of the work.

Buildings I—Materials. Manufacture, characteristics, tests and inspection of all building materials. Study of the best methods of handling and inspecting materials from the time of delivery to final placing in the structure. Lectures and laboratory work.

Sixteen weeks, four hours a week. Mondays and Wednesdays, 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. Course started February 2. Fee, $15.

Buildings II—Elements of Construction. Survey and staking out of site. Test borings, bearing power of soils. Plans and plan reading. Foundations. Concrete, plain and reinforced in erection. Brick and masonry. Lumber construction, temporary and permanent. Roofs and roofing materials. Waterproofing and fireproofing. interior finish. Heating, ventilation and illumination. Plumbing and drainage. Plans and specifications. New York City Building Code.

Sixteen weeks, three hours a week. Thursdays, 7:30 to 10:15 p. m. Course started February 2. Fee, $15.

Building III—Advanced Topics. Topics covering problems arising in the erection of a building. Computation and design practice. Economies in design and erection. Stresses and strains. Properties of rolled shapes. Forces and moments (Graphic method). Resiliency of materials. Natural and artificial foundations, footings, grillages. Design of masonry and concrete walls, retaining walls, columns, bearing plates, beams and girders. Floors, stairways and elevators. Roofs and roof trusses.

Sixteen weeks, six hours a week. Tuesdays and Fridays, 7:30 to 10:15 p. m. Course started February 2. Fee, $25.

A student may register for all three courses (though not pursuing them at the same time) for $45.

Register at the Main Building of the College of the City of New York (140th street and Convent avenue) in the office, room 226, any day or evening except Saturday afternoons and evenings. All courses began February 2.

TRADE AND TECHNICAL SOCIETY EVENTS.

National Builders' Supply Association will hold its annual convention at the Hotel Sherman, Chicago, Ill., February 9-10, 1920.

National Conference on Concrete House Construction will be held in the Auditorium Hotel, Chicago, Ill., February 17, 18 and 19.

American Society of Mechanical Engineers.—Monthly meeting the second Tuesday of each month. Calvin W. Rice, secretary, 29 West 39th street.

American Road Builders' Association is perfecting the plans for the forthcoming Seventeenth Annual Convention, Tenth American Good Roads Congress and the Eleventh Good Roads Show that is scheduled to be held in the First Regiment Armory, Louisville, Ky., February 9 to 13, 1920. E. L. Powers, 150 Nassau street, New York City, secretary.

American Institute of Architects will hold its quarterly meeting at the Robert Treat Hotel, Newark, N. J., March 5-6. Three business sessions will be held the first day, and the regular dinner the second day. The representatives of the National organization will be entertained by the local chapter. Secretary Hugh Roberts is now arranging the program. The housing crisis will be one of the subjects discussed.

Building Trades Employers' Assocaition will hold its annual meeting and election of officers Tuesday afternoon, February 17. The nominating committee has prepared the followingticket to be voted on at thattime: For president, Ronald Taylor; for first-vice-president, Fred B. Tuttle; for second vice-president, Albert N. Chambers; for chairman of board of governors, Charles J. Kelly, and for treasurer, J. P. Ryan.

Building Officials' Conference will hold its sixth annual meeting in Chicago, Ill., February 16 to 18, inclusive. Arrangements are being perfected for holding a joint session with the National Conference on Concrete House Construction. Rudolph P. Miller, Superintendent of Buildings, New York City, chairman of the Building Officials' Conference, has perfected the final details of the meeting and its success is assured.

CURRENT BUILDING OPERATIONS

THE blizzard of this week effectually stopped practically all active building operations in the metropolitan district and it will undoubtedly be some days before the conditions will permit the resumption of work on many of the important jobs that are not yet under roof. Planning activity by architects and engineers in this territory indicates a tremendous volume of new construction to be brought out early this spring, and unless there is a continued shortage of labor and materials that will hinder the building program the forthcoming season will be one of the busiest on record.

At the annual convention of the New York State Association of Builders, held at Syracuse this week, practically all of the delegates had some complaint to make regarding the scarcity of materials in their localities and the outlook for a continuation of the high material prices and construction costs that have marked the past year and more. Throughout the State there is a vast amount of new building and engineering construction projected at the present time and from all accounts a fair percentage will proceed at the existing high level of construction costs, as the operations for the most part are of a type that are urgently required to supply the demands for business and housing accommodations.

In some sections the labor scarcity is acute, and just as soon as the weather conditions permit building to go ahead the condition is likely to be more apparent. In Albany, Schenectady, Syracuse, Rochester, Buffalo and Elmira builders are already hampered by the lack of labor, and more particularly in the common grades. In Newburgh the situation is not so pronounced, and reports from that city indicate a sufficient supply for all demands. The closing of the shipyards for the winter months has released a large number of carpenters for building work, and common labor, while not abundant, is sufficient for the moment.

Owing to the weather conditions the building markets in this territory have experienced a rather quiet week. Orders have generally been light, but, as there is a vast amount of new construction being planned, it will be but a short time before this branch of the business takes on renewed life. Prices for the most part have remained stationary. The only change of consequence was the announcement this week by the National Fireproofing Co. of increases in the prices of hollow tile blocks. These changes are noted in the material price table on this page.

Common Brick.—The local wholesale market for Hudson River common brick has been practically inactive this week on account of the combined influence of the weather and the continued strike of the bricklayers. There is quite some new inquiry coming in that is indicative of busy times a few months hence, but things are expected to be dull for the next three or four weeks.

Summary.—Transactions in the North River common brick market for the week ending Friday, February 6, 1920. Condition of market: Demand very slow; prices unchanged. Quotations: Hudson Rivers, $24 a thousand to dealers in cargo lots alongside dock. Number of cargoes arrived, none; sales, none. At the present time there are seven barge loads of brick covered in this market pending sale.

Lumber.—Weather conditions have slowed down activity to some extent and the strike of the yard men and drivers has prevented deliveries where orders have been taken. There would be a tremendous volume of business in prospect if proper assurance could be had that adequate supplies of lumber would be available for all demands, but at present both wholesalers and retailers are swamped with orders and their stocks are exceedingly low. The car shortage is blamed for the inability to restock and the outlook is for a continued scarcity for some time to come. As the price of lumber products largely hinges upon the available supply, there is no prospect of a decrease from the existing high levels of lumber prices. As a matter of fact, the market is today indicating the same trend toward further price advances that has marked the past year or more, and no possibility of relief is in sight until some method of getting lumber to this market in sufficient volume to supply the demand is found.

Structural Steel.—Scarcity of steel in practically all forms is being felt more and more by consumers. The majority of the leading mills are sold up completely for months ahead, many as far as July, and orders for the third and fourth quarter are also heavy. The representatitve of a large sheet steel mill in Buffalo stated this week that his firm was booked solid for about six months ahead and that all orders were now being taken without mention of price or date of delivery and with no guarantee against recession of prices. The fabricated situation is in practically the same shape and it is now feared that a number of large building projects in various parts of the country will be seriously delayed waiting for structural steel. During the past week or so local bookings for fabricated material have been light, but there are many large building operations now in the final stages of planning, and these will undoubtedly be sent out for estimates within a relatively short time.

Linseed Oil.—Demand for this material is extremely light and the market generally is very dull, with prices unchanged from the levels announced one week ago. It has recently been reported that the majority of the mills in the United States are expected to run on South American seed. This is interesting, especially in view of the report of the Canadian Bureau of Statistics to the effect that more than 5,000,000 bushels of flaxseed were harvested in 1919.

Nails.—This week there seemed to be a slight improvement in the nail situation, but the supply is far below the demand and manufacturers are not likely to catch up with their orders for many months to come. The stocks of the local jobbers are almost nil and consumers are forced to go from dealer to dealer in order to obtain even a small part of their requirements. The present scarcity of both cut and wire nails is by far the most conspicuous feature of the entire hardware situation and relief is remote, according to individuals who are best able to judge. The American Steel & Wire Co. continues to maintain its base price on wire nails at $3.25 per keg, but this producer is not in a position to fill anything but a fractional part of the demand at the present time.

Window Glass.—The scarcity of this commodity is acute, and as the demand from building sources and manufacturers as well is sure to increase materially with the coming spring, some unusual market conditions are anticipated. Word coming from the producing centers indicates that manufacturers of both plate and window glass are tied up with orders for many months ahead, and under these circumstances further price advances are very probable.

Edison Economy

Recently the owners of the Hudson Building, a seventeen story structure at 32 Broadway, examined estimates on the cost of making the change from private plant operation of the building to Edison Service

Because of the presence of four hydraulic elevators and their steam requirements, the decision to adopt Central Station Service was reached only after a thorough engineering study

The figures showed so conclusively that a large annual saving would be effected, that not only will the generators be closed down at once, but new electric elevators will be installed

The installation will consist of about 3000 lamps and 175 horsepower, displacing a generating plant of three units and steam pumps for elevators and various other purposes

Let our engineers study your power and lighting problems. It may be they can find opportunities for marked improvements

Architects and Engineers are specifying and demanding

STEELBILT

in preference to those made of ordinary materials.

STEEL has exclusive advantages. It is non-absorbent and therefore sanitary. It does not crack; in fact, is indestructible. It has a neat, clean appearance. Costs less than other substances and is more easily and economically erected. It is the logical material.

STEELBILT Toilet Partitions are made in standard sizes, some of which are carried in stock for quick delivery. Partitions and doors are made in units, of sizes to suit any plan layout.

Write Dept. "R" for full particulars and a copy of our architects' specification sheet.

Why Large Buildings Install
MARBLELOID
"The Ideal Composition Flooring"

Marbleloid is being put into an ever increasing number of important buildings because it is a satisfactory and efficient flooring. Hard, dust-proof, durable, slow to chip or crack, it has the close texture that repels moisture and the pleasing appearance that brightens the office. Easily applied and inexpensive, it pays dividends from the day it is laid.

Where may we send you full information, samples and a list of Marbleloid installations?

HECLA IRON WORKS

ESTABLISHED 1876

Architectural Bronze and Iron Work

Office, 118 North 11th Street, BROOKLYN, N. Y.

DISTINCTIVE MARBLE WORK

OUR facilities for supplying marble and executing contracts with promptness and dispatch are exceptional. We specialize in the interior marble work and use only the most carefully selected marble, of which we have a large stock constantly on hand—imported as well as domestic. We have executed contracts for marble in many prominent structures, and shall be glad to send you a partial list of these on request.

MAY WE HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO WORK WITH YOU ON YOUR NEXT UNDERTAKING?

"McLaury for Tile"

Whether for the home, the factory, the garage, the school, the hospital—in fact, for practically every description of building—tile is the logical material for much of the interior finish.

Remember, that while the FIRST cost may be a trifle more than that of commonplace material, the FINAL cost of tile is considerably less.

January Sales
We have sold more than $1,000,000 worth of our Mortgage Certificates during the month of January.
This is the largest sale of these certificates in our history.
It costs us more money for administration, but we would rather sell 100 certificates of $1,000 each than to sell one $100,000 mortgage.
It means that we have helped 100 new investors to commence saving and buying mortgages. Each one will tell his friends and the market will widen so that soon the sales will be $2,000,000 a month.
These certificates are guaranteed as to principal and interest by the Bond & Mortgage Guarantee Company and your interest begins the day we get your money.

Again Snow Costs City Millions

Nothing is gained by trying to throw the blame for the tie-up of the city's traffic during the last ten days upon the Street Cleaning Department, the surface railroad companies, the insufficiency of the supply of labor or even upon the unusual characteristics of the storm with its varied periods of snow, sleet, rain and wind. New York is so located that every year for the six months from November to April it is liable to be embedded under layers of snow of sufficient depth, and with weather conditions of sufficient severity, to bring about repetitions of the personal discomforts and financial losses, the perils of fire and of a famine of coal and food, the danger of epidemics and other ills that have been only too imminent during the experiences through which the metropolis is now passing.

If New York were not the commercial and financial centre of the foremost country in the world today; if one out of every twenty of the inhabitants of this country did not live within its confines and if the larger part of the country were not dependent for its daily needs upon transactions originating therein, or transacted wholly or in part by its business concerns, there might be some excuse for the unconcern with which severe storms are accepted as inevitable and unavoidably expensive in property and in the lives and health of many people. But when the interests of five or six million men, women and children are immediately concerned and when many millions more in other parts of the country are more or less involved and when property losses run for a period of ten days at the rate of $5,000,000 per day, it is evident that something more is needed than incriminations of muncipal administrations and invective directed at the management of transportation systems.

But what the experience of the last week or so has made very apparent is that in the matter of snow removal we are far behind other developments of the day. Antiquated methods of hand labor with pick and shovel, horse-drawn carts hastily commandeered, a loosely-formed army of raw recruits only half fit physically to cope with the gigantic task, and with inexperienced officers are relied on to free the city from an embargo upon all its activities. In Colonial days the early settlers broke roads through the drifts in the unpaved roadways of New England villages in similar fashion.

No scientist has ever thought the problem of snow removal in great cities of sufficient importance perhaps, to be made the subject of conclusive study. No commission has ever been appointed to engage in inquiry into and the solution of the problem. No Rockefeller or other foundation has placed snow removal in its category of big things to be conquered. Yet, the subject is fully as important, in respect to the health and general well-being of millions of people, as many of the subjects which have occupied the attention of these experts.

From some points of view the problem is simple. Snow is partially-congealed water and is easily reducible to its first state. As snow it has ten times the volume of water and this constitutes its most potent means of causing damage. As snow it is not so easily taken care of as in its more fluid state. Reduce snow to water and you have at one operation minimized the danger by nine-tenths and have reduced the obstructiveness of the material to a tenth of its former amount and its destructiveness to a minimum because as a liquid it can be easily controlled.

To haul cubic yards of water multiplied by frost to ten times its real bulk through streets banked with drifts of snow, gorged with traffic and rutted until they resemble the battle-fields of France, is archaic, unscientific and indefensible. Underneath every street there are sewers which never freeze through which have coursed floods of rain in summer months that have fully equaled and probably greatly exceeded the four and a half inches of water, in more or less congealed form, which greatly magnified its power to make trouble, landing on an unprepared city, blocking its business and endangering the health of its inhabitants during the recent storm.

Why cannot snow be resolved into water where it falls so that the sewers may carry it away? There have been some peripatetic attempts to do this with flame throwers and oil burners. But these are unscientific and ineffectual. High science should be able to solve the problem, either chemically or by electrical devices easily adaptable to streets and sidewalks upon which the fall of snow lies evenly distributed until the old-fashioned plows and shovels have piled it into heaps that resist removal. Frozen water pipes are thawed out nowadays by electricity. Frost covered streets can as easily be relieved of their mantle of snow if the right man sets his mind working on the problem.

Mr. Edison at 73 might easily in one of his sleepless nights find the way to rid cities of expensive and dangerous snow blockades, and in peace times he could do no greater service to his countrymen and well wishers as he enters on another year of useful living.

Astute Labor Politics

Following the advice of its President, Samuel Gompers, the American Federation of Labor has decided to take a more active part in the politics of the country from now on. An announcement from Washington emphasizes the point that the Federation leaders will not place a Labor ticket in the field in the approaching National campaign but will make a "non-partisan" fight to elect candidates favorable to its plans.

A great many public men, including Presidents, United States Senators, members of the House of Representatives, Cabinet officers and not a few Governors of States have been under the impression that Mr. Gompers and his associates have been more or less engaged in political effort for some years past. In fact, a good many public officials and private citizens thought Mr. Gompers did a pretty full day's political work when he forced Congress, on the eve of the Presidential campaign of 1916, to pass the Adamson Bill. His success in inducing President Wilson to sign that extraordinary measure also was regarded by many observers of current events as an indication that when it came to playing practical politics at Washington the labor leaders were far above the sophomore class. Then, too, the leaders of the nation's industries have thought for a long time that the Federation leaders were accomplishing results in many directions which must have caused the average politician to feel like an amateur. In the light of Mr. Gompers' announcement that the labor leaders are now going to enter actively into politics, it is not surprising that some should wonder what these leaders think they have been doing in state and national campaigns for the last decade or two.

From some points of view it would seem highly desirable if the Federation leaders were to cast aside all camouflage and take the field with a straight Labor ticket. In that event, the voters of the United States would have an opportunity to express directly their feelings upon some of the tenets of the Federation's faith. There has been such a succession of strikes in all lines and all over the country that the average citizen might be glad of an opportunity to let the labor leaders know in a direct way how he feels about these persistent disturbances in business and industry. Apparently, however, Mr. Gompers is too wily to run an out-and-out Labor candidate for President, and simonpure Labor candidates for Congress. So great is the general indignation over the succession of strikes reported east and west, north and south, that such candidates undoubtedly would be defeated overwhelmingly. The likelihood of such an outcome seems not to have been overlooked by the observing President of the American Federation. He displays his political astuteness by suppressing those of his followers who wanted a Labor ticket in the coming campaign.

From many angles the campaign of 1920 promises to be one of the most interesting since the Lincoln-Douglas contest sixty years ago. But in no respect, probably, will it afford greater interest that in the success or failure of the various candidates who may bear the stamp of Mr. Gompers' approval in this year's race. The fate next November of candidates either supported or opposed by the Federation in its "non-partisan" campaign will form a significant chapter in the political history of the country.

A Guarantee of an Authority

How closely the real estate and building news printed in the Record and Guide is followed is shown in the series of advertisements carried recently in all of the New York City newspapers by the Title Guarantee & Trust Company. In its first issue of this year the Record and Guide published a table of the leading real estate transactions of 1919 involving $2,500,000 and upwards, as has been its practice for a number of years, except during the war period, when this review was omitted for obvious reasons.

In the advertisements referred to and which attracted wide attention the Title Guarantee & Trust Company stated that of the thirty-one transacions in the class mentioned in the Record and Guide the company was called upon by the purchasers to examine and insure all but seven. This is an enviable record and one of which the company justifiably may be proud. The Record and Guide is not without appreciation of this further proof of a fact often enough stated to its publishers but not always in so public a manner, that the information contained in its columns is of very practical benefit to its readers. The great number of real estate transactions during 1919 and their importance made difficult the Record and Guide's task of following up the market. The last year was particularly trying owing to the strike of the printers and the consequent demoralization of the mechanical side of the publishing business. Nevertheless the Record and Guide has made extra efforts to keep in close touch with the important events in the real estate and building fields and to give its readers accurate information respecting them. Naturally it derives satisfaction when it is quoted as a recognized authority by so discriminating an institution as the Title Guarantee & Trust Company.

Governor Urges Plan for Reorganization of State Government

Albany, Feb. 13.

PLANS for the reorganization of the state government, embracing the adoption of an executive budget, the consolidation of the present 187 departments and bureaus into 19 departments and the election of the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor and State Comptroller and appointment by the Governor of other state officers now elective, were submitted to the Legislature this week by Governor Smith. The Governor indicated in a message setting up these plans that their adoption which will require amendment of the State Constitution, is imperative unless the state is to face bankruptcy eventually. Bills embracing the constitutional amendments which will carry these changes into effect were introduced.

These changes in the administration of affairs at Albany are the outgrowth of investigations made by the Governor's Reconstruction Commission and are consonant with plans advocated by the New York City Real Estate Board, the Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York and other bodies. New York City realty has a vital interest in any scheme to reorganize the state government which will operate to decrease expense, as the metropolis bears 70 per cent. of the direct state tax each year.

What the attitude of the Republican majority in the Legislature to these proposals will be is dubious at this time. There is a feeling on the part of members of the legislative finance committee that expenditures must be cut.

Considerable attention was given the increased cost of administering the state government by the Governor in his message. He pointed out that in thirty years the annual cost has increased from $14,000,000 to more than $100,000,000 and predicted that at the present rate of increase the state budget will reach $200,000,000 by 1925.

"No more juggling with figures and resources," the Governor said, "can solve this problem or satisfy the people of the state, who must pay an ever-increasing percentage of their incomes for the maintenance of the state government."

REAL ESTATE SECTION

Most Successful of N. Y. Real Estate Board's Banquets

Guests Number Nearly 1,500 and Speakers Emphasize the Present Prosperous Conditions of the Business and Predict Good Times Ahead

THE best ever" was the unanimous verdict at the end of the twenty-third annual banquet of the Real Estate Board of New York at the Hotel Commodore last Saturday evening. It was the first "dry" dinner in the history of the Board, but nevertheless 1,450 diners faced President Stephen H. Tyng when he arose to sound the keynote of the gathering. The cider glasses tinkled as merrily as the wine glasses of old as the brokers celebrated in characteristic fashion probably the most successful year in the history of the brokerage business in this city.

President Tyng struck a high note of patriotism in his introductory remarks in which he emphasized the need for collectively combating the growing elements of radical unrest in this country. In calling attention to the record-breaking number of diners present, who represented every phase of the real estate business, he pointed out to the State and city officials present the tremendous importance of real estate ownership in civic affairs. He then offered a toast to the United States of America.

Thaddeus C. Sweet, speaker of the Assembly, and the man responsible for the suspension of the five Socialist members, was the first orator of the evening. "In my own mind," he said, "I am convinced that there is no distinction between the Socialist and Communist parties, the last named the radical Left Wing of the Socialist Party, the members of which advocate the overthrow of the United States Government through mass action, which is plainly foretold by their indorsement of the Russian Soviet Government, a manifesto of which was accepted in their convention in Chicago in 1917.

"During the last three weeks I have received hundreds and thousands of letters asserting the right of the Assembly to take the action of unseating these five undesirables, and a great majority of the writers said that it seemed unnecessary to consider the means if the end was justified. I insisted that these men be given a fair trial and they are having a fair trial.

"There is no place in the country for a traitor. There is no spot on this broad domain of ours where for a single instant a conspirator may sit and incubate the germs of lawlessness and revolution.

"We are Americans first, and the spirit of the republic swells within the heart of every true American. When we admit within the gates of our great country the cosmopolitan hordes of alien people we expect them to live up to the traditions for which our forefathers fought, and unless they do, they must go.

"The advocate of the torch, the apostle of mass action against the fundamentals of our Government, the poisonous reptile who seeks by word or deed to undermine our institutions, must expect the treatment red-blooded Americans mete out to all things unclean and unsound."

James W. Gerard, former ambassador to Germany, pointed out the tremendous effects which land reforms had effected in political reconstruction of many countries in Europe. He urged that a compromise on the Peace Treaty be effected for the benefit of the American business man, who was being restricted in his activities by virtue of the involved international situation. Mr. Gerard declared that the two chief enemes of real estate were Bolshevism and taxes.

Henry Morgenthau, former ambassador to Turkey, in reminiscent mood, told of the operations of the old-time real estate speculators during the years when he held such a leading position in the operating field in this city. His narration of the spectacular deals in his day evoked considerable enthusiasm which heightened when he declared that he was full of optimism regarding the future of real estate in New York City.

Frank Hedley, president of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, declared that the subways had escaped going into bankruptcy on January 1 only by a narrow margin, and that in the sale of its real estate the corporation "had divested itself of its last emergency resource." He pointed out that "in a few months it must again meet its interest requirements," and that "there is no permanent way of meeting this crisis without an increased fare."

"Whether the ultimate policy of this city be one of municipal operation or of sliding scale in a 'service-at-cost' system," said Mr. Hedley, "it would seem to be clear that the principal thing at the present moment is to keep intact the great rapid transit organism that has been developed, but which is threatened with ruin. The demands of the people for transportation are increasing, traffic is growing, but the possibility of the company to do its job well is decreasing.

"It is one-half of the truth to tell the people that the Interborough Rapid Transit has a 'surplus' of ten or twelve million dollars. It is the other half to tell what is the fact, that that surplus is not in cash or quick assets, and is not available to meet the present emergency. It is one-half of the truth to show that the company in years gone by has paid its investors well; the other half of the truth is that the company is earning no dividends now, and public utilities cannot do their work forever on past prosperity." He contended that if the fare payers do not meet the deficit in the company's operations, then the taxpayers will, inasmuch as the deficit on the interest on the city's investment in the subways will have to be made up out of taxes.

"An increased fare would give the city a profit on the subway investment," said Mr. Hedley, "enabling it to meet the interest on its subway bonds, thus cutting down taxes. So long as the city gets no return on this subway investment it will have to raise by taxation something like $13,000,000 a year. If the city's subway investment becomes self-supporting through an adequate fare, it would release to the city about $250,000,000 of credit under the constitutional debt limit for other rapid transit purposes."

Other speakers included Senator James J. Walker, who spoke in behalf of Governor Smith, and Edward J. Cattell, statistician of the city of Philadelphia and a noted humorist.

The invited guests included John McE. Bowman, William Raymond Burling, Henry H. Curran, Robert E. Dowling, Forest F. Dryden, Abram I. Elkus, James A. Foley, James Frank, Michael Friedsam, John P. Leo, Robert C. Moran, Theodore E. Nickles, Jesse S. Phillips, Thomas Shallcross,

Rentals in New Ambassador Hotel Reach Record Figures

Applications Already Received for All Space Allotted to Permanent Guests, Although Building Will Not Be Completed Until Fall

ONE of the striking indications of the present demand for high-class residential accommodations in New York City and the steady increase in prices being paid for space of this nature is revealed in a statement made recently by the management of the new Ambassador Hotel, the seventeen-story structure now being erected on the east side of Park avenue, from Fifty-first to Fifty-second streets. This project is being erected at a cost of $7,500,000 by the Thompson-Starrett Co., from plans and specifications by Warren & Wetmore, architects.

AMBASSADOR HOTEL ON PARK AVENUE.

Although this great hostelry cannot possibly be ready for occupancy before October 1, the management has stated that already applications have been received for residential accommodations to more than fill the amount of space that will be leased to permanent guests. No reservations, however, have yet been allotted. Five-room apartments are listed at $20,000 to $30,000 a year. Some of these suites include maid's room, boudoir, baths, foyers and private halls. Three-room apartments will rent from $12,000 to $18,000 per year. While some of the suites will be listed at the rate of $3,500 per room a year, the average annual rental will be from $4,000 to $6,000 per room.

While these prices probably represent a higher figure than those charged by any other hotel in this country, investigation among the first-class hotels of New York City reveals a sharp advance in the prices asked for permanent suites as a result of the strong demand for living quarters of this description. The extreme shortage of domestic labor is among the chief contributing causes of these conditions.

The Ambassador Hotel is being constructed by a syndicate which includes in its directorate S. W. Straus, of S. W. Straus Co., who recently made the following statement:

"It is really amazing to note the rush New Yorkers are making to secure permanent quarters in hotels. Although only about three hundred of the Ambassador's rooms will be devoted to the use of permanent guests, we are being overwhelmed with applications for space of this kind. At our temporary offices, 11 West Forty-sixth street, every mail is bringing applications for reservations and we take this as an indication that there are many more people in New York who want to live in hotels than there are hotels to take care of them.

Manhattan Real Estate Mounting Far in Excess of Assessed Valuation

PRICES obtained at auction by Joseph P. Day for the holdings of the estate of Helen C. and Augustus D. Juilliard, on Tuesday, for business properties in the downtown section, emphasized not only the prevailing strong demand for space of this description, but also indicated the steadily mounting values of Manhattan real estate. Figures far in excess of the assessed valuations for 1919 were obtained; in the case of the twelve-story loft building at 632 Broadway the knock-down figure of $580,000 was $190,000 more than the 1919 assessed figures. This building was purchased by Morris Rubenstein, who was evidently actuated in the purchase by the fact that most of the leases expired in 1921 and 1922. The twelve-story loft building at 32 West Eighteenth street, bought by Max N. Natanson for $451,000, was assessed last year at $290,000. In this building a number of leases also expire in February, 1921. A total of $1,898,500 was realized for the eleven parcels. Despite the threatening weather a large attendance participated actively in the bidding.

After the sale, Joseph P. Day said: "Allowing for the extremely inclement weather of the last week, it is remarkable that such good prices were obtained.

"The prices realized were in full keeping with what the public generally knows about the real estate market. In this particular sale the veterans and operators of the old school bid shoulder to shoulder with the new buying public. It is no longer a one-sided market, but rather one of many factions, all of which realize the value of real estate as an investment."

Today's Rate of Interest on Real Estate Mortgage Loans

Banker Gives Reasons Why Five Per Cent Is No Longer in Line With Prevailing Conditions in General Money Market

BY JOHN J. PULLEYN,
President Emigrant Industrial Savings Bank.

IT must be conceded that money commands a higher rate of interest today than in the past. The old rate of five per cent. on conservative real estate mortgages is not in line with the return that lenders are now getting in the open market. Neither is it a fair rate when compared with the returns on government securities of which there is so abundant a supply.

Conditions affecting loans are today very much changed from those before the war when the standard rate of five per cent. on improved property in the best sections of Manhattan had prevailed for many years. This was the rate on overdue mortgages on property which had been kept up in the best of condition. Such loans approached what bankers term "liquid" investments. They were practically call loans, the original term for which they were made having expired. They could be liquidated at the demand of the lenders at a few days' notice.

When the rate of five per cent. on real estate mortgages of this character prevailed "call" money on the "street" could be had in large amounts at from two to three per cent. and time loans on the best one and two-name commercial paper was five per cent. The rate for the most liquid real estate loans, such as those described above, was about double the "call" money rate of Wall street and equal to that on the best commercial paper.

Today "call" money ranges from five to over twenty per cent. and time money on industrial collateral ranges around nine and ten per cent. For months the average rates for loans of the character just described has ranged well above the pre-war rates and there is no indication that they will recede to the old figures for some time to come.

It will readily be seen that if lenders on bond and mortgage insisted today in getting a rate which would have the same relation to call and time money as the realty rate before the war did to the call and time money rates of that period, they would ask ten instead of five per cent. Before the war the mortgage rate was about double the average "call" rate. Double the average "call" money rate of today would be more than ten per cent. Before the war "time" money was to be had for five per cent., which was the rate on reality mortgages. Today the "time" money rate nearly approaches ten per cent., so that if the rate on good mortgage loans were advanced in proportion it would be nearly if not actually as high.

Of course no such rate as ten per cent. for real estate loans is even thought of. The legal rate is six per cent. and it would be impossible to get more than that. But even a six per cent. rate, except in special cases, is not contemplated. It does seem, though, that in view of all conditions in the money market it is not unreasonable but entirely justifiable to ask five and one-half per cent. on long term mortgages.

Just see what it is possible for lenders to do by investing in government bonds.

Before the war, when the investors in real estate mortgages got five per cent. on their money, those who bought bonds of the U. S. Government received from 2 to 3 per cent. interest. And Government bonds were practically unattainable by the general public but used only as a basis for circulation of bank notes. Today anybody can buy the best security in the world, the war bonds of our government, on a basis to return 5.85 per cent. if redeemed at the optional date and 5 per cent. if they run for the full period. No one will question the advantage of a government bond over a real estate mortgage.

I mention these facts in mitigation of possible criticism of loaning institutions whch may feel obliged in deference to their obligations as trustees of funds in their care to raise the rates on real estate mortgages. As a matter of fact the rate on new mortgages has been 5½ per cent., and in exceptional cases 6 per cent. for some time. The legal rate is six per cent., as I have said. Now it does not seem to me that it is unreasonable for savings banks and other lenders to ask five and one-half per cent. for mortgage loans of the character I have mentioned, overdue loans on improved Manhattan realty. But there is no agreement among leading institutions to advace the rates. Neither is there any reason for alarm on the part of borrowers. We are not withdrawing from the market, and do not propose to do so. As a matter of fact we are refusing to make loans at 6 per cent. with government bonds as security, so that we may continue to provide funds for those who have been accustomed to look to us to supply mortgage loans.

It is true, however, that there is comparatively little money seeking investment in real estate mortgages, and it may be that the comparatively low rate that has heretofore prevailed for this class of investment is partially responsible, just as it is probable that a higher rate may induce larger offerings of funds for the purchase of mortgages. One of the peculiarities of the situation today is that the insurance companies, which had paid up their subscriptions to Liberty bond issues by last November, are now buying more Government bonds rather than place their funds in bond and mortgages or building loans at the five per cent. rate. They can hardly be criticised for making such good investment of their resources. But if the rate on mortgages becomes standardized at say 5½ per cent. and buildings loans at 6 per cent, it is quite likely that they would again invest largely in this class of investments. The Title Companies are charging 6 per cent., and it seems to me that it is conservative to ask 5½ per cent. on the outstanding loans.

Real Estate Board Banquet

Legislature Flooded With Bills Affecting Realty

Two Measures Providing for Rent Commissions Not Acceptable to Real Estate Interests—Municipal Ownership Bills Again Introduced

Albany, February 12.

SENTIMENT against the several bills providing for the creation of rent commissions to exercise jurisdiction over rentals and other charges made for occupancy of dwellings and apartments is expected to crystallize at a hearing upon the Jesse rent commission bill scheduled for February 18. An incomplete poll of the Senate and Assembly indicates a pronounced antipathy against the Jesse bill, which is state-wide in its application, and considerable opposition against the other rent commission bills which affect New York Cty alone. The hearing has been called for the Jesse bill, but it is to be expected that the Evans and Ullman measures will be considered at the same time.

The Jesse bill creates two rent districts in the state, one embracing Greater New York and contiguous counties, the other including the up-state territory. It provides for the appointment of two commissions of three members, each to be named by the Governor, one commission for each district.

The Ullman bill provides for a commission of five members to be named by the Governor, with the consent of the Senate, to exercise jurisdiction over rents exclusively in New York City.

The Evans bill provides for a commission of seven members to be appointed by the Mayor of New York City, at a salary of $3,000 a year each, such commission to operate exclusively in New York City.

Realty interests in New York City are opposed to the enactment of any of these measures, basing their opposition upon the conviction that the present housing shortage is not to be helped any by the creation of more departments or the enlargement of departmental jurisdiction. The men in the Legislature who are advocating the exemption from the income tax of mortgages on real property up to $40,000 as a means of encouraging building and other measures designed to relieve housing conditions in Greater New York feel that the rent commission policy will only serve to complicate matters by increasing the number of regulatory agencies.

As was expected in view of recommendations incorporated in the Governor's message to the Legislature, the Democratic contingent in the Legislature has reproduced from its files a Municipal Ownership bill beaten last year, the so-called Hylan bill. Assemblyman Donohue, minority leader of the Assembly, introduced the identical bill this week. The measure will find the same opposition that confronted it last year, a little more intense if anything by reason of the election of a few more Republicans to the Assembly. Legislative leaders who are opposing the state hydro-electric development bills and similar measures are bound in principle to fight this measure.

The Municipal Ownership bill was introduced a day before the up-state Public Service Commission had issued an order permitting the village of Attica to sell its municipally-owned electric lighting plant which had been in operation for two years. In its application for permission to dispose of the plant the village pointed out that it was convinced better service could be afforded by a private corporation. This paragraph constitutes the story of several trials at municipal ownership by up-state communities and is regarded here as interesting as a sidelight on this policy.

The Macdonald bill providing that no tax lien shall be sold at public auction for non-payment of taxes unless notice of sale has been served by registered mail upon the owner of the property at least three months in advance of the sale will be given a hearing by the Assembly Cities Committee in the near future.

Senator Gibbs introduced a bill this week fixing the rate of interest upon real property mortgage loans at from 6 to 9 per cent. according to the value of the mortgage indebtedness.

Senator Schackno introduced a bill providing that no monthly tenant shall be removed in New York City on the ground of holding over unless he has been given 60 days' notice before the expiration of his term, instead of 20 as at present.

A plaintiff must cause judgment against a defendant in a mortgage foreclosure action for the unsatisfied residue of the debt to be docketed in the proper clerk's office within 60 days after the sale of the mortgaged property, under the terms of a bill introduced by Senator Whitley.

Assemblyman Gempley has a bill providing that assessors in New York City shall assess each parcel of rented real property liable to taxation at not less than ten times the amount of rents received on each parcel.

Another exemption bill was introduced by Assemblyman Jesse this week. It provides an exemption from personal income tax of the interest from building loans and mortgages on buildings in first class cities used in whole or major part for dwelling purposes only and which shall be ready for occupancy December 31, 1921.

Senator Sutherland has introduced a bill relating to awards for damages to land and buildings arising from grading of streets. This bill defines the word "lessee" to include only persons whose leases do not expire in less than three years instead of ten from the date of completion and acceptance by the city. The bill does not apply to any claims for grade change damages now pending before the assessors.

The establishment of the office of park commissioners for Richmond Borough is provided for in a bill introduced by Assemblyman Reynaud.

A reflection of the Ettinger-Hylan fight over the administration of the moneys allotted the city of New York for school purposes was seen in the Senate this week when Senator Lockwood introduced a bill the effect of which will be to give the State Department of Education control of such apportioned funds in New York City. The practice in the past has been to deposit these moneys, which aggregate several millions, to the general fund and to provide for the expense of administering the schools from the general fund.

A new state teachers' pension fund bill was introduced by Senator Lockwood to supplant the present pension fund statute now on the books. The bill does not apply to first class cities, but if New York City elects to come in under the new system it may do so. The same is true of Buffalo. The new fund would be composed of contributions from teachers consisting of four per cent. of their pay and 5.1 per cent. contributions from the state as a maximum. These amounts may be reduced in the future, judged by the condition of the pension fund. The State Education Department declares that the new fund founded upon a strict actuarial basis will not prove a drain upon the state as no increase in payments will be authorized under it.

Late this week Senator Schackno introduced an amendment to the Real Property Law providing that no monthly tenant from month to month shall be removed from any building in New York City on the ground that it is to be altered or demolished unless 90 days' notice has been served upon the tenant.

Another measure by Senator Dunnigan provides for the establishment of municipal bus lines in New York City, the Board of Estimate and Apportionment to establish the routes and fix the fares, and it is provided that fares shall in no case exceed five cents.

Review of Real Estate Market for the Current Week

Important Deals Closed Forecasting Big Building Operations — Columbus Circle Activity Anticipates Construction Movement

DEALS involving important structural operations were features of the business of the week which continued to be unusually diversified. The lease of the Thoroughfare Building for sixty-three years at a rental of nearly $12,000,000 will bring to the Columbus Circle section a 20-story office building which is expected to greatly accelerate the long anticipated building movement predicted for this part of the city. Another deal in the same neighborhood affected a large plot on West 57th street between Seventh avenue and Broadway acquired by the Excelsior Bank, which will also provide a site for a tall office building operation. These two projects, together with those contemplated by the Fisk Rubber Company at Broadway and 57th street by the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company on Seventh avenue and 57th street, and by the Hotel Commonwealth interests a block to the south, will bring to the Columbus Circle section probably the most important building movement in its history.

The announcement that the Guaranty Trust Company is the purchaser of the large plot at Broadway and Liberty street reveals the information that this institution contemplates the erection of another skyscraper on lower Broadway. Other important building projects forecasted by the business of the week affected the property at Broadway and 67th street acquired for a new theatre improvement and the northwest corner of Sixth avenue and 39th street upon which interests identified with the Horton Ice Cream Company plan a commercial improvement.

Although speculative interest continued to center to a large degree upon residential properties, operators figured in several large downtown transactions, notably the deal whereby the Adams Building at 61 Broadway passed into the possession of a syndicate in which Henry Morgenthau, Robert E. Simon and Robert E. Dowling were interested. This deal involving $9,250,000 takes rank as the leading transaction of the year and signalizes the return of Henry Morgenthau into the real estate field after an inactive period extending over a number of years.

There were several other interesting transactions which stood out from the great mass of trading, notably the sale of 726 Fifth avenue to a firm of dressmakers occupying adjoining property at a price which may set a new high mark for inside lots on Fifth avenue. The over-crowded condition in the territory south of Chambers street is continuing to force downtown business men to buy properties and a number of transactions were closed whereby tenants became owners of commercial holdings.

PRIVATE REALTY SALES.

THE total number of sales reported but not recorded in Manhattan this week was 152, as against 164 last week and 66 a year ago.

The number of sales south of 59th street was 56, as compared with 67 last week and 27 a year ago.

The number of sales north of 59th street was 96, as compared with 97 last week and 39 a year ago.

From the Bronx 43 sales at private contract were reported, as against 49 last week and 26 a year ago.

Morgenthau Syndicate Buys.

Former Ambassador Henry Morgenthau, associated with Robert E. Dowling and Robert E. Simon, has purchased the 32-story Adams Express building at 61 Broadway, northwest corner of Exchange Alley, and running through to Trinity place. The structure was put up in 1914 by the Adams Express Building Company, of which Mr. Dowling is the president. It has a frontage of 104.10 feet on Broadway, 210.2 feet on Exchange Alley and 109 feet on Trinity place. The purchase price was $9,250,000 subject to a first mortgage of $5,000,000 and a second mortgage of $3,400,000. The building was designed by the late Francis H. Kimball, architect, and has a facade of marble and light colored brick, with comparatively little limestone trimming.

Mr. Dowling, who is president of the Adams Building Company, and who sold the greater part of his interest in the company some time since, now buys back a half interest, the remainder passing to Mr. Simon and Mr. Morgenthau.

Last December the City Investing Company, of which Mr. Dowling is also president, sold its building at 165 Broadway to Grigori Benenson, Russian banker. The sale was the largest closed last year. The present deal is the largest consummated so far this year.

Guaranty Trust Will Build.

The Guaranty Trust Co. proves to be the buyer of the plot at the northeast corner of Broadway and Liberty street, directly opposite its present location. The company plans the erection of a tall building for its occupancy.

For the purpose it has acquired at an estimated cost of between $2,500,000 and $3,000,000, through lease and purchase, the properties at 150 to 158 Broadway and 69 Liberty street, which have a frontage of 96.3 feet in Broadway and 153.3 feet in Liberty street. The easterly line measures 111.4 and the northerly line 115.8 respectively, with an interior court of irregular dimensions.

The property at 150 Broadway, which is the corner parcel, was obtained through a lease from the heirs of John G. Wendel for twenty-one years, with two renewals of equal periods.

Nehring Brothers Buy Heights Home.

The "Own-Your-Own-Home" movement among real estate brokers has spread to Washington Heights, where the progressive young firm of Nehring Brothers has purchased the 5-sty apartment and store property at the northwest corner of St. Nicholas avenue and 128th street, covering a plot 100x140. Three stores now occupying the grade floor will be altered into one store and be occupied by the firm. The firm of Nehring Brothers, consisting of Fred W. Nehring president; Paul Nehring, vice-president, and Charles A. Nehring, secretary and treasurer, began to do business only five years ago at their present location, St. Nicholas avenue and 174th street. The three brothers had had considerable real estate experience prior to that time and brought to the new organization all the present day up-to-date methods of real estate brokerage and management. Their business has grown to such an extent that their present quarters are overcrowded and they have been required to obtain larger and permanent quarters elsewhere.

FRED. W. NEHRING.

The firm conducts a general real estate business involving every phase of brokerage, management and insurance. The new office—just one block north from West 181st street, the most important business thoroughfare on the Heights—lends itself by virtue of its accessibility as an ideal location for a real estate office. Not only is it convenient to the subway but also to the Bronx service lines connecting with the upper section of the Bronx, in which Nehring Brothers manage a number of large apartment house properties.

Fred W. Nehring, discussing the 1920 spring market for real estate on the Heights, expressed his confidence in the future of improved properties in that locality. "The most encouraging feature of recent business," he said, "is the growing interest of investors in apartment houses. This class of purchaser is steadily acquiring high class income producing property for permanent ownership. In view of the fact that building operations on the Heights have been negligible within the last few years, there is every indication that the active market will continue for at least three more years.

Place $4,500,000 Loan.

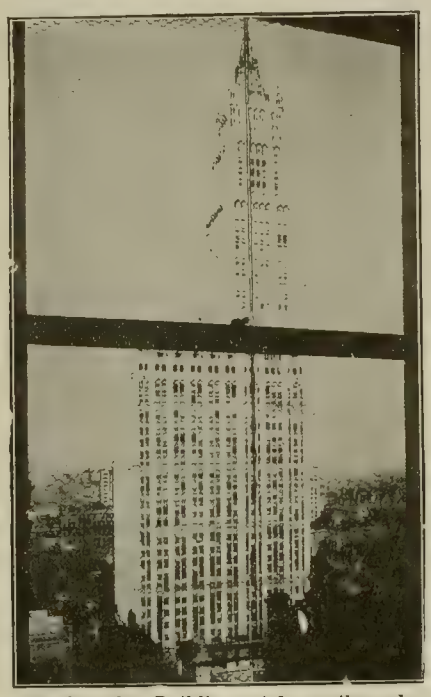
One of the largest loans on New York City real estate reported in years was placed by Hughes & Hammond. The loan, which is in the sum of $4,500,000, is to run for a term of ten years, at 5½ per cent. per annum, and is to be secured by a first mortgage on the 32-sty store, office and theatre building to be erected by August Heckscher at the southwest corner of 5th avenue and 57th street, extending through to and including 3 to 9 West 56th street. Plans for the new building have just been completed by Warren & Wetmore, architects. It is estimated the gross revenue from the new building will be approximately $1,500,000 per annum. Hughs & Hammond in the last few months have placed mortgage loans aggregating more than $15,000,000.

Chose Bureau Chairmen.

At the annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Bronx Board of Trade, held last week at the board rooms, 137th street and 3d avenue, and which was very well attended despite the inclement weather, the organization of the directorate was completed and the following unanimously chosen to serve as vice-presidents and bureau chairmen during the current year:

Second vice-president and chairman of civic bureau, Martin Walter; third vice-president and chairman of industrial bureau, Louis H. Werner; fourth vice-president and chairman of publicity bureau, Albert Goldman; fifth vice-president and chairman of traffic and waterways bureau, Alexander Haring; sixth vice-president and chairman of trade and commerce bureau, Robert J. Moorehead, and seventh vice-president and chairman of manufactures bureau, M. J. de Rochemont. Theodore S. Trimmer was elected to serve as treasurer and Charles E. Reid as secreatry.

Mercantile Building Sold.



Samuel Kaplan sold for Daniel H. Jackson to the 400 Manhattan Avenue Corporation 133-135 West 19th street, a 10-story fireproof store and loft building, on a plot 41x92, bringing in a rental of $33,000 a year. The property was held at $225,000.

It is understood the rental aggregates $55,000 a year. This is an eight-story building, 25.8x110.3, and was at one time known as the Williamsburgh Fire Insurance Company Building. The adjoining parcels were acquired from Norman S. Riesenfeld and Elias A. Cohen. Mr. Riesenfeld contracted to purchase 152 Broadway, a 4-story building, 22.11x92, from the heirs of Chester A. Arthur, twenty-first President of the United States, last August. In November he obtained control of the Haight Building at 154 to 158 Broadway, through to 69 Liberty street, 6 and 4-story structures, and resold the property to the Guaranty Trust Company in about a week. Title to both parcels has since passed to the Reliance Improvement Company and thence to the Fidelitas Realty Corporation, the latter, a holding company for the real buyer. Tenants of the properties sold by Mr. Reisenfeld and Mr. Cohen have been notified to vacate by May 6 next, when it is understood work of demolishing the present structure will begin. The new home of the trust company will adjoin the Lawyers Title and Insurance Company's building and will be separated from the Chamber of Commerce, in Liberty street, by the recently acquired home of Joseph P. Day.

Big Maiden Lane Purchase.

Cross & Brown Company sold for the Interstate Land Holding Company to Bing & Bing the 12-story semi-manufacturing building at 47 and 49 Maiden lane, between Nassau and William streets, 44x135, and known as the Meyers building. About fifteen years ago it was purchased by the late F. H. Ayer of Boston, Mass., and is located directly opposite the square block assembled under a single ownership by the Federal Reserve Bank. It also adjoins Jewelers Court. It is understood that the building will be converted from its present use, as the headquarters of a number of manufacturing jewelers, to that of an office building for the insurance interests, which, at the present time, are suffering from a lack of space available in the William street district.

Sixth Avenue Building Project.

Chauncey E. Horton, treasurer of the J. M. Horton Ice Cream Co., has purchased 683 Sixth avenue, a 5-story building, on a lot 25x100, the ground floor of which is now occupied by a moving picture theatre. Title to the adjoining property, 681 Sixth avenue, on the northwest corcorner of 39th street and Sixth avenue, has been held by Mr. Horton for a number of years, and he now controls a plot 50x100 adjoining the Maxine Elliott Theatre, on 39th street, between Broadway and Sixth avenue. On the combined plot, which is valued at about $375,000, it is Mr. Horton's intention to erect, as soon as the present leases expire, a store and commercial building as high as the zoning laws will permit. J. Arthur Fischer was associated with A. A. Hageman in the transaction.

Excelsior Bank Buys Site.

As a site for a 20-story banking and commercial structure the Excelsior Savings Bank, now located in the Masonic Temple Building on the northeast corner of Sixth avenue and 23d street, has purchased 221 and 223 West 57th street from the estate of John W. Condit, who was one of the organizers of the firm of Acker, Merrall & Condit. It is estimated that the deelopment will involve over a million dollars, and that work will begin on the new structure as soon as the present leases expire. It is understood that the bank will abandon its present location in Sixth avenue and 23d street upon the completion of its new building.

The property purchased through A. A. Hageman and Howard LeC. Roome consists of an old 7-story apartment house, on a plot 50x100, located on the south side of 57th street, about 140 feet east of Broadway.

"Alcazar" in Deal.

Blaine Ewing has bought from Alfred Lewis the 6-story Alcazar apartment house and a 5-story building, adjoining to the east at 120-124 East 86th street, on plot 76.8x102. To the east is the one-story Corn Exchange Bank building, a permanent improvement, while church property on the west and south assure permanent light and air for the tenants of the 14-story apartment house, which it is understood Mr. Ewing will erect. Mr. Ewing recently purchased the American Bank Note Company property on Trinity place, running through to Greenwich street, and resold it to the New York Curb Market Association.

New High Price for Inside Lots.

Pease & Elliman sold for Mrs. Louis T. Hoyt 726 Fifth aenue, in the middle of the block between 56h and 57th streets, and occupying a lot 25x100. This property was improved about twelve years ago by Mrs. Hoyt with a very handsome modern American basement dwelling from plans by McClellan, Beadel & Dillon, and has since been occupied by her as her residence. Mrs. Hoyt purchased this property from Charles W. Morse, the steamship man, who also formerly owned 724 Fifth avenue. No. 726 has been purchased by Farquharson & Wheelock, dressmakers, who own and occupy 724, which they purchased in 1911. The balance of the block to the north is owned by August Heckscher, who is planning to erect a 30-story office and theatre building on property which he purchased from the William C. Whitney estate. To the south is the handsome building being erected by the Messrs. Duveen and occupied by them for their art galleries. Pease & Elliman recently sold 1 West 56th street, abutting these properties, for the Mead estate to the Messrs. S. Duveen. Farquharson & Wheelock intend to alter the house to be used in connection with their business. The property was held at $600,000 and it is believed to have been sold at the highest price ever paid for an inside lot on Fifth avenue north of 42d street.

Salvation Army Buys Home.

Supreme Court Justice Tierney has given legal approval to the trustees of the Messiah Home for Children to sell the institution's building and land between Montgomery, Andrews and Tremont avenues and 179th street to the Salvation Army for $350,000. The Salvation Army will use the property as a training school for officers. Possession of the property cannot be had until the end of the year, as it is now used by the Government as a hospital for shell-shocked soldiers. The Knights of Columbus leased it from the institution and then turned it over to the army authorities for $1 a year for the use as a base hospital. The Messiah Home trustees will invest the proceed from the sale in the development of a new home elsewhere.

Buyer for the Towers.

Globe Realty Company sold to S. Morrill Banner the north corner of Central Park West and 94th street, an 8-story apartment house, 68x100, known as the Towers. The structure is arranged with suites of nine rooms, with two and three baths, and is held under lease until next October. It is the intention of the buyer to alter the structure into small apartments. Norman Denzer was the broker in the sale. The building was erected about fifteen years ago from designs by Hardy & Short, architects. It shows an annual rental of about $40,000.

Broker Buys 81 Broad Street.

The Broadway-John Street Corporation, Elias A. Cohen, president, resold to Col. Albert G. Pritchard, stock broker, for occupancy, the five-story building at 81 Broad street, northeast corner of South William street, on a plot fronting 30 feet on Broad street and 74.4 feet on South William street. Julius Kline was the broker. Mr. Cohen's company bought through Cammann, Voorhees & Floyd from Julius Lichtenstein 7-9 Burling slip, near Water street, two five-story buildings, on plot 40.2x56.8, in the tobacco district, and carrying possession May 1. He also bought through Pease & Elliman the northwest corner of Water and Fulton streets, a five-story building, on lot 31.4x20.

Resale in Cortlandt Street.

Pease & Elliman resold for Bing & Bing the 12-story office building, 51x128, at 39 and 41 Cortlandt street, between Church and Greenwich streets, to Ernest E. Baldwin, who will take title in the name of the 39 Cortlandt Street Corporation, formed at Albany Monday with a capital of $250,000, and F. W. Barnes, W. Shirden and Mr. Baldwin as directors. The property had been held at $700,000, and was acquired by the Messrs. Bing last December from the estate of J. Monroe Taylor, of which Joseph P. Day is trustee, and which owned it since its erection, in 1887. It is located opposite the entrance to the Hudson tubes. A considerable amount of space in the building will be available May 1 and the purchaser intends to occupy it.

Downing Building in Resale.

Charles F. Noyes Co. resold the 16-story Downing Building, on plot of 6,000 sq. ft., at 106-8 Fulton street and 14 Dutch street, to a syndicate headed by Ennis & Sinnott. Improvements will be made and the property will be offered for resale to a group of tenants now located in nearby buildings. The property is one of the best located office buildings in the district, with frontages of 50 feet on Fulton street and 22 feet on Dutch street. It is located midway between Nassau and William streets and near the Fulton street subway station of the 7th avenue route and located near the heart of the insurance district. The property is valued at $850,000.

Poor's Manual Is Buyer.

The Poor Publishing Co., publisher of Poor's Manual, has been crowded out of its present quarters, at 31-33 Broadway, and has purchased from the Markham Realty Corporation, Clarence W. Eckhardt, president, the four-story building at 56 West street, on a plot 31x89.9, held at $100,000. The present headquarters of the purchaser has been taken by the banking house of J. S. Bache & Co.

Another Broadway Site for Theatre.

Hamilton Carhart, of Detroit, sold for a price close to the holding figure of $325,000 the two-story taxpayer building at 1989 Broadway and the four five-story flat houses at 129 to 135 West 67th street. The latter comprise a plot 100x100.5, upon which a new theatre will be built. The taxpayer, which fronts 28.1 feet on Broadway, will furnish the site for the lobby entrance, offices, etc. Jay A. Lee and Edward K. Van Winkle negotiated the deal. The buyers, who already own several theatres, will proceed with the theatre improvement upon the expiration of present leases. The Broadway outlet is directly opposite the armory of the First Field Artillery, and the 67th street section faces the Hotel Marie Antoinette.

$1,500,000 Plant for Remington.

The Remington Typewriter Co. purchased the $1,500,000 plant of the Nathan Manufacturing Co., situated at Lawrence and West Amity streets, Flushing, Long Island, through Louis Schlesinger, Inc. The sale includes four buildings, containing in all about 200,000 sq. ft. of floor space, together with fifteen acres of land bordering on Flushing Creek. The Remington company will take possession of the property on or before May 1 and will make extensive alterations and additions which will increase the floor space to approximately 500,000 sq. ft. The Nathan Manufacturing Co., which employed about 700 hands, will move its business to its factory in East 106th street, Manhattan.

The plant is one of the most complete industrial plants in the metropolitan district, having all modern conveniences for the employes, including restaurants, hospital, recreation rooms, athletic field, tennis courts, and was built only three years ago by the Nathan Manufacturing Co. in connection with certain war contracts which they were filling. The Remington Co. for the purpose of locating in the metropolitan district, purchased this plant and will move their present plant from Bridgeport, Conn.

THE TELEPHONE EMERGENCY HAS NOT ENDED! MAKE ONLY THE NECESSARY CALLS! CO-OPERATE!

Transportation is still tied up by the snow-blocked streets. All traffic in and out of the city is seriously crippled. This adds hundreds of thousands of telephone calls to the already tremendous volume of messages which our operators are striving to handle.

Other hundreds of thousands of essential calls are added to the load as a result of the epidemic of influenza and pneumonia.

Our operating force is 3,000 short, largely because of illness. The operators remaining on duty cannot handle all these calls promptly. Delays are unavoidable. The switchboard operators cannot distinguish important from unimportant calls.

We again urge you to stop making unnecessary calls. Unless you co-operate by restricting your use of the telephone to essential messages, vitally important calls may be delayed. Furthermore, we may be compelled to accept only those calls that are stated to be of an emergent or essential character.

RECENT LEASES.

Millions in Circle Deal.

Final closing of the lease involving the Thoroughfare Building and adjoining structures in the block bounded by Broadway, 8th avenue, 57th and 58th streets is announced. Through A. F. Robertson and Paul J. Byck the property has been leased for twenty-one years, with three renewal privileges for like periods, to Dr. John A. Harriss, deputy police commissioner, by the Columbus Circle Arcade Co., Jacob Wertheim president. One of the terms of the lease provides that a building to cost at least $1,000,000 will be erected on the site twenty stories in height. The new building will contain stores, lofts and offices, and it is understood that part of the ground floor will be arranged with banking quarters. The property has a frontage of 216 feet in Broadway, 200.10 feet in 8th avenue, 201 feet in 57th street and 121.2 feet in 58th street.

The Thoroughfare Building derives its name from the fact that a thoroughfare extends through the building from Broadway to 8th avenue. Facing this arcade are a number of small stores. A chain was placed across the entrances for a short period during each twenty-four hours so that in the event of a long lease or sale it would be possible for the owners of the property to close the right of way not forever have to maintain it open. The lease calls for a rental of $11,970,000 for a full term of sixty-three years.

The yearly rental, according to the lease filed recently, will be $190,000, or a total of $3,990,000 for the first term of twenty-one years. There are two renewals for similar periods.

New 42d Street Restaurant.

Henry Shapiro & Co. have leased to a prominent restaurant concern for the Caggle Realty Co. (Gilhuly Bros.) the building at 107 West 42d street, and for Cecelia P. Wuerz the building at 104 West 43d street. Abutting about 75 feet north of the building line on 42d street is a one-inch strip owned by the Unity Fee Co., Walter J. Salmon president, who also control a light and air easement over the rear 25 feet of the 42d street plot. In order to connect the two parcels it was necessary to to secure the right to build over the rear of the 42d street lot, and negotiations which have been pending for nearly nine months have just been completed to secure this intermediate strip. The leases on all three parcels are for twenty-one year terms. The premises will be extensively altered and Henry Shapiro & Co. have been appointed renting agents.

CUSHMAN & WAKEFIELD leased for the National Association Building Corporation a large suite of executive offices in 23 West 43d st to Peterson, Sinclaire & Miller, Inc., and for the Sterling Bronze Co. the entire 11th and 12th floors in 16-18 East 40th st to the Continental Paper Bag Co. Cross & Brown Co. represented the owners.

M. & H. HESS, INC., leased for the Herald Square Holding Co. the 3d floor at 16-18 West 36th st to B. S. Kahn, Inc., for use as a salesroom; also for George O. Marrin the 5th floor at 175-177 Wooster st to the American Yarn Co.; the 2d floor at 25 West 15th st to Friedman Bros. and Lincer; space on the 8th floor at 49-53 East 21st st to H. & M. Hellinckx; the 11th floor at 22-8 West 17th st to J. Freedman & Co., Inc., wholesale clothiers; for George O. Marrin the 5th floor at 382 Lafayette st, to Hyman Weinstein.

HENRY HOF has leased for William Prosnitz the entire building at 235 East 44th st for ten years to Lyons Sanitary Urn Co.

CHARLES F. NOYES CO. leased offices in the Lorsch Building, 37-39 Maiden Lane, to Barnett Daniel; the 2d floor of the new Adolph Schwob Building, 45 Maiden Lane, to C. J. Kirby; a floor at 27 Beekman st to Ferdinand F. Robin, and a loft at 97 Maiden Lane to the Gauvin Agency, Inc.; a floor at 27 Beekman st to Truly Warner; a floor at 102 John st to Broun-Green Co., and a floor at 157 Water st to the Eastern Burlap Bag Co.

166,488,000 cubic feet of Gas as One Day's Supply

THAT was our "output" on January 31 last—our "high water mark" for one day.

It demonstrated two things—the increasing use of Gas for Industrial purposes as well as for Heating, Cooking and Lighting, and the efficiency of our plants, and our distributing systems.

We have constantly impressed upon Owners, Architects and Agents the necessity of having every building "piped for Gas" throughout, and to substitute mantle burners for the obsolete and gas wasting flat-flame burners.

Before installing a Gas Water Heater have one of our representatives call and tell you the particular type of Gas Water Heater that will fill your requirements.

LEGISLATIVE BILLS AFFECTING REALTY

Measures Introduced at Albany Approved or Disapproved by Real Estate Board of New York

AT the regular weekly meeting of the Legislation and Taxation Committee of the Real Estate Board of New York, held on Wednesday, action was taken on the following bills:

Assembly Int. 227, Pr. 227, Dimin.—To amend the Real Property Law, in relation to duration of rental charges for buildings or parts thereof used for dwelling purposes.

This measure proposes that where the rent for any or part of any tenement house or other building used for dwelling purposes is fixed and agreed upon in the month of May or any time thereafter, such rent shall be the maximum to be charged therefor for the consecutive months ensuing until the following month of May, notwithstanding any change in ownership, possession or control and notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special statute to the contrary. Any violation or evasion of the provisions of the act is to constitute a misdemeanor.

This bill has the approval of a local newspaper which characterizes it as a measure so "worth watching and pushing" that it challenges "organized realty interests" to disapprove the proposition.

The object of the measure is to stabilize rents chargeable for residence buildings or parts thereof from the date of the rental to the ensuing first day of May. It is, of course, desirable that the rent that may be charged for apartments or flats and for dwelling houses shall be stabilized, but to be taken seriously an attempt to deliver the tenants of such premises from the clutches of profiteering landlords (with whom the organized real estate interests have nothing in common) must have a more secure and reasonable basis than the pending measure affords.

The bill appears to be defective in the following particulars:

1. It assumes that the tenant who first takes the apartment or dwelling house on or after May 1, will "stay put," but it is common experience that tenants frequently quit of their own volition, while many are dispossessed for non-payment of rent, etc. What happens when a tenant removes or is dispossessed? Under this bill, it would seem that an agreement fixing the rent to be paid by him would inure to the benefit of a succeeding tenant who was not a party to the original agreement. This is, of course, an absurdity which the courts would hold to invalidate the measure were it enacted.

2. It applies to single rooms that may be subletted in apartments or dwellings, which would make the law applicable to rooming houses, boarding houses, and, possibly, to hotels, many of which cater to what is known as "transient" patronage. It would obviously be nonsensical to attempt to enforce this act against the proprietors of such places by criminal prosecutions.

3. It attempts to enforce compliance with the terms of a contract between individuals by making it a crime for one of the parties to violate one of the points of the agreement. It would be criminal for the landlord to increase the tenant's rent, but the tenant may refuse to pay the agreed rent or abscond, unscathed, with his rent in arrears or because he has found other quarters at less rent. Legislaiton which makes penal the violation of the terms of a civil contract must at least apply equally to both parties of the agreement to be constitutional.

4. It is of a piece with several half-baked legislative measures introduced at this session, all of which are ostensibly aimed at unscrupulous landlords who gouge their tenants but none of them seeking to protect fair dealing property owners against unscrupulous tenants who wilfully or negligently damage premises leased to them or abscond in arrears for rent therefor.

What is needed is a Landlord and Tenant Law that protects the landlord as well as the tenant against fraudulent or unfair practices and to the same extent. Legislation solely in the interest of tenants will naturally stand in the way of the provision of additional housing facilities which will prove the only satisfactory solution to the housing problem.

Assembly Int. 412, Pr. 433, Patrykowski.—To amend the Labor Law, in relation to factories.

This measure proposes to amend Section 79f of the Labor Law to require that the windows of factory buildings shall be made fireproof in case they are within 50 feet of another building.

As the law now stands, factory windows need be fireproof only when they are within 30 feet. The effect of the enactment of the pending bill will be to require the owners of hundreds of factory buildings to fireproof windows, exempt from such treatment at this time, at an expenditure that will aggregate probably a million dollars. In view of the results of investigations leading to the adoption of the Building Code provision exempting buildings, other than factory buildings, from the requirement that windows shall be fireproofed unless with 30 feet in a direct line, from the windows of adjoining buildings, it is plain that the enactment of this bill is unnecessary and it is, therefore, disapproved.

Senate Int. 234, Pr. 236, G. F. Thompson. To provide for a State Milk Commission, as a state health measure, which shall have control of the production, transportation, manufacture, storage, distribution and sale of milk and the products thereof; and the fixing of the price to be charged for milk in the State of New York by the producer, the middleman and the retail seller.

This bill provides for a State Milk Commission and is part of the same propaganda that inspired Senate Int. 233, providing for the operation of city milk plants. Its purpose is to force the State into the milk business. It is disapproved.

Lease in Wurlitzer Building.

The General Motors Export Co. has taken a lease of large space in the new Wurlitzer Building now in course of construction on 42d street, running through to 41st street, between 6th avenue and Broadway. The broker in the deal was the Cross & Brown Co. The lease involves eight floors, each 85x200x50, and is for a long term of years at a rental aggregating $2,000,000. The General Motors Export Co. will occupy this building exclusively for its export business. The new lease will not disturb its present offices at Broadway and 57th street. The Rudolph Wurlitzer Co. will occupy the balance of the building, with the exception of the upper floors, leased recently to the Blackman-Ross Co. The consummation of this large lease and the renting of all the available space in the Wurlitzer Building prior to its completion is additional evidence of the strength of the demand for space in the 42d street section. Since January 1 last the Cross & Brown Co. has leased office space aggregating 137,500 square feet in the Times Square-Grand Central zones.

More "United" Leases.

Porter & Co. have leased to the United Cigar Stores Co. for John H. Tonjes for a term of years the entire block front on the westerly side of 8th avenue, between 124th and 125th streets, including the Hotel Colonial and the six adjoining buildings. The property has a frontage of 200 feet on 8th avenue and 150 feet on 125th street. The aggregate rental was close to $1,000,000. The United has subleased the hotel and contemplates making extensive alterations to the balance of the property.

Lease in Eighth Avenue.

An operator leased for twenty-one years, beginning May 1, from the William T. Walton estate, the block front in the west side of 8th avenue, between 51st and 52d streets, being 851 to 869 8th avenue, 200.10x100, on which are five-story flats, with ten stores. The leases on the upper half of the block expire in May, and on the lower half the leases run until May 1, 1921. The present improvement plan involves extensive alterations, using the ground and first floors for general business, and the three upper stories will be made over into lofts for offices and other commercial purposes.

Record 42d Street Rental.

Manning & Trunk have just leased the six-story building 9 East 42d street, size 22x100, for the Codington Co. to the Ideal Restaurant & Holding Co. for a period of thirty-three years. The property is on the north side of 42d street, between 5th and Madison avenues, which is one of the most sought after retail locations in the city. Last summer the Mirror Candy Co., in order to secure a location there, entered into a lease of 1 and 3 East 42d street, which does not go into effect until 1926. Last March Manning & Trunk rented to Weber & Heilbroner the building 26 East 42d street, which is occupied by Alexander Taylor, whose rent under an old lease was $10,000 net. The new lease called for a rental of $18,000 net. Since taking this lease Weber & Heilbroner have had any number of offers for the property and recently refused $26,000 net. The rental for the Codington building was considerably in excess of the highest rental so far paid on this block for a 22-foot building, the last reported lease being that to Loft No. 11, which they took from F. G. Schmidt at the rate of $25,000 net. It is interesting to note that in spite of the high rental that has just been paid for this property the new tenant, who took it for the purpose of opening a restaurant, has already been offered a considerable profit for its lease.

Leases Hotel Colonial.

At an aggregate rental of $1,512,000, the Colonial Hotel, a thirteen-story structure on the northeast corner of 81st street and Columbus avenue, has been leased to Charles M. Ballak for a term of twenty-one years. The structure, which occupies a plot 100x100 feet, is owned by the Mosely Hotel Co., which conducts the Somerset, on West 47th street. It is the intention of the lessee, who operates the Ashton and the Rutledge hotels, to make extensive improvements.

Building Progress Hampered by Serious Labor Problems

Ironworkers Holding Out for Closed Shop and Bricklayers Continuing Their Strike Prevents Start of New Jobs

UNLESS the various factions that at present are at loggerheads the tremendous building program that at the commencement of 1920 appeared to predict an era of unusual prosperity for all affiliated with the industry in this section of the country, is likely to be materially curtailed if not altogether hampered. Today the labor situation, despite the untiring efforts of strong men and committees to create harmony between the employers and workmen, is looked upon as the prime deterrent to building progress. Inclement weather, shortage of materials and supplies and other factors are now not nearly so important as a speedy agreement between the various interests that are delaying work upon a large number of structural projects in the Metropolitan district.

The shortage of structural steel, combined with the refusal of the Iron League Erectors' Association to accept the closed shop agreement, entered into late in 1919 between the Building Trades Council and the Building Trades Employers' Association, has brought about a situation that is now preventing a number of jobs from proceeding according to pre-arranged schedules.

According to Walter Drew, council for the Iron League Erectors' Association and for the National Erectors' Association, which includes the leading steel fabricators of the country, contractors who attempt to erect steel work under the closed shop conditions face refusal of fabricating plants to sell them the necessary steel. Building contractors who seek to obtain estimates on fabricated material for new construction work have recently been told that none would be available for six months. If the contractors do as they have previously done and sublet steel erection work to members of the Iron League Erectors' Association, they are faced with a recurrence of a series of strikes, with other trades going out in sympathy with the steel workers who are intent on establishing the closed shop. Five strikes of this character have been started against two members of the league.

Mr. Drew stated that at this time, when there is a known shortage of steel for all purposes, that the producers can shift steel from one use to another, and if the building industry is going to fight the open shop policy which has always been that of the steel manufacturers, they cannot expect the producers to exert as much effort as they otherwise would to keep up the supply. It would be natural to divert it to other channels. He further stated that there is no general agreement or boycott of the market and that his association was not the aggressor in this matter. The open shop policy is sound economically and it is the policy of the steel industry and it has been the established practice for many years.

As a part of the fight against the unions of New York, the Iron League Erectors' Association have recently established a rate of $1.10 for each hour on all open shop jobs. This is 10 cents an hour higher than the union rate fixed by the recent agreement between the Building Trades Employers' Association and the Building Trades Council.

At the present writing there has been no change in the situation of the bricklayers' strike. Negotiations are still pending that will lead to a settlement of this difficulty, but the definite action cannot be taken until the workmen return to the jobs they abandoned just after the commencement of the new year.

BUILDING SECTION

Work Started on $1,000,000 Office and Showroom Building

Julius Tichman & Sons, Inc., Building in West 37th Street from Plans by Schwartz & Gross, Architects

FOUNDATION work is underway for a modern showroom and office building that will occupy 11½ to 19 West 37th street, just west of Fifth avenue. This structure will materially assist in reducing the shortage of showroom space that for many months has been so marked in this particular neighborhood. The operation is under the personal direction of Julius Tichman & Sons, Inc., 18 East 41st street, owners and builders, and is constructed from designs and plans by Schwartz & Gross, architects.

This building, which will cost approximately $1,000,000 exclusive of the value of the property, will occupy a plot having a frontage of 93 feet in West 37th street and will have a depth of 98 feet, 9 inches. The plans call for a structure sixteen stories in height, with basement and sub-basement, with construction absolutely fireproof throughout. No woodwork of any description will be included in the completed structure.

The front wall of the building will run up straight to the height of the eleventh floor and the first setback of 9 feet will occur at this point. An additional setback of 8 feet will start at the level of the fourteenth story.

The facade will be constructed of light face brick, Indiana limestone and terra cotta, and one of the principal features of this facade will be the manner in which the center section of the front is carried up to the fourteenth story. This is strictly in accordance with the zoning regulations which permit the erection of dormers and full advantage of the law was taken in this respect.

The basement and ground floor will be built to the full depth of the lot. From this point a 10-foot yard will start and run to the sixth floor. This space will then continue to increase until the width reaches 29 feet 6 inches at the top. This planning will result in a loft 51 feet deep and 93 feet front, making the upper stories most desirable.

At the present time applications have been received for approximately 60 per cent. of the space, and it is the intention of the builders to reserve space for such tenants as will require one or more entire floors. It is anticipated that this operation will be fully completed and ready for occupancy by October 1, 1920.

NEW SHOWROOM AND OFFICE BUILDING IN 37TH ST.

Building Managers Hold Monthly Dinner Meeting

DISCUSSIONS of committee reports and round table talks on present day problems of building management were the chief features of the regular monthly dinner meeting of the Building Managers and Owners Association of New York held at the Advertising Club on Tuesday night.

Clarence T. Coley, vice-president of the Association, presided in place of Charles B. Best, who has been ill with influenza. Charles A. Flynn, chairman of the Coal Committee of the Association, declared that he had learned from conversations with leaders in the coal industry that operators and wholesalers were contemplating important changes in the sizes of coal. He declared that it was very possible that by April 1 there would only be available for use two sizes of domestic coal and not more than three sizes of steam coal.

Among the interesting letters to the president which were read by Mr. Coley was a communication by Norman Denzer, who suggested that the Building Association enlarge its activities relative to considerations of problems of apartment house management, and a communication from O. A. Woodruff, who suggested the formation of an Eastern association.

The Association adopted unanimously a resolution extending its appreciation to William T. Ropes for his excellent work as a Committee of One in helping to adjust the recent serious labor difficulties which were threatening to tie up practically all of the large buildings in the city.

Joseph A. Cronin, manager of the Mills Estate, 15 Broad street, and Johnston DeForest, agent for the owners of the Johnston Building, 30 Broad street, were elected to active membership in the Association. Charles F. Hall, of the New York Edison Company, was substituted as an active member for Ralph Dudley, who recently left the services of that corporation.

Court of Appeals Defines Law on Architects' Commissions

Recent Decision in Case of Stem vs. Wetmore, Involving Grand Central Terminal Improvements, Reflects Unanimous View of State's Highest Tribunal

THE Court of Appeals, in an opinion written by Judge Hogan, has decided in favor of Allen H. Stem, individually and as surviving partner of the firm of Reed & Stem, in the action against Warren & Wetmore involving architect's fees in the Grand Central Terminal improvements.

In his opinion Judge Hogan refers to the fact that the firms of Reed & Stem and Warren & Wetmore made a contract with the New York Central Railroad to "join as associates for the purpose of completing plans and supervising the construction of said station and buildings in connection therewith."

Judge Hogan then states that the plaintiff individually and as surviving partner of the firm of Reed & Stem seeks in this action to recover from the firm of Warren & Wetmore the proportionate amount that would have been received by the firm of Reed & Stem if the original contract had been carried out, also to recover for commissions earned upon the construction of the Biltmore Hotel.

"Four questions have been certified to this court by the Appellate Division, namely:

"1. Was the agreement between the associated architects terminated by the death of Charles A. Reed?

"2. By reason thereof was the obligation of the joint adventurers to the railroad company cancelled?

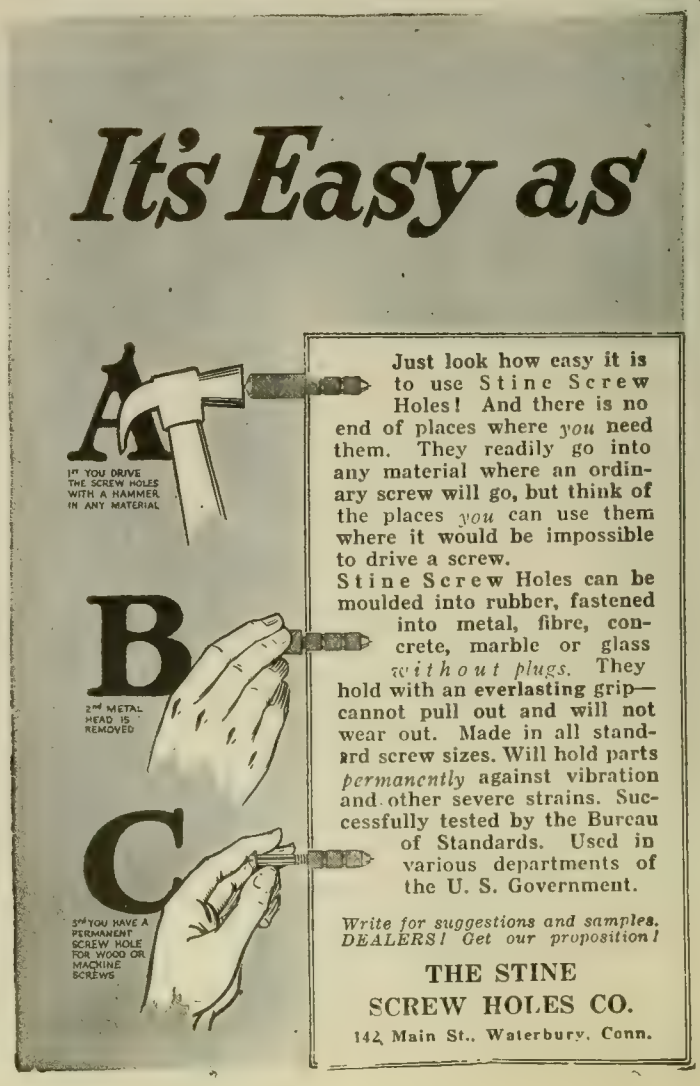
"3. Are the firm of Warren & Wetmore to be held accountable to the plaintiff in this action for the profits made out of the prosecution of the joint enterprise, in so far as it related to unfinished work which had been assigned to them prior to the death of Charles A. Reed?

"4. Are the firm of Warren & Wetmore to be held accountable to the plaintiff in this action to the extent of three per cent or any other portion of the cost of the Biltmore.

"The first question certified involves the status of the joint adventurers and a determination of the legal relations existing between the parties upon the death of Mr. Reed.

"By reason of the death of Mr. Reed, the partnership or joint venture between the firms of Reed & Stem and Warren & Wetmore was dissolved. The assets of such partnership became immediately vested in the survivors for the purpose of adjustment of the partnership affairs. The most valuable asset of such partnership was the contract between it and the railroad company. By the terms of such contract and the agreement between the associated architects the intention of the parties is manifest that the contract was to be performed notwithstanding the death of Mr. Reed if such event should occur. Upon the death of Mr. Reed it was the duty of the survivors of the firms to take possession of the firm's assets, perform the contract, extinguish the firm's liabilities, and close its business for the interest of all parties concerned, and the representatives of Reed were entitled to share in the profits of all unfinished business though subsequently completed.

"The second question, in view of the conclusion we have reached upon the first question, must be answered in the negative. The general rule is that upon the death of one of several joint contractors before complete performance of the contract, the survivors are bound by the obligations of the contract and entitled to its benefits, and as heretofore indicated the contract and agreement contemplated that the survivor should carry out the same with the railroad.



"The conclusion reached in what has been said with reference to questions numbered one and two result in a determination that the firm of Warren & Wetmore are to be held accountable to the plaintiff in this action for the profits made out of the prosecution of the joint enterprise in so far as it related to unfinished work which had been assigned to them prior to the death of Charles A. Reed, and thus the answer to question number three is in the affirmative.

"The Appellate Division modified the fourth conclusion of law by holding there should be excluded from the accounting of all sums received by the defendants Warren & Wetmore in excess of three per cent of the cost of the completed building, the supervision of the construction thereof to be excluded from the scope of the accounting and treated as in the nature of new work not in behalf of the associated architects but for the account of the defendants.

"The effect of this latter modification was that whereas Warren & Wetmore were to receive five per cent upon the entire cost, two per cent was first to be deducted as properly belonging to the defendants and three per cent to be divided between the associated architects, so that Warren & Wetmore should receive three and one-half per cent and the plaintiffs one and one-half per cent, of the entire cost of the Hotel Biltmore.

"The judgment should be modified by excluding from the accounting all sums received by the defendants Warren & Wetmore for services in connection with Hotel Biltmore in excess of one per cent of the cost of the completed building, and as thus modified affirmed, without costs to either party."

In conclusion, Judge Hogan in his opinion decides question Number 1 in the affirmative, Number 2 in the negative, Number 3 in the affirmative and Number 4 in the affirmative. The decision of the Court of Appeals was unanimous.

Weather Conditions Have Not Retarded Building Plans

Figures of F. W. Dodge Company Show Sustained Activity Among Architects and Engineers in New York City and Vicinity

NOTWITHSTANDING the fact that the extremely bad weather of the past few weeks has materially slowed down practically all large building operations in the local territory, there has been no perceptible decrease in the volume of new construction being planned by architects and engineers nor has there been the anticipated drop in the number of new projects placed under contract which was predicted a short time ago. According to the figures prepared by the F. W. Dodge Company showing the number of building and engineering projects being planned or contracted for in New York State and New Jersey, north of Trenton, the fifth week of 1920 makes a showing that is comparable in every way with the preceding week of the new year.

During the week of January 21 to February 6 inclusive reports gathered from every district in this territory show that a total of 427 new building and engineering operations were being planned by architects and engineers. This work will represent an outlay of approximately $30,315,600. At the same time contracts were awarded for 185 new projects that will call for an expenditure of $13,067,200. In the contemplated construction the list of projects is headed by the group including offices, lofts, stores and other commercial jobs. There were 98 operations of this class announced during the week and they will require an expenditure of nearly $10,00,000. The same class leads the list of work actually placed under contract during the week with 40 new projects, costing $6,244,000.

Among the 427 jobs reported as being in the various preliminary stages were 98 business and commercial buildings, $9,734,000; 10 educational buildings, $2,585,000; 5 hospitals and institutions, $90,000; 53 factory and industrial projects, $2,618,500; 1 structure for the U. S. The list of 185 projects for which contracts were awarded during the week of January 31 to February 6 inclusive comprised 40 business and commercial operations, $6,244,000; 2 educational buildings, $360,000; 27 factory and industrial projects, $1,532,500; 13 public works and public improvements, $2,847,000; 4 religious and memorial buildings, $47,000; 98 residential operations of various types, $2,025,700 and 1 recreational project, $10,000.

PERSONAL AND TRADE NOTES.

Edward Corning Company, builders, with offices in the Vanderbilt Concourse, 52 Vanderbilt avenue, announces that title has just been taken to a four-story private house at 145 East 45th street, which will be remodeled so that the structure may be used as offices for the company. At the new address additional space will be available for all departments of this business.

Guilbert & Betelle, architects, announce the removal of their offices on February 1 to new quarters in the Aldine Building, 546 Broad street, Newark, N. J. Entrance: 2 Lombardy street.

New Building for Stock Exchange.

Revised building plans of the New York Stock Exchange when completed will result in an enlargement of the present structure to include the block front on Wall street from Broad to New street. On December 1, 1918, the adjoining property on the corner of New and Wall streets, known as the Mortimer Building, was purchased. It was supposed at that time that this addition would afford ample space for the expanding business of the Exchange, but, according to an announcement this week, developments which have since taken place have made it necessary to provide greater space facilities.

On January 1 the property on the corner of Wall and Broad streets was acquired by lease for a period, including renewal privileges, of eighty years and four months. The present building has a wing jutting out from the main building to an entrance on Wall street. The new building plans indicate this this wing, together with a section of the old building, will be razed and an imposing twenty-story structure erected on the plot bounded by the present main building.

The pressure of new business is felt principally on the trading floor and the demand for new space had to be met by extending the board room on its present level. The architects have therefore used every available square inch of the additional area for enlarging the board room, reserving on that level only that space required for lobbies and elevators to serve the upper floors.

Architecturally the aim has been to design a building which will produce additional revenue to the Exchange in view of the value of the plot involved and at the same time preserve the individuality of the majestic design of the Stock Exchange. This has been accomplished by so arranging the horizontal lines as to disguise and bring together the different levels of the Broad and New street fronts of the old building, while the superstructure is erected as a tower, which, together with the simplicity of the Broad street front, enhances and emphasizes the great beauty of the colonnade and the pediment of the main structure.

The first eight stories will be devoted to the purpose of the exchange and are designed accordingly. From the eighth to the twentieth floor offices will be leased for commercial purposes.

A unique feature of the actual construction is the scheme to erect the buildings in halves—partly dictated by necessity and partly by convenience. Inasmuch as it would be impossible to carry on the work of the Exchange in less space than its present quarters afford it is impossible to tear down part of the present building and proceed with the entire structure. Half of the building will therefore be erected on the Mortimer site, while office accommodations are found in the Wilkes Building. On the completion of the first half the departments of the Exchange will be transferred to the new building and the second half erected on the site of the Wilkes Building.

Old Borough Hall for Factory.

As a result of the sale of the building at the corner of Jackson avenue and 2d street, Long Island City is to be the home of one of the largest manufacturers of X-ray apparatus in the United States.

The property acquired for this purpose was at one time known as the Hackett Building, and for twelve years the Borough Hall of Queens. It was sold by Louis Gold, who recently bought it from the Hackett estate, to the Waite & Bassett Manufacturing Co., of Manhattan and Newark, N. J. According to report, the new owners plan to remodel the structure for the occupancy of their offices and manufacturing force, now located in Manhattan and Newark.

Chemists Build in Front Street.

Norman S. Riesenfeld resold to Lamman & Kemp, chemists, the three-story business building, 45x80, at 284 and 286 Front street, through Geo. R. Read & Co. Mr. Riesenfeld recently filed plans to increase the height of the building to seven stories, at an estimated cost of $55,000, and the new owners intend to carry out this idea, beginning the work about April 1.

TRADE AND TECHNICAL SOCIETY EVENTS.

National Builders' Supply Association will hold its annual convention at the Hotel Sherman, Chicago, Ill., February 9-10, 1920.

National Conference on Concrete House Construction will be held in the Auditorium Hotel, Chicago, Ill., February 17, 18 and 19.

American Society of Mechanical Engineers.—Monthly meeting the second Tuesday of each month. Calvin W. Rice, secretary, 29 West 39th street.

American Road Builders' Association is perfecting the plans for the forthcoming Seventeenth Annual Convention, Tenth American Good Roads Congress and the Eleventh Good Roads Show that is scheduled to be held in the First Regiment Armory, Louisville, Ky., February 9 to 13, 1920. E. L. Powers, 150 Nassau street, New York City, secretary.

American Institute of Architects will hold its quarterly meeting at the Robert Treat Hotel, Newark, N. J., March 5-6. Three business sessions will be held the first day, and the regular dinner the second day. The representatives of the National ofganization will be entertained by the local chapter. Secretary Hugh Roberts is now arranging the program. The housing crisis will be one of the subjects discussed.

Building Trades Employers' Association will hold its annual meeting and election of officers Tuesday afternoon, February 17. The nominating committee has prepared the following ticket to be voted on at that time: For president, Ronald Taylor; for first vice-president, Fred B. Tuttle; for second vice-president, Albert N. Chambers; for chairman of board of governors, Charles J. Kelly, and for treasurer, J. P. Ryan.

Building Officials' Conference will hold its sixth annual meeting in Chicago, Ill., February 16 to 18, inclusive. Arrangements are being perfected for holding a joint session with the National Conference on Concrete House Construction. Rudolph P. Miller, Superintendent of Buildings, New York City, chairman of the Building Officials' Conference, has perfected the final details of the meeting and its success is assured.

CURRENT BUILDING OPERATIONS

ORDERS from the city authorities preventing the trucking of any commodities other than foodstuffs, mails, newspapers and other essentials to the life and health of the community while the streets remain so clogged with snow and ice was the climax that effectually stopped all building construction this week. While the weather conditions made it impossible for any outside work to be accomplished on buildings, the ruling affecting the delivery of materials tied up all alteration work and activity on new jobs that are already enclosed and at the present writing it appears as though the conditions would not be changed until the latter part of next week.

Other factors responsible for the shutdown of building operations are the strikes and labor disputes that have been under way for some weeks past and which at the present writing seem as far from settlement as they were when they started.

There is no decrease in the volume of new building and engineering construction being planned for the Metropolitan district, however, and if the retardant factors now affecting progress could be removed this city would witness the biggest building boom in its history. Plans are now completed for hundreds of building projects, comprising structures of practically every type and description that are urgently needed to supply the demand for living, commercial and manufacturing space and the major portion of this work will be started just as soon as some assurance can be had that materials and labor to complete the work are available.

Although the past year has been an active period for the construction of living quarters the supply is far from caught up with the demand and it will require a tremendous volume of construction of this nature during the coming year to reduce this demand to any extent. According to the present indications builders of apartments and dwellings are preparing to go ahead with this type of operation upon a larger scale than ever before and unless the labor and material situation prevent this program it is anticipated that by next autumn the housing shortage, at least in this part of the country, will be practically a thing of the past.

Common Brick.—The wholesale market for Hudson River common brick has been absolutely without feature during the past week, as the heavy storms of the last ten days have effectually tied up all outside construction work in the Metropolitan district. The condition of the streets in New York would prevent the delivery of brick had there been any buying activity in the market. From all accounts the existing traffic conditions will hamper delivery of brick and other materials for some time to come and, as a consequence, the local market is likely to be dull for some weeks to come. There is some inquiry current, but it generally concerns spring deliveries and prices. At the present time common brick is being quoted at $25 a thousand, the figure that has now prevailed for a month or more. It is anticipated, however, that as soon as the river is again opened to navigation and brick can be brought down from the plants that the price might ease off to some extent, but it is predicted that the price for this commodity will not drop below $20 a thousand wholesale, alongside, during the remainder of this year. There are a number of brick barges already loaded alongside the docks of Hudson River plants that will be consigned to this city just as soon as the ice breaks and this will partially relieve the shortage that now exists in common brick.

Summary.—Transactions in the North River common brick market for the week ending Friday, February 13, 1920. Condition of market: Demand negligible; prices unchanged. Quotations: Hudson Rivers, $25 a thousand to dealers in cargo lots alongside dock. Number of cargoes arrived, none; sales, none.

Lumber.—The local lumber market situation is rather chaotic in both wholesale and retail branches of the business. The demand is remarkably firm in some lines and in others it has dropped off materially. Manufacturing consumers are the most important factors at this time, as the building industry is practically dead owing to the intolerable weather conditions of the past few weeks and the almost impassable streets which have retarded deliveries. There is no apparent change in the price situation and the market is fluctating, according to the ability of the dealers to supply the demand. Those having stocks that are in popular demand are in a position to obtain practically any price they are willing to ask, as there is a decided scarcity in almost every kind and grade of lumber at present and dealers are at a loss to know just when they will be able to obtain new supplies. The car shortage is given as one of the most potent reasons for the low stocks on hand in both wholesale and retail yards and at this writing there is little prospect of relief.

Hollow Tile.—The demand for this material is considerably in excess of the supply and dealers are being forced to turn away business because of their inability to obtain stocks from the manufacturers. The rapid increase in the amount of construction actually started during the past few months has consumed practically all of the hollow tile on the market and according to the current rate of inquiry it will be many months before manufacturers get caught up with the demand. Prices were advanced again during the past week and there is no promise that the new level will hold for more than a comparatively short period.

Structural Steel.—Conditions in this market are unchanged from those that maintaned a week ago. The shortage of steel is acute and producers are heavily booked with orders for months ahead. There is a fair volume of tonnage business in sight for building operations, but it is doubtful if the fabricating mills will be in a position to turn out more than a relatively small percentage of the demand for structural steel for immediate or even prompt deliveries and it is now feared that a number of important building operations in the Metropolitan district may be forced to remain in abeyance waiting for this most essential commodity. The unsettled situation caused by the stand of the unions in reference to the open shop has complicated matters to some extent and according to the present outlook this is not likely to be cleared up for a while. Meanwhile orders for fabricated steel are piling up on the books of the fabricators and this will further hamper delivery when other adverse conditions are removed.

Cast Iron Pipe.—Annaouncement has been received of another increase in the price of this commodity, effective February 1, and amounting to $3 per ton. This makes the third advance since December and making a total increase of $12 a ton. Business is comparatively light, but prospects are considered good. The present is altogether too early to judge the volume of municipal business that will be released next spring.

Another Hotel Discards Generating Plant

Edison Service was adopted by the Hotel Somerset, 148 West 67th Street, as the result of an engineering study showing a large annual saving in the cost of operation as compared to the maintenance of a private generating plant

The Central Station Service, besides displaying two generating units, will dispense with the complicated steam auxiliaries and the accompanying problems

The installation will include 2000 lamps and 50 horsepower. The latter will supply power for the elevators, pumps, and ventilating system

Stuyvesant 5600 "Wholesale Bureau" will place our engineers

Architects and Engineers are specifying and demanding

STEELBILT Toilet Partitions

in preference to those made of ordinary materials.

STEEL has exclusive advantages. It is non-absorbent and therefore sanitary. It does not crack; in fact, is indestructible. It has a neat, clean appearance. Costs less than other substances and is more easily and economically erected. It is the logical material.

STEELBILT Toilet Partitions are made in standard sizes, some of which are carried in stock for quick delivery. Partitions and doors are made in units, of sizes to suit any plan layout.

Write Dept. "R" for full particulars and a copy of our architects' specification sheet.

Unlike other Building Units, Artificial Stone is a NON-CONDUCTOR of DAMPNESS, COLD and HEAT. It reduces building costs and expedites construction. A wide variety of facing effects produced with crushed granite, marble, brownstone, Indiana limestone, carborundum, etc., makes it a sightly stone for every type of structure and its durability insures the lowest possible maintenance cost.

We court investigation of the most searching kind, and are always pleased to go over the subject in greater detail with anyone interested in building for permanence, beauty and economy.

DISTINCTIVE MARBLE WORK

OUR facilities for supplying marble and executing contracts with promptness and dispatch are exceptional. We specialize in the interior marble work and use only the most carefully selected marble, of which we have a large stock constantly on hand—imported as well as domestic. We have executed contracts for marble in many prominent structures, and shall be glad to send you a partial list of these on request.

MAY WE HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO WORK WITH YOU ON YOUR NEXT UNDERTAKING?

Some Hope for the Taxpayers

The Legislature at Albany, although diverted from and delayed in its regular work by the Assembly's Socialist inquiry, is having presented for its attention numerous matters of importance to the people of the state. The regular quantity of legislation is being introduced, and the committees of the two houses are proceeding with their work in quite the usual manner. During the next three or four weeks such legislation as is to be passed at this session probably will be well in hand.

It is a little too early for the taxpayers of the state to judge as to whether economy or continued extravagance in state expenditures will result from the present session. Governor Smith and the legislative leaders frankly admit their grave concern over the tremendous increases which the various state department heads estimate they should have for the next fiscal year. It is agreed on all sides that the state government already is costing much more than seems reasonable, and will, unless the Legislature can find ways of cutting out millions of dollars from this year's estimates, become alarmingly high.

It is encouraging that thus early in the session Governor Smith and the legislative leaders are giving serious attention to the plan to consolidate state administration. The Governor has transmitted to the Legislature the report of the Reconstruction Commission, which proposes to reorganize the state government along two lines, namely, by simplification of machinery and by administrative control through a cabinet system and financial control through an executive budget.

It is, perhaps, too much to expect that a Democratic Governor and a Republican Legislature will handle this important proposition entirely without partisan consideration. It should be borne in mind by the Legislature, however, that the plan of Governor Smith's Reconstruction Committee has been approved in its main features by organizations and individuals of unquestionable standing and public spirit. There is general agreement that the Reconstruction Commission's plans is a vital step in the right direction, and party politics, whether Republican or Democratic, should not be permitted to block the great advance in state government which, in its general outline, this plan makes possible.

That the leaders in the Legislature are alive to the importance of the matter is shown by the introduction of constitutional amendments extending the term of the Governor from two to four years, providing that the Secretary of State, Treasurer, Attorney General and State Engineer and Surveyor shall be appointed by the Governor, instead of being elected, and making the Civil Service Commissioners constitutional officers. In another amendment provision is made for the establishment of a state budget system.

These amendments to the Constitution, if passed by the present Legislature and by the Legislature of 1921, can be submitted to the voters of the state at the annual election next year. The adoption of these amendments, even though they may not fully satisfy some advocates of an improved state government, will go far towards solving the difficulties of the situation. Greater efficiency in the management of state affairs would result and with greater efficiency there should come real economy. The taxpayers of the state must have relief from the tremendous expenditures at Albany, as well as here in New York City and at Washington.

Snow Removal

By the appointment of a Committee on Snow Removal, consisting of representatives of various departments of the city administration, Mayor Hylan has heeded the unanimous demand of New Yorkers for preparedness instead of haphazard methods in dealing with conditions that almost every winter cause them great inconvenience and considerable financial loss.

The Record and Guide was not alone in advocacy of a more prudent policy than has heretofore prevailed in the work of freeing the streets from the feathery plague that has the power to paralyze business and induce sickness and death. The daily newspapers generally voiced the universal demand that "something should be done about it" and that the city should never again be at the mercy of storms whose potency for harm comes from their frostiness. The Record and Guide, therefore, in common with other advocates of a policy of getting ready for next winter's work before the municipality is engulfed in snow banks, believes that the Mayor should be congratulated upon the appointment of the committee, and urges that the committee be accorded the assistance of everyone who may be able to make valuable suggestions or furnish information by which an adequate plan for snow removal may be worked out.

The personnel of the committee suggests that it is the feeling of the Mayor that a successful program for snow removal is solely a matter of co-operation between various branches of the municipal administration. No doubt much can be accomplished by co-ordination of thought and of effort among the employes of the city. And the selections of the Mayor's committee are happily representative of the best element within the municipal organization. But it is unfortunate that provision has not been made for the general public to have something to say in the matter, and it is especially short-sighted not to include in the membership of the committee someone from the Public Service Commission. It must also be occasion for regret that the Mayor did not include in the membership of the committee any of the numerous New Yorkers of great achievement in scientific fields who might have given direction to the scope of the inquiry that would have helped materially in bringing about a satisfactory outcome of its investigations.

But on the committee are men who can get in touch with men of scientific attainments, and such men, as the Record and Guide pointed out last week, may be able to solve the problem of the removal of snow by attacking the enemy at the most advantageous moment when it is in its most vulnerable condition, which is while it lies untouched by plows and shovels on sidewalk and pavement in layers easily reducible to water. The representatives of the Fire, Police and Street Cleaning departments may be relied on to work out many valuable ideas. Capt. John P. Leo, Dr. Royal S. Copeland and the engineers on the committee should seek the assistance of scientific men, beginning with Thomas A. Edison and continuing through the lists of those who might be able to offer an electrical, chemical or other working out of a problem, the solution of which is worth many millions to this city alone, and which would be of inestimable value to the inhabitants of the temperate zones throughout the world whose winter storms are quite often intemperate and destructive.

No Brick Famine

Building interests of the Metropolitan District need not fear a famine of common brick. A recent announcement that a shortage of common brick amounting to a famine exists was proved, upon investigation by the Record and Guide, to be wholly without basis of fact. There is no brick famine nor is one likely.

Although it is true that for some time the ice-bound condition of the Hudson River has prevented the shipment of brick from production points, the demand for this commodity is not in excess of the available supply. According to competent authority a sufficient quantity of brick is on hand either in dealers' yards throughout Greater New York or on barges remaining unsold in the local wholesale market, to fill the requirements of any ordinary demand that might occur before the river is again open to tows. Only an unprecedented boom in construction during the next two months could make it difficult to obtain this commodity as early as desired.

It was estimated this week that at least 9,500,000 common brick is stacked in the yards of various building material dealers in the boroughs of Brooklyn and Queens. Added to this, another 1,500,000 brick is on hand in Manhattan yards. From an authentic source it has been learned that six brick barges, averaging 350,000 brick each, are now being unloaded at wharves in this city, and six additional barge loads remain unsold in the wholesale market. According to these figures, approximately 15,000,000 common brick are on hand in the Metropolitan District and immediately available for whatever demand arises. Furthermore, there is in the plants of the Hudson River brick manufacturers a volume of brick equal to that already in this city, and this can be called upon if the occasion demands. Shipment by rail is possible, although somewhat more costly than the usual water route. Since the river has been closed by ice some of the up-river producers who have yards equipped with railroad sidings have brought brick into New York City by rail, and, if necessary, a large part of the reserve stocks at these plants could be made available at but a slight increase over existing costs.

Editor of the Record and Guide:

Real estate persons are usually wide awake to transportation needs, because it is the base of real estate.

Permit us to call your attention to the deplorable conditions of Canal street Brooklyn Rapid Transit stations, and at the same time volunteer some suggestions which may be of help to solve the unbearable congestions there.

1. Give transfers at City Hall station in the same manner as at Canal street station, at least during the hours between 6 and 7 evenings. This will take away a great many passengers coming from uptown who will change at City Hall or Chambers street for either Williamsburg or South Brooklyn trains. At this time the downtown rush from the financial district is practically over.

2. Permit Williamsburg bound passengers boarding South Brooklyn trains at uptown stations to empty out of two or three front cars at Canal street station. There is ample space for the purpose at the said station on the easterly end. This will reduce the congestion of the front cars and relieve the remaining passengers South Brooklyn bound and at the same time reduce the congestion of the platforms between the Broadway and Center street stations.

3. Connect the Delancey street line with the Broadway line at the short stretch of Kenmare street, so that some of the Williamsburg Bridge trains may run direct uptown. Note that 90 per cent. of the passengers of these trains transfer at Canal street. The opening of the Fourteenth street line will leave this congestion unchanged and even greater by that time, unless the aforesaid short connection is effected.

4. Connect the Broadway City Hall station with the Chamber street station by means of the existing Interborough tunnel of its City Hall terminal, thereby avoiding the issuing of transfers and the walk across City Hall Park. The two classes of traffic can be separated the same as at Times Square station.

Editor of the Record and Guide:

Some time ago I expressed the opinion that some of the army camps adjacent to our city could be very easily converted into thriving communities. The buildings which are now erected are of fair construction and there is perfect sanitation installed.

In addition thereto there is regular train service, which is another advantage. My contention is that these camps, with very little expense, can be converted into living quarters, and instead of the equipment being thrown in the junk pile and sold as such, the Government might receive a considerably larger revenue by engaging in such an enterprise.

If the Government does not care to become a real estate operator it might be in a position to sell or lease its equipment to some concern or municipality who could handle the situation to advantage.

My idea in making this suggestion is to relieve the extreme shortage in living accommodations, and if this plan is looked into thoroughly, I believe that it would be found very practical. No more healthy place can be found to live in than these camp sites and they could be converted in a very few months if this plan were followed out.

Awaiting with interest your remarks, I am,

Realty Owners Urged to Readjust Building Insurance

Agent Emphasizes Important Relationship Existing Between Enhanced Values and the Co-Insurance Clause

REAL ESTATE and insurance brokers throughout the city are urging property owners to readjust their fire insurance policies. The recent increase in values of buildings has changed the insurance situation to such an extent that many property owners who were thoroughly protected several years ago when their policies were issued are today carrying inadequate insurance.

Thomas H. Kilduff of the insurance firm of Ogden & Fay, outlined for the Record and Guide yesterday the insurance situation as it applies to increased values of real estate. He said: "Take for example a building which in 1910 was valued at $100,000. In compliance with the 80 per cent. co-insurance clause the owner would carry $80,000 insurance. In case of loss or damage, the assured would collect the full amount of his claim up to the total amount of insurance, $80,000. This same building in 1920 might be valued at $150,000. The owner should then carry insurance up to 80 per cent. of the present day value or $120,000. If he failed to increase his insurance to meet the advanced cost of his property and a loss occurs, he would only receive insurance on the old basis of $80,000. The companies would only pay eight-twelfths or two-thirds of the loss and the owner would have to stand his proportion, four-twelfths or one-third, as he would be $40,000 short (one-third of the $120,000 which he should have carried.)

"Real estate and insurance brokers throughout the city are or should be bringing to the attention of their clients the significance of the standard fire insurance policy of the State of New York, which was revised on January 1, 1918 and which in its first mentioned condition states "does insure to the extent of the actual cash value (ascertained with proper deductions for depreciation) of the property at the time of loss or damage."

Co-insurance clauses are concerned exclusively with salvage and consequently operate only in the event of a partial loss, their purpose being to conserve to the insurance companies an equitable participation in the salvage. The under insured owner when partial loss occurs is thus debarred from assuming that all that was destroyed belonged to the insurance companies and all that was saved belongs to him. Companies are willing, however, that the assured take this stand to the extent of 20 per cent. of the total sound value of the property but insist that the insured furnish 80 per cent. insurance or be liable as co-insurer for any deficiency below that per cent."

Another way of explaining the eighty per cent. clause is as follows: Under the conditions of this clause the assured will recover the entire amount of his loss provided he has insurance on the property equal to at least eighty per cent. of the value thereof and provided further that the amount of loss does not exceed the amount of the insurance carried. A failure to maintain insurance equal to at least eighty per cent. of the value of the property places upon the assured a portion of the loss; for, under the conditions of the eighty per cent. clause, the insurers are liable only for such percentage of the loss as the amount of insurance bears to eighty per cent. of the actual cash value of the property at the time the fire happens. In no event are the insurers liable for more than the loss actually sustained by the assured nor for an amount in excess of the insurance carried.

For instance, if insurance carried equals 100 per cent. of value, insurers pay 100 per cent. of loss.

90 per cent. of value, insurer pay 100 per cent. of loss (provided loss does exceed amount of insurance).

80 per cent. of value, insurers pay 100 per cent. of loss (provided loss does exceed amount of insurance).

70 per cent. of value, insurers pay 7/8, or 87½ per cent. of loss.

60 per cent. of value, insurers pay 6/8, or 75 per cent. of loss.

50 per cent. of value, insurers pay 5/8, or 62½ per cent. of loss.

40 per cent. of value, insurers pay 4/8, or 50 per cent. of loss.

30 per cent. of value, insurers pay 3/8, or 37½ per cent. of loss.

20 per cent. of value, insurers pay 2/8, or 25 per cent. of loss.

10 per cent. of value, insurers pay 1/8, or 12½ per cent. of loss.

It is interesting to note that merchants throughout the city are also being urged to readjust their insurance. Thomas A. Fernley, secretary-treasuer of the National Wholesale Drygoods Association, has warned the trade of the danger of under insurance as the co-insurance clause applies with equal force to contents of buildings.

The Automatic Sprinkler Bulletin also recently called attention to the close relationship existing between property replacement value and co-insurance, declaring: "The reasons for increased valuations are many, and it is futile to try to outline what they are. It is enough to say that the average increase in actual replacement value, depreciation being figured at the usual rate, was about 70 per cent. during 1915-1916, whereas the increase in the amount of insurance carried was but little more than 13 per cent.

"From the foregoing, it will be seen that it should be a fundamental of every business that the actual replacement value of a business property be known. Without such knowledge, it is obviously impossible to place insurance with any degree of certainty that the right amount is being carried. This is so because a fire loss is adjusted on the basis of present replacement value after proper depreciation has been deducted."

Value as applied to business property investment does not include the money equivalent to the good will, or other so-called intangible assets but indicates the equivalent in money if the business was transferred from a willing seller to a willing buyer as a going concern. It must be remembered that the present value has nothing to do with the past costs. These simply show the purchasing power of the manufacturer at different periods in the growth of the plant investment. The most complete and accurate way to ascertain these two necessary business fundamentals, viz., present replacement value and collectible insurance indemnity, is to have an appraisal made through a competent medium specializing in this work. Although an appraisal is in some cases more or less expensive, it insures full and authentic results.

"The best plan is to get in touch with the agent or broker handling your insurance matters, as they are in a position to give advice as to the proper course to pursue in obtaining an accurate valuation.

Realty Men Oppose Rent Commission at Albany Hearing

Program Provided by Jesse and Other Bills Will Not Relieve Housing Situation, Experts Say—More Mortgage Money Necessary

(Special to the Record and Guide).

Albany, February 20, 1920.

THE recent commission idea incorporated in several bills introduced at this session was given a jolt at a hearing on the Jesse state-wide rent commission bill given by the Assembly committee on taxation this week. Not a single supporter of the measure appeared before the committee.

The hearing was confined to the Jesse bill, and the only interence that could be drawn from statements made by members of the committee while the bill was under consideration was that the Jesse measure which provides for two commissions, one for New York City and another for up-state cities, was dead. The arguments in opposition to this measure should have the effect of killing the Ullman and Schackno bills which provide rent commissions for New York City alone.

Rent commissions will not relieve the housing situation. This point was hammered home by the opponents of the measure who were headed by John L. Parish, secretary of the Advisory Council of Real Estate Interests in New York City. The other opponents were Stewart Browne of the United Real Estate Association; George W. Eidt, vice-president of the 12th and 19th Ward Real Estate Associations, Henry M. Goldberg, Bernard Goodman, representing the Greater New York Taxpayers Association, and S. Caplan, of the Civil Service Reform League.

Mr. Parish and the other opponents made it plain to the committee that legislation encouraging building, and not rent commissions, is the solution for the present congested housing problem. Bills which will permit savings banks and insurance companies to loan greater percentages than are now lawfully permitted will have a spurring effect on building, and legislation designed to safeguard property owners who are willing to build by removing some of the restrictions on the loaning sources will also help. The opponents of the bill pointed out that the landlords and property owners in New York City have not engaged in rent profiteering but that this abuse is chargeable to the persons who make a business of renting property for the purpose of subletting it.

Legislation designed to put teeth in the state income tax law was introduced this week by Senator Davenport and Assemblyman Judson, chairman respectively of the Senate and Assembly committees on taxation. These bills provide:

Enforcement of payment of income tax by non-residents whose earnings are made in this state by authorizing the state comptroller to compel filing of a return and institute proceedings to collect.

Examination of state income tax returns by the internal revenue department of the Federal government providing the federal government permits similar courtesy to the state income tax examiners.

Investigation of income from estates and trusts to ascertain their taxability.

Broadening the comptroller's powers to enable him to ascertain gain or loss with respect to income tax resulting from transfer of property by gift.

Vesting the state comptroller with powers of examination and investigation similar to the functions of the federal income tax collecting department.

Upon the strength of a special message from the governor, Senator Walters, majority leader of the Senate, introduced a bill appropriating $545,000 to acquire a seven story and basement building located at 120 East 28th street and owned by the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A. for the purpose of housing the New York City bureau of the state industrial commission. The bill was promptly passed and signed by the governor. The bureau is now located at 230 and 411 Fifth avenue and the rental for these quarters aggregates $60,700 a year. The present lease expires in 1921. The rental of the Y. M. C. A. building which the state may purchase is $110,000 a year, a factor which prompted the governor to invoke the legislature to appropriate moneys to purchase it.

Under the terms of a bill submitted by Assemblyman Evans it would constitute a misdemeanor for a landlord to rent or lease a flat or apartment in New York City without first having thoroughly renovated the same in a manner approved by the local board of health.

Pensions for widows and orphans of members of the New York City police department are made mandatory under the terms of a bill introduced by Assemblyman McCue. Assemblyman Donohue introduced another bill which provides for the payment of child welfare moneys to dependent widows regardless of the fact that the deceased husband was an alien or not. The bill also provides that no allowance shall be made on account of children born in a foreign land, unless the widow has indicated her intention of becoming a citizen.

Senator Karle introduced a measure appropriating $25,000,000 for the payment of bonuses to the veterans of the world war, the money to be raised by bond issue.

Under a bill introduced by Assemblyman Blodgett the Penal Law is amended to prohibit persons not attorneys to draw instruments relating to the sale or exchange of real or personal property or the placing of any encumbrance or lien thereon, or to draw a will or any other instrument required by court rules, or to receive compensation for giving legal advice or examine abstracts of title.

Assemblyman Forbell introduced another measure amending the Executive Law so as to permit a notary public to draw any instrument of conveyance or mortgage of real property, executory contract for sale of real property, bill of sale or mortgage of personal property, or any other paper relating to sale or encumbrance of real or personal property, of which he takes acknowledgment, upon representing to the state regents proof of ten years' experience in drawing such papers.

Senator Walker has introduced in the Senate the municipal ownership bill favored by Mayor Hylan, which recently was sponsored in the Assembly by Minority Leader Donohue.

Assemblyman McKee produced a bill which would make it a felony to sell milk or rent a dwelling house at a profit not warranted by the amount of net capital invested or the risk incurred.

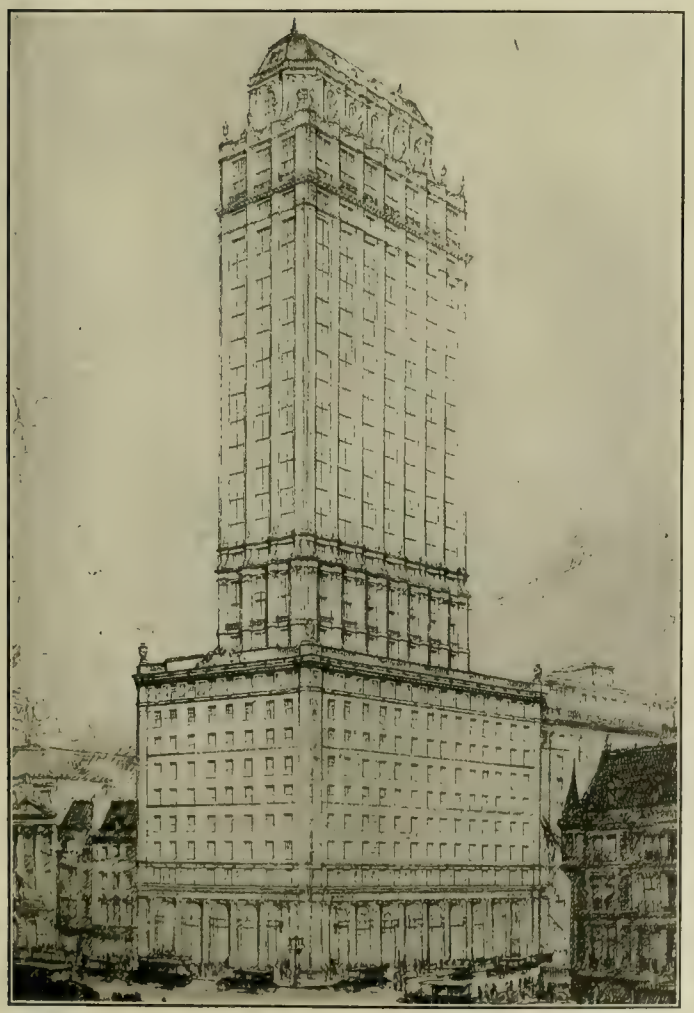
The Board of Aldermen of New York City would be authorized, upon the recommendation of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, to increase the salary or compensation of any officer or employe of any county comprised in Greater New York, notwithstanding the provisions of any law fixing such salaries, according to the terms of a bill introduced by Assemblyman Ullman.

Acknowledgment of proof of conveyance of real property may be made before an official examiner of title within the district wherein he is authorized to perform official duties, a bill introduced by Assemblyman Mullen provides.

Late this week the governor sent a special message to the legislature urging the amendment of the so-called Child Welfare Law to provide for the payment of child welfare moneys to the widows of aliens for children born in this country and for the wives of men confined in prisons and insane asylums. The message was in support of the Donohue bill referred to, and it is expected another measure providing for the extension of the law to the wives of convicts and insane men will be introduced within the next week.

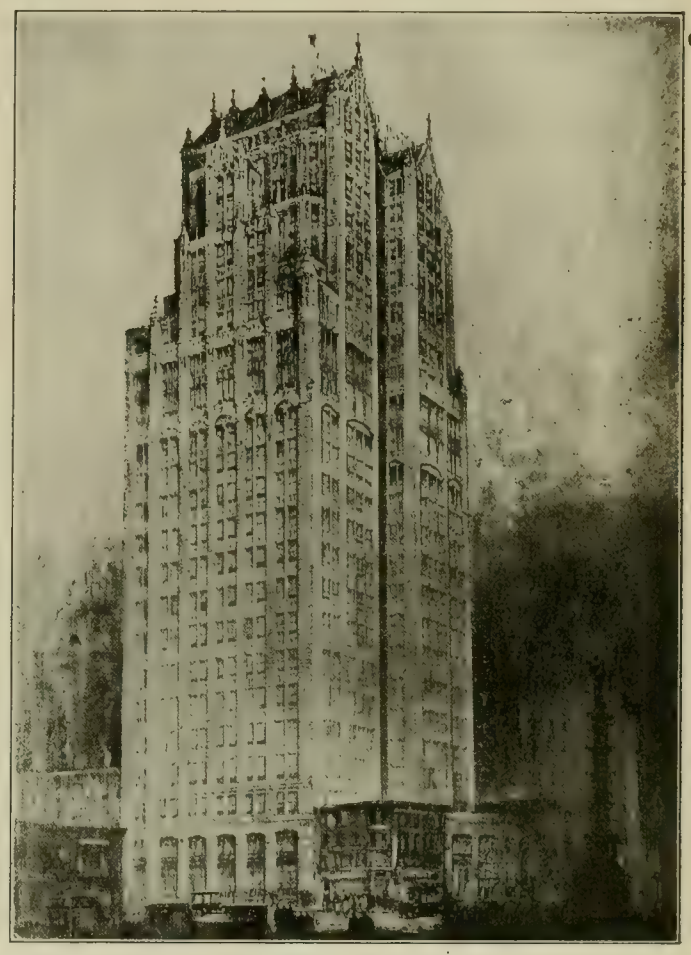
Two Large Office Buildings for Upper Mid-Town Sites

George Backer and Gotham National Bank Plan Important Operations in District South of Central Park



THE northward trend of business is emphasized by the preparations for commencing the construction of two large office building operations in the upper mid-town section of Manhattan. Plans for these projects are now nearing completion and it is anticipated that active construction will be started as soon as weather conditions permit.

At the southwest corner of Fifth avenue and 57th street George Backer will construct an office and theatre building at a cost exceeding $5,000,000 from plans by Warren & Wetmore, architects. This structure will be known as the Heckscher Building and will consist of a modern office building in the 56th street extension of which will be included a first class theatre which will be devoted to productions of the best character.



The structure on the 57th street corner will be thirty-two stories in height. The lower part of the main building will be 125 feet from grade to roof which is the limit permitted by the Zoning Law. This main structure will cover the entire Fifth avenue frontage of the plot. Above this level a tower twenty-two stories in height will start and this section of the structure will provide excellent office space for those desiring accommodations in this part of the city.

It is planned to devote the street floors to use as stores. An arcade commencing at the southerly end of the Fifth avenue side of the building and running the entire length of the property will have small booths on either side for display purposes. This arcade will connect with a similar one that will start from the westerly side of 57th street. From this hall the shops, elevators to serve the building and theatre, will be reached. Through the arcade will be booths about 6 x 16 feet and the tenants occupying the shops will each be allotted one booth to display their merchandise. The plans provide for eight high speed electric elevators to serve the office building.

The theatre will have a seating capacity of 900 and will not contain a gallery. Plans for this project provide for 239,200 square feet of office space that may be divided to suit the requirements of individual tenants.

PROJECTED BUILDING AT FIFTH AVE. AND 57TH ST.

GOTHAM BANK BUILDING ON COLUMBUS CIRCLE.

The type of architecture of the exterior of this structure is to be a modern French Renaissance and it is planned to construct the facades entirely of stone.

The owner announces that already a number of applications have been received for office accommodations in this building.

The Gotham National Bank has had plans prepared by Sommerfield & Steckler, architects, for a twenty-three story bank and office building on Columbus Circle. This project will cover a plot 84 feet wide and 100 feet deep and will be the tallest structure occupying a Circle site.

As planned at this time the Gotham National Bank will occupy the entire main floor of this structure and a large part of the second floor. The entire first basement will be utilized for safe deposit purposes. The new vault, which will be one of the largest in this country, will have a capacity of more than 12,000 boxes. In addition, this department will have a large conference room in addition to the usual coupon booths.

Review of Real Estate Market for the Current Week

Strong Demand for Small Residential Properties in All Parts of City Is Feature of Market Activity

SMALL properties held chief interest in the real estate market this week although there continued to be considerable buying of commercial properties in the downtown section. The great number of large deals affecting million dollar apartment houses and office buildings and the trend within recent months for so many business men to acquire their own buildings has tended to detract interest from the buying movement directed toward the acquisition of the small residential properties in practically every section of New York City.

Analysis of the private house situation in Manhattan, in the Bronx and in Brooklyn reveals buying activity almost approximating a boom, and this type of holding which several years ago was a drug on the market is now being eagerly sought. In Manhattan dozens of private houses on the West side are being taken over and altered into small apartment units; owners and brokers of this kind of property report an unprecedented demand for space of this description and a better buying market than in many years.

There is every indication that this kind of activity will continue for an indefinite period, especially since there has been no appreciable number of building projects in either Manhattan or the Bronx. As long as the demand for space continues to outstrip the supply, tenants in apartment houses will endeavor to become owners.

Tenants of apartment houses are not the only ones who are forming syndicates to acquire realty. One of the most interesting transactions of the week involved the Exchange Court building at 52 Broadway which was sold to a syndicate representing fourteen concerns now housed in that building and adjoining properties. Several blocks to the north at 77 Cortlandt street a five-story brick building was taken over by a syndicate of lawyers who will also occupy space in the building.

Among other interesting transactions of the week was the sale involving the 12-story office building at the southeast corner of Ffith avenue and 43d street, formerly owned by the American Real Estate Company; the purchase of a row of buildings on Greenwich street by the Foundation Company to protect the present holdings in that corporation; the purchase of the Yale & Towne building at 9-11 East 40th street by Frederick Brown. The old St. Denis Hotel, held in the ownership of the Renwick family for nearly 250 years and which has been vacant for some years, was sold and will no doubt be modernized to meet the strong demand for commercial space in that neighborhood.

PRIVATE REALTY SALES.

THE total number of sales reported but not recorded in Manhattan this week was 146, as against 152 last week and 75 a year ago.

The number of sales south of 59th street was 43, as compared with 56 last week and 24 a year ago.

The number of sales north of 59th street was 103, as compared with 96 last week and 51 a year ago.

From the Bronx 36 sales at private contract were reported as against 43 last week and 39 a year ago.

Statistical tables, indicating the number of recorded instruments, will be found on page 253.

52 Broadway Bought by Tenants.

A syndicate headed by Edwin N. Chapman, of the firm of Chisholm & Chapman, members of the New York Stock Exchange, purchased the Exchange Court Building, at 52 Broadway, corner of Exchange place, from Robert E. Dowling, of the City Investing Co. The following Stock Exchange houses are interested in the syndicate: Carstairs & Co., F. M. Lockwood & Co., Prince & Whitely, Henry Zuckerman & Co., Wilcox & Co., Bossevain & Co., E. W. Wagner & Co., Billings, Olcott & Winsmore, Burnett, Laidlaw & Meyers, Post Bros. & Co. and Raymond Shaw & Co.

The building is to be devoted exclusively to offices of members of the New York Stock Exchange, and in that respect the building will be unique. It is understood that the building will be improved by giving special facilities to brokers, it being the intention to place in the basement safe deposit vaults in order that brokers who are tenants may conveniently and safely deposit their securities over night without going outside of the building. Exchange Court is thirteen stories high and covers a plot fronting 125 feet on Broadway, 130 feet on New street and 130 feet on Exchange place, adjoining the Standard Arcade on the north. Robert E. Dowling, the seller, acquired it last September from John Jacob Astor, son of Lord William Waldorf Astor, who had owned it for many years.

Last year the city assessed the property at $2,000,000, of which $1,900,000 represented the value of the land. The building was erected about fifteen years ago and has always been occupied by banking and stock brokerage concerns. W. E. Speers and Albert E. Ponter, of the Brown-Wheelock Co., negotiated the transaction.

Buy to Protect Beard Building.

To protect the twelve-story Beard Building at 120 to 122 Liberty street, running through the block to 123 to 125 Cedar street, the Foundation Company has purchased the four buildings, 141 to 151 Greenwich street, 124 Liberty street and 127 Cedar street. The combined plot covers the entire block front on the easterly side of Greenwich street from Cedar to Liberty streets, with frontages of 95 feet, 35 feet and 44 feet respectively, and contains 4,000 square feet. This is the third sale negotiated by the Charles F. Noyes Company of the same properties within the last six months.

The purchasers recently secured through the same brokers the Beard Building from Frederick Brown, which property adjoins the purchase just made. With the additional plottage, the Foundation Company now owns nearly 10,000 square feet at this point, with an investment of over $1,000,000, and if the Greenwich street block front is improved the deal will represent nearly $2,000,000. The purchasers are now located in the Woolworth Building. Douglas L. Elliman & Co. was associated with the Noyes Company in the transaction.

Lawyers Buy on Cortlandt Street.

Activity in the Cortlandt street section is evident by the sale and immediate resale for improvement of the property at 77 Cortlandt street, southwest corner Washington street, the five-story brick building on lot area of 1,500 square feet, adjoining the large plot owned by the Pennsylvania Railroad. The property was sold by Samuel J. Tankoos for the Broadway-John Street Corporation to Joseph Weinstock and resold by the same broker to a syndicate composed of well known attorneys, who contemplate making immediate and extensive alterations and improvements, upon of completion of which the entire upper floors will be occupied exclusively for law office purposes. Negotiations are pending to lease to a well known mercantile concern the entire ground floor and basement.

Fifth Avenue Corner Sold.

Robert B. Dula has sold the twelve-story office building at the southeast corner of Fifth avenue and 44th street, known as 527 Fifth avenue. The property has a frontage of 65 feet on Fifth avenue and 105 feet on 44th street. It is in the heart of the uptown financial and business district and close to the most important centers of transit in the city. Charles Newmark is the buyer. The property was held at $2,750,000. It rents for $250,000. The Harriman Bank occupies several floors in the building. Plans were filed recently by John Russell Pope for altering the lower part of the structure, changing the entrance from 44th street to the Fifth avenue side of the building. Mr. Dula bought the structure in 1916 from the American Real Estate Company. Townsend Horner, of Horner & Co., Inc., associated with George Howe, were the brokers in the transaction.

Old St. Denis Sold.

The St. Denis Hotel, the old six-story landmark at the south corner of Broadway and 11th street, opposite Grace Church, has been sold by the Renwick family. Garfield Moses, Ely Bennays and Joseph M. Brody are the buyers of the old structure. The syndicate bought the old corner through Joseph P. Day, who was to have sold it at auction on Februtry 17.

The sale means the passing out of the Renwick family of a parcel which has been held by them for 250 years. The Renwicks inherited it from Henry Brevoort, who owned all that section of the city and lived on the site now occupied by Grace Church. The old hotel, which has been vacant for several years, covers a site of 75 feet on Broadway and 198 feet on 11th street. It was erected when lower Broadway held the leading hotels of the city.

Astor Family Sells Lofts.

L. Tanenbaum, Strauss & Co. sold for the Jacob New Realty Company the six-story basement and sub-basement building 688 Broadway, 27x130. The majority of the leases on the building expire next February and negotiations are pending for a resale. The same brokers sold for the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company, as trustees for the William Waldorf Astor Trust, 93-99 Prince street, northwest corner of Mercer street, six-story basement and sub-basement buildings, on plot 100x100. They have also sold for the account of G. A. & H. Boehm and others 170 Greene street to Moe L. & Louis Silverman. The lessees were represented by Isidore F. Green, attorney. It is a six-story basement and sub-basement building, 25x100.

Operator Buys on 40th Street.

The Yale & Towne Manufacturing Company sold the eleven-story building it had built for its purposes about eight years ago at 9 and 11 East 40th street, between Madison and Fifth avenues, to Frederick Brown.

The sale was made through Ewing, Bacon & Henry, and it is understood to be preparatory to the vacating of the store, basement and five floors by the company, which, it is understood, will retain the top floor under lease for its executive offices. The company manufactures builders' hardware, and is one of the largest in the country.

First Sale Since 1853.

Pease & Elliman and Jay A. Lee sold for Joseph G. Minot and the estate of Grace J. Amory, represented by Fulton Cutting, attorney, the modern five-story building, 307 Fifth avenue, on lot 28x150, adjoining the corner of 30th street. This is the firts sale of this property since 1853 and the purchase of the property was largely influenced by the success of the Save New York Movement and the proposed erection of the new Textile Building by George Backer on the block immediately to the south.

Lawyer Acquires Third Avenue Corner.

William S. Sussmann sold for Jacob A. Simmerman the former Stratton & Storm property at the southeast corner of 3d avenue and 27th street. The new owner is Harry G. Guttman, a Bronx lawyer, who is making his initial purchase as an operator. The property consists of four parcels, and has a combined frontage of 102 feet on 3d avenue, 75 feet on 26th street and 161 feet on 27th street. On the immediate corner is a seven-story apartment, known as the Lorena, on plot 75x85, with a seven-story loft building adjoining on the avenue, and six-story buildings at the rear on 26th and 27th streets. Mr. Sussmann purchased the property at auction for the present seller thirteen years ago for $239,000. Part of it was occupied by the old Stratton & Storm cigar factory for a great many years.

Sale of 20th Street Loft.

Thomas J. O'Reilly has sold for the Aylesboro Corporation, A. Blumenthal, president, the nine-story loft at 11 West 20th street, on plot 28.6x92. The same broker recently sold for David Zipkin the adjoining nine-story building at 13-15 West 20th street to H. W. Gennerich, and since resold it to an investor. Mr. O'Reilly also sold for William Pierson Hamilton the old homestead, which was formerly occupied by Alexander Hamilton, at 17 West 20th street, on a plot 37x92, to the Stebbins Realty & Construction Company.

Grocers Buy on Greenwich Street.

Marking a continuation of activity in the upper Battery district, William Cruikshank's Sons sold for the estate of Joseph Naylor to Abraham Sahardi, of the wholesale grocery firm of Sahardi Brothers, the five-story brick warehouses, 58 and 60 Greenwich street and 61 Washington street. The Greenwich street plot is 51.2x109.6x52x106.5½ and the Washington parcel, which connects, is 23.4x58.4x61.10½x22. There is a total of 7,000 square feet and the Greenwich street buildings are leased until 1922. The buyer will probably occupy the entire property when the lease expires.

Buys Lexington Avenue Corner.

Charles A. Gould, president of the Gould Coupler Company, has purchased from Mattlage & Company, grocers, the building at 353 Lexington avenue, southeast corner of 14th street, and the two adjoining similar buildings at 349 and 351 Lexington avenue. The houses were former private dwellings, standing on a plot 35.6x87 feet, and were held at about $155,000. The present intention is to remodel the houses into an office building for the company, which is now located at 30 East 47th street, corner of Madison avenue, providing a modification of the zone law can be obtained to sanction the change of occupancy.

$1,000,000 Site for Truck Company.

William D. Bloodgood, Inc., sold for a client to a holding company representing the Garford Motor Truck Company the entire block front between Crescent and William streets Long Island City. The property, which has a frontage of 200 feet on the south side of the Plaza and a depth of 170 feet, will be improved with a two-story building, providing about 25,000 square feet on each floor. The entire transaction will involve about $1,000,000.

It Is Good Judgment to Start Building Now

IT is our opinion that a new price level has been established by economic conditions created by the world war and that building costs have been stabilized at a point below which they are not likely to fall for many years.

In view of this fact and the imperative need of buildings for housing, commerce and industry, we urge those who have deferred construction in the hope of lower prices to go ahead. The somewhat higher cost of building will be more than offset by increased rentals, assuring a safe, profitable investment.

We are confident of the future prosperity of this country and are demonstrating it every day, as we have done in the past thirty-seven years, by assisting in financing the construction of well-located hotel, apartment, industrial, mercantile, office and warehouse buildings, where the margin of security is ample for safety and the earnings sufficient to meet principal and interest payments. We make no loans in amounts less than $500,000.

Write for our booklet explaining the Straus Plan of financing real estate improvements. It will interest you.

RECENT LEASES.

Record Fifth Avenue Rental.

At an annual rental of $1,750 a front foot reported to be a record price for 5th avenue property in the Grand Central station zone, the six-story building at 537 5th avenue was leased by Edward S. Rothchild, president of the Public National Bank, to the Nivlen Realty Company of which C. M. Noble is treasurer. The lease, which is for a term of twenty-one years, calls for a gross aggregate rental of $1,113,000, the leasees paying all taxes and charges against the property during the term. The property consists of a six-story building on a lot fronting 30 feet in 5th avenue and having a depth of 100 feet. It is located on the east side of the avenue between 44th and 45th streets on the same block with Delmonico's. C. M. Noble, as treasurer of the Nolan Company, recently purchased the adjoining property, 535 5th avenue, a five-story building on a plot 30x100 feet for a figure close to $575,000.

Hanan & Son to Move.

Clark T. Chambers has leased for a long term the six-story building, 27x100, at the southwest corner of 56th street and 5th avenue to Hanan & Son, shoe dealers, who will remodel the building and use the store for their business. The upper floors will be rented to art dealers. The building is directly opposite that of Duveen Brothers and is occupied by Charles of London, who finds the promises inadequate for his expanding business. He is seeking larger quarters and for the present will maintain his showrooms immediately adjoining, in 56th street, in connection with his warehouses. Charles of London was represented by Hollander & Bornheimer and Hanan & Son by Anthony F. Tuozzo. The rental to be paid under the new lease is said to be around $50,000 a year net.

Bronx Department Store to Enlarge.

The Adams-Flanigan Dry Goods Company have leased from Augusta Dorn, 2858 3d avenue, running through to East 149th street and also bought the lease from the Haffen Brewing Company, John M. Haffen, president, covering northeast corner of East 149th street and 3d avenue. This gives the Adams-Flanigan Company the entire square block, bounded by 3d, Westchester and Bergen avenues and East 149th street. The Adams-Flanigan Company will erect a fireproof building on plot, with entrance to the subway, when present leases expire. Eugene J. Busher Company negotiated both deals.

Downtown Landmark to Go.

Charles B. Van Valen, Inc., and George Ketchum leased for Dennison Burke, restaurateur, a four-story building, 62 John street, on lot 22x100, adjoining the corner of William street. The lessor is Louis Freidlander, optician, now located at 36-8 John street, who is compelled to move as these buildings are to be altered by Elias A. Cohen into offices. Mr. Freidlander has already declined a large profit for his lease of No. 62. Mr. Burke retires from business after 30 years in this building, which he purchased about a years ago. The Dreidlander Company will occupy the second and half of the third floors upon completion of the alterations, costing about $25,000. The rear of the third floor will be used by H. Kroll and A. Mander. The fourth floor has been sub-let to Herman Baum, Inc., now at 1 Maiden lane. Almost simultaneously with the signing of the Friedlander lease the Van Valen Company and Mr. Ketchum leased the store, basement and sub-basement to Frank R. Redner and Paul C. Redner, nephews of Mr. Burke, who will continue the restaurant business. The aggregate amount of the leases involved is in excess of $600,000.

CHARLES F. NOYES COMPANY has negotiated renewal of leases for John V. and Hery V. D. Black, covering the entire 11-story "Black Building" at 200 William st, corner of Frankfort, with the American Type Founders Co., Stillman Appellate Printing Co., Peter DeBaun & Co., Trunk Brothers, Rode & Brand and Neo-Gravure Printing Co. The aggregate rental of these leases is in excess of $750,000. Several of the tenants, including Rode & Brand and Neo-Gravure Printing Co., required additional space, and the Noyes Company report that the demand for premises in this district is far greater than the supply. The Noyes Company also announce that negotiations are now pending by a group of tenants in the vicinity to purchase from Max Marx the southeast corner of Gold and Frankfort streets, a plot of about 11,000 sq. ft., for the purpose of erecting a publishing building.

Important Alteration Completed in Record Time

John S. Hyers Co., Inc., Remodels Former Grand Rapids Building at Cost of $125,000 in Less Than Thirty Working Days

OCCASIONS frequently arise where the time element in a building contract supersedes all other considerations and when large amounts of money can be saved or gained by reducing to the minimum the number of working days required to complete a project.

Such was the case when the John S. Hyers Co., Inc., took the contract to remodel the twelve-story warehouse at 36 West 32d Street, formerly occupied by the Grand Rapids Furniture Company, and alter the building in such a manner that the various floors could be rented as offices and showrooms. This work represented an expenditure of approximately $125,000, and as every day that mechanics were employed meant a loss of rent for the new owner, it was decided to exert every possible effort in order to cut down the lost time to the lowest possible point. The building was turned over to the contractor on December 31, 1919, and the owners desired occupancy for their tenants by February 1, 1920, thus leaving less than thirty working days to alter this structure and install the new equipment called for in the specifications.

Some idea of the scope of this contract and its manner of progression may be obtained from the following working schedule:

The general contract for this work was awarded early in November, and immediately upon signature the builders arranged with sub-contractors and material dealers for the delivery of work according to a prearranged schedule. Subcontracts were awarded with the proviso that all materials and built-up work was to be delivered on the job site December 31, which was the time set for the Grand Rapids Furniture Company to turn over the building to the new owners. In consideration of this objective it was made a part of the contract that sub-contractors were to be paid 85 per cent. of the amount of their contract when the work was delivered, and it was largely this plan that made it possible for a building record to be made.

Practically all of the material and built-up work was delivered on the job in four days after the new owner assumed possession. In order to facilitate progress these material deliveries were immediately, upon arrival, distributed to the various floors upon which they were to be used and a vast amount of confusion and loss of time was thereby eliminated.

One of the biggest problems in connection with this contract was the removal of the old flight of stairs throughout the twelve stories and their substitution by an entirely new flight, with iron rails and marble treads. The removal of the old stairs required a considerable amount of cutting by an acetylene gas torch. During the time that the old stairs were out of the way the construction of a new vent shaft was commenced and an entirely new toilet layout was installed on each floor. By the time the new stairs were finished to the twelfth floor the entire rough plumbing had been installed and practically all of the new fixtures had been set in their proper places. At this time also the fireproof enclosure for the new stairs, vent shafts and toilets were complete.

During the period of work on the new stairs, shaft, enclosure, etc., a total of fifty-eight window openings were cut in the east wall of the building, from the seventh to the twelfth floor inclusive, in order that additional natural light might be secured for these floors. At the same time all cutting and framing for a new freight elevator was accomplished, elevator installed and an entirely new fireproof enclosure erected.

Part of the contract provided for the change of the electrical layout of the building from a one-tenant proposition to independent floor control and this necessitated new wiring throughout, with considerable new conduit work, installation of panel boards, boxes, etc. It was further required to wire for an independent lighting circuit controlling the fire exits on all floors.

Although the heating system had been adequate for the demands of the former tenant it was not sufficient for the requirements of the building in its new character of occupancy and it was necessary to change the location of the boiler in the basement so as to increase the bunkerage space and also to install additional radiation in order to heat all parts of the building to a temperature of 70 degrees in zero weather.

During the time this work was in progress there was installed at the rear of the building a secondary means of egress that experts have declared to be one of the most complete of its kind ever erected, and in conjunction with this a fireproof passage to the street was built on the first floor.

All of the windows in the rear of the structure had to be made fireproof by the installation of kalamein frames and sash, which were glazed with polished wire glass.

Adequate protection from the fire hazard was provided by installing a 100 per cent. sprinkler equipment and the erection of a 5,000 gallon house tank on the roof, complete with additional roof framing, etc.

The contract also included the painting of ceilings and side walls, halls, etc., and the construction of an entirely new freight entrance and a main entrance corridor on the first floor. This latter work involved an eight-foot wainscot of Tennessee marble, tile floors and ornamental plaster ceiling.

A thoroughly complete organization of highly trained experts in building, with outside and inside departments fully co-ordinated and operating in full accord made it possible to accomplish this gigantic task in record-breaking time and without inconvenience to the owner. This same organization is at the disposal of architects and owners who have building problems to solve and who demand speed and efficiency as a prime consideration of the work in hand.

LEGISLATIVE BILLS AFFECTING REALTY

Measures Introduced at Albany Approved or Disapproved by Real Estate Board of New York

At the regular weekly meeting of the Legislation and Taxation Committee of the Real Estate Board of New York, action was taken on the following bills:

Assembly Int. 175, Pr. 175, McDonald.—To amend the Greater New York Charter, in relation to notice of sale of tax liens for non-payment of taxes, assessments or water rates.

The object of this proposed amendment is to prohibit the sale of a tax lien unless "notice of such sale shall have been served by registered mail upon the owner of such property at least three months prior to the date of such sale."

The object of the tax lien law was among other things to cure defective titles. A great many lots in the city could not be improved because it was impossible to locate the owners, and the lots remained unimproved. It is in such cases that the tax lien law effectively applied. In the foreclosure of a tax lien or in case of a sale of tax lien affecting such a lot it is absolutely impossible to locate such owner or his heirs or to serve them personally. If this bill becomes law it will render the law a nullity in one case (at least) where it has been very effective.

There has been a great deal of sharp practice under the tax lien law, but property owners can in all instances avoid the sale for taxes by paying the taxes. Some obligation is attached to being a property owner, and if it were observed there would be less opportunity for sharp practice. The bill is disapproved.

Assembly Int. 353, Pr. 366, Pette.—To amend the Penal Law, in relations to drawing certain instruments and legal papers by persons not admitted or registered.

This bill would prevent brokers from drawing ordinary contracts, and satisfaction of mortgages and mechanics liens, leases, etc. (except of their own property), and prevent the drawing by laymen of a variety of small, unimportant legal documents which they now draw. The bill seems unnecessary and is disapproved.

Assembly Int. 185, Pr. 185, Bourke.—To amend the Real Property Law, in relation to registering title to real property.

This is an amendment to the so-called Torrens Law.

It amends Section 380 by striking out so much of that section as permits the court to accept a report made by a title insurance company. There has been much controversy over this provision of the law, and it was inserted therein after much debate. It seems unwise to omit this provision. The work of the title companies is likely to be more accurate than that of an irresponsible political appointee.

The amendment requiring the judgment of registration to be filed in the Register's office, and as to the filing of notice of appearance, is unnecessary but not harmful.

The amendment in case of loss of duplicate certificate is not without merit.

The amendment to Section 428 is an attempt to "place the county back of the assurance fund" (see Law Journal of January 27, 1920), and has been the subject of much controversy in the past.

The amendment strikes out from this section the provision "no claim or judgment on a claim from indemnity shall be binding on the County Treasurer (in New York City the City Chamberlain) for an amount exceeding the amount credited to the assurance fund."

The aendment is unwise and almost vicious and is disapproved.

Senate Int. 59, Pr. 59, Walker. (Same as Assembly Int. 347, Pr. 360, McCue.)—To provide for submission to the qualified electors of the State at the general election in the year nineteen hundred and twenty the question, "Are you in favor of ratification by the Legislature of the proposed amendment to the Constittuion of the United States, prohibiting the manufacture, sale or transportation of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes?"

The Real Estate Board consistently since 1914 has taken the position that "while deeming it not within its province to consider the merits of the question of prohibition, believes that the control should remain in the jurisdiction of the respective States, and for that reason is opposed to the principle of control by the Federal Government." For this reason the Board of Governors approves this bill.

Senate Int. 200, Pr. 202, Walters. (Same as Assembly Int. 4, Pr. 4, Amos.)—Concurrent resolution of the Senate and Assembly, proposing an amendment to Article One of the Constitution, in relation to proposed amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

This bill was submitted to the Board of Governors, and makes provision for a referendum upon the proposition to amend the Federal Constitution. This is a salutary proposel deemed to serve the rights of the respective States and is approved.

Assembly Int. 337, Pr. 348, Healy.—To amend the Greater New York Charter, authorizing the Commissioner of Plant and Structures to acquire the ferry operated between the Borough of Manhattan and Astoria, Long Island.

This bill, submitted to the Board of Governors, authorizes the operation of a Municipal Ferry between Manhattan and Astoria.

The Real Estate Board has consistently disapproved municipal operations of public utilities, and in view of the city's experience along these lines sees no reason for this bill. It is, therefore, disapproved.

Assembly Int. 434, Pr. 458, Donohue.—To amend the General City Law, in relation to the acquisition, ownership and operation of public utilities by cities.

This bill was submitted to the Board of Governors. It is identical with Senate Int. 806, Pr. 904, Foley—1919. The bill is disapproved. It would add a new subdivision to Section 20 of the General City Law, to authorize cities of the State to acquire and to operate any public utility determined by the local authorities to be necessary, expedient or for general welfare. It is an exceedingly dangerous proposition and is one which should receive scant consideration from the Legislature.

Henry B. Davenport.

Henry B. Davenport, president of the Home Title Insurance Company of Brooklyn, died of a stroke on Monday evening at his home, 600 Flatbush avenue, Brooklyn. Mr. Davenport was born in Brooklyn on June 1, 1854, and had lived here all his lifetime. His father, Amzi Benedict Davenport, came to Brooklyn as a young man from New Canaan, Conn., and established, and for years maintained, a large day school for young men where Parker's Restaurant is now located on Willoughby street. His mother was Janet Joralemon Dimon, daughter of John Dimon, one of the founders of the Nassau National Bank, and granddaughter of Judge Tennis Joralemon.

Mr. Davenport was educated at the Polytechnic Institute, was for a time an engineer in the United States Navy, later studied law and was admitted to the Bar in Brooklyn, where he continued in practice until 1906, when he organized and became president of the Home Title Insurance Company. He was one of the founders of the Old Flatbush Trust Company and a trustee until its merger with the Broadway Trust Company. He was the leading spirit among the organizers of the Flatbush Savings Bank, and continued as a trustee from its organization in 1910. He was a member of the University Club of Brooklyn, an honorary member of the Knickerbocker Field Club, of which he was one of the earlier members, and of a number of literary, historical and scientific societies.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Flora Lufkin Davenport, and two sons, Henry Joralemon Davenport of Brooklyn and Maurice Davenport of Cleveland, Ohio.

Industrial Commission Buys Home.

Alfred E. Marling, of Horace S. Ely & Company and chairman of the International Commission of the Y. M. C. A., sold the headquarters of the International Commission at 122 and 124 East 28th street to the State of New York for a headquarters for the Industrial Commission, at present occupying the top floor in 230 5th avenue. The Y. M. C. A. property fronts 60 feet in 28th street and 41 feet in 27th street. The main structure, having a frontage of 40 feet in the former street, is seven stories high. The remaining 20 foot frontage with a depth of 98.9 feet is improved with a three-story building.

The deal was made directly between Mr. Marling and Gov. Smith after the latter had asked the Legislature for an emergency appropriation of $545,000 with which to make the purchase. Gov. Smith explained to the Legislature that the nature of the business transacted by the Industrial Commission makes the commission an undesirable tenant and the owners of the 5th avenue building offered the State $10,000 if it would surrender its lease which expires May 21, 1921.

Bronx Dinner on March 2.

The Banquet Committee of The Bronx Board of Trade, which is arranging for the twenty-sixth annual banquet of the organization at the Hotel Astor, 44th street and Broadway, on Tuesday evening, March 2, announced on Wednesday the name of one of the speakers of the occassion. "Americanization" will be the theme of all the formal addresses. The first speaker to be named by the committee is Hon. John A. Small, former chairman of the House Committee on Rivers and Harbors, and recently elected president of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress.

The 1920 Banquet Committee of The Bronx Board of Trade consists of Alfred Goldman, chairman; August F. Schwarzler, Maurice Muller, Adolph G. Hupfel, r., William S. Germain, William H. Bolton, Philip J. Schneider, Philip F. Mahoney, Joseph M. Callahan and Charles Kiesling.

Sale of Henry Astor Estate Property Is Epoch Making

Plots Lie in Heart of the City and Offer Unusual Opportunity for First Class Investment

NEW YORK, modern, prosperous, purposeful and progressive New York, needed just such a big real estate sale as that of the Henry Astor Estate, which is to be held on Tuesday, March 9th, in the Hotel Astor, by J. Clarence Davies and Joseph P. Day, auctioneers, to impress upon the minds of investors the enormous fortunes that have grown from investments in New York City real estate, and the rapidity with which values have increased, not only since the city was in its "cradle days," but since the year 1845, when Broadway first widened from 25th to 45th streets.

In that same year the worldly wealth of John Jacob Astor was estimated to be $2,500,000; William B. Astor, the father of the late Henry Astor, was estimated then to be worth $5,000,000. A. T. Stewart, another great believer in the real estate, was rated second to Wm. B. Astor only, as an owner of New York City property.

An incident in the life of the original John Jacob Astor serves to illustrate the methods followed by him in his purchases of real estate. According to the tales of a contemporary chronicler John Jacob, the first, in 1810, sold a lot in the vicinity of Wall street for $8,000. The purchaser boasted of the "bargain" he had made and expressed the opinion that he would quickly resell the lot for $12,000.

"I believe you will," replied Mr. Astor, "but I will reinvest the $8,000 in the purchase of a plot of 80 lots along Broadway, just north of Canal street, which will be worth $80,000 by the time the Wall street lot is worth $12,000."

This same character of almost uncanny foresight was what led to the purchase of the Eden Farm for about $39,000, just after the Revolutionary War.

It is a portion of this Eden farm the heirs of the late Henry Astor will sell, by Supreme Court, Absolute Partition Sale, on Tuesday, March 9th, after 122 years ownership.

And yet, high as are values today in and adjacent to the Times Square section, it is evident to even the most amateurist realty investor, that, with the distribution, and subsequent improvement, of the 141 Astor Estate parcels soon to be disposed of, there will be a corresponding increase in sectional land rental values. Because of this assurred outlook, it is fortunate that the properties to be sold are not grouped together in any one particular section, but are widely distributed over the area lying between 45th and 51st streets, Broadway and the Hudson River, where the new 1,000 foot piers for use by the trans-Atlantic liners, are expected to be the main factor in completely transforming the more westerly section of the Times Square or Astor Zone.

The era of tall buildings began about the year 1879, and the great majority of the "sky-scrapers" that now characterize the Times Square district have been erected since 1900. The new and towering "sky-line" is gradually being advanced through all the side streets, and it is only a question of a short time when tall industrial buildings, apartment houses, hotels will occupy every site available between Broadway and Hudson River.

The Astor Estate sale is of great immediate interest and importance, not only because it is the first distribution of properties long held intact by the Astor family, but because it is a sale of buildings, the need of which has never before been so greatly felt by the overflowing tumultuous population of this great municipal magnet.

BUILDING SECTION

Office Building for Former Academy Site in Brooklyn

Walter Kraslow to Erect Twelve-Story Structure in Montague Street from Plans by Helmle & Corbett at Cost of $1,000,000

WORKING plans are being prepared in the offices of Helmle & Corbett, architects, for a modern twelve-story office building to be erected on the site of the old Acamedy of Music at 180 to 186 Montague street, Brooklyn. Walter Kraslow, for a number of years prominently identified with important building developments in Brooklyn is at the head of the corporation that will construct and own this building.

The site of the former Academy of Music has for many years been considered one of the most desirable for a large office building in the down-town section of the borough and at various times in the past projects for acquiring and developing the plot along strictly modern lines have been discussed, but negotiations were never completed.

Helmle & Corbett, Architects.

PROPOSED BUILDING ON ACADEMY SITE.

It is planned at this time to commence the demolition of the two story taxpayers that now occupy this plot on May 1, at which time the leases on the property will be called in. Until about two years ago the site was owned by Pratt Institute who sold it to the Meister Builders. Recently a group of investors and real estate experts who have for some time been impressed with the scarcity of high class office space in close proximity to Brooklyn's Borough Hall decided upon the construction of a large office building and the former Academy of Music site was selected as being best adapted to the type of structure under consideration.

Preliminary plans for this operation provide for a building fireproof throughout, twelve stories in height, with basement and sub-basement. The facade will be constructed of limestone, terra cotta and face brick and will be designed to harmonize with the other new office buildings in the immediate locality. According to the preliminary plans space will be provided on the ground floor and the basement for use by a bank or trust company and negotiations are now under way for the lease of this space.

In discussing this operation recently Mr. Kraslow stated that work on the new building would be commenced just as soon after May 1 as conditions of the material and labor market settled and that the construction would be carried through notwithstanding the existing high building costs. The scarcity of office facilities in the down-town section of Brooklyn and the return that such a building would bring justifies at this time the investment of the $1,000,000 that this project will represent.

COMPTROLLER CHARLES L. CRAIG indicated this week before the Board of Estimate that the budget of the city of New York for 1921 probably will exceed $300,000,000, as against the record budget of $273,689,000 for the current year.

The increase will be made necessary because of additional expenditures for repaving throughout the city, increases in salaries to school teachers and other city employes. The repaving, the Controller said, would cost approximately $12,000,000, increase in teachers' salaries $12,500,000 and the salary increases of other employes about $2,500,000.

The board decided to place the $8,220,003.36 for the Seventh Avenue improvement in the tax rate for this year. The apportionment on the different boroughs will be Manhattan, 57 per cent., Bronx 8 per cent., Brooklyn 21 per cent., and Queens 7 per cent. Richmond County does not figure in the assessment. The remainder, $917,497.55, is to be assessed against the city as a whole, it being one-third of the value of the buildings taken in the proceedings.

Leonard M. Wallenstein, counsel for the Citizens' Union, requested that the matter be referred to the Corporation Counsel for an opinion before the money was actually placed in the tax rate, and this will be done.

"Assuming that real estate valuation will probably be increased about $700,000,000," said the Controller, "the increased taxes collectible from this source, with a 2½ per cent. tax rate, would probably be about $17,500,000, or about $10,000,000 short of the amount added to the budget. This would necessarily result in a higher tax rate."

ANOTHER organization of real estate brokers in the Borough of Brooklyn has been formed. It will be called the Allied Realty Brokers Association. At the first meeting held recently in the Hopkinson Mansion, Hopkinson and Liberty avenues, H. A. Soffer was elected president, M. Tierstein, vice president, and Louis Palmer, treasurer. Herman Lehman, of 32 Court street, was named as honorary member of the association. Maxwell E. Kaps was elected secretary.

Survey of Building Operations in Queens and the Bronx

Superintendents of Building Departments in These Boroughs Give Statistics for 1919—Falling Off in One, Big Gains in Others

BY P. J. REVILLE

Superintendent of Buildings, Borough of the Bronx.

A SURVEY of building conditions throughout the Bronx as compared with general conditions in this line throughout the United States compels one to ask what is the cause of the abnormal slump which has developed in the Bronx as compared with other localities.

The present population of the Borough of the Bronx is estimated at approximately 800,000 people.

A survey of the housing accommodations of the Bronx shows that on January 1, 19120, there were available for living accommodations 10,546 tenements with 140,160 apartments and 28,420 dwellings with 35,670 apartments and that there were then under construction 58 tenements with 2,089 apartments and 417 dwellings with 497 apartments, making a total of 39,436 buildings with 178,416 apartments, accommodating approximately 758,000 persons.

This would indicate that immediate accommodations are required for approximately 40,000 persons and figuring 5 persons to a family 8,000 apartments are needed. The normal yearly increase in Bronx population is from 6% to 10% and figuring a minimum increase of 6% or 48,000 persons during 1920, an additional 9,600 apartments will be required.

In 1919 plans were filed in Bronx Borough for the erection of 95 tenements and 478 dwellings at an estimated cost of $12,886,500, and while these figures are considered favorable in view of the excessive cost of construction and maintenance, and show a considerable increase over the years 1917 and 1918, they do not compare favorably with the number of tenements and dwellings being erected in some of the other boroughs of New York City and in various cities throughout the United States.

Formerly the Bronx alternated with Philadelphia in fourth position in annual building operations in the various cities and communities throughout the United States, but in the year 1919 the Bronx dropped to eleventh position as indicated: Chicago, Manhattan, Brooklyn, Detroit, Philadelphia, Queens, Los Angeles, Cleveland, Boston, Baltimore and the Bronx.

A comparison of the housing activities of the city of Detroit, the Borough of Queens and the Borough of the Bronx shows the following:

Residence Buildings	Number	Estimated Cost
Detroit	9,112	$41,955,176
Queens	5,908	27,189,709
The Bronx	573	12,886,500

In Detroit with a population of 500,000 there are now under construction 8,760 dwelling houses providing accommodations for 10,329 families, also 337 tenements providing accommodations for 2,894 families, making a total of housing accommodations for 13,223 families. In the Bronx with its population approximately 800,000 there were erected in 1919—478 dwelling houses providing accommodations for 606 families and 95 tenements providing accommodations for 3,311 families, making a total of housing accommodations for 3,917 families.

It is frequently stated that housing conditions will automatically adjust themselves as they did immediately after the end of the Civil War, but it should be borne in mind that at that time approximately one-twelfth of the population of Manhattan Island, which was then New York City, in order to get living accommodations became squatters.

A repetition of this adjustment at this time is impossible, due to the restrictive housing and building laws under which the city of New York is now being governed. We may properly ask ourselves what is being done to house our own laboring classes in the Bronx? The new apartments which have and are now being finished are expected to rent for a minimum of $15.00 per room and in most cases averages from $20.00 to $25.00 per room—this condition prevails generally throughout the Greater City.

JOHN W. MOORE, Superintendent of the Queens Building Bureau, made public his report of buildings in Queens for 1919, showing the different classifications of buildings that are being erected in the borough.

The tabulations show that the operations in the borough for five years were as follows:

Year	No. of Buildings	Cost
1915	5,756	$20,316,392
1916	5,333	20,009,683
1917	3,612	11,635,253
1918	2,052	6,431,622
1919	8,910	46,022,687

Although the last year was not very auspicious for the erection of brick tenements, the total for these operations is larger than for any of the four previous years.

The big development in the borough, however, is in the erection of frame dwellings. This continues the borough as the growing home center as well as the industrial center.

The totals on factory construction for the five years is:

Year	No. of Factories	Cost
1915	61	$1,222,200
1916	45	2,015,900
1917	39	1,396,100
1918	64	2,001,600
1919	108	12,060,900

The majority of the factories have been erceted in the Long Island City District, but every ward has new additions, with the Second and Fourth Wards about equal.

The erection of frame dwellings for the last year has been three-fourths of the number erected in the four previous years.

The greatest number of these have been erected in the Woodhaven, Ozone Park, Richmond Hill, Jamaica, South and Rockaway sections. The totals for frame dwellings for the five years were:

Year	No.	Cost
1915	2,317	$6,610,609
1916	2079	6,506,610
1917	1964	3,871,395
1918	751	2,174.150
1919	5209	19,987.579

Number	Classification	Estimated Cost
5209	Frame Dwellings	$19,987,479
551	Brick Dwellings	3,774 480
48	Frame Stores and Dwellings	270,050
62	Brick Stores and Dwellings	408 200
2	Frame Tenements	10,000
36	Brick Dwellings	2,739,500
7	Brick Stores and Tenements	137,000
19	Theatres	1,010,200
108	Factories	12,060,900
9	Churches	184,000
3	Schools	458,000
1	Hotel	500,000
41	Storage Warehouses	1,151,600
17	Office Buildings	353.900
2235	Garages	2.796,077
9	Stables	6,750
553	Other Frame Structures	174 551

An interesting contrast is furnished in the number of garages built, 2.235, and the number of stables, nine. while the cost of the garages is two and three quarter millions of dollars, and the cost of stables was $6,750.

Public Work Important Factor In Building Situation

Figures Prepared by F. W. Dodge Company Show Decided Increase in Volume of Municipal Construction Being Planned

CONTRARY to the popular impression architects and engineers in this territory have not slowed down any in preparing plans for large operations to be started just as soon as weather and labor conditions permit. Although the recent spell of inclement weather and the strike of the bricklayers has effectually halted practically all active construction in the Metropolitan District, preparations for new projects are going ahead at a remarkable pace and it is now almost a certainty that the current year will be the biggest in history from a building viewpoint unless a combination of unforseen circumstances intervene.

From reports gathered by the F. W. Dodge Company in the territory including all of New York State and New Jersey, north of Trenton, for the week of February 7 to 13 inclusive it is shown that architects and engineers had plans underway for 203 building and engineering projects that will involve a total expenditure of $42,476,500. In the same territory and during the same period a total of 87 contracts were placed that will require an outlay of nearly $9,000,000.

The list of 203 new operations being planned includes 57 business and commercial buildings, $2,925,000; 3 educational projects, $265,000; 4 hospitals and institutions, $1,302,000; 32 factory and industrial buildings, $5,678,000; 2 public buildings, $25,000; 15 public works and public utilities, $29,142,000; 3 religious and memorial projects, $23,000; 82 residential buildings, such as apartments, flats and tenements and one and two family dwellings, $2,808,000 and 5 social and recreational buildings, $307,000.

The fact that in point of expenditure the group involving public works and utilities leads the list is because during the past week or so there has been largely increased activity in the offices of county and town engineers, who are planning local improvements to be started just as soon as weather condition permit. This project includes roads, sewers, bridges, culverts, etc., and will undoubtedly be an important factor in the building situation during the months to come.

The 87 projects for which contracts were awarded during the week of February 7 to 13 inclusive is sub-divided as follows: 24 business buildings, such as stores, offices, lofts, commercial garages, etc., $3,918,000; 20 factory and industrial projects, $3,106,000; 1 public building, $6,400; 7 public works and public utilities, $1,428,000; 1 religious project $8,000; 32 residential operations of various types, $473,000 and 2 social and recreational buildings, $50,000.

PERSONAL AND TRADE NOTES.

Robert T. Lozier has resumed his practice as industrial consultant in room 2636, Woolworth Building, 233 Broadway.

James Stewart Co., general contractors, announce the establishment of a branch office in the Buehl Block, Detroit, Mich., with D. H. Sawyer as local manager.

S. W. Straus & Co., investment bankers, announce that Eddie Casey, famous Harvard half-back, has recently joined the sales force of the Boston branch of this firm.

Julius Blum & Co., tubing, have recently moved to their new warehouse and office at 540 West 22d street, where they have installed many modern and novel devices for the expeditious handling of material.

Charles H. Banjamin, architect, recently opened an office for the general practice of his profession in the Paterson Savings Bank Building, Paterson, N. J., and desires samples and catalogues of building materials and supplies.

E. Donald Tolles has been engaged as executive secretary of the Electric Hoist Manufacturers' Association. The office of the association hereafter will be located at 52 Broadway, New York. C. W. Beaver of Yale & Towne Mfg. Co., Stamford, Conn., is the president of the association, and R. H. McGredy of Shepard Electric Crane & Hoist Co., Montour Falls, N. Y., is secretary-treasurer.

Advertising Engineers Inc., 50 Union Square, have opened an office for the purpose of carrying on the business of counselors and complete service for advertisers of technical products. Curtis F. Columbia, C.E., will act as eastern manager. He was formerly publicity engineer for the United States Gypsum Co. and The New Jersey Zinc Company, and has for many years been closely connected with the metallic and non-metallic industries, having written considerable on various engineering subjects. He is a member of The American Society of Civil Engineers, American Society of Testing Materials and Princeton Engineering Association. Associated with Mr. Columbia are many able and prominent engineers who have specialized in the presentation of technical products to the engineering profession. Among these are Virgil G. New York Architects Hold Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the New York Society of Architects, held Tuesday evening, February 18, was preceded by an informal dinner at Lucca's in 44th street and was attended by a representative gathering of members and guests of the organization. James Riely Gordon, president of the society, acted as toastmaster and with a few preliminary remarks introduced G. Osgood Andrews, special representative of the Plate Glass Manufacturers of America, who addressed the gathering on the subject of "The Glass We See Through." Mr. Andrews gave an interesting and instructive account of the origin, composition and manufacture of window glass and then sketched briefly the existing market conditions in this line. He stated that the prime reason for the scarcity of both plate and window glass is that the demand largely exceeds the supply. Owing to the famine in plate glass, producers have decided not to export any more of their output, and it is anticipated that by next October the supply will be materially increased and the situation largely relieved.

Mr. Andrews denounced the strike in the glass industry as due to the sheer blindness and perversity of the men responsible for it. The glaziers insist that the cutters, against their will and judgment, shall be brought into their union. It is hoped that a settlement will be reached in the near future.

The following speaker was one of the most distinguished members of the organization, Henry B. Hertz of the firm of Hertz & Robertson, whose design for Victory Hall, the memorial to the New York citizens who gave their lives in the World War, has been accepted by the committee in charge of the project. Mr. Hertz gave an interesting resume of the features of the proposed memorial to be erected in Pershing Square.

Considerable routine business was transacted, including the election of two new members.

TRADE AND TECHNICAL SOCIETY EVENTS.

National Terra Cotta Society will hold its annual convention at Del Monte, Cal., February 27 and 28.

National Wholesale Lumber Dealers' Association will hold its annual meeting at Washington, D. C., March 24 and 25.

National Federation of Construction Industries will hold its annual meeting and convention at the Hotel Sherman, Chicago, Ill., March 25 and 26.

National Wholesale Lumber Dealers' Association will hold its annual convention at the New Willard Hotel, Washington, D. C., March 25 and 26.

American Society of Mechanical Engineers.—Monthly meeting the second Tuesday of each month. Calvin W. Rice, secretary, 29 West 39th street.

Associated Manufacturers of Electrical Supplies will hold their annual convention in New York City, March 18. Details and program will be announced later.

New Jersey Lumberman's Association will held its annual meeting at the Washington Restaurant, Newark, N. J., February 24. James M. Reilly, secretary, 800 Broad street, Newark, N. J.

American Institute of Architects will hold its quarterly meeting at the Robert Treat Hotel, Newark, N. J., March 5-6. Three business sessions will be held the first day, and the regular dinner the second day. The representatives of the National ofganization will be entertained by the local chapter. Secretary Hugh Roberts is now arranging the program. The housing crisis will be one of the subjects discussed.

Building Trades Employers' Association held its annual meeting in the association rooms, 40 West 32d street, Tuesday afternoon, February 17. President Ronald Taylor presided. Reports of officers and standing committees were read after which followed the election of officers for the ensuing year. The report of the nominating committee presented for relection the men who for the past year had so ably guided the affairs of the organization and the election was unanimous.

CURRENT BUILDING OPERATIONS

LOCALLY the building situation has been without special feature during the past week. Work on new operations has been stopped by reason of the snow-congested streets and the inclement weather that prevented outside work by mechanics and it is likely to be some time before the industry is able to resume its full rate of activity. There is a great volume of new construction piling up that will undoubtedly be released for estimates within the next month or so and unless a severe scarcity of materials develops and labor difficulties remain unsettled the coming spring will be one of the busiest periods ever known in local building history.

The ice-bound conditions of local waters has prevented the delivery of building sand and at present time there is a famine in this line. A number of important operations have been halted owing to the inability of getting sand and gravl and at the present time no relief is in sight. In some instances builders have been forced to use the sand that has been brought from foreign ports as ballast but as the quality is inferior to that generally demanded for building purposes this source of supply is of little account.

The material markets are quiet and although orders are coming in they are not large owing to the general conditions. Prices are steady and in some instances indicating a further upward trend. There is a decided shortage in some lines and dealers are making every effort to get additional supplies from manufacturers but with disappointing results.

Common Brick.—There has been practically no change in the local market situation. Business is negligible owing to the congested condition of the streets which prevented delivery of brick and the continuation of the bad weather that has stopped all outside work on buildings. There is some inquiry current but it is for future deliveries. Quotations remain unchanged at $25 a thousand to dealers, alongside dock, in cargo lots. There has lately been considerable talk of a common brick famine but upon investigation it is proved that these rumors are absolutely unfounded. There is sufficient brick available in Greater New York to supply every possible demand. In Brooklyn and Queens there is approximately 9,500,000 brick in the yards of dealers in building materials. In Manhattan dealers have available about 1,500,000 brick. In addition to this stock in the yeards there are at least six barges being unloaded at present and six barges remaining unsold in the wholesale market that will add about 4,000,000 brick to the local supply. Altogether it is estimated that approximately 15,000,000 common brick is on hand and at present the demand is for nothing like this quantity. Owing to the fact that the river is likely to be closed for some time to come, producers who are on railroad sidings have for some time been sending in brick by rail and these facilities are available in the event of the local supply running low. Local dealers are generally of the opinion that the top price level for Hudson River common brick has been reached and that there is no possibility of an advance to $30 a thousand as has been stated recently in the newspapers. If any change in price occurs it will be a recession from the existing level but it is not anticipated that the market will drop to a figure greatly below $20 a thousand during the remainder of this year.

MATERIALS AND SUPPLIES

Structural Steel.—Greater interest has been manifest in the market for fabricated steel during the past week and although there is a shortage of structural material and deliveries cannot be made for many months ahead, a large number of important projects have been advanced to the figuring stage. Among the prominent operations that are now on the market are the office building at Madison avenue and 42d street that will require 5,000 tons of shapes; and 4,000 tons for plant additions for the H. W. Johns Manville Co. The condition in the steel industry is exemplified in the recent report of the Bridge Builders and Structural Society for the month of January that shows that during the first month of the new year a total of seventy-five per cent. of the entire capacity of the bridge and structural shops of the country was contracted for. There is little to be said regarding structural steel prices. Although no statement has been issued by the United States Steel Corporation as to whether its recent advances in wages to labor will be followed by increased prices of steel products, it is anticipated that the consumers will be expected to stand some part of this Window Glass.—The market is in a most uncertain state and no prices can be accurately quoted. All local prices are nominal and subject entirely to the stocks on hand at time of delivery. The supply is by no means equal to the demand and with anticipated increased construction during the next few months it is difficult to predict the levels to which prices will jump. At the present time building interests are offering almost any price for the glass required to complete their operations and are willing to accept inferior grades as long as they can obtain deliveries. Glass producers are booked solid and are unwilling to commit themselves further until they are able to reduce the volume of work ahead.

Nails.—Conditions in this market are acute and during the past week there has been no improvement. According to trade authorities there is likely to be no change in the manufacturing situation for some time to come and as a consequence there will be no relief for the existing nail scarcity. Both manufacturers and jobbers are literally swamped with orders but supplies are only available in negligible amounts, no one is willing to predict when new stocks will be available. Relief is said to be remote and depending entirely upon the quantity of production the mills are able to maintain in spite of the handicaps that confront them in the steel districts. The American Steel & Wire Co. continues to maintain its base price of $3.25 per keg for wire nails but it is unable to fill but a fractional part of the orders that come in.

Roofing and Building Paper.—Demand for these materials continues heavy and there is every prospect that the requirements will be considerably greater within the next few months as a large amount of suburban work is planned and it is anticipated that a fair percentage of it will be commenced just as soon as weather conditions permit. Prices are firm since the advance recently announced. Current quotations are: Rubber roofing paper, 1 ply, $2.80; 2 ply, $3.40; 3 ply, $4 per roll. Tar paper, 1 ply, $2.85; 2 ply, $1.95, and 3 ply, $2.40 per roll. Red rosin sheathing paper, 25 lb. roll, $165 per roll.

Cast Iron Pipe.—Manufacturers are generally booked for three of four months ahead and there is a scarcity developing in some sizes. There has been some improvement in the buying situation and the export trade is fairly busy. Prices are unchanged.

Remarkable Record of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

The annual report of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company for 1919 discloses several remarkable facts about the extent of the business done by the company in support of its claim to transacting the largest life insurance business in the world. These are that the total amount of outstanding insurance is larger than that of any other insurance company in the world; that the ordinary life insurance paid for 1919 was more than has ever been placed in one year by any company in the world; that the industrial insurance paid for in 1919 was more than has ever been placed in one year by any company in the world; that the total insurance placed and paid for in 1919 was the largest amount ever placed in one year by any company in the world; that the gain in insurance in force in 1919 was more than has even been gained in one year by any company in the world; that the number of policies in force on December 31, 1919, was larger than that of any other company of America; that the gain in the number of outstanding policies was larger than any company in the world has ever gained in one year; that the increase in assets during 1919 was larger than any other company in the world; that the number of claims paid in 1919, averaged one policy paid for every thirty seconds of each business day of eight hours; that the payment of claims to policy holders in 1919 averaged $505.93 a minute of each business day of eight hours.

These are tremendous facts but do not comprise the total activities of the company. For instance, the nurses employed by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company made 1,300,883 visits free of charge to 256,000 sick industrial policy holders. An interesting fact cited by the company in its report is that the reduction in general mortality at the ages 1 to 74 in the last eight years is 17 9/10 per cent. The reduction in deaths by diseases is as follows: Typhoid, 69%; tuberculosis, 33%; heart disease, 23%; Bright's disease, 25%; infectious diseases of children over 46%. This is far greater than that shown by statistics of the registration area of the United States. The death rate for 1919 was the lowest in the history of the country.

Edison Service and A Great Industry

The clothing manufacturing industry has reached such huge proportions as to place New York at the head of the garment manufacturing cities of the nation

This great industry, which dominates large sections of the city itself, is carried on almost entirely by Edison Current

The large thirteen story garment factory of the International Tailoring Company to be erected at 4th Avenue and 13th Street is the latest addition to the group operated by Edison Service. It will have 5000 lamps and 217 horsepower

Let our engineers study your lighting and power needs and give you our report

Architects and Engineers are specifying and demanding

STEELBILT

in preference to those made of ordinary materials.

STEEL has exclusive advantages It is non-absorbent and therefore sanitary. It does not crack; in fact, is indestructible. It has a neat, clean appearance. Costs less than other substances and is more easily and economically erected. It is the logical material.

STEELBILT Toilet Partitions are made in standard sizes, some of which are carried in stock for quick delivery. Partitions and doors are made in units, of sizes to suit any plan layout.

Write Dept. "R" for full particulars and a copy of our architects' specification sheet.

Why Large Buildings Install
MARBLELOID
"The Ideal Composition Flooring"

Marbleloid is being put into an ever increasing number of important buildings because it is a satisfactory and efficient flooring. Hard, dust-proof, durable, slow to chip or crack, it has the close texture that repels moisture and the pleasing appearance that brightens the office. Easily applied and inexpensive, it pays dividends from the day it is laid.

Where may we send you full information, samples and a list of Marbleloid installations?

The Marbleloid Co.

HECLA IRON WORKS

ESTABLISHED 1876

Architectural Bronze and Iron Work

Office, 118 North 11th Street, BROOKLYN, N. Y.

DISTINCTIVE MARBLE WORK

OUR facilities for supplying marble and executing contracts with promptness and dispatch are exceptional. We specialize in the interior marble work and use only the most carefully selected marble, of which we have a large stock constantly on hand—imported as well as domestic. We have executed contracts for marble in many prominent structures, and shall be glad to send you a partial list of these on request.

MAY WE HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO WORK WITH YOU ON YOUR NEXT UNDERTAKING?

Real Estate Bills at Albany

There will be a hearing at Albany next Wednesday on bills offered at this session of the Legislature intended to bring about less friction between landlords and tenants. This affords real estate men an opportunity to get together with the lawmakers for the framing of measures that will be fair to them as well as satisfactory to those upon whom they are dependent for a satisfactory return on their investments.

Practically everybody interested in real estate in any way, either as an owner, an operator, a broker or agent, and even the "leaster" landlords, if they only realized it, is deeply concerned in the removal of the causes for the storm of criticism which has been directed against them by the rent-payers of the city during the last year or two. It is a matter of record that there were not more than the usual number of landlord and tenant cases before the local courts in 1919. But there certainly has been more denunciation of landlords as "grasping pirates"; a greater outpouring of ill-considered schemes for bringing about utopian relations between landlord and tenant wholly at the expense of the former; and a superabundance of committees, commissions, investigations; political, social and economical agitations, and other activities of a public or private nature, with the introduction of a flood of bills in the legislature to restrict, curb, restrain or render helpless all owners and landlords.

The causes of the increased agitation are well known and generally speaking are not peculiar to the real estate business but common to every transaction involving exchange of money, in its present depreciated state, for a commodity such as floor space when the demand exceeds the supply, as is the fact in regard to shoes, clothing, food and apartments and offices and many other things necessary for the prolongation of a happy and useful existence.

As the Record and Guide has frequently pointed out, the interests of all those having to do with real estate are best served by bringing about cordial relations between the owner or lessor of property and the lessee. A "good" tenant is necessary to the realization of fair returns on real estate investments and the best "good" tenants are the satisfied ones. It is not manifest that a large proporition of the tenants in this city are dissatisfied, even when they are called upon to pay higher rents. The majority of rent payers realize that there is justification for higher rents, as there is for increased prices of many other of the necessities of life. It is when undue advantage is taken of tenants that umbrage is taken and trouble ensues. The proportion of such cases is relatively small and this makes the matter of finding a remedy much easier. It will not be found in a commission to fix "fair" rentals, which is neither an economic nor a constitutional procedure, because these can only be fixed by the law of supply and demand. But it is possible to frame laws which will provide for forms of leases that will obviate many difficulties now arising between landlord and tenants, and providing for the fulfillment of the provisions of leases when once made.

In the framing of such legislation real estate men can be of great assistance to the legislators at Albany, and it is that they may present their views on the subject that the hearing next Wednesday is to be held. They can also point out the iniquitous character of some of the bills before the Legislature and should be able to prevent their further serious consideration. Some of these measures, if enacted into law, would cause more trouble than has been experienced during the period since the cessation of building due to the war has caused the housing situation to reach its present acute state.

Expert Opinion on How to Get More Mortgage Money

Mr. Walter Stabler, Comptroller of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, has set forth in very convincing language the arguments in favor of the exemption from taxation of the income from real estate mortgages up to $40,000, as provided in bills pending in Congress and in the State Legislature. After referring to the well-known shortage of money for mortgage loans to finance building operations, which has heretofore come largely from individuals and estates, he declares that although there is plenty of money in the country it has been taxed out of the mortgage market into other channels where the chances of profit are greater or the income taxes less or where securities are tax exempt.

"When a gross interest rate of 6 per cent. is reduced by income taxes to a net of 2 to 3 per cent.," says Mr. Stabler, "the non-taxable municipal, or state, or county, or school, or even road bonds paying 4¼ to 5 per cent. net are naturally preferred. This has resulted in the entire removal from the real estate mortgage market of untold millions of money, and this process will continue unless the income tax laws are so modified that investors will feel justified in again putting their funds into mortgages.

"And what will bring these vanishing funds back into real estate loans? Manifestly by relieving this best of all investments from income taxes for a period of years long enough to enable us to build what we must and what we cannot get without this relief. We must say to Congress that there is vastly more need for tax exemption on city mortgages for housing of the urban population than there is for exemption of farm loan bonds.

"City dwellers have done their full share in helping to win the war, by service in the ranks and at home; by contributions to every war utility; by subscriptions to Liberty bonds and War Savings Stamps, frequently to the point of embarrassment.

"Many of these people are now obliged to sell their bonds to meet the increased cost of living and great increases in rents. Congress and the State Legislature should remember this and do what they can to relieve the rental situation by enacting legislation that will make mortgage money more plentiful and thereby greatly aid in increasing housing space."

Mr. Stabler is recognized as a leading authority on mortgage loans; he is not given to exaggeration nor hysteria; his analysis of the mortgage money market and his recommendations for the relief of a situation that affects not only real estate men and builders, but every owner and rent-payer in the city, should receive careful consideration by the national and state legislators. He should be supported in his request to them for favorable action on the bills now before them by every influence that can be brought to bear upon the representatives of the people at Washington and Albany.

Building must not again be interrupted as it was during the war—it would be a national calamity. Mr. Stabler points the way to averting it.

Politics and Strikes

General news from day to day shows how much more acute is becoming the question of what can be done in the United States on the subject of strikes. This fact was emphasized in the recent discussion in Congress over the measure providing for the return of the railroads to their owners. In its earlier form this measure carried a provision prohibiting strikes, but this phase of the proposed legislation, in response to the demands of organized labor, was striken out. As passed by both houses, however, provisions were incorporated in the measure, calculated to minimize strikes and to promote arbitration of industrial disputes. Within the last few days the danger of strikes again delaying spring building in the metropolitan district has become more than disquieting.

It is evident that unless business and industry is to continue almost as greatly demoralized in peace as in wa rsome permanent method of dealing with the strike problem must be found. One of the great drawbacks to a proper and lasting solution lies in the disposition of so many of our public men to play politics with the question. Yet, this is one of the national problems so important in its bearing on the public weal as to transcends politics, a fact which the politicians of all parties, and the labor politicians as well, ought to realize.

It may be that the orginal proposal of an anti-strike clause in the railroad bill was too drastic, but certainly there is some fair middle ground upon which strikers and the victims of strikes can get together with fairness to all.

Readers' Comment on Current Topics

Editor of the Record and Guide:

The editorial in your issue of February 21st voices a homely truth regarding haphazard methods used in dealing with snow removal.

In past years many attempts have been made to cope with the problem by the use of numerous so called snow melters, without success, in consequence of which the powers that be have become averse to any suggestion of disposing of an annoying and expensive element by melting, prefering to stick to the antiquated method of hauling to the rivers, a slow and expensive, process giving but little relief at a comparatively high expenditure.

Every device for melting tried out to date, has attempted the impossible feat of accomplishing the result sought by heat directly applied, failing because the very nature of the element attacked resists heat except on the surface. Such attempts are equivalent to a rediculous effort to excavate rock by chiseling down from the surface.

Why do the farmers welcome a blanket of snow over the lands they cultivate? Because it is a non-conductor preserving the ground against excessive depth of frost which would prevail if it were not for the protection offered by snow.

Another proof of my contention that it cannot be quickly and economically removed by direct action of heat, is evidenced by the exceedingly slow process of melting under the action of the sun; its force does not penetrate below the surface and in consequence 90 per cent. of its heat value is lost. On the other hand a good rainfall removes 50 per cent. more snow than the sun under the same conditions of temperature and in less time.

The dumping of snow into the sewer manholes may be a step towards the solution of the problem, providing there is no re-action by reason of blocking of the sewers.

I am sure that the true solution is in the application of a homeopathic principle (like cûres like) to the problem. This, however, can only result in success if applied on an intelligent basis; that is, to use snow itself in its original condition (water), applied in only sufficient quantity to reduce the greatest proportion of snow to water, and the provision of a quick means of disposing of the resulting mixture.

In the past week some proof of my contention was shown on Fifth avenue, where the water from fire hydrants was used with the consequence that enough water was wasted on one block to have melted the snow from twenty.

That the city of New York is well provided with the element required is beyond question; it remains but to harness the element and provide the necessary devices which can be used in solving the problem with the maximum result and minimum waste.

When the cost of this winter's storm to the business interests of the city is figured, a staggering sum is revealed which if properly applied to the problem would go far towards a solution.

In conclusion I make the positive statement that water and water only will solve the problem of disposing of the snow which paralyzes business, transportation, shipping, deliveries and all other problems for which it is responsible.

PAUL J. PIATTI.

New York, Feb. 25, 1920.

Present indications are that two additional rapid transit tunnels under the East River, both of which are being provided for the extension of the so-called Broadway-Fourth Avenue route of the New York Municipal Railway Corporation system, will be opened for traffic in April. One of these is the tunnel from Whitehall street, Manhattan, to Montague street, Brooklyn, and the other extends from Sixtieth street, Manhattan. The reconstructed Brighton Beach and Culver lines can be routed through the tube from Montague street so as to carry passengers from outlying sections of Brooklyn under Broadway, Manhattan, and as far north in that borough as Sixtieth street.

Practically all of the track work in the Broadway-Fourth avenue tunnel from Sixtieth street, Manhattan, to Queensboro Plaza, Long Island City, has been finished, and will be ready for train service not later than April 15. Cars of the New York Municipal Railway Corporation, which is the legal title of the Brooklyn Transit system, are already in operation under Sixtieth street as far east as Lexington avenue, and as soon as the special track work at Queensboro Plaza is completed under-river service can be instituted.

REAL ESTATE SECTION

Conference on Landlord and Tenant Measures March 3

Realty Interests to Have Opportunity to Discuss All Bids Offered at This Session Affecting Housing and Rentals

(Special to the Record and Guide.)

Albany, February 27, 1920.

THE outstanding features of the week in the Legislature so far as they affect real estate were these:

The introduction of a so-called anti-rent profiteering bill by Senator Black which is backed by the State Conference of Mayors. A favorable report on the Dimin bill which would fix as the maximum for the year the rent agreed upon in May or at the time property for dwelling purposes was taken by the tenant.

The decision of the legislative committee chairmen considering bills affecting housing and rents to thresh out all legislation of this character at a general conference to be held on March 3. The Black bill which was referred to the Senate Judiciary Committee would give every tenant who has no agreement in writing stipulating his term of tenancy a lease for a year. It also provides for a standard form of lease, setting forth the obligations of landlords and tenants and carries an automatic renewal clause by which the term of occupancy is renewed for one year unless either party serves upon the other a notice electing not to extend the term. This bill was prepared by Leo Kenneth Mayer, counsel to Mayor Hylan's Committee on Rent Profiteering.

"This bill will curb the proclivities of the gouging landlord and speculator in the homes of people," the drafters of the bill declared. "It is considered the most effective bill introduced to ameliorate the housing conditions existing in New York City. It has the sanction of Arthur J. W. Hilly, chairman of the Mayor's Committee on Rent Profiteering."

In some quarters the Black bill is looked upon as the most likely of passage of all the so-called rent profiteering bills so far introduced.

The Dimin bill which was favorably reported by the Assembly General Laws Committee specifically provides that where rents for the use of buildings in whole or in part for dwelling purposes is fixed in May or at any time thereafter, such rental shall be the maximum until the following May, notwithstanding the provisions of any statute to the contrary. The prospects are that this bill will pass the Assembly, but what its chances in the Senate will be hinges upon the conference to be held March 3.

The general conference called for this date was tentatively agreed upon at a hearing given the state-wide rent commission bill last week when the real estate interests of New York City united in its opposition to rent commission legislation. Representatives of the Real Estate Board in conference with committee chairman and legislative leaders made this tentative agreement for a conference binding this week and it is expected that from this conference some plan designed to relieve the housing situation in New York City and up-state will evolve. The necessity of such a gathering is evidenced by the divergence of idease embodied in bills aimed at rent profiteering and designed to relieve the housing situation.

Comptroller Craig stoutly opposed the enactment of the Simpson bill, which provides for the publication of all New York City departmental estimates in the City Record by September 20 each year and making other changes in the budget system. The comptroller objected to certain provisions of the bill which would apparently legalize the "shuffling" of certain funds for salaries increases. He declared that the present system of preparing the budget was sufficiently modernized to meet the requirements of New York City and that the Simpson bill would simply operate to further complicate the work.

Assemblyman Zimmerman this week introduced a bill fixing the rate of interest upon real property mortgage loans at from six to nine per cent. according to the value of the mortgaged indebtedness.

Assemblyman Healey introduced a measure which would prohibit the removal of a monthly tenant in New York City for non-payment of rent unless the landlord or agent proved that on or before May 1 prior to such proceeding notice in writing to the effect that the landlord or agent elects to alter the amount of rent and stating definite terms to be charged, was personally served on the tenant.

The offices of Commissioner of Records of Bronx and New York Counties are abolished under the terms of two bills introduced by Assemblyman Steinberg. The duties of the commissioner are conferred upon the County Clerk, Register and Surrogate of Bronx County and upon the Surrogate of New York County by these bills.

The Lien Law is amended to give a civil engineer or surveyor furnishing labor or materials for a survey, map or plan of property a lien upon such property, according to the provisions of a bill introduced by Senator George L. Thompson.

Senator Boylan has a bill amending the Civil Code which would prohibit summary proceedings to recover possession of real property for non-payment of rent, unless the rent sued for shall be reasonable.

A new section No. 73 is added to the Real Property Law creating mutual estates of husband and wife in the property of the other in lieu of and as a substitute for dower and courtesy by a bill introduced by Assemblyman Jenks.

A really important bill from the standpoint of the present housing situation was introduced by Assemblyman Bly. This measure, adding a new section to the Insurance Law, Section 16a, provides that at least 60 per cent. of surplus moneys and funds of every domestic insurance corporation over and above its capital shall, for five years after this section is enacted, be invested in bonds and mortgages on improved unencumbered real property worth 60 per cent. more than the amount loaned thereon when such mortgages are obtainable. The advantages of a law of this character was emphasized recently at the rent commission bill hearing by representatives of real estate associations.

Assemblyman Leininger put in a bill providing that a person possessed of real property who disappears or absents himself for a continuous period of 25 years shall be presumed to be dead, unless it is affirmatively proved that he was alive during that period, and the lapse of a further period of 10 years after 25 years, shall raise the presumption that such person died without known heirs.

An arbitration commission for the settlement of industrial dsputes composed of five members at an annual salary of $15,000 each is provided by a bill introduced by Assemblyman Evans.

Big Increase in Tax Rates for 1920 in All Boroughs

Comptroller Craig Anticipates Action by Board of Aldermen in Fixing Rates and Gives Reasons for the Larger Amounts

THE tax rate for 1920 will be fixed by the Board of Aldermen on next Wednesday, March 3. In anticipation of this action Comptroller Charles L. Craig has prepared the following statement showing the probable increases in the rates for the five boroughs and the reasons for them:

The tax rate for the year 1920 upon real and personal property for the several boroughs will be as follows: Manhattan, 2.40; Bronx, 2.45; Kings, 2.45; Queens, 2.43; Richmond, 2.55.

This represents an increase over 1919 of eight points in Manhattan and the Bronx; nine points in Brooklyn; six points in Queens, and fourteen points in Richmond. This is due to local causes, including higher County charges in Kings and Richmond. In Richmond assessed valuations have not kept pace with the increased expenditures. In Queens County the increase in the rate is only six points because assessed valuations have increased comparatively rapidly.

In 1913 the City acquired the property necessary for the widening of Seventh avenue and Varick street. Although this was seven years ago, the authorities so deferred the consummation of the proceedings that the cost has never yet been collected. All of this cost is to be met by assessment partly on property benefited and partly on assessments spread over four of the boroughs and the City at large.

TAX RATE.

	Manhattan	Bronx	B'klyn	Queens	Richmond
1910	1.75	1.75	1.81	1.81	1.87
1911	1.72	1.72	1.75	1.73	1.81
1912	1.83	1.83	1.87	1.84	1.92
1913	1.81	1.81	1.85	1.85	1.92
1914	1.78	1.77	1.84	1.80	1.90
1915	1.87	1.94	1.92	1.95	2.24
1916	2.04	2.09	2.08	2.06	2.13
1917	2.02	2.08	2.07	2.09	2.12
1918	2.36	2.40	2.40	2.41	2.46
1919	2.32	2.37	2.36	2.37	2.41
1920*	2.49	2.54	2.55	2.56	2.55

* Including Seventh avenue and other assessments.

The total amount of the Seventh avenue assessment to be collected with the taxes for 1920 is $7,708,828.51. This assessment is the equivalent of the amount that would be raised by nine points in the tax rate. Adding the Seventh avenue assessment, and in the case of Brooklyn, other borough assessments, the payment of which have been deferred, the total amount of the tax rate and the assessments to be collected with the tax for 1920 upon real property for the several boroughs, is as follows: Manhattan, 2.40; Bronx, 2.54; Kings, 2.55; Queens, 2.56; Richmond, 2.55.

In estimating the revenues of the General Fund which are deducted from the total amount of the budget in determining the amount to be raised by taxation, an allowance of $10,000,000 has been made for the State Income Tax.

While prohibition has deprived the city of excise moneys of nearly an equal amount, the taxpayers have the benefit for this year only of payments into the General Fund of excise taxes received on October first last year amounting to $6,150,000.

In conformity with the provisions existing in the Charter since consolidation, the State School moneys to the amount of $5,036,587.16 have been credited to the General Fund for the Reduction of Taxation.

The assessed valuations of real estate for 1920 for the five boroughs amount to $8,626,121,707. This is an increase over 1919 of $197,798,954, which is very moderate in view of the high rents prevailing. The personal property assessments for the entire City amount to $296,506,185, which is a decrease of about $66,000,000 as compared with 1919.

ASSESSED VALUATIONS FIVE BOROUGHS.

1914	8,049,859,912
1915	8,108,760,787
1916	8,207,822,361
1917	8,254,549,000
1918	8,339,638,851
1919	8,428,322,753
1920	8,626,121,707

Comptroller Craig also made the following statement:

"The increase in the tax rate is very much less than various false prophets and calamity howlers have been predicting, and on the basis of which many of them have been attempting to justify the high rents exacted from their tenants. There is no relation whatever between the comparatively low tax rate of 1920 and the very high rents that are now being enforced throughout the City.

"On an apartment house assessed at $100,000 eight points increase in the tax rate means $80 per year.

"On an apartment house assessed at $1,000,000 the increase in the tax rate would be about $800 per year. If this is spread over eighty apartments it would mean $10 per year, or less than a dollar a month for each apartment."

Comptroller Craig announced at the traction hearing that there was hope of a slight decrease from the tax rate as estimated above.

Successful Evening Auction Sale of Brooklyn Realty

BEFORE one of the largest crowds ever assembled in the Brooklyn Real Estate Exchange, Fred B. Snow, for the Jere Johnson, Jr., Company, sold at auction last Tuesday night twenty-five parcels of improved Brooklyn real estate for a total of $135,600. At 8 o'clock every seat in the Exchange was taken and at 8.15 the crowd had grown to such an extent that many people were unable to enter the room. The bidders were principally home seekers and although a few operators figured as purchasers, the residential properties were nearly all taken over by flat and private house tenants.

The following results were obtained: 50, 52 Cumberland street, sold to Joseph Schwartz for $3,150 each; 42 Cumberland street, sold to Louis A. Lauei for $3,175; 46, 48 Cumberland street, sold to George C. Whitney for $3,000; 44 Cumberland street, sold to T. S. Sheen for $3,200; 97 St. Felix street, to the Reno Realty Company for $7,200; 472 Waverly avenue, to H. Crystall for $7,750; 161, 163 Dean street, to A. Fuchs for $7,600 each; 233 Duffield street, to the Reno Realty Company for $7,550; 55 Johnson street, to M. Quinn for $6,200; 63 Johnson street, to E. M. Cucker for $7,600; 389 and 391 Gates avenue, was sold to Usher Krell for $7,750; 815 and 817 Quincy street was sold to Joseph Verdi for $8,300; 1686 and 1688 Fulton street, were sold to James Monahan for $4,275 and $7,150 respectively; 196 Melrose street, to Jacob Reeis for $4,650.

Other properties included in the sale were sold as follows: 57 Stanwix street to John Smith for $6,750; 56 Stanwix street, to N. Keller for $7,600; 69 and 71 Ellery street, to Joseph Murray for $6,300; 119 Powers street, to Joseph Schwartz for $3,600; 184, 186 Ainslie street, to R. Curico for $5,050 and $4,100 respectively, and 188 Ainslie street, to P. Schlaefer for $2.900.

Review of Real Estate Market for the Current Week

Keen Speculative and Investment Is Centered Principally Upon Smaller Types of Income-Producing Properties

TRADING concerned itself chiefly with more moderate types of improved properties this week, both speculators and investors vieing with each other in the acquisition of properties of this kind in practically all parts of the city. The sensational downtown skyscraper transaction which has been such a prominent feature of the market within recent months has not appeared lately with such regularity, probably because the available number of properties on the market of this description have been reduced to a minimum. Capital seeking investment in real estate, however, is concerning itself with improved income producing residential and business properties, especially in those instances where leases expire at an early date.

The business of this week, which included transactions affecting great numbers of small residential properties in all boroughs, involved also with several important transactions forecasting big structural operations. Among them are the transactions whereby R. H. Macy & Co. added to the site for their proposed annex and a deal in which a well-known firm of west side builders acquired an apartment house site on West Seventy-first street.

Professional trading, of course, continued to be an important element in the business. Elias A. Cohen made his eleventh purchase on Fulton street by purchasing the property at 114 to 116 Fulton street. Other costly properties which passed into the possession of operators included loft and office buildings at 244 Fifth avenue and 87 Fifth avenue, a nine-story school at 646 Park avenue and a valuable loft property at 55 Warren street.

An interesting transaction of the week involved a big apartment house at the southwest corner of Broadway and 146th street, which was bought by a syndicate of tenants of the building, who plan to own and maintain it on a co-operative basis. This tendency on the part of tenants to organize for the purpose of taking over properties which they occupy, has developed into one of the most interesting phases of the local real estate situation, and students of housing conditions are watching with keen interest the outcome of such co-operative experiments.

PRIVATE REALTY SALES.

THE total number of sales reported but not recorded in Manhattan this week was 138, as against 146 last week and 93 a year ago.

The number of sales south of 59th street was 39, as compared with 43 last week and 26 a year ago.

The number of sales north of 59th street was 98, as compared with 103 last week and 67 a year ago.

From the Bronx 34 sales at private contract were reported as against 36 last week and 58 a year ago.

Statistical tables, indicating the number of recorded instruments, will be found on page 285.

G. R. Davis Buys "Verona."

G. Richard Davis, the builder, has purchased from Benjamin Winter through Robert C. Knapp of Douglas L. Elliman & Company the ten-story fireproof apartment house at 32-34 East 64th street. The building is considered one of the best constructed apartment houses on Madison avenue, and was awarded first prize for the most beautiful exterior of any apartment house built in the city. It occupies a plot 132.6x100.5, and included in the sale is a private house at 34 East 64th street which was purchased to protect the light. It has an annual rental of about $120,000 and was held at $1,150,000.

Tenants Acquire "Mecklenburg."

Tenants in the Mecklenburg, a six-story elevator apartment at 3551 to 3559 Broadway, southwest corner of 146th street, have formed a corporation and purchased from the Stars & Stripes Realty Company, Charles Galewski, president, the building at that address. Charles S. Nissen, head of the syndicate, has agreed to pay Mr. Galewski a profit for his contract, which does not expire until April. Then the newly formed corporation will take title from Simon Sichell and Carl Rosenberger, who contracted to sell to Mr. Galewski about two weeks ago. Robert J. Fox, a tenant in the building and an attorney, is the legal advisor of the buyers, and Charles A. DuBois, also a tenant, negotiated the deal. There are twenty-seven apartments and seven stores, and so far more than half the tenants have joined the syndicate, with the probability that before title is taken others will come in. The building returns a gross rental of about $36,000. Mr. DuBois said that it is anticipated through an advance of about 20 per cent. the tenants' syndicate will be enabled to reduce the mortgage by about $5,000 a year, obtain a 6 per cent. return on their equity and a dividend varying with the cost of maintenance. Fifteen of the present leases expire next October and twelve the following year.

Eleventh Purchase on Fulton Street.

The Broadway-John Street Corporation, Elias A. Cohen, president, has bought its eleventh building in Fulton street within the last year with the purchase of the six-story loft at 114 and 116 Fulton street, adjoining the southwest corner of Dutch street, from the 114 and 116 Fulton Street Corporation. The building, which is under lease until next May, occupies a plot 51x82. It will be converted into high grade offices by the buyer, who now owns a frontage of 460 feet in this street, and reports negotiations in progress for the acquisition of other properties for improvement with a sixteen-story office building. Joseph P. Day negotiated the transaction.

"Thorley" Buys Building.

Charles Thorley, florist, who must vacate his "House of Flowers" at the northwest corner of 5th avenue and 46th street about May 1, has purchased the former home of John D. Wing, a five-story dwelling at 16 West 49th street which he will alter to house his business for a time at least. The property is 25x100 feet, and is still used as a dwelling. Mr. Thorley bought the late residence of Mrs. Russell Sage, at 604 5th avenue, last month through Michael Dreicer for $441,000. It is likely that in the course of time he will establish a permanent "House of Flowers" on the one time Sage property when certain existing restrictions are removed.

E. E. Smathers, owner of Thorley's "House of Flowers," reacquired possession of the property from the Tiffin Products, Inc., which took it over last June for twenty-one years at an annual rental of $50,000. Through Brett & Goode Mr. Smathers took back the lease at a considerable profit to the lessees. Brown-Wheelock Company, Inc., represented the Tiffin Products, Inc. George Gascoigne, agent for Mr. Smathers, announced that negotiations are on for leasing the property, together with 1 West 46th street, at a rental of $75,000. Brett & Goode, who are also acting as brokers, declined to divulge the identity of the interests seeking the property. Mr. Gascoigne also stated that Mr. Smathers was considering the advisability of improving the site with a modern store and office building. The lease held by Thorley does not expire until next May.

New West Side Apartment.

Earle & Calhoun sold for No. 220 West Seventy-first Street Company to Joseph and Anthony A. Paterno the three dwellings, 54x100, at 216 to 220 West 71st street, for improvement with a nine-story apartment house containing suites of three and four rooms. Almost directly opposite Anthony A. Paterno is erecting a similar structure, 50 per cent. of which is already leased from the plans.

Macy Adds to Site.

R. H. Macy & Company have made another important addition to the site of the proposed annex to their department store in the purchase from M. L. & C. Ernst of the six-story Karpen Building and six-story Hotel Atlas at 155 to 159 West 34th street, and two five-story tenements at 154 and 156 West 35th street, occupying a plot about 56x200. Several years ago the Macy firm acquired 149 and 153 West 34th street and 146 to 152 West 35th street, and subsequently filed plans for a seventeen-story annex, but delayed construction work to acquire additional land. The present Macy store is ten stories high and covers a plot 405.2 feet on 34th street, 179.6 feet on Broadway and 380 feet on 35th street. With the latest acquisitions the frontages on 34th and 35th streets are increased to 530.2 feet and 505 feet, respectively.

Jewelers Purchase Corner.

Abel Brothers, jewelers, purchased from the Broadway-John Street Corporation, Elias A. Cohen, president, 16 and 18 Maiden lane, corner of Liberty place, which was partially destroyed by fire some time since. The buyers are now located in the property to be taken over by the Lawyers Mortgage Company for its new home. It is understood that Abel Brothers will alter the existing building, adding another story. A. H. Mathews was the broker.

Estate Sells in Warren Street.

Max Marx and Mose Goodman purchased from the estate of Joseph Hammersly the five-story loft at 55 Warren street, through to 55 Murray street, 25x175. The property was held at $40,000 and is at present occupied by the Columbia Graphophone Company, which will remove to its new building at 5th avenue and 34th street as soon as alterations are completed. These comprise the raising of the present structure to a height of nine stories. The Columbia Graphophone Company will remain as tenants of the lower portion of the building.

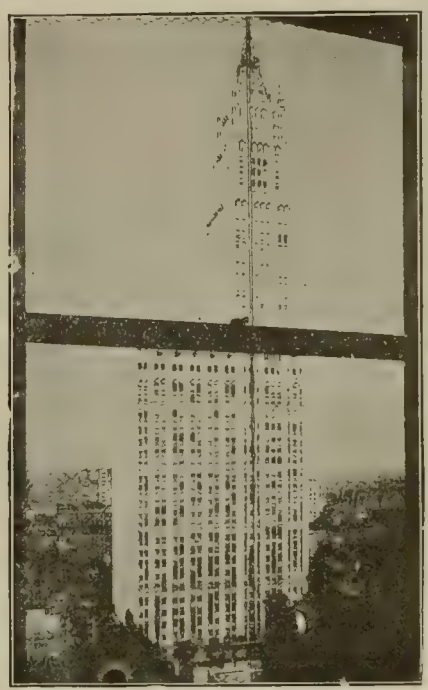
$450,000 Fifth Avenue Sale.

The estate of Andrew J. Connick sold to Harris and Maurice Mandelbaum and Fisher and Irving I. Lewine, operators, the eleven-story store and office building at 244 5th avenue, corner of 28th street. It was built about eighteen years ago and occupies a plot 34.1x100, and had been held at $450,000. The majority of the leases expire in May, 1921. John R. and Oscar L. Foley and William S. Baker negotiated the transaction. Last December the Mandelbaum Syndicate purchased and resold the ten-story Bancroft Building at 3 and 5 West 29th street, adjoining the Marble Collegiate Reform Church at the northwest corner of 5th avenue.

Resale of the "Peter Stuyvesant."

The Peter Stuyvesant, a thirteen-story apartment house at the southeast corner of Riverside drive and 98th street, valued at about $1,100,000, has been resold by the Freidst Realty Company, composed of the firm of Freidman & Distillator, who recently acquired the property from the Fleischmann family. The structure stands on a plot 101.4x108.6, and contains fifty suites. It was erected by Lee Fleischmann. The Freidst Realty Company also acquired lately the thirteen-story apartment at 650 West End avenue and the six-story structure known as La Rochelle at the south corner of Riverside drive and 149th street.

Park Avenue School Sold.



J. C. & M. G. Mayer have purchased from the Charlton School through William A. White & Sons the nine-story fireproof building at 646 Park avenue, on the west side of the avenue between 66th and 67th streets, on a plot 40x80. The building was erected about ten years ago for the Charlton School and occupied by it. It is now used by the Lincoln School. Negotiations are now pending for a resale of the premises to a prominent physician, who intends using it as a private sanitarium. It adjoins the big apartment house at 640 Park avenue, recently purchased and resold by the Messrs. Mayer.

Brown Buys $500,000 Lofts.

Frederick Brown, operator, purchased from Clara J. Keech, of Tuxedo Park, N. J., the eleven-story loft building, with stores, at 87 and 89 5th avenue, between 16th and 17th streets, valued at $500,000. The building occupies a plot 56 by 116 by irregular, and had been owned by the seller since April, 1915. Leases on the store and basement and four lofts expire in May, 1921. William C. Walker's Sons were the brokers.

Van Dyck Studios in Deal.

Peter F. Cogley sold for the Lincoln Trust Company and Herman L. R. Edgar, trustees of the estate of Edith Wharton, the Van Dyck Studio Building, a six-story structure, 100.5x100, at 939 to 947 8th avenue; also the four-story apartment 302 West 56th street. The property forms the southwest corner of these thoroughfares. The Parisian restaurant occupies the major portion of the ground floor. About 90 per cent. of the leases for the studio suites expire next October. The property was held at $460,000.

Healy Buys Corner.

The five-story building at 75 and 77 Cortlandt street, southwest corner of Washington street, which was reported last week as being sold to a syndicate of lawyers for conversion into offices for lawyers, has been purchased by John J. Healy, proprietor of Healy's cafe at Broadway and 145th street. The buyer is president of the Healton Realty Corporation, and according to Samuel J. Tankoos, broker, took title to the Cortlandt street corner from Joseph Weinstock. The structure comprises about 1,500 square feet of ground space, and the upper floors will be leased to law firms and to a steamship company. The ground floor will be leased to a mercantile concern.

Big Brooklyn Purchase.

David G. Legget, owner of the Temple Bar Building, in Brooklyn, has purchased the Williamsburgh Trust Company Building at 301 Fulton street, between Myrtle avenue and Willoughby street. The property was purchased from the Meropolitan Trust Company, which has been liquidating for the Williamsburgh Trust Company. It involves a large structure for office purposes of which the Truly Warner Hat Company has the ground floor.

Salvation Army Adds to Holdings.

Salvation Army purchased 143 to 147 Ashland place, Brooklyn, three three-story dwellings, 45.3x77.10, abutting the Hanson Place M. E. Church and in the same block with the Brooklyn Academy of Music. The buildings are to be demolished at some future date and a large structure erected on the site. One of the houses is to be used as a temporary quarters for officers of the organization. The property is diagonally opposite the Flatbush avenue depot of the Long Island Railroad.

Manhattan.

South of 59th Street.

CANAL ST.—Charles F. Noyes Co. has sold 338-40 Canal street, the 8-sty building on plot 50x50 for Robert K. Hass and others to the Phoenix Commercial Co. Extensive alterations will be made and a large portion of the promises occupied by the purchasers.

CENTER ST.—George Schlegel sold the 6-story building at 138-40 Center street, size 43x106x irregular, to a client represented by Kenneth C. Newman, attorney; the seller was represented by Miehling & Kayser. Spear & Co. have been appointed managing agent of the property by the purchaser.

CENTER ST.—Louis Carreau sold for Mary E. Hastings the property at 218 Centre st.

DUANE ST.—Charles F. Noyes Co. sold to Daniel P. Morse for the Kiowa Realty Corporation 116 Duane street a 6-story building covering lot 25x116.8. The building was recently modernized and through the same brokers was leased on a net rental basis to the Concord Shoe Co. The property was valued at about $125,000 and will be held as an investment. Mr. Morse recently sold the adjoining building, 118-20 Duane street, to Lazarus Fried & Sons and has purchased other buildings in the same general neighborhood through the Charles F. Noyes Co.

WASHINGTON ST.—Charles F. Noyes Co. sold the 6-sty office and wareroom building at the southwest corner of Washington and Desbrosses st to Katzenbach & Bullock Co., Inc., for occupancy. This firm has been located at 100 William st since 1905, and does a large business in general chemicals. The seller of the property is Theodore Burt Sayre, a prominent playwright, who has written many of the productions of Chauncey Olcott, Andrew Mack and Fiske O'Hara. The FUTURE GREAT WHITE WAY

Broadway and 8th Avenue meet at 59th Street.

In the side streets between Broadway and 8th Avenue, from 42d to 59th Street, there are Theatres, Hotels and business houses.

Eighth Avenue has been for the past 40 years the West Side's great artery.

The General Post Office and the Pennsylvania R. R. Station are on Eighth Avenue.

8th Avenue is developing, from 42d to 59th Streets, into a great amusement centre.

Theatres today are on or near 8th Avenue from 42d to 47th Streets.

The Shuberts have leased the block on the west side of 8th Avenue from 54th to 55th Street for Theatre purposes.

The future of 8th Avenue from 42d to 59th Street is assured.

Eighth Avenue will be part of The Great White Way in a few years.

There will, therefore, be a great increase in the value of this property.

There is a large amount of property on 8th Avenue and adjoining streets of the Redfern, Inc., lease on the building, to Joseph P. McHugh & Sons, dealers in furniture and interior decorations, the entire premises for a term of eleven years, with possession March 1. It is understood that the lease is at a rent of $20,000 per annum net, which represents a substaitial increase over what Redfern, Inc., paid Mrs. Ida B. Flower, the owner. Herbert Gulick Company represented Mr. Gascoigne in the sale of the Redfern lease. Joseph P. McHugh & Sons will occupy the entire building for their own business upon their removal from their present location at 7-9 West 42d street. The rental involved aggregates over $200,000.

Graphaphone Company Is Lessee.

Columbia Graphaphone Company leased from Partola Manufacturing Company for a long term, the five-story containing approximately 64,000 square feet of floor space at 113-121 West 20th street. The Graphaphone Company will make extensive improvements which they expect to have completed about June 1, 1920. The rentals and considerations aggregate $425,000. S. Osgood Pell & Company were the brokers in the transaction. The buyer, who recently purchased the northwest corner of 5th avenue and 34th street, intends to use the 20th street building for its wholesale business.

China Concern Leases.

Gilman, Collomore & Company, retailers of china and glassware, have taken a long term lease of the seven-story building to be erected by Burton S. Castles at 15 East 56th street on the site of the former Gouverneur Kortright residence. They are now located at 5th avenue and 13th street and expect to get possession of the new building by July 1. The structure will occupy a lot 25x100. The lease is understood to be for a term of twenty-one years and calls for an aggregate net rental of about $500,000.

Architect Leases Building.

John H. Scheier, architect, has leased the three four-story buildings at 749 and 751 6th avenue, and 102 West 43d street for a term of twenty-one years from March 1, from Mary Fitzsimmons. The property was recently reported leased, but Mr. Scheier gave the original lessees a profit and has assumed the responsibility. He will extensively alter the premises and occupy the upper part. The property fronts 50 feet in the avenue and 22 feet in the street.

Long-Term 34th Street Lease.

Henry Shapiro & Company leased for Harry Silverman and Joseph Meltzer to a client the two four-story buildings at 218-20 West 34th street, on lot 33.1½x98.9, for a term of twenty-one years. The property will be extensively altered into stores, lofts and apartments under the supervision of B. H. & C. N. Whinston, architects. Henry Shapiro & Company have been appointed renting agents of the property.

AMES & CO. leased for John G. Weigold to the Signal Contracting Co. the 3-sty building at 202 East 38th st for a long term of years. The Signal Contracting Co. is to erect a new building on the site for its own occupancy. The building operations will begin March 1.

REAL ESTATE NOTES.

JAMES E. TAYLOR, formerly of the firm of Du Bois & Taylor, has opened offices in the St. James Building, 1133 Broadway.

HAGGSTROM-CALLEN CO. has been appointed managing agent of the two 5-sty apartment buildings 356-58 West 51st st.

FITZHERBERT HOWELL has opened offices at 67-69 West 131st st where he will conduct a general brokerage business, specializing in colored tenement houses and private dwellings in Harlem.

E. R. ALLEN, formerly connected with the advertising department of the Brooklyn Daily Eagle and the N. Y. Times, has associated himself with the selling organization of Bulkley & Horton Co., making his headquarters at the St. Marks section office, 585 Nostrand av.

JOHN CONSTABLE MOORE, for fourteen years the senior member of the firm of Moore & Wyckoff, which firm was dissolved January 1, will remove his office to 60 East 34th st on March 1 where he will continue his general real estate business, specializing in the management of estates.

M. FRANCIS SNOWBER and R. Telfair Smith announce that the firm of Snowber & Smith will dissolve by mutual consent on March 1. Both Mr. Smith and Mr. Snowber will continue in the real estate and brokerage business on their personal account at the same address, 860 6th av, until May 1, 1920.

THE NEW YORK TITLE & MORTGAGE CO., through President Harry A. Kahler, announced that the business done by the company in January was one of the best month's records in the history of the company. The total sales of mortgages for that month reached about $2,500,000, demonstrating that the trend of the season seems to be toward conservative investing.

CORROON & DUFFY, who control the Central Fire Office, Inc., American Equitable Association, the Knickerbocker Insurance Co., and a number of marine and fire companies, are the purchasers of the 12-sty Wyllys Building at 92 William st, sold recently by the Charles F. Noyes Co. for Frederick Brown. Upon the expiration of leases the Corroon & Duffy organization will remove their various companies from 80 Maiden la, 68 William st and 56 Pine st to the new building.

LAWRENCE, BLAKE & JEWELL have obtained a building loan of $350,000 from William Henry Barnum & Co. for the erection of a 12-sty office structure on the plot at 113-15 Broad st, corner of Front st. The plot is practically square and contains over 5,000 feet. Carl Platou, an exporter and importer, is the owner. He is erecting the building to help relieve the acute demand for office space in the district south of Wall st. The general contract for the construction has been awarded to the Owners Improvement Co. Shape, Bready & Peterkin are the architects. Work will start at once and it is expected that the building will be ready for occupancy November 1, 1920. The deal involves over $800,000, including land and building.

MRS. MARY C. THOMPSON is the buyer of the Billings Estate Corporation's realty at the northeast corner of Madison av and 40th st, 34.8x175, sold last week. Mrs. Thompson bought the property subject to a mortgage of $450,000 for five years at 5 per cent. She now owns all of the Madison av frontage from 40th to 41st sts, with the exception of a 4-sty building at 295, title to which is held by the 40 East Forty-first Street Co., Charles M. Warner, president, which owns a 12-sty office structure abutting on 41st st. With the latest acquisition, Mrs. Thompson's holdings include 279 to 293 and 297 Madison av, 175 ft frontage, and a similar frontage on 40th st. Negotiations are reported pending for a lease of the entire property for an important commercial improvement.

LEGISLATIVE BILLS AFFECTING REALTY

Measures Introduced at Albany Approved or Disapproved by Real Estate Board of New York

At the regular weekly meeting of the Legislation and Taxation Committee of the Real Estate Board of New York held Wednesday, February 18, action was taken on the following bills:

Assembly Int. 418, Pr. 439, McWhinney. (Same as Senate Int. 317, Pr. 323, G. L. Thompson.) To amend the Code of Civil Procedure, in relation to limitation of action to redeem from a mortgage.

This bill is to amend Section 379 of the Code of Civil "Limitation of action to redeem from a mortgage." This Section was amended by Chapter 281 of the Laws of 1919 in effect September 1, 1919. The proposed amendment is ambiguous. It is disapproved.

Assembly Int. 496, Pr. 532, Lown. (Same as Senate Int. 364, Pr. 371, Whitley.) To amend the Code of Civil Procedure, in relation to the entry and docketing of deficiency judgments in actions for the foreclosure of mortgages.

Sention 1627 adds to sub-division 3 of the section the following: "but the plaintiff must cause the judgment against a defendant for the unsatisfied residue of such defendant to be docketed in the proper clerk's office within sixty days after the sale of the mortgaged property." The bill is approved.

Assembly Int. 438, Pr. 462, Reynaud. (Same as Senate Int. 307, Pr. 313, Lynch.) To amend the Greater New York Charter, in relation to creating the office of Park Commissioner for the Borough of Richmond.

This bill is disapproved. There are no parks on Staten Island. Silver Lake Park is the aqueduct and is not, strictly speaking, a park. The Commissioner of Manhattan can easily take care of Staten Island.

Senate Int. 279, Pr. 283, Kaplan. To amend the State Boards and Commissions Law, establishing a State Fair Trade Commission, defining its powers and duties and making an appropriation therefor.

This is a bill to interfere with and to attempt to regulate every legitimate business in the State and provide for numerous inspectors, commissioners and other employes. It is a curious fact that most of those who set out to cut down the high cost of living do it by increasing the cost of government and by making business more difficult to carry on. All such proposed acts are against natural economic laws and cannot have any successful effect.

Where personal initiative is represented, regulated beyond reason, interfered with by government agencies for political reasons, progress stops, and that community or nation so afflicted becomes no longer a factor in the growth of the world. Of this fact there are hundreds of instances since history began. On the other hand, where personal initiative is allowed its widest expression, subject only to such regulation as would prevent a man from needlessly injuring his neighbor, there results the greatest social, financial and moral progress. Natural laws must prevail, but there are those who are wiser than nature, who say that conditions are all wrong—"The law of supply and demand is a fallacy; there are no natural laws; the individual can do nothing without government supervision." They advocate socialism for both State and municipality, and have already enacted laws, fixing price control, and for the elimination of the middleman and the distributor and the substitution of the State and city in their places. The bill is disapproved.

Senate Int. 385, Pr. 397, Lockwood. To amend the Education Law, relative to medical inspection and health service in the schools of the State.

This bill amends the Education Law and provides for a very elaborate system of medical inspection and health service in all the schools of the State. The doctors who are unable to make a living by ordinary practice are constantly pushing bills providing for their appointment to the Civil Service, either through enlarged boards of health or through employment in the school system. The Real Estate Board of New York has always frowned on the practice of rendering service to one class of citizens that the State is not able and willing to render to all classes of citizens. The bill is disapproved.

Senate Int. 383, Pr. 395, Kaplan. (Same as Assembly Int. 511, Pr. 547, Mrs. Gillette.) Creating a Commission to investigate and report on the proposed Roosevelt memorials, and making an appropriation therefor.

This is apparently an attempt to get through a proposition to give somebody a place. It is not necessary that such a Commission be appointed, and the money would be merely wasted. The bill is disapproved.

Assembly Int. 446, Pr. 473, Gempler. To amend the Tax Law, in relation to assessments of real property on which rents are reserved or received in cities of over one million population.

This measure proposes to add to the Tax Law a new section providing that leased or rented property shall be assessed at a rate not less than ten times the amount of the rents derived therefrom. The bill also authorizes assessors to examine property owners and "any other person" for the purpose of determining the amount of such rents.

The theory upon which this bill proceeds is that the taxable value of a parcel of real property should be ten times the amount of the gross rents annually derived therefrom, but the measure does not specify whether the basis of the computation shall be the amount of rents received monthly or annually. In this of course, the bill is fatally defective. But there is a more substantial objection to the enactment of the proposition. Doubtless its proponent realizes that if the return from an investment in real property is arbitrarily fixed by law at less than 6 per cent. the effect of such legislation will be to discourage the provision of additional housing facilities. Considering the existing tax rate, the prevailing cost of repairs and other maintenance charges and a fair allowance for depreciation, it is common experience that the net return from a leased building does not average more than 5 per cent. upon a valuation equal to ten times the amount of the gross rents annually derived therefrom.

No doubt the effect of the pending measure would be to increase taxes materially upon real property, which would operate to cause increases in rents to correspond. These additional burdens would fall heavily upon the already overburdened shoulders of tenants holding under verbal agreements as monthly tenants or from month to month. The bill is disapproved.

Assembly Int. 508, Pr. 544, Lee. (Same as Senate Int. 386, Pr. 398, Gibbs.) Concurrent Resolution of the Senate and Assembly. Proposing an amendment to Sections twenty-one and twenty-two of Article three and Section nine of Article four of the Constitution, in relation to the establishment of a budget system.

This proposition is well drafted and would carry into effect an important feature of Governor Smith's reconstruction program which has already received the approval of the Real Estate Board. The resolution is approved.

Assembly Int. 509, Pr. 545, Lee. (Same as Senate Int. 387, Pr. 399, Gibbs.) Concurrent Resolution of the Senate and Assembly. Proposing an amendment to Section one of Article four of the Constitution, in relation to the term of office of the Governor.

This is a concurrent resolution proposing a constitutional amendment extending the terms of office of the Governor and Lieutenant Governor to four years.

This proposition is included in Governor Smith's reconstruction program. It is one of the few features of the program in which the Real Estate Board felt that it could not concur. The resolution is disapproved.

Assembly Int. 510, Pr. 546, Lee. (Same as Senate Int. 388, Pr. 400, Gibbs.) Concurrent Resolution of the Senate and Assembly. Proposing amendments to Article five, and Sections eleven, twelve, fourteen and fifteen of Article eight of the Constituton, in relation to State officers and departments, and the visitation, inspection and administration of charitable, correctional and other institutions.

This is a concurrent resolution proposing constitutional amendments to:

1. Eliminate the Secretary of State, Attorney General and State Engineer and Surveyor from the list of elective State officers.
2. Extend the term of office of the Comptroller to four years and reduce his jurisdiction to the functions of auditing and accounting.
3. Create nineteen departments of the State, the head of which, except as otherwise provided by the Constitution, to be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate and to be removable by him in his discretion.
4. Authorize the Legislature at the session following the adoption of the amendments to organize and establish the jurisdiction of the several departments so created.
5. Extend the jurisdiction of the State Board of Charities to include private institutions.
6. Create a Commission on Mental Hygiene.
7. Create a Council of Correction to visit and inspect all institutions for the custody of juveniles charged or convicted of crime as well as institutions for the detention of adults under sentence or awaiting sentence for crime.

The foregoing propositions are comprised within the Governor's reconstruction program, which has in the main been approved by the Real Estate Board of New York except in relation to the elimination of the Attorney General from the list of elective officers. The Real Estate Board feels very strongly that the office of Attorney General, in the interest of good government and impartial, untrammeled exercise of the functions of that office, be continued on the elective list. This feature of the resolution is therefore disapproved.

Conference on Concrete Construction Discusses Housing

Architects, Engineers, Manufacturers and Affiliated Interests Plan Greater Use of Concrete in Meeting Existing Structural Demand

THE National Conference on Concrete Construction, held in the Auditorium Hotel, Chicago, February 17 to 19, was one of the most successful and significant gatherings in the history of the building industry. Approximately five hundred delegates were in attendance at the various sessions of the conference, a number of whom were from Canada. One of the outstanding features of this meeting was the contributions to constructive thought on the national housing problem. The gathering developed into vastly more than a convention devoted to the interests of the concrete industry, and from the opening to the closing sessions the proceedings were pitched on the plane of general welfare of the nation and the construction industry. It was a convention in which relatively little was said about profits, but which brought out numerous points of service, improved quality and that character of self-interest which realizes that the sure way to benefit the individual industry is to broaden the service and improve the products of all industry.

Ernest T. Trigg, president of the National Federation of Construction Industries, opened the conference, and upon being made permanent chairman made a brief address, reviewing the prevailing construction conditions, complimenting the conference on the ideal of service and altruistic effort it proposed to serve.

Hon. William M. Calder, who was scheduled to be the first speaker on the program, was unable to attend, but he sent a message to the conference in which he said:

"I am in accord with the purpose of this conference to bring about a more efficient use of cement, one of the most essential building materials, and I trust that the example of the progressive cement industry may be followed by the clay products industry, the lumber industry and the tile industry, manufacturers of plumbing goods, elevators, etc., in speedily meeting to consider methods of standardization of their products and possible usese of their by-products, for it is chiefly through the more efficient use of building materials and through the standardization of building construction that it may be possible to reduce the cost of building which is otherwise dependent upon freight, fuel and labor rates. It is to be hoped that a more adequate system of long-term credits may soon be devised which will restore to the building industry adequate financial resources."

John Glass, of the Manufacturers' Record, discussed the "Housing Need from the Viewpoint of Industry," and LeRoy K. Sherman, president of the U. S. Housing Corporation, who was unable to attend on account of illness, sent a letter to the convention in which he discussed the housing problem, the question of rents, and set out some of the experiences of the Government in its war housing projects.

Fred W. Lumis, building commissioner of Springfield, Mass., in a paper, "The Status of the Concrete House as Regards Building Codes," made an informing condensation of the building codes of various important cities as they applied to concrete construction.

The high cost of construction, building material prices and the financial situation as it bears on the lack of availability of money for building and construction investments, was discussed by Thomas S. Holden, chief statistician for the F. W. Dodge Company.

Tuesday evening an informal joint dinner was served in the Auditorium Hotel which was attended by delegates from affiliated organizations in convention at Chicago.

General Building Strike Threatened by Union Leaders

Workmen To Be Ordered Out Unless Iron League Erectors' Association Recedes From Its Open Shop Declaration

DESPITE the peace agreement of the latter part of 1919 which was concluded between the Building Trade Employers' Association and the Building Trades' Council, representing more than 100,000 workmen engaged in the various trades identified with the building industry in Greater New York, structural progress is now threatened by another labor crisis that will halt construction on a number of important building operations.

Five strikes are now in force on building projects in New York, the result of the open-shop controversy between the Iron League Erectors' Association, a member of the Building Trade Employers' Association, and the Building Trades' Council, composed of unions in the building trades. Although these strikes have been directed against the Iron League Erectors' Association, which refuses to recognize an agreement to the closed shop made by the Board of Governors of the Building Trades Employers' Association, the chief sufferers have been the employers in other trades whose unions have called sympathetic strikes. They are, however, helpless, as by an agreement with the Building Trades' Council they have acquiesced in the right of sympathetic strikes. In addition to this, where strikes have been called the owners have sided with the Iron League and the open-shop principle.

Recognition of the iron workers' union is the only question in this controversy, as the members of the association are now paying non-union workmen from $1.10 to $1.25 an hour with the union scale at $1 an hour. The open-shop advocates point as an example to Chicago, where 100 per cent. unionization has been accomplished. Although an agreement for $1 an hour exists until the summer of 1920, a strike is said to be fomenting now for $1.50 an hour.

A number of erectors outside of the Iron League complain that they are unable to obtain fabricated material if they employ union workers. As to this, Walter Drew, counsel for the Iron League Erectors' Association, says: "The attitude the companies outside this market are taking is their own affair and in most cases I am not informed or advised upon it." Mr. Drew points out that under present conditions, should the fabricators sell to these erectors, they would many times be forced to abandon old customers to sell to erectors hostile to their policy of open shop.

Alleging that the terms of the recent agreement have been violated by the members of the Iron League Erectors' Association who have stood by their open-shop manifesto, notwithstanding the repeated demands of the union representatives for a closed shop, the Building Trades' Council suggested to the Building Trades Employers' Association that unless this matter is speedily settled or the Iron League Erectors' Association expelled from the organization of employers, a general strike of all workers in the building trades will be called.

Specifically, the erectors' association is charged with failure to abide by the terms of the peace agreement which became effective January 1, 1920, and which provided that only union men should be employed. The Iron League Erectors' Association issued an open-shop declaration at the time the terms of peace were under discussion and the feeling was general that this matter was fully understood.

Action of the Building Trades' Council in forcing the expulsion of the Iron League Erectors' Association will not solve the present problem, however, as the union organization has already called a strike on jobs on which the steel erectors are employing non-union workmen.

Complicating the situation at this time is the decision of the Building Trades Council to prevent the placing of material around the steel erected by members of the Iron League Erectors' Association with non-union workmen, and this would mean that such building projects now under construction might remain unfinished indefinitely.

The recommendation of the Building Trades' Council was given to the Building Trades Employers' Association at a lengthy meeting of the committees representing both of these organizations. The committee representing the employers was headed by Charles J. Kelly and Robert P. Brindell, president of the Building Trades Council, was chairman of the committee looking after the interests of the union workmen. At the present time there has been no breach between the representatives of employers and the trade unions, and it is anticipated that this matter will be adjusted without open hostility that would be a serious setback to the anticipated building revival next spring.

Up to the present time there has been no change in the strike of the bricklayers. Negotiations are under way looking toward the settlement of this controversy, but the demands of the union cannot be submitted to arbitration unless the workmen return to their jobs.

Nicholas J. Hayes, Commissioner of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity, in urging upon all householders the need for stopping the waste of water, is seeking the active co-operation of every property owner.

"During the winter," he said, "people let their faucets run to prevent freezing of pipes. This would not be so serious if it were done intelligently, but where a small stream would accomplish the purpose, the occupant of the house often has several faucets running full force, and fails to turn off the flow when the severe weather ceases. Early in January the waste of water from this cause was over 50,000,000 gallons per day, which at meter rates would represent some $7,000 a day waste. Most of this is unnecessary, but the department cannot stop it. The people can if they will."

The Architectural League of New York opened its thirty-fifth annual exhibition in the Fine Arts Building, 215 West Fifty-seventh street, Friday, February 27, to continue until March 14. This exhibition, which was originally scheduled to commence January 30, was unavoidably postponed on account of the disastrous fire that occurred in the Fine Arts Building on the day prior to the formal opening, and it has been only by herculean effort on the part of the committee in charge of this event and the members of the league that an exposition was made possible this year.

The Portland cement industry is showing speedy recovery from the war setback of 1918. Preliminary estimates compiled by the Geological Survey indicate that the production and shipments of Portland cement in 1919 increased 13 and 21 per cent. respectively over those in 1918 and that the stocks decreased 52 per cent., so that at the end of 1919 less than 5,000,000 barrels of Portland cement were in stock at the mills.

Large Projects Planned for New Jersey Coast Resorts

Hotels, Boarding Houses, Theatres and Many Other Structures Included in Anticipated Building Revival

NEW JERSEY coast resorts are anticipating one of the busiest building seasons on record, and unless all current signs fail the active construction will be started on a large number of important operations within the next month or six weeks, weather conditions permitting. Long Branch, Asbury Park, Deal Beach, Bradley Beach, Spring Lake and Atlantic City, all of which have experienced a steadily growing popularity as vacation resorts during the past few years, have now come to the realization that additional hotel facilities, boarding houses, private dwellings and numerous community buildings, such as stores, theatres, etc., are essential to the proper development of these localities. For some time past architects and engineers of New York, as well as local professional talent, have been engaged upon the preparation of plans for new construction of this character.

Froling & Holler, Architects.
PROPOSED HOTEL BRADLEY AT ASBURY PARK.

The construction of modern hotels embodying all of the usual resort features will be one of the predominating features of the expected building movement. At Asbury Park a group of capitalists have recently obtained an option on a prominent beach front property that in all probability will be utilized as the site for a large all-year hotel that will be constructed at a cost exceeding $1,000,000. This hostelry will be known as the Hotel Bradley and will be erected from plans and specifications prepared by Froling & Holler, architects, 150 Nassau street, New York City.

The preliminary plans for this project were outlined by S. Heilner Calvert at the recent annual dinner of the Asbury Park Chamber of Commerce, and the ready response from the one hundred and fifty members and guests present indicated that this operation would be well supported and would be as fully successful from a business standpoint as have the other modern hotel structures that were erected during the past ten years.

According to the tentative plans, the Hotel Bradley will contain four hundred bedrooms, each with private bath, and will have broad verandas, spacious lounges, public and private dining rooms, billiard room, swimming pool and a large number of other features that will make this hotel one of the best equipped along the New Jersey coast. It has been announced that this hotel will be under the direct management of A. A. Schneider, formerly the manager of the Hotel Astor in New York and will cater to the highest class of patronage.

Up to this time only the tentative plans for this project have been developed by the architects, but in discussing the operation with them they said that the preliminary arrangements had been practically concluded and that work upon the working drawings and specifications would be started within a few days, so as to hasten the time when active building operations could be commenced. It is hoped to have this building completed and ready for occupancy early in the spring of 1921.

Brooklyn Realty Brokers Act on Pending Legislation

THE committee on Legislation and Taxation of the Brooklyn Board of Real Estate Brokers opposes the bill in the Legislature, extending from twenty to thirty days the notice a tenant must receive in dispossess cases. The report says: "Twenty days in addition to court delays and adjournments, as usually given, more often results in sixty days' notice than it does in twenty days' notice."

The committee desires more information on the proposed resolution giving the Board of Aldermen power to consolidate and abolish City Departments. The resolution also gives the Board of Estimate power to fix salaries. It abolishes the "Department of Markets," of "Parole Commission" and "Board of Inebriety" and places under the controller the collection of all taxes, assessments and water rates.

The committee is decidedly in sympathy with the report of the Reconstruction Commission in the reorganization of the State Government. The report continues:

"Probably the most importat matter referred to your committee was a draft of a bill to amend the real property law and provide for the licensing and regulating of real estate brokers and salesmen.

"It goes far in our opinion toward putting the real estate salesman in the position that the apprentice was a generation ago, when he was bound out to service. We advise careful study of this bill on the part of the members of the Board and that the bill be given the support of the Board, subject to further study and amendment.

"Your committee has given considerable consideration to six measures introduced by Senator Charles C. Lockwood. At least three of these measures seem to your committee to be open to serious question. One of these is a bill providing for repeal of the law of 1918 and again gives validity to the so-called 'implied leases.' The former law did not work well and we see no reason for its re-enactment. A tenant should either have a written lease from the owner or party controlling any building or else should be considered a tenant, from month to month. We can not see any hardship in such a provision."

Ten cities having an aggregate population of approximately 100,000, have come under the commissioner-manager system of municipal government during the past three months. The largest of these are Muskegon, Mich., with 25,500 population; Lynchburg, Va., with 21,830, and Newport News, Va., with 20,000. The smaller communities adopting this form include West Palm Beach, Sanford and Tallahassee, in Florida; Pittsburg, Cal., and Walters, Okla. There are in the United States more than one hundred and sixty cities now being governed under the commissioner-manager system. Of these more than fifty are cities having a population of 10,000 or more.

Outlook Excellent for Increased Residential Building

Weekly Figures of F. W. Dodge Company Show Improvement in Volume of Construction Planned for Domestic Use

OWING to the prevailing conditions in the building industry it is but natural that the statistics for the past week or so should indicate a slight falling off in the volume of new building and engineering projects in the preliminary stages of activity. The decrease, however, is not great and it is certain that just as soon as weather conditions improve that a corresponding improvement will be noticeable in the totals of projected construction and in new contracts awarded.

According to the figures prepared by the F. W. Dodge Company for the seventh week of 1920, including new building and engineering construction in New York State and New Jersey, north of Trenton, it is shown that during the week of February 14 to 20, inclusive, reports were obtained from architects covering a total of 389 new projects that will involve an outlay of $16,871,800. During the same period and in the same territory 185 contracts for building and engineering operations representing a total value of $8,580,700 were awarded.

In the group of contemplated projects residential buildings again lead in both number and valuation with 161 operations costing approximately $6,223,500. Proposed business and commercial projects occupied second place in the list with 112 operations valued at $3,972,500.

Among the 389 operations reported in the early stages of progress there were 112 business and commercial jobs such as stores, offices, lofts, etc., $3,972,500; 7 educational buildings, $488,000; 3 hospitals and institutions, $215,000; 50 factory and industrial projects, $3,122,00; 2 naval and military buildings, $125,000; 4 public buildings, $156,000; 37 public works and public utilities, $1,133,500; 1 religious project, $15,000; 161 residential operations including apartments, flats and tenements and one and two family dwellings, $6,223,500 and 12 social and recreational buildings, $1,421,300.

The list of 185 operations for which contracts were awarded during the week of February 14 to 20, inclusive, involved 54 business projects, $1,692,000; 4 educational buildings, $729,000; 2 hospitals and institutions, $90,000; 27 factory and industrial buildings, $2,871,000; 1 structure for the army, $8,000; 4 public buildings, $61,000; 13 public works and public utilities, $796,200; 79 residential operations of various types, $2,327,000, and 1 social and recreational project, $6,500.

PERSONAL AND TRADE NOTES.

Benjamin Sackheim, formerly connected with the New York City Fire Department, has formed a partnership with A. Brook, under the firm name of Brook & Sackheim, architects, with offices at 215 Montague street, Brooklyn.

Beverly R. Value, of George W. Rogers & Co., was recently elected president of the General Contractors' Association of New York City. Other officers elected included Frederick L. Cranford, first vice-president; Walter J. Drummond, second vice-president, and C. A. Nicklas, treasurer.

Plant Engineering & Equipment Co., Inc., New York, manufacturer of value steam traps, condensation meters and other power and heating specialties, announces the opening of its twenty-sixth office to care for the increasing demands for its products. M. William Ehrlich, experienced in consulting and contracting engineering, will be the New Jersey manager in charge, with headquarters at Newark, N. J., and a sub-office at Lyndhurst, N. J.

Turner Construction Company, following the announcement at its recent annual dinner that all employes would be insured under the group plan, has just delivered life insurance policies with premiums paid to all employes who have been with the company for one year or more. The amount of insurance is $500 after continuous employment of one year, plus $100 for each additional year of employment until a maximum of $2,000 has been reached. The policy contains a disability clause which provides that the policy becomes payable to the insured in monthly or weekly payments in the event of permanent and total disability before the age of sixty. A visiting nurse service is maintained by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., the insuring company, in New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Buffalo. A nurse will call upon request and help carry out the instructions of the attending doctor and render whatever other service is required at the time of the call.

General Fireproofing Co., Youngstown, Ohio, has begun the manufacture of structural steel of a heavier grade than has heretofore been made, thereby entering the production of what is known as "metal lumber." Output at present consists of steel I-beams rolled and formed in a plant at Massillon, Ohio. The beams are rolled as strip steel and formed cold. After forming they are shipped to the fireproofing company's plant at Youngstown, where they are cut to required sizes and lugs riveted on. Use of metal "timbers" of this kind is growing, replacing wood to a large extent in buildings where it is not desired to use I-beams rolled hot. The cold-rolled beams are lighter than the old fashioned hot rolled structural steel and are more durable than wood. The cold former I-beams are described as being from 4 to 10 inches in depth, perfectly rigid and capable of carrying heavy loads. This production will not result in a new department, but is being handled as a development of established processes.

Architects Appoint Legislative Committee. The New York State Association of Architects has appointed the following Legislative Committee for the year 1920: Thomas F. Gleason, chairman, Albany; John H. Scheier, New York City (reappointed); Alexander Selkirk, Albany; Robert North, Buffalo; Edward Loth, Troy; Edward S. Gordon, Rochester; Frederick H. Gouge, Ithaca; Gordon Wright, Syracuse; Harry Haskell, Elmira; Carl C. Tallman, Auburn; Harry R. Tiqany, Binghamton; Addison F. Lansing, Watertown. A meeting of the committee has been called for this afternoon at the Albany Club, 102 State street, Albany, to confer with the State Board for the Registration of Architects, for the purpose of discussing the law and its proposed amendment.

Martin Joost.

Martin Joost, vice-president of the Bond & Mortgage Guarantee Company, a director in the Title Guarantee & Trust Company, the Franklin Trust Company, the Home Life Insurance Company, and represented on a number of boards of other financial institutions, died Tuesday night at his residence, 40 Monroe place, of an attack of heart failure. He was 77 years old. Mr. Joost is survived by his wife, Mrs. Frances Joost, and two sons, both married.

Mr. Joost was born in Williamsburgh and started out in life as a clerk in the old Williamsburgh Savings Bank, in which instituton he later became an officer. He then left the bank and became a financier and real estate operator. Mr. Joost was a benefactor of the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences, of which he was a trustee, and had presented several paintings to that institution. He was also a director of the Brooklyn Academy of Music and the Long Island Historical Society. He was a director of the Brooklyn Warehouse & Storage Company, the City Real Estate Company, the Franklin Trust Company, the Home Life Insurance Company of New York, the New York Investors Corporation, the Realty Associates and the Union Ferry Company of New York and Brooklyn. He was also a trustee of the Brooklyn Savings Bank, the Franklin Safe Deposit Company and the Title Guarantee & Trust Company. He belonged to the Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce and the Hamilton Club.

TRADE AND TECHNICAL SOCIETY EVENTS.

National Wholesale Lumber Dealers' Association will hold its annual meeting at Washington, D. C., March 24 and 25.

National Federation of Construction Industries will hold its annual meeting and convention at the Hotel Sherman, Chicago, Ill., March 25 and 26.

National Wholesale Lumber Dealers' Association will hold its annual convention at the New Willard Hotel, Washington, D. C., March 25 and 26.

American Society of Mechanical Engineers.—Monthly meeting the second Tuesday of each month. Calvin W. Rice, secretary, 29 West 39th street.

Associated Manufacturers of Electrical Supplies will hold their annual convention in New York City, March 18. Details and program will be announced later.

Associated Manufacturers of Electrical Supplies will hold their fifth annual meeting at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, March 18, at which time officers for the ensuing year will be elected. In the evening the annual banquet of the organization will be held.

American Association of Engineers will hold its sixth annual convention at St. Louis, Mo., May 10-11. Secretary, C. E. Drayer, 63 East Adams street, Chicago, Ill. Programs for the various sessions of this convention are now being prepared and a number of interesting papers will be presented.

American Institute of Architects will hold its quarterly meeting at the Robert Treat Hotel, Newark, N. J., March 5-6. Three business sessions will be held the first day, and the regular dinner the second day. The representatives of the National ofganization will be entertained by the local chapter. Secretary Hugh Roberts is now arranging the program. The housing crisis will be one of the subjects discussed.

CURRENT BUILDING OPERATIONS

CHANGE in the local building situation has been extremely slight this week and none is anticipated while the streets remain snow-congested and the labor situation is doubtful. There is a tremendous volume of new construction already planned and that under ordinary conditions would go ahead without further delay but owners are not willing to commit themselves to contracts and have no definite assurance that their operations will not be halted indefinitely after they are begun.

Naturally the building material markets are dull and colorless. The demand for building materials and supplies has dropped off considerably from the rate of a month or so ago but this condition is the result of the recent spell of bad weather that made practically all outside work on buildings impossible. There is a lot of new inquiry developing and dealers generally are of the opinion that the coming spring months will be a time of unusual activity for them. The only doubt in their minds at this time is whether there will be supplies available to fill the requirements of the building industry. At this writing there is a decided scarcity in some lines, namely nails, window glass, etc., and although there is a sufficient quantity of common brick in sight for all demands there is likely to be some difficulty in obtaining needed hollow tile, structural steel and other essentials. Prices are generally firm and with a continued rising tendency but it is hoped that the top-most levels are about reached and that some slight recessions will be announced before long.

Common Brick.—Owing to the prevailing weather conditions and the continued strike of the bricklayers, demand for this commodity has been very light and as a consequence the local wholesale market has been proctically without activity. Hudson River brick prices are holding firmly at $25 a thousand wholesale, alongside dock in cargo lots. Brick dealers are quite optimistic for the future, however, and are looking forward to a great increase in demand during the spring months. At the present time there is no prospect of a brick shortage. There is sufficient brick readily available throughout the city for all possible demands before the river is again open to tows and a quantity of brick in reserve at the plants that will satisfy all requirements until new brick is available next season.

Summary.—Transactions in the North River common brick market for the week ending Friday, February 27, 1920. Condition of market: Demand extremely light; prices firm and unchanged. Quotations: Hudson River, $25 a thousand and to dealers in cargo lots alongside dock. Number of cargoes arrived, none; sales, 1. Distribution: Manhattan, 1.

Lumber. — Market conditions have changed but slightly during the past week. The demand for all lumber products in both wholesale and retail departments of trade is considerably in excess of the available supply and dealers are not optimistic that conditions will materially improve for some time to come. Railroad embargoes have halted the arrival of new supplies from mill points and the intolerable condition of the city streets has prevented deliveries from the local yards. Prices are very firm and no recession is in sight as the majority of the wholesalers are sold ahead for some months. It is now generally admitted that lumber prices have about reached their top level and some predictions have been made that slight recessions from the current levels will occur during the current year but not for at least six months. The scarcity of labor has been responsible for a shortage of logs and this in return has kept the supply at its low ebb.

Structural Steel.—There has been some improvement in buying interest during the past week and some important contracts were booked for fabricated material scheduled for operations in the Metropolitan district. As a gereral thing, however, deliveries will not be made for some months ahead and it is hoped that by the time this material is on the jobs that the difficulties between the Iron League Erectors' Association and the union will be settled and the various projects permitted to proceed without further hindrance. Among the contracts for local building operations were included the following: Bethlehem Steel Co., 6,100 tons for six city piers at Staten Island; Bethlehem Fabricators, 400 tons for the addition to the Bowling Green Building, and Hinkle Iron Co., 225 tons for a laboratory building and boiler house for New York University. Electrical Supplies.—The demand has dropped to some extent and as the recent inclement weather conditions have caused a temporary stoppage of construction, the local delivery situation is getting caught up. Railway embargoes in the East are responsible for keeping raw materials from the manufacturers and finished products in the warehouses. General shortage is experienced in wiring materials and in a number of auxiliary devices. Prices have recently been advanced upon a number of items including flexible armored conduit, rigid conduit, non-metallic flexible conduit, metal moulding, etc.

Roofing and Building Papers.—Demand continues brisk and there is every evidence of greater requirements during the early spring months. There is an acute scarcity of these materials that might possibly cause some inconvience to builders in the future unless the supply is materially increased. During the past week prices were again advanced and the new quotations are as follows: Tar paper, 1 ply, $2.95; 2 ply, $2.05, and 3 ply, $2.50. Rubber roofing paper, 1 ply, $2.90; 2 ply, $3.50, and 3 ply, $4.10. Sheathing paper, 25lb roll, $1.75; 30lb roll, $2.30.

Cast Iron Pipe.—The market has strengthened somewhat and manufacturers are somewhat inclined to select their business. There has been a decided improvement in municipal business and substantial orders have recently been booked from gas and water companies. Prices are firm and unchanged with New York quotations as follows: 6 in. and heavier, $70.30; 4 in., $73.30, with $2 additional for class A and gas pipe.

Nails.—The nail situation has experienced but slight change during the past week and the scarcity is expected to continue until there is a general improvement in the steel situation. At the present writing there is no base price for nails in the New York market and every sale is entirely dependent upon conditions at the time the order is taken. The scarcity in both cut and wire nails is said to be the most conspicuous shortage in the entire hardware market and the prospect of early relief is exceedingly slight.

Linseed Oil.—The market is dull and no important changes are anticipated. Although there has been but little buying activity, the producers are busy making deliveries on contracts. Prices are somewhat easier than they have been but are likely to increase with an improvement in the demand next spring.

Economy and Service

The success of a hotel depends largely upon the combination of maximum service rendered and minimum operating costs

The first can be accomplished by systematic organization; the second, by Central Station Service

As evidence of the second, the private generating plant in the Hotel Woodward, Broadway at 55th Street, was "closed-down" after an engineering study had showed that Edison Service would save several thousands of dollars annually

The installation will include 3000 lamps and 125 horsepower. Among the hotel appliances which will be operated electrically is a ten ton refrigerating plant

The list of hotels and apartments operating upon Edison Service is a long one, and the number is rapidly increasing

Architects and Engineers are specifying and demanding

STEELBILT

in preference to those made of ordinary materials.

STEEL has exclusive advantages It is non-absorbent and therefore sanitary. It does not crack; in fact, is indestructible. It has a neat, clean appearance. Costs less than other substances and is more easily and economically erected. It is the logical material.

STEELBILT Toilet Partitions are made in standard sizes, some of which are carried in stock for quick delivery. Partitions and doors are made in units, of sizes to suit any plan layout.

Write Dept. "R" for full particulars and a copy of our architects' specification sheet.

Unlike other Building Units, Artificial Stone is a NON-CONDUCTOR of DAMPNESS, COLD and HEAT. It reduces building costs and expedites construction. A wide variety of facing effects produced with crushed granite, marble, brownstone, Indiana limestone, carborundum, etc., makes it a sightly stone for every type of structure and its durability insures the lowest possible maintenance cost.

We court investigation of the most searching kind, and are always pleased to go over the subject in greater detail with anyone interested in building for permanence, beauty and economy.

DISTINCTIVE MARBLE WORK

OUR facilities for supplying marble and executing contracts with promptness and dispatch are exceptional. We specialize in the interior marble work and use only the most carefully selected marble, of which we have a large stock constantly on hand—imported as well as domestic. We have executed contracts for marble in many prominent structures, and shall be glad to send you a partial list of these on request.

MAY WE HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO WORK WITH YOU ON YOUR NEXT UNDERTAKING?

When in doubt, always use tile for walls, floors, stairways, etc. The first cost may be a trifle more than that of other perhaps insanitary, unattractive and commonplace materials, but the final cost is far lower. And who can accurately estimate the moral effect and the increased efficiency due to bright, sanitary tile in — for instance — a modern industrial plant?

The Temptation

Dr. Frank Crane in his editorial in the "Globe" the other night writes as follows:

> "The temptation now is to squander, with the rest of the crowd who are whirling along in a mad dance of extravagance. And if you have sense and stamina enough to resist this temptation and lay by your extra earnings you are going to enjoy yourself hugely some future day when many people will be out in the rain."

This is good advice and we have the medium by which you can do the saving.

Our First Mortgage Certificates provide an investment that is absolutely safe and that brings you a good rate of interest.

These Certificates provide equally well for the savings of the workingman, the bank clerk or the millionaire. The rate is the same to all.

The payment of principal and interest is guaranteed by the Bond & Mortgage Guarantee Company. These Certificates are for sale at any of our offices and your interest begins on the day we get your money.

Confusion at Albany

In its Albany correspondence in this issue the Record and Guide shows to what extent self-appointed regulators of housing and rentals are running wild at the State Capitol. Never in the history of the state, it is brought out, has there been such a flood of legislation affecting realty and building as now awaits the action of the Legislature.

Under these circumstances it is not surprising that so little progress was made at the public hearing before the Assembly Committees on Cities and Taxation Wednesday. This important hearing had been anticipated as an opportunity for such an exchange of views as might result in the formation of a comprehensive plan to solve the housing problem, especially in the metropolis. Not only was that desirable result not accomplished, but the hearing was marked by unfortunate accusations and so much loose talk as to have made any substantial progress possible. After the hearing it was evident that some of the legislative leaders believe the rental problem can be solved by the creation of another commission. But those who favor this plan can hardly be regarded as closely in touch with the times. There have been so many commissions to investigate this and to regulate that, so many suggestions from official and unofficial bodies offering panaceas for every ill from which the public suffers as a result of the war that a good many people seem to be having difficulty in keeping their feet on the ground and in keeping their minds functioning along logical lines. The Albany hearing demonstrated once again that hysteria, instead of sound common sense, still predominates in various quarters.

Governor Smith and the members of the Legislature, however, are the officials who will have to assume final responsibility for whatever legislation is enacted at Albany this winter to meet the housing and rental problems. These officials should not yield to the hysterical outbursts of those citizens who, no matter how good their intentions may be, follow the policy of talking loudly and long while deferring their thinking until a more convenient time.

No progress, no helpful legislation as to housing or rentals can be expected from Albany until the state officials fully realize and act with the understanding that these present-day troubles are basic. Mr. John L. Parish summarized the situation with commendable clarity when he declared at the hearing: "You are trying to cure the economic law of supply and demand by the artificial limitations of legislation." The simple fact of the matter is that in New York City there is a shortage of housing for about one million of the city's population. This shortage is mainly due to the cessation of building during the war. No. permanent relief can be expected until building has been resumed on so large a scale as to make up for the housing shortage. When that is done the rental problem will take care of itself.

The thing that is necessary, and the only thing that will effect any permanent relief, is the enactment of legislation which will make it possible and desirable for savings banks, title companies, insurance companies and other great organizations to make building loans on a large scale. Various plans to accomplish this object have been offered at Albany and to these measures the Legislature ought to give its earnest consideration. It was made plain at Wednesday's hearing that too much attention is being given to "rent profiteering" as a subject for emotional talk and not enough attention to the vital basic principles which underlie the existing situation and through which alone can any permanent relief be obtained.

Return of the Railroads

President Wilson, in signing the Cummins-Esch bill returning the railroads to their owners, took one of the most important of the many steps necessary to restore industrial conditions to a peace basis. It cannot be doubted that right up to the eleventh hour there were many misgivings that the President might once again yield to the threats of the railroad brotherhoods and interpose a veto. Fortunately, Mr. Wilson analyzed correctly the probabilities of the situation. Just as soon as he had made it clear to the brotherhood leaders that he regarded the interests of the general public as paramount in the matter, the brotherhoods promptly dropped their talk of causing a general railroad strike. Sentiment against such a strike is clearly so strong that even most of the brotherhood leaders themselves recognize it.

With the return of the railroads to private management there comes a feeling of relief and hope for shippers and for those who travel. Government management of the railroads, necessary as it was during the war, demonstrated its many shortcomings. Despite very heavy increases in freight and passenger rates, and despite deterioration in roadbeds, rolling stock and all other equipment the roads were operated by the government at a loss of millions upon millions. How long it will take the experienced managers of the nation's railroads to restore their systems to normal it is a difficult question to answer. But government operation did not end a moment too soon.

Difficult days have come to the heads of the various railroad systems in the taking back of control. They know what conditions they must meet for a period of six months. Beyond that time they are confronted with uncertainty, but they will have the friendly cooperation of the shipping and traveling public in their efforts to bring order out of the chaos which government operation created. Already they have under way plans for the purchase of new rolling stock and other equipment on a large scale.

The rehabilitation of the American railroads undoubtedly will be effected as quickly as possible by the experienced officials who have just been restored to authority. But the public should keep in mind the fact that these railroad executives have assumed a stupendous task.

Great Disposal Sale of Properties in "Heart of New York"

NEXT Tuesday, March 9, the great real estate investing public of New York will have the first opportunity in the last 100 years to obtain convincing evidence of the "rock-bottom" value of the real estate in the Times Square section—the "Heart of New York" purchased by the original John Jacob Astor, in the 18th Century, at a time when this outlying section of New York was known as Eden "farm."

The sale is to be conducted in the Astor Hotel, beginning at 11.00 in the morning, by J. Clarence Davies and Joseph P. Day, agents and auctioneers, and involves the disposal of 141 parcels located between 45th and 52nd streets, 6 and 12th avenues, including several theatres, a number of dwellings, tenements with and without stores, several factory buildings, a half dozen vacant parcels, and a number of leaseholds.

As the sale is to be absolute, without reservation, the prices obtained actually will represent the "rock bottom" valuations of property in the many streets and avenues in which the various Astor properties are located. These include 45th, 46th, 47th, 48th, 49th, 50th, 51st, 52nd streets, Broadway, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th avenues, also the isolated parcel at No. 704 Third avenue, adjoining the N. W. cor. of 44th street.

The Astor, Bijou and Morosco Theatre sites are listed to be sold, and, in addition, a large number of valuable corners, improved and unimproved, in and adjacent to the new, and influential 1,000 feet pier zone on the Hudson River front.

This first public auction sale of the Astor family holdings is most opportune, as viewed by the Broadway merchant, the real estate operator and investor, as it brings into the market a large amount of centrally located real estate, at the moment when the supply of neighborhood property available for purchase is at the lowest level in many years, while the demand for properties located in and adjacent to the "Astor Zone" is now at the high water mark.

This lack of supply and volume of demand has arisen largely from the fact of the tremendous inflow of traffic due to the diagonal route of Broadway and the fact that the "Great White Way" is fed by 7th avenue at 42nd, by 8th avenue at 59th street, by 6th avenue at 34th street and by 5th avenue at 23rd street. Traffic flows into it constantly, night and day, from these four great arteries, and is distributed in every direction at 42nd street, the hub of the city's transit system.

Because of these conditions, a feature of the Astor Estate sale is the large number of properties located in, and immediately adjacent to 8th avenue, where recently there has developed a decided buying movement, principally of avenue sites for new theatres, stores, etc., and of side street sites for apartments, studios, hotels and business structures.

This movement is strictly in keeping with the ultra-strong demand for Broadway property with stores and offices at considerably advanced rentals, and only a very limited amount of space to be let. Business men and merchants, in casting about for locations at reasonable rentals, have been attracted to 8th avenue, where the Shuberts recently acquired the westerly block front from 54th to 55th street, and where the old Walton store block, from 51st to 52nd street, also changed hands within the last six weeks. Two of the principal factors in the development of this westerly movement of the theatrical and business interests have been the Pennsylvania Station and the General Post Office, both of which have operated to direct a large amount of traffic northward in 8th avenue, which thoroughfare has the advantage of outletting directly into Broadway at 59th street.

Title Companies Ask that Closing Dates Be Distributed

THE Title Insurance Companies of this city, through their association, the New York Board of Title Underwriters, are requesting all those interested in real estate, to distribute closing title dates because of the congestion that results from the active market in the real estate field, and the practice of making contracts for sale of real estate to close on either the 1st or the 15th of the month. The title companies through the New York Board of Title Underwriters therefore ask that closing dates be distributed to the 5th, 10th, 20th or 25th of the month. I is also suggested that, wherever possible, closing be made at the office of the title companies, to canserve the time of their closing departments.

Bills Affecting Real Estate Introduced in Legislature

Albany, March 5.

AMONG realty bills introduced last week were:

Senator Schackno, requiring owners or agents of dwellings occupied by more than three families to file with the Board of Taxes and Assessments in New York City a statement of monthly rental received, such statement to show encumbrances on the property, rate of interest paid and other conditions. Under this bill the assessors would be forced to increase the assessment $1,000 for each 10 per cent. in excess of the original 10 per cent. where the rent exceeds 10 per cent. of the assessed valuation.

Senator Abeles, imposing a tax on incomes derived from rents of tenement houses in excess of certain sums which change with varying conditions.

Senator Dunnigan, empowering the Board of Taxes and Assessments in New York City to determine whether rent increases are fair and reasonable.

Senator Lockwood, providing that a tenant may deposit the amount of rent due with the clerk of a court and thereby effect a stay of proceedings in summary proceedings to recover possession of real property.

Senator Lockwood providing that a court, if it finds that a defense or counterclaim has been established, shall determine the amount of rent due petitioner and may give affirmative judgment for the amount due on the counterclaim.

Senator Dowling, providing that no contract of rental for residential purposes of any part of a tenement house shall be made conditional upon payment of rent at a rate greater than 10 per cent. of actual value of such part, such value to be presumed to be assessed value, plus 20 per cent. of assessment.

Senator Dunnigan, providing that notice demanding payment of a fee or increased rate of interest upon renewing or extending a mortgage must be delivered to mortgagor at least 30 days before the expiration of the mortgage.

Senator Lockwood, authorizing the issue of $6,000,000 bonds for the erection of a municipal building in Brooklyn. Limitations on the bond issue contained in existing laws are nullified.

Assemblyman Burchill, providing that the president of each borough in New York City may place proper numbering on houses and lots and assess cost on property affected in case of default on the part of the owner.

Senator Dunnigan, providing that every official examiner of title must be an attorney and counsellor at law.

THE Board of Aldermen at a special meeting last Wednesday adopted the budget for 1920 and fixed the tax rate for the present year. The report of the Finance Committee of the board showed that the amount of the budget for 1920 is $273,689,485.13, consisting of $8,539,156.37 direct State taxes; $256,441,440.16, city department appropriations, debt, service and deficiencies in taxes; $8,708,888.60, county expenses in New York, Bronx, Kings, Queens and Richmond.

In addition there is $514,489.96, representing county liabilities paid from the proceeds of special revenue bonds during 1919, which must be raised this year under the charter provisions.

Comptroller Charles L. Craig estimates that the revenues received from the general fund, consisting of fines and fees, will amount to $60,020,647.78, which, together with the $8,708,888 of county expenses being deducted, leave the amount to be raised for city purposes and State taxes $204,959,536.38.

The county charges and expenses included in the budget and the county charges or liabilities paid from the proceeds of special revenue bonds during the year 1919 are in totals as follows:

Realty Men Oppose Rent Commission Bills at Albany

Will Not Bring About Relief of Housing Shortage in New York City—Exemption of Income from Mortgages Advocated

Albany, March 5.

REPRESENTATIVES of real estate associations in New York City vigorously opposed the enactment of the Jesse bill and other legislation providing for rent commissions, at the hearing before the Assembly Cities Committee and Taxation Committee on Wednesday.

Alexander C. McNulty, representing the Real Estate Board, epitomized the opposition with a declaration that "more houses and encouragement of building, not restrictive legislation" would solve the problem. He pointed out that there is a shortage of over 250,000 apartments in New York City at the present time, attributable to the high cost of labor and materials and the cessation of building that followed the outbreak of the war. In 1915 there were 932,922 apartments or living quarters in New York City which at that time were hardly sufficient for New York City's needs and in 1919 there were 982,015, an increase of only 49,092 for five years. Mr. McNulty added that 250,000 new apartments are necessary to meet the present housing shortage.

He repeated a declaration made at a prior hearing that the solution of the housing problem lay in legislation that would permit savings banks and insurance companies to loan greater percentages for building purposes and the enactment of a bill or bills which would exempt the income on improved and unimproved property from the income tax law up to $40,000.

After the hearing Assemblyman Judson, chairman of the taxation committee, indicated that the Jesse bill would be reported out of committee in amended form to provide for the appointment of one commission for New York City the members of which would be appointed by the mayor. Provisions of the present bill permitting the commissions to investigate and determine the reasonableness of rental charges upon its own initiative or upon complaint of a rent payer would be retained, he said. If reported the bill may pass the Assembly, but is scheduled for hard sledding in the Senate, opponents declare.

Advocates of the Jesse bill and other rent measures included James P. Holland of the State Federation of Labor, Judge F. S. Crane of the New York City Municipal Court, Alderman Friedman and Collin H. Woodward of New York City.

Mr. Woodward characterized speculative real estate operators as "leeches" and "lawless gougers," declaring that their operations had made it odious for decent, self-respecting owners of realty to continue their holdings. He said a rent commission was necessary as "a temporary measure of relief," adding that when building is resumed and the supply of houses equals the demands the necessity for such a commission would cease to exist.

Alderman Friedman offered to give the committees the names and addresses of a large number of people who have suffered from rent profiteers. He declared that the situation in New York City is one "of the moving van man getting you if the landlord don't." He told of one case where the rent was jumped from $32.50 a month to $80 in a period of three years. This apartment is located on One Hundred and Seventy-second street, he said.

John L. Parish, of the Advsiory Council of Real Estate Interests, declared that the rent commission bill would provide relief only to tenants in tenements who are without a lease. He advocated the exemption of income up to $40,000 and the passage of bills to encourage building.

"You are trying to cure the economic law of supply and demand by the artificial limitations of legislation," Mr. Parish declared.

In this view James Frank, of the New York Association of Real Estate Boards, acquiesced. He declared that the remedy must be found in a movement to quicken construction.

"Living accommodations of any sort cannot be regulated by legislation any more than shoes, food or other commodities," he said. "If you seek to hamper real estate men any more you will be confronted by a cessation of building altogether in New York City."

Edward P. Doyle, representing The Real Estate Board, declared that housing conditions will be bettered only when some incentive is created to start building on a large scale. He pointed out that the war and its accompaniment, higher prices for labor and materials, are altogether responsible for the housing shortage. With other representatives of realty associations he urged the tax exemption provisions and the enlargement of the loaning power of savings banks and insurance companies as an inducement to more extensive building.

The only up-state opponent of the Jesse bill was William H. Emery, of Rochester. He said that Rochester was without need of a rent commission and declared that no landlord in his city receives more than thirteen and one-half per cent. gross on his investment.

Phillip Goodheart, of the Inwood Forum, and Edward Murphy, of the Community Council of Inwood, joined in a plea for remedial legislation of some character. William E. Russell, of the Washington Heights Taxpayers Association, said his association favored some legislation to curb rent profiteers and bills that will stimulate building operations.

"I beat my landlord to it by buying my house," declared Mr. Holland, representing the Federation of Labor. "My rent was boosted from $30 a month to $48 and then the landlord wanted even more, so I was compelled to buy." He asserted that he knew of one piece of property in Rivington street that had changed hands six times in a year with rental increases each time an exchange was made.

Stewart Browne who provoked a quarrell with representatives of Mayor Hylan's Rent Committee, declared that "the cost of construction must come down to meet old rentals or old rentals must go up." At this point he referred to "an exhibition of profiteering in Mayor Hylan's Rent Committee's activities" and instantly Mr. Mayer was on his feet with a demand for an explanation. When this explanation was not made Mr. Mayer launched into an attack on Mr. Browne and challenged him to present his evidence to the District Attorney of New York County. Chairman Judson intervened at this point. When called upon later to express his views upon the bill under consideration, Mr. Mayer declined to speak, declaring that the committee should have reproved Mr. Browne for his "unwarranted reflection" upon the Mayor's Committee.

In spite of the intimation of Chairman Judson that the Jesse bill would be reported in amended form the consensus at the hearing was that the solution of the housing situation in New York City does not lie in regulation.

Remedial legislation of some form will be passed at this session, Speaker Sweet declared this week in discussing the housing situation in New York City and up-state communities. The Speaker made this statement from the rostrum of the Assembly at the session on Tuesday when the question of rents was being discussed. The Speaker did not indicate the nature of the remedial legislation proposed to be enacted.

A favorable report on the bill which would vest the New York City Board of Appeals with authority to vary or modify rules, regulations and laws of the Tenement House Commissioner is expected. This bill would permit the Board of Appeals to give final decisions on orders affecting construction or alteration of tenement houses. It is backed by the real estate associations.

Review of Real Estate Market for the Current Week

Continual Activity in All Branches of Business Without Any Sensational Deals But With Growing Confidence in Future

RECORD prices for long term leases of property in favorably located uptown business districts and the continued purchase of buildings for occupation by groups of companies were the features of the market for the past week. Business was on a broad basis and trading in all sections of the five boroughs was continued on a generous scale. There seems to be no limit to the absorption of one and two-family houses in the residential sections, and the number of buildings being remodeled for use by small families is growing with the approach of the spring renting season.

In all classes of business buildings there has been increased demand and no let-up in the number of important sales. The week, however, passed without any sensational deals, but several large operations are nearly concluded and the announcement of their completion may be expected at any early date.

There is unexpected interest in all real estate circles in the sale next Tuesday of the Henry Astor Estate properties in the Times Square section. Prices obtained at this sale are looked to as showing the basis upon which the present market rests ,and indicating what the future has in store for real estate operators and investors.

PRIVATE REALTY SALES.

THE total number of sales reported but not recorded in Manhattan this week was 125, as against 138 last week and 86 a year ago.

The number of sales south of 59th street was 45, as compared with 39 last week and 30 a year ago.

The number of sales north of 59th street was 80, as compared with 98 last week and 56 a year ago.

From the Bronx 55 sales at private contract were reported as against 34 last week and 86 a year ago.

Statistical tables, indicating the number of recorded instruments, will be found on page 317.

Another Successful Day Sale.

Joseph P. Day sold at public auction on Tuesday in the Exchange Salesroom the 11-sty loft building, 73 Fifth avenue, southeast corner of Fifteenth street. The bidding opened at $300,000 and the property was sold to Philip Goldberg for $378,000.

Other results of Tuesday's sale are as follows: 310 East 109th street, 5-sty tenement, 25x100, to C. Katz, for $14,100; 1883 Second avenue, 5-sty tenement, 25x100, to Sol Siegel, for $12,750; 229 West Eighteenth street, 5-sty tenement, 25x92, to R. Vollhart, for $24,000; 319 East 109th street, 5-sty tenement, 25x100, to C. Katz, for $18,000; 263 William street, 5-sty tenement, 30x64.6, to W. Goldstone, for $24,000; 477 Third avenue, 4-sty tenement, 18.6x85, to L. Laubheimer, for $19,300; 507 to 511 East Fifteenth street, three 5-sty tenements, to E. H. Reynolds, for $43,850; 194 Madison street, 6-sty tenement, 25x100, knockdown for $33,100; 118 100.8, knockdown for $27,500; 3816 Third avenue, 4-sty brick tenement with store, 25x175, knockdown for $28,000.

The following properties in other boroughs were offered: 149 Forty-fifth street, Corona, L. I., 2-sty dwelling, knockdown for $6,000; 543 Evergreen avenue, 3-sty frame tenement, 20x80, to B. Mayer, for $9,000; east side of Third avenue and 165th street, 112.5x121.88x123.64x70.61, vacant, to J. Lowdenstein, for $30,000; east side of Jerome avenue and Gunhill road, 100x100, vacant, to A. Wechsler, for $11,000; 2388 Valentine avenue, 2-sty frame dwelling, 50x85, to E. Z. Back, for $6,000; 2391 Tiebout avenue, East Ninety-first street, 5-sty apartment, 20x

DISTRIBUTE TITLE CLOSING DATES

To 5th, 10th, 20th or 25th of Month

An active real estate market throws a heavy burden on all those who have to do with the transfer of properties and the insurance of titles. By distributing closing dates you can co-operate with the Title Companies in rendering their service still more effective.

Two things are particularly suggested.

1. Avoid the 1st and the 15th of the month. Choose instead the 5th, 10th, 20th or 25th.

2. Have closings whenever possible at the offices of the Title Companies to conserve the time of their closing departments.

New Rector Street Building.

A syndicate, headed by the Barrett Company, manufacturers of roofing materials, now at 17 Battery place, has acquired the property on the north side of Rector street, from West to Washington, which takes in 26 to 38 Rector street, 94 to 102 Washington street and 57 to 61 West street, from various owners and will proceed with the erection of a sixteen-story building to be occupied partly for its own use. It is understood that two other firms in the same building at 17 Battery place are also interested in the project, which will involve a total outlay of close to $4,500,000. The new building is expected to be ready for occupancy by May, 1922. It will cover a site measuring 180 feet on Rector street, 101 feet on West street and about 122 feet on Washington street. The old buildings on the site have been owned for many years by the Harriet D. Potter etsate, Mrs. Regina B. Saportas, the estate of Frederick A. Schermerhorn, the Caroline W. Astor estate, Katherine C. Mead and Oliver J. Wells.

$350,000 John Street Deal.

The estate of John B. Cockcroft sold to the Broadway-John Street Corporation, of which Elias A. Cohen is president, the nine-tsory fireproof store and office building, 25x125, at 15 John street. It was formerly known as the Dennison Building, and is now occupied by jewelers. The asking price was $350,000, and the rentals are in keeping with the high rates maintained downtown. The property was taken over by Mr. Cockcroft several years ago from the Dennison Manufacturing Company, and was remodeled at an expense of $100,000. It is in the heart of the jewelry district. Horace S. Ely & Co. negotiated the sale.

Banks Buy Brooklyn Property.

The American Trust Company and the New York Title and Mortgage Company have recently purchased a site at 205-13 Montague street, Brooklyn, near Court street, to accommodate the growing business of the two institutions.

The new purchase is a building of an attractive Doric type with pillared front, easily adaptable for banking purposes and with the improvements and present equipment of the bank and Title Company will furnish the American Trust Company and the New York Title and Mortgage Company one of the best banking sites in the financial center of Brooklyn.

President Harry A. Kahler, at the New York office, Broadway and Cedar street, announced yesterday that immediate possession would be taken of a part of the building and the remainder will be occupied as soon as existing leases expire. This will give the American Trust Company and the New York Title and Mortgage Company a frontage of 100 feet on Montague street and access through to Pierrepont street.

The growing business of the companies, which has necessitated hiring space outside of the three-story building now occupied at 203 Montague street, is one of the reasons for this purchase and the spot will be of easy access as the new B. R. T. subway station on Montague street is directly on front of it. It is within a stone's throw of the Borough Hall subway station and the elevated.

Verona Apartment Resold.

The Verona apartment house, at the southeast corner of Madison avenue and 64th street, was sold by Benjamin Winter to G. Richard Davis through Douglas L. Elliman & Co. The Verona, a ten-story structure, 132.6x100, was erected about ten years ago. The annual rental is reported to be $120,000. The sale included 34 East 64th street, adjoining, a dwelling, which is used to protect the light of the taller building. Last January Mr. Winter bought the property from the Thornhill Corporation. Douglas L. Elliman & Co. will manage the building. The seller was represented by Morris E. Gossett, attorney, and the buyer by Hays, Hirschfield & Wolf.

W. R. Grace & Co. Buys.

W. R. Grace & Co. bought from James A. Glover, through the Charles F. Noyes Company, three five-story buildings at 50 and 52 Water street and 84 and 86 Pearl street, fronting 42.6 feet in the former and 36.9 in the latter, with a depth of 138.9 feet. Title will be taken in the name of the Brooklyn Terminal Company. This parcel is in the same block with the Grace Building and adjoins another of the company's buildings.

Broad Street Block Sold.

Goelet estate sold to Morris Weinstein, operator and adjoining owner, through Horace S. Ely & Co., the block front in the west side of Broad street, between South and Front streets, covered with seven three-story buildings, with stores, and one four-story building, and known as 124 to 138 Broad street, 13 and 14 South street and 19 Front street, on a combined plot 232.10x33x27.2. The buyer owns 12 South street, 16.8x127.10, which increases the frontage in South street to 43.10.

We Finance Construction

FOR thirty-eight years it has been our function to aid in upbuilding American cities by providing capital for modern, fireproof buildings needed for housing purposes, for commerce and industry.

We are ready now, as in the past, to assist in financing construction of hotels, apartment, office, mercantile and industrial buildings.

Under the Straus Plan money is loaned, in amounts of $500,000 upward, in the form of first mortgage bond issues, and repayment is made over long periods out of the earnings of the property.

Call or write for our booklet explaining the Straus Plan of financing.

DO YOU WANT A STEADY INCOME and ABSOLUTE SAFETY With Increase In Future and Chance For Profit?

This can be had by buying a lot leased with Astor leasehold.

The policy followed by this family for 125 years.

The first opportunity the public ever had to buy land with an Astor leasehold.

For instance, if you can buy any of these lots, west of 9th Ave. for $7000, leased net per annum for $450

You can pay 30% cash, or $2100.

$4900 can remain on mortgage at 5% per annum (interest)	245
Net return....	$205

OR ABOUT 10% ON YOUR INVESTMENT OF $2100

Tenants pay all taxes and expenses. As leases expire and the rent increases, your return will be even greater.

Besides you have the opportunity of selling at a profit.

This Sale therefore should be of interest to investors in Bonds and Stocks and depositors in Savings Banks

The Astor Leasehold lots have always increased in value, made the best kind of investments and have made the Astor family wealthy.

There are about 63 parcels leased in this way.

In addition to other properties, there are to be sold about 40 high stoop brownstone private houses on the residential block, 46th Street, between Eighth and Ninth Avenues.

On most of which leases expire on May 1st of this year, and which you can buy at your own price,

Enabling you to live in your home at less rent than you are now paying in Apartment houses. To say nothing of the profit which you will obtain as land increases in value.

RECENT LEASES.

Record for Fifth Avenue Lease.

By effecting a cancellation of the lease with Tin Products, Inc. (L. M. Boomer, president), and making a new lease with I. Miller & Sons, retailers of women's shoes, for twenty-one years from May 1, 1920, with an option for a similar period, E. E. Smathers has gained over $400,000 in less than a week. The old lease called for $60,000 per annum net rent, while the new lease is at $80,000 a year, also on a net basis, and concerns the present Thorley and Larimore buildings, at 562 5th avenue and 1 West 46th street, being the northwest corner. I. Miller & Sons will pay about $25 per square foot a year for the plot, and also all taxes, assessments and carrying charges, or $3,000 per front foot for the avenue location. As the improvement consists only of a 5-story altered building, the rental is based practically on land value and establishes a record price for this section of the avenue, according to the brokers, the Brett & Goode Co. Mr. Smathers was represented by George Gascoigne in the transaction.

Big Times Square Lease.

Because of the effect on Times Square real estate values of the establishment of a B. R. T. subway at Broadway and 47th street, and the forthcoming distribution of the 141 parcels belonging to the Henry Astor Trust Estate, a large and important holding in West 47th street, adjoining the Strand Theatre block, has been leased for a long term of years at a net rental approximating more than $2,000,000, and will be improved.

John H. Scheier, archietct, as the head of a syndicate organized by him, leased from Leonard L. and Samuel V. Hill the two 6-sty heavy constructed, elevator buildings, on a plot 100x100 at 243, 5, 7 and 9 West 47th street, for a term of 30 years, with renewals from March 1, 1920. The property adjoins the Strand Theatre from which it is separated by a 10 foot wide alley, light and air easement, running through to 48th street. The Longacre Theatre abuts the property in 48th street.

The present buildings are occupied by the Famous Players, the Poslum Mfg. Co. laboratories, several theatrical costumers, and other concerns identified with the theatrical profession.

Mr. Scheier contemplates completely renovating and remodeling the existing buildings for use as stores, lofts, show and sales rooms, offices, etc., and light manufacturing. Modern conveniences and additional elevators will be installed and a large electric sign erected.

Theatre for Sheridan Square.

Rhinelander Real Estate Company leased the triangular plot in Sheridan Square, between Greenwich avenue, Seventh avenue and West 12th street, comprising about 16,000 square feet, to the Sheridan Realty Company, for 21 years, with two renewals. A motion picture theatre, with a seating capacity of about 2,500, similar to the Strand, is to be built from plans by Riley & Hall. It is expected to be opened about January 1, 1921. Max Spiegel, Solomon Brill and William F. Rafferty of Syracuse will comprise the leasing company.

GEORGE A. BOWMAN leased for the Union Park Realty Co., at 40 East 14th st, the 4th and 5th floors to the Biltwell Shirt Co. and the Bloch Clothing Co., respectively. The leases are for a term of years; also the store and basement at 1042 3d av for Abraham Morris to Henry Green.

VASA K. BRACHER leased apartments for Dr. Arthur M. Jacobus at 131 West 70th st to the following: Victor La Salle, Miss Helen May, Mrs. Erna Raders and Miss Anna M. Young; also leased for the estate of William A. Hungerford at 121 West 69th st apartments to Nathaniel Doyle, Adele Focacci, Lillian Hartje, Edward Carpentier, Beatrice Morse, Anna MacArthur, Rose Planet and F. Straith-Miller.

BROWN, WHEELOCK CO. leased a loft at 31.5 West 15th st to Levy & Goldberg; a loft at 506 Broadway to Aaron Richman; the entire building 327 Canal st to Philip Wedeen, who occupies store and basement at the present time, for a term of years; loft at 795 Broadway to I. Crystal; space in 708 Broadway to Shapiro, Bloom & Garbow, Inc., and to Meyer Epstein; loft at 795 Broadway to Pargment Phillips, Ayeroff & Berowisht; loft at 8 Bond st to Sun Ray Hat Co.; another in same building to Sperling & Grossman; loft at 402 Broadway to Roquette & Co. In conjunction with Pease & Elliman, an entire floor in 27 William st to Hughes, Rounds, Schurman & Dwight; also space in same building to Dwight & Scoville.

BUTLER & BALDWIN, INC., leased for the Manport Realty Co. the store at 11 East 30th st; the apartments at 60 West 90th st to Mrs. N. A. Snapp and William D. Allen, Jr.; 3-sty building at 59 Carmine st to the Western Parquet Flooring Co.; leased for the Manport Realty Co. the 6th loft at 11 East 30th st to P. Carbone and the 5th loft at 11 East 30th st to Rothstein & Grenstein.

DOUGLAS L. ELLIMAN & CO. leased store in the new building being remodeled at 27 East

LEGISLATIVE BILLS AFFECTING REALTY

Measures Introduced at Albany Approved or Disapproved by Real Estate Board of New York

THE Real Estate Board of New York through its Legislation and Taxation Committee in analyzing bills now before the Legislature gives its opinion on another group of bills designed ostensibly to check so-called profiteering in rents. The Board, without losing sight of the existence of the law of supply and demand is in sympathy with the general disapproval of unreasonable demands upon tenants, but it does not allow that to blind it to the inherent defects in most of the bills so far offered. Action taken by the Board is as follows:

Senate Int. 359, Pr. 366, Schackno (Same as Assembly Int. 516, Pr. 552, Flynn). Amending Chapter 649 Laws of 1919.

This measure proposes to amend the Summary Proceedings Act by providing that no monthly tenant may be evicted for holding over his term unless notice to quit is served upon him 60 days (instead of 20 days as the law now prescribes) before the expiration of his term.

As the term of a monthly tenant is but a month, 31 days at the most, notice required by the pending bill would have to be given before the concluding term was even entered into. This would appear to create a paradox that is invalid on its face. The theory of the law is that a monthly tenancy terminates at the end of each month and that a new agreement for another term of one month is created by implication in case the tenant holds over and the landlord has not given notice to quit. Under the circumstances how can a valid notice to quit be given 60 days before "expiration of the term"? The bill is defective and would be provocative of interminable litigation. It is disapproved.

Senate Int. 540, Pr. 579, Boylan, (Same as Assembly Int. 677, Pr, 729, Donohue). Adding new subdivision 6, section 2231, Civil Code, prohibiting summary proceedings to recover possession of real property for non-payment of rent, unless the rent sued for shall be reasonable.

This measure proposes to amend the Summary Proceedings Act, by adding thereto a new section providing that no action for the recovery of rent or for recovery of any part of real property by summary proceedings shall be brought against any tenant or a portion of a tenement house unless the rent sued for, or for the non-payment of which the summary proceeding is brought, shall be reasonable. In any such action or proceeding the reasonableness of the rent shall be determined as a question of fact and the burden of proof with respect thereof shall be upon the landlord. The determination of this question in such an action or proceeding is to be binding upon the landlord and tenant for one year thereafter.

The purpose of this measure is to check profiteering in rent of tenment houses. It cannot accomplish its purpose for it prescribes an arbitrary interference with vested rights which the courts cannot possibly uphold as constitutional. The bill is ineffective and is an interference with the movement for additional housing facilities. It is disapproved.

Assembly Int. 514, Pr. 550, Evans (Same as Senate Int. 393, Pr. 405, Schackno). Real Property Law, termination of tenancies through alteration, reconstruction or demolishing of buildings.

This measure proposes that a new section be added to the Real Property Law providing that no monthly tenant or tenant from month to month shall be removed from any building on the ground that such building is to be altered, reconstructed or demolished unless at least 90 days before such work is to begin the landlord or his agent serves upon the tenant written notice that the landlord elects to terminate the tenancy for the purpose of such work.

This measure is fair enough in principle, but it conflicts with the existing law defining monthly tenancies and tenancies from month to month, under which either of such tenancies may be terminated upon short notice. The law of landlord and tenant insofar as it effects tenancies under verbal agreements, cannot be amended piece-meal as contemplated by this bill, but should be revised generally if it is to be changed at all. The bill is disapproved for the reasons indicated.

Assembly Int. 531, Pr. 566, McKee. To amend Chapter eighty-eight of the Laws of 1909, entitled "An act providing for the punishment of crime," constituting Chapter 40 of the Consolidated Laws.

This measure proposes to make it a felony to sell or offer to sell or dispose of milk, foodstuffs and other necessaries of life, or to rent or offer to rent a dwelling house at a profit not warranted by the amount of net capital invested or the risk incurred.

The bill does not define the term "profit not warranted by the amount of net capital invested or the risk incurred." Presumably, all this is to be left as a question of fact for the trial jury to determine. The practical difficulties of securing either indictments or convictions under such a loosely drawn statute are so obvious as to render further criticism unnecessary. The natural law of supply and demand cannot be changed by amendment to the Penal Code. The bill is unworkable and is disapproved.

Assembly Int. 604, Pr. 650, Evans. To amend the Penal Law, in relation to the renovation of flats and apartments before renting, in cities of over one million inhabitants.

This measure proposes to add a new section to the Penal Law making it a misdemeanor for a landlord to rent or lease an apartment to a tenant without having the premises renovated in a manner approved by the Board of Health.

The Sanitary Code of the City contains drastic and comprehensive provisions against unsanitary conditions in residence buildings, which are satisfactorily supplemented by numerous requirements of the Tenement House Law. The bill is unnecessary and is disapproved.

Senate Int. 453, Pr. 485, Dodge, (Same as Assembly Int. 616, Pr. 662, Leininger). To amend the Greater New York Charter in relation to orders by the Tenement House Commissioner.

This bill is introduced at the request of the Real Estate Board, appearing at first as Senate Int. 259, Pr. 263, Dodge, being now changed in some respects as to its provisions. It proposes to confer upon the Board of Appeals authority to review orders and determinations of the Tenement House Commissioner, with power, in the disposition of such appeals, to vary or modify provisions of the Tenement House Law to the same purpose and extent as the Board is now empowered to vary the Labor Law, the Building Code, and the fire prevention provisions of the Charter, and the Code of Ordinances. It frequently happens that a construction in a tenement house somewhat different from that required by the Tenement House Law might be equally as good for all practical purposes, but the Tenement House Commissioner is unable to permit such a deviation from the construction required by law. In view of the good results which have flowed from the exercise of the ameliatory jurisdiction of the Board of Appeals in cases relating to the construction and alteration of all other classes of buildings, it would seem that the extension of the Board's jurisdiction to tenement houses would be helpful particularly in the solution of many problems of the existing housing situation. In this connection it should be noted that whereas the Tenement House Commissioner is not required to have had technical training or practical experience in the construction of buildings, at least three members of the Board of Appeals are required to possess such qualifications and a fourth member, the chief of the uniformed force of the New York Fire Department, contributes to insure that the decision of the Board, and particularly any variation or modification it may permit in a public safety law or ordinance, shall be sound and conservative. The bill should have the general co-operation of public officers and civic organizations.

Senate Int. 400, Pr. 426, Dunnigan. To amend the Greater New York Charter, in relation to the establishment of a municipal bus line.

This authorizes the City of New York to establish municipal bus lines, and creates an entirely new function of government, giving to the Board of Estimate authority to determine the necessity for and to establish and operate city bus lines wherever it may see fit and presumably to compete with existing privately owned and operated lines holding franchises from the City. The Board is opposed to the principle of Municipal Ownership and to this experimental bus system, and disapprove the bill.

Oppose Changing Zone Restrictions on Seventh Avenue

Realty Associations and Property Owners Object to Housing Garment Workers Between 36th and 38th Streets

THE zone law was vigorously championed last Tuesday at a meeting Borough President Curran called to consider the petition of the Garment Centre Realty Company to grant it the privilege of erecting twenty-story factory buildings on Seventh avenue, Thirty-sixth to Thirty-eighth streets, for the housing of the needle trades now scattered in buildings of the Fifth avenue section.

Under the zone law buildings 200 feet high are permissable on Seventh avenue and 120 feet on the cross streets in this section. The petition was made to have the law modified so that a building 250 feet high could be built on the avenue and the cross streets as well.

Edward Harde, architect, who served on the Zoning Commission; Robert D. Cohen, representing a joint committee of architects; F. B. Williams, from the City Club; Peter P. Kappel and Frank Demuth of the West Side Taxpayers Association; W. C. Gibbs of the Thirty-fourth Street Board of Trade and several others presented strong arguments against the modification of the restrictions now firmly established.

Borough President Curran explained that the hearing was a preliminary, informal one, held because the question has been referred to him and the chief engineer of the city, as a subcommittee of the Committee on City Planning which will hold official public hearings and make the final report to the Board of Estimate. The law requires that if 20 per cent. of the property owners in the vicinity are opposed to the zone change the vote of the Board of Estimate must be unanimous, or else it will be defeated.

J. H. Burton, chairman of the Save New York Committee, spoke in favor of the proposed change. Congressman Isaac Segal spoke in the affirmative also, stating that some of the tenants have had to pay rental increases of 100 to 150 per cent. in their present places and that owners' objections were based on the fear they would have much vacant space. He stated that about 135,000 people were employed in the needlework trade.

In the course of the arguments it was brought out that the applicants for the change were under no hardship, as they had purchased the site with knowledge of the existing regulations; that Seventh avenue is to be rebuilt for its whole length and is not depending upon the needlewrok trade to make its future; that the only value of the zoning resolution was its permanency; that it is questionable whether it would be wise to build a structure 250 feet high in a sixty foot street wherein would be housed thousands of employees, and that were this exception granted it might result in the breaking down of the law. The danger of congestion at exits was mentioned as an argument against the tall structure, and the "Triangle" fire was cited.

Among other speakers were Edward P. Doyle, Frank J. Cassidy, J. G. O'Brien, builder of Astoria, Queens, representative of Broome Street Realty Company; Harry W. Mincher, representing the Shuberts; A. Kalisky and David J. Daly, representing owners of the Hotel York.

Those opposed to the proposition feel that Seventh avenue between the Pennsylvania Hotel and station and the theatre district is entitled to the same consideration as Fifth avenue.

BUILDING SECTION

Gains Shown In Building Activity Throughout Country

Structural Interests Anticipate Continued Increase Although Local Progress Is Hindered by Weather and Labor Difficulties

THERE continues to be a marked increase in both the number and valuation of building operations throughout the United States. For the months of February the estimated total for building and engineering operations amounted to approximately $355,000,000 which is a gain of $30,000,000 over the month of January and an increase of about $70,000,000 over the month of December.

While figures tabulated by the F. W. Dodge Company for the month of February, showing the number and valuation of building and engineering projects in New York State and New Jersey, north of Trenton, indicate a drop from the totals of the previous month, the condition is largely the result of the severe storms of the past month that retarded active progress on a number of important structural projects. Another factor that has influenced a slackening of activity has been the strike of the bricklayers in Greater New York and the difficulty with the steel erecting interests over the open shop question. Just as soon as weather conditions permit the revival of outside work on new building operations, and the labor situation in the Metropolitan district is more settled, a building boom of unusual proportions is predicted that will last for many months to come.

According to the tabulated figures for February, reports of 1,255 new building and engineering operations were obtained from various sources in this territory. These projects are now in the early stages of planning, but will undoubtedly be released for estimates within a short space of time. The projected construction involves the outlay of approximately $104,654,800. When compared with the corresponding figures for the previous month a drop of 136 is evident in the number of operations and a decrease of about $7,500,000 in valuation is shown. The figures of prospective construction for February indicate that approximately one-fourth of the entire amount of money to be expended for new construction will be devoted to residential building in one form or another. The greatest single amount for the month involves the construction of public works and public utilities but this is quite natural at this season of the year, when, as a rule, town and county engineers arrange their schedules for local improvements, and utilities plan for extensions and repairs to be made during the summer months.

The list of 1,255 projects for which plans were being prepared during the month of February may be sub-divided as follows: 332 business and commercial buildings such as stores, offices, lofts, commercial garages, etc., $19,092,500; 25 educational projects including public and private schools, libraries, etc., $3,128,500; 15 hospitals and institutions, $1,692,000; 160 factory and other industrial projects, $13,076,000; 3 structures for the army and navy, $145,000; 7 public buildings, $196,000; 94 public works and public utilities, $37,856,700; 17 religious and memorial buildings, $1,619,000; 561 residential operations including apartments, flats and tenements and one and two-family dwellings, $25,428,300 and 41 social and recreational buildings, $2,420,800.

Contracts awarded throughout the same territory for the month of February also indicated a decrease from the totals of the previous month and practcially the same factors and influences were responsible for the drop. Prospective builders are unwilling to place contracts for new construction at a time when they have no definite assurance as to when the work can actually be commenced because of inclement weather conditions nor will they commit themselves when labor conditions are disturbed and there is doubt as to the ability of a contractor to complete a project once started. There is every indication at the present time, however, that better weather conditions are in store and also that the problems involved in the labor situation in Greater New York will be solved within a short time and in this event the month of March will undoubtedly show a decided increase in the amount of new operations both planned and contracted for.

During February there were new contracts for building and engineering construction awarded to the number of 567 as against 761 for the previous month and the February valuation was $36,374,800 as compared with $79,569,950 for January.

The contracts awarded during the past month were subgrouped as follows: 151 business and commercial buildings, $12,575,500; 4 hospitals and institutions, $114,900; 11 educational buildings, $2,769,000; 88 factory and other industrial projects, $8,870,500; 2 military and naval projects, $40,500; 11 public buildings of different types, $271,500; 39 public works and public utilities, $4,360,100; 5 religious and memorial projects, $55,000; 247 residential operations such as multi-family houses and one and two-family dwellings, $6,518,300 and 9 social and recreational projects, $799,500.

Discussing the building situation throughout the country, S. W. Straus, of S. W. Straus & Co., said:

"With labor conditions throughout the United States apparently becoming more stabilized, there is every indication that these gains in the volume of new construction will continue, and that there will be even greater increases during the current month. Weather conditions also will be an added favorable incentive to materially increased activity.

"Although supplies of building materials continue to be limited to some extent at present, the improved labor conditions are stimulating production, making it more convenient for builders to proceed with their proposed operations. There is still an acute and growing shortage of housing accommodations in practically every part of the country, but there is a steady improvement in the number of residential projects that are being undertaken and planned for the remainder of the year. Business and commercial operations are also going forward at a more rapid rate than has been the case for several months past.

"Building costs continue to move toward higher levels but this tendency is apparently not interfering with the progress of large operations. Leading cities of the country report that there is an unusual demand for rentable space, particularly in buildings of the larger types, such as factories and manufacturing plants, office buildings, hotels and apartment houses."

Major Henry G. Opdycke, managing director of the Broadway Association, has written a letter to Public Service Commissioner Delaney suggesting that some system of signs and diagrams be placed at the various subway entrances which would indicate to the public the section of the city that could be best reached by using that particular entrance.

The recent opening of the new subways and alterations of existing routes has and is still causing endless confusion to this casual riding public who are not familiar with these changes.

Architectural League Reconstructs Damaged Exhibition

Despite Disastrous Fire, Artists and Architects Make Brave Display of Salvaged Original Contributions

NOT discouraged by the disastrous fire that occurred in the Fine Arts Building on January 30, one day prior to the formal opening of the thirty-fifth annual exposition of the Architectural League of New York, and which practically destroyed the Vanderbilt Gallery with its contents upon which members of the league had worked for many months, as much of the exposition as possible has been salvaged and has been replaced in other parts of the building that remained undamaged. After accomplishing a seemingly impossible task, the committee in charge of the exhibition has rearranged the exhibits and the public is now permitted to inspect the work of the league during the past year. The exposition will be open until March 14.

Many of the photographs and plans on exhibition show the marks of smoke and water and other objects designed especially for this exhibition have been seriously marred. Where possible, however, duplicates have been obtained, and as a whole the exposition is a triumph for the Architectural League, and reflects genuine credit upon the committee of earnest artists and craftsmen who have made a display possible this season.

Naturally there could be no attempt to reconstruct the ambitious architectural and decorative project of the exposition that was destroyed upon the eve of its opening. The time has been altogether too brief and the condition of the building would not permit of anything but a simple scheme of decoration being employed. Originally, it was planned to have on view in one impressive ensemble all of the arts and crafts allied with architecture, such as textiles, ironwork, leaded and stained glass, furniture and interior decoration, but as the gallery in which this part of the exposition was placed was the principal sufferer in the fire. its reconstruction was impossible in the short time elapsed.

As a consequence in the exposition as now open to public view, architectural projects dominate, but the collection is well worth study upon the part of all interested in city or suburban construction. Conspicuous in the display are the groups of photographs and plans representing the work of Delano & Aldrich, winners of the Architectural League medal of honor for architecture. Among the buildings shown in this group are private residences at Oyster Bay and Syossett, L. I., and Greenwich House in New York City. Other notable architectural works are the contributions of McKim, Mead & White, Electus D. Litchfield, Wm. Welles Bosworth and Bertram G. Goodhue.

Arthur Crisp was the winner of the medal of honor for painting, and that awarded for landscape architecture was won by Ferruccio Vitale. This award was made for the first time this year and brought out a large number of landscape designs, including the work of some of the most prominent landscape architects and engineers in the United States.

The mural paintings, sculptures and plans by students of the American Academy in Rome were almost wholly saved from the fire, as were also the competitive designs of students of the Beaux Arts Institute of Design. Prominent among the sculptures shown are the monumental figure of Ezra Cornell by H. A. MacNeil, the "Wrestlers," by Berthold Nebel, and figures by Mrs. H. P. Whitney and Miss Marjorie Curtis.

Many Moderate-Priced Houses Constructed in Queens, L. I.

FROM a builder's viewpoint the old village of Queens has been one of the busiest sections of Greater New York during the past year and from all accounts the development of the summer and autumn of 1919 will be relatively small when compared with that anticipated for the coming season. Within easy commuting distance from downtown Brooklyn and the mid-town district of Manhattan it is not surprising that homeseekers should focus considerable attention upon this village.

Architecturally, the dwellings built in Queens are far superior to the usual run of speculative-built houses. Although designed for families of moderate means and not large as to size, they are complete in every essential housekeeping requirement. Particular care has been devoted to planning for the elimination of the servant problem and practically all make a feature of efficient housekeeping arrangements.

Quite typical of the modern one-family, easy housekeeping houses recently constructed in Queens, L. I., is the group of six one-family dwellings now nearing the final stages of completion on Jefferson avenue, north of Poplar street. This operation is going ahead under the direction of the Morsch, Brown, Rosborg Construction Co., of Brooklyn.

All of these houses contain six rooms, three on the first floor, and three rooms and bath on the second floor. Ample closet room is provided for both upstairs rooms and the first floor requirements.

Architects' and Engineers' Plans for Early Spring Building

Figures Prepared by F. W. Dodge Company Show Increased Construction of Residential Projects of All Types

BUILDING construction along residential lines will be considerably more active during the coming season than it was last year unless all present signs fail. The projected work includes practically every type of dwelling from large multi-family houses providing accommodations for a hundred or more families to moderate priced homes in outlying boroughs and the nearby suburbs. During the week of February 21 to 27 inclusive reports of newly planned construction in New York State and New Jersey, north of Trenton, showed that architects and engineers had plans for 257 buildings on their boards the total cost of which amounted to approximately $16,647,800. Of this total 114 projects at a cost of $9,963,600 was devoted to residential buildings of one type or another. The E. W. Dodge Company figures also show that during the same week and in the same territory there were contracts awarded for 111 new building and engineering operations that will require an expenditure of $5,914,700.

Among the 257 operations for which plans were being prepared were included 70 business and commercial structures such as office, loft and store buildings, commercial garages, etc., $2,603,500; 6 educational projects, $270,500; 3 hospitals and institutions, $95,000; 31 factory and industrial projects of various types, $1,966,000; 19 public works and public utilities, $1,183,700; 4 religious and memorial buildings, $107,000; 114 residential operations, $9,963,600 and 10 social and recreational projects, $458,500.

The list of 111 operations for which contracts were placed during the week of February 21 to 27 inclusive was grouped as follows: 32 business and commercial projects, $705,500; 4 educational buildings, $1,630,000; 2 hospitals and institutions, $24,900; 11 factory and industrial buildings, $761,000; 1 structure for the U. S. Navy, $32,500; 5 public buildings of various types, $199,600; 8 public works and public utilities, $304,100; 44 residential operations including apartments, flats and tenements and one and two-family dwellings, $1,724,100 and 4 social and recreational buildings, $533,000.

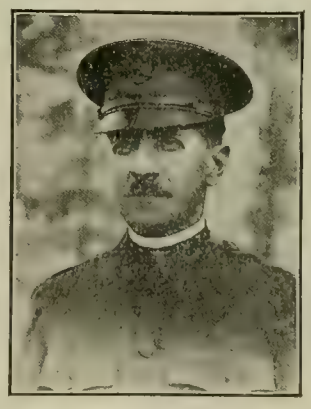
PERSONAL AND TRADE NOTES.

Ford Pulley & Hardware Co., Inc., announces the removal of its office to 25 West 45th street.

H. B. Mulliken, architect, announces that he has moved his office from 103 Park avenue to 609 West 48th street.

Niewenhous Brothers, Inc., general contractors, announce the removal of their offices from the northwest corner of Park avenue and 163d street to new quarters at 316 to 318 East 161st street, where they recently purchased the premises and remodeled the same to suit the requirements of their expanding business.

Moving Picture for Home Builder.



The National Graphic Publicity Service of New York has in preparation a motion picture play entitled "The Home Builders," which is to be shown several times a day in the exhibition hall of the Grand Central Palace during the second "Own Your Home" Exposition from May 1st to 8th. The picture tells the story of a young couple recently engaged, who decide to start out on their experience as married folks in their own home, and takes them through the necessary steps to the accomplishment of their desire beginning with the real estate agent's office and a visit to the property to select a home site, insuring the title, securing the mortgage, consulting the architect and contractor, to the actual building and furnishing of the home. There are so many thousands of people today who are anxious for information as to just how to go about building a place that will be all their own, but who lack the knowledge of how to proceed, it is expected that this entertaining picture will give them in a pleasing form the information they require.

Electrical Society Expands Activities.

During the war the Society for Electrical Development was obliged to restrict its activities, although it continued throughout to do all its curtailed budget permitted, and carried on sufficiently to justify the subscriptions of those members who supported it. During the past three months, however, so many of the big companies have resumed their membership, the General Electric Company, Westinghouse Electric & Mfg. Company, Commonwealth Edison Company, Edison Electric Illuminating Company of Boston, Consolidated Gas, Electric Light & Power Company of Baltimore, Middle West Utilities Company, etc., that the funds available for the Society's work are more than fifty per cent. greater than at the time of the November meeting of the Board of Directors.

New Executive for Paint Manufacturer.

Joseph H. Lecour, at a recent meeting of the board of directors, was elected treasurer of the Mitchell-Rand Manufacturing Company of New York, manufacturer of structural paints, waterproofing compounds, etc. He succeeds W. E. G. Mitchell in this capacity, who will devote his entire attention to the duties as vice-president in the future. Mr. Lecour is well known in the building material industry in this particular line. He was graduated A. B., Trinity College, New York, 1898, and received the degree of L.L. B. from the New York Law School in 1900. He was admitted to the New York Bar in this latter year, and to the New Jersey Bar in 1905. During the war period Mr. Lecour became a member of the Essex Troop of New Jersey, and was engaged in Mexican border service with this troop in 1916, stationed at Douglas, Ariz. He was actively engaged in 1917 in Federal service as first lieutenant, Cavalry of New Jersey, and upon his transfer to the One Hundred and Twelfth Field Artillery he sailed for France in June, 1918. He was on the staff of the First American Army in overseas service in September of that year, and as a member of the One Hundred and Twenty-fourth Field Artillery served in the Argonne-Meuse offensive, October and November, 1918. In June, 1919, he returned to this country. Mr. Lecour is a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon, Essex Troop Veterans' Association, American Legion and University Club of Brooklyn.

TRADE AND TECHNICAL SOCIETY EVENTS.

National Wholesale Lumber Dealers' Association will hold its annual meeting at Washington, D. C., March 24 and 25.

National Federation of Construction Industries will hold its annual meeting and convention at the Hotel Sherman, Chicago, Ill., March 25 and 26.

National Wholesale Lumber Dealers' Association will hold its annual convention at the New Willard Hotel, Washington, D. C., March 25 and 26.

American Society of Mechanical Engineers.—Monthly meeting the second Tuesday of each month. Calvin W. Rice, secretary, 29 West 39th street.

Associated Manufacturers of Electrical Supplies will hold their annual convention in New York City, March 18. Details and program will be announced later.

Associated Manufacturers of Electrical Supplies will hold their fifth annual meeting at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, March 18, at which time officers for the ensuing year will be elected. In the evening the annual banquet of the organization will be held.

American Association of Engineers will hold its sixth annual convention at St. Louis, Mo., May 10-11. Secretary, C. E. Drayer, 63 East Adams street, Chicago, Ill. Programs for the various sessions of this convention are now being prepared and a number of interesting papers will be presented.

Second Annual "Own Your Home" Exposition will be held in the Grand Central Palace from May 1 to 8, inclusive. Tentative plans for this event indicate that it will be considerably larger and more fully representative of all phases of coming building and management than was the tremendously successful exhibition of September, 1919.

Beaux Arts Pageant March 11.

Final plans are matured for the Pageant of Ancient France to be given by the Society of Beaux Arts Architects at the Hotel Astor on the evening of March 11. The pageant will be a picture in three episodes, portraying the gaiety and arts of ancient France, and the spirit of the periods will be shown in a series of tableaux and dances, with change of scenery for each period. As usual society will be largely represented at this event, the proceeds of which will be devoted to charity.

CURRENT BUILDING OPERATIONS

PROSPECTS for increased building activity in the Metropolitan district are steadily growing brighter and just as soon as the streets are cleared of obstruction by snow and ice and the labor difficulties are adjusted there will be a tremendous amount of new construction undertaken. The plans for a large proportion of this work are already completed and those for the balance can be matured within a short time after the present hindering factors are removed.

The building material markets are naturally more quiet than they have been, but the inactivity is due entirely to exterior conditions rather than to a dearth of building activity. One thing, however, cannot be overlooked, and that is the steadily decreasing of available building materials. At this writing there is a severe shortage of building sand and wood lath and other essential materials are becoming more and more difficult to obtain with any degree of promptness. Transportation in this section of the country is still far from normal both in respect to interstate freight traffic and local trucking. There have been some shipments of materials that have come through during the past two or three weeks, but not to a degree sufficient to relieve the market shortage. In some lines prices have stiffened considerably and increases have been announced. There is a determined effort being made to stabilize prices so that the volume of building will not be affected, but it is doubtful if this is possible with the increasing manufacturing costs and the prospects of advanced freight rates.

Common Brick.—The New York wholesale market for Hudson River common brick has been practically without feature during the past week. Owing to the strike of the bricklayers but little work is actually in progress and what has been going ahead is now held up on account of the lack of sand. The demand is extremely light at present, but there are indications of an early increase in brick requirements that will materially reduce the stocks now in the hands of local dealers. Prices are firm at $25 a thousand to dealers alongside dock, and no change from this figure is anticipated for some time to come. Two barge loads of brick were taken out of the wholesale market this week, leaving but three barges remaining unsold. Up-river manufacturers are making plans for an early start of brickmaking this season, but the actual time of opening the plans will depend entirely on the weather and available labor.

Summary—Transactions in the North River common brick market for the week ending Friday, March 5, 1920: Condition of market, demand light; prices firm and unchanged. Quotations: Hudson Rivers, $25 a thousand to dealers in cargo lots alongside dock. Number of cargoes arrived, none; sales, 2. Distribution: Manhattan, 2; covered, 3.

Structural Steel.—As the difficulty between the Iron League Erectors' Association and the labor unions over the matter of closed-shop has not yet been adjusted new activity in the local fabricated steel market has not been heavy. At this writing there is considerable hope that this matter will be settled within a short time and then large building projects would be in a position to proceed without further hindrance. There has lately been a large volume of planning for new construction, but owners are unwilling to commence operations while doubt remains as to whether or not the structures can be completed in the time specified. Generally the steel mills are booked ahead for many months and fabricated material is not promised for delivery in less than six to nine months. Among recent tonnage orders booked is included 5,600 tons for a church and office building on Madison avenue ordered by the American Bridge Co. Prices are firm and unchanged.

Sand.—At this writing there is a shortage of building sand amounting to a famine and practically all building operations in their early stages are being held up because this essential commodity is not available. Dealers have absolutely cleaned out their sand bins and practically all sand that has been brought into the country as ballast has been utilized so that now building operations in this locality will be forced to wait for the arrival of new supplies from outside, but these cannot be had until warmer weather sets in and releases the ice-bound barges.

Roofing and Building Papers—The demand for these materials is growing daily more active and dealers are finding their stocks steadily growing lower with but slight prospect of refilling them. The recent increase seems to have stimulated the demand rather than decreasing it and unless manufacturers can speed up deliveries there is likely to be a severe shortage in this market just at a time the materials are most urgently needed for new construction.

Electrical Supplies—The outstanding feature of this market is the steady depletion of available supplies and with freight movements slow and showing but little evidence of early improvement the situation is not promising. Jobbers have sufficient material ahead to fill immediate requirements, but they are unable to fill complete orders on many of the wiring supplies. Prices are advancing steadily and numerous dealers have recalled quotations on conduit, flexible armored conductor, bushings, outlet boxes, etc., and are quoting for future delivery on prices that shall prevail at that time.

Architectural Terra Cotta.—As practically no architectural terra cotta is manufactured in standard shapes for carrying in stock, it is difficult to determine the condition of the industry as a whole with regard to the available supply. Reports recently obtained from prominent producers, indicate, however, that factories are well booked on special orders for several months ahead and that they are now quoting prices for April and May deliveries.

Linseed Oil—Marked buying activity has developed in this market during the past week and prices for future deliveries have tightened as a consequence. Both manufacturers and jobbers are looking forward to greatly increased demand during the early spring months, as from all accounts there will be a tremendous volume of new construction undertaken in this territory as soon as weather conditions permit. Local quotations for spot delivery remain unchanged.

Cast Iron Pipe—The market is quiet and the situation is but slightly different than it was one week ago. Municipal business is looming up in better shape than it did some few weeks back, but it will probably be some days yet before engineers are able to complete and announce their schedules of requirements. According to the plans now being prepared there will likely be a large volume of private business during the spring and summer months. New York quotations remain unchanged.

Why Large Buildings Install

MARBLELOID

"The Ideal Composition Flooring"

Marbleloid is being put into an ever increasing number of important buildings because it is a satisfactory and efficient flooring. Hard, dust-proof, durable, slow to chip or crack, it has the close texture that repels moisture and the pleasing appearance that brightens the office. Easily applied and inexpensive, it pays dividends from the day it is laid.

Where may we send you full information, samples and a list of Marbleloid installations?

Architects and Engineers are specifying and demanding

STEELBILT Toilet Partitions

in preference to those made of ordinary materials.

STEEL has exclusive advantages. It is non-absorbent and therefore sanitary. It does not crack; in fact, is indestructible. It has a neat, clean appearance. Costs less than other substances and is more easily and economically erected. It is the logical material.

STEELBILT Toilet Partitions are made in standard sizes, some of which are carried in stock for quick delivery. Partitions and doors are made in units, of sizes to suit any plan layout.

Write Dept. "R" for full particulars and a copy of our architects' specification sheet.

HECLA IRON WORKS

ESTABLISHED 1876

Architectural Bronze and Iron Work

Office, 118 North 11th Street, BROOKLYN, N. Y.

DISTINCTIVE MARBLE WORK

OUR facilities for supplying marble and executing contracts with promptness and dispatch are exceptional. We specialize in the interior marble work and use only the most carefully selected marble, of which we have a large stock constantly on hand—imported as well as domestic. We have executed contracts for marble in many prominent structures, and shall be glad to send you a partial list of these on request.

MAY WE HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO WORK WITH YOU ON YOUR NEXT UNDERTAKING?

Miss Business Woman

What are you doing with your surplus funds these days?

You are making good wages, perhaps twice what you were making five years ago.

Are you spending it all? If so, is this not a mistake? The dollars which come easy now will buy more five years from now than they will to-day.

Will it not pay you to save some of them? We have a good way for you to save. Other people are buying our Mortgage Certificates. Why not you?

Your interest begins the day we get your money, and both interest and principal are guaranteed by the Bond & Mortgage Guarantee Company.

Making the Real Remedy Clear

The Record and Guide, in its leading editorial last week, emphasized the confusion which exists at Albany over legislation affecting the housing and rental problems of the present day. As was pointed out in that article, no progress, no helpful legislation as to housing or rentals can be expected from Albany until the state officials fully realize and act with the understanding that these present-day troubles are basic.

Thanks to the appearance at Albany on Tuesday of representative realty and financial leaders who exert great influence in sane councils, members of the Legislature and other state officials seem to be getting a clearer grasp of the matter. Messrs. Walter Stabler, Clarence H. Kelsey, Louis V. Bright, Richard M. Hurd, F. J. Parsons, John L. Fink, A. C. MacNulty, N. R. Jones, E. A. MacDougall, G. Richard Davis, John L. Parish, James M. Frank, Cyrus C. Miller and others very evidently made a distinct impression on the Albany officials at last Tuesday's hearing. These and other gentlemen served as a committee appointed by Mr. Stephen H. Tyng, president of the Real Estate Board of New York. They went to Albany with specific ideas and their solution of the existing problems has been splendidly summarized as follows:

"The remedy for the housing shortage and high rents is not promiscuous legislation directed against rent profiteers and applicable also to all landlords. Nothing will relieve existing conditions but the production, as speedily and as extensively as possible, of new housing. New housing can only be produced when money for its construction is available. Money will not be available as long as real estate mortgages, now taxed as to the income derived from them, must compete with tax-free government securities. The urgent necessity, therefore, is for immediate action by the Legislature in passing a law exempting the income from mortgages secured by real estate from the provisions of the Income Tax Law."

Neither the Legislature nor Governor Smith should be misled by the noisy clamor of notoriety-seekers who apply soap-box methods to vital economic problems. It has been made perfectly clear at Albany that the passage of a measure exempting from the Income Tax Law the income from real estate mortgages will bring about the return of vast amounts of money to building channels. With construction on a large scale thus made possible once more, the housing situation will be relieved by the construction of many new apartments and homes. In due time, under those circumstances, the supply will equal the demand and no opportunity for rent profiteering will be left.

War Bills But No War

It is an amazing commentary on the times that it should be so necessary, sixteen months after the armistice stopped the great World War, to organize in order to stop expenditures on a war-time scale by the National government. Yet it is necessary to do that very thing, and the Executive Committee of the New York State Chamber of Commerce is engaged in that commendable work.

The New York State Chamber, of which Mr. Alfred E. Marling is President, has gone on record in favor of a radical cut in expenditures at Washington and will launch a nation-wide campaign to arouse public interest i nthe matter. Nothing could be truer, nothing more timely, than the declaration of President Marling that "the war is over and there certainly can be no need for a continuation of such vast expenditures as are being made at Washington now."

Accurate beyond doubt is President Marling when he adds: "Disaster faces us if this lavish outgo of money is not stopped. The national emergency has passed and the army of useless clerk and employes in the war bureau should be removed. Their usefulness has passed and they are only a burden on the taxpayers. It is a difficult question to handle. One cannot say that this or that appropriation should be cut off, and this is the reason why we are in favor of the budget system. By it a better chance will be given those who plan expenditures to know what they are doing, and also to know to what extent the national treasury can stand the burden. It is a big stride in the right direction."

Up, Up, Up, the Taxes Go

Taxpayers in the metropolis have had a few days in which to think over the burden they will have to carry during 1920 for city and state expenses, and it goes without saying that they can derive no comfort from their thoughts. The one fact which stands out conspicuously before them is that the tax rate for this year represents another very substantial increase.

The Record and Guide feels that it is well worth while once again to give publicity to the mounting tax rate in this city during the last decade. Here are the figures.

	Manhattan	Bronx	Brooklyn	Queens	Richmond
1910	1.75	1.75	1.81	1.81	1.87
1911	1.72	1.72	1.75	1.73	1.81
1912	1.83	1.83	1.87	1.84	1.92
1913	1.81	1.81	1.85	1.85	1.92
1914	1.78	1.77	1.84	1.80	1.90
1915	1.87	1.94	1.92	1.95	2.24
1916	2.04	2.09	2.08	2.06	2.13
1917	2.02	2.08	2.07	2.09	2.12
1918	2.36	2.40	2.40	2.41	2.46
1919	2.32	2.37	2.36	2.37	2.41
1920	2.39	2.44	2.43	2.41	2.52

Up, up, up, each year go Father Knickerbocker's tax bills. The city and state officials come and go, always taking office with fair promises of economic administration and always leaving behind them bigger bills for the taxpayers to meet than have ever been known before. It is no wonder the average taxpayer becomes discouraged. Nor can he or she be blamed for feeling petulant over being confronted with a higher 1920 tax rate just at the time when the maddening struggle with Federal and State income tax returns is on.

When pursuing the justifiable habit of finding fault with increased taxes it is well for those who have to "pay the freight" to keep in mind that no one political party nor any one set of politicians is responsible for the disheartening exhibit which the city tax rate makes. During the last decade New York has had all sorts of administrations, each regarded as good or bad, according to the partisan proclivities of those passing judgment upon the administration in power at a given period. But the facts, as shown by the above figures, leave one point beyond the realm of conjecture or dispute. They show that year after year, no matter who happens to be Mayor or Comptroller or Governor of the State, no matter what political party happens to be in power either at the City Hall or in Albany, extravagance instead of retrenchment in the spending of the taxpayers' money is the rule followed.

Surely there must be some way to put an end to this orgy of public expenditure. The first step is the election of public officials, city and state, who will actually stop spending money instead of merely talking about stopping it.

Many Bills Are Introduced To Curb Rent Profiteering

Governor Smith Signs Bill Appropriating $500,000 for Creedmoor Hospital—Commission to Revise City Charter and Laws Proposed

(Special to the Record and Guide)

Albany, March 12, 1920.

AMONG the bills affecting real estate introduced in the past week are:

Senator Twomey, making it a misdemeanor for a property owner in first class cities to discriminate against children in leasing of property.

Senator Karle, providing that for computing assessments on properly benefited by local improvements, all property within the area of benefit, although otherwise exempt by law from assessment, shall be included in such computation.

Assemblyman Lentol, providing that rents shall not exceed 10 per cent. of the assessed value of an apartment or dwelling, and compelling a landlord to give 90 days' notice in writing before rent increases may become effective.

Senator Boylan, extending the corporate existence of the New York Real Estate Association.

Senator Schackno, providing that the sum of rent for month asked at the time of renting an apartment or dwelling shall be the maximum amount per month for twelve consecutive months ensuing, unless there is an express agreement in writing to the contrary.

Governor Smith has approved a bill carrying an appropriation of $500,000 for the construction of buildings and plant at the development of grounds at Creedmoor for the Brooklyn State Hospital. The additions necessary to this institution made this appropriation imperative.

Assemblyman Machold has a bill providing an appropriation of $700,000 for the construction of buildings and development of grounds at the State Psychiatric Institute on Ward's Island.

Assemblyman Leininger has introduced a bill appropriating $675,000 for a site and the erection of a State armory in the first ward of Queens Borough.

The establishment of a permanent reorganization and retrenchment commission for New York City, whose functions shall include an examination of city charter amendments and laws affecting the city government to ascertain the extent of over-lapping and duplication of offices and jurisdictions and to suggest remedies for the elimination of this duplication and to keep expenditures at the lowest point, is authorized by a bill introduced by Assemblyman Simpson. The commission will consist of eighteen members, three to be appointed by the President of the Senate, three by the speaker of the Assembly, six by the Governor, three by the Mayor of New York City and three by the Board of Aldermen.

Assemblyman Wells, providing that an offer to sell real property when accepted and a payment on the purchase price is made will constitute a binding contract.

Assemblyman Cuvillier, providing that an agreement for the occupation of real property in New York City shall create a monthly tenancy for one year at not to exceed the monthly rental paid for the first month's tenancy.

Senator Kaplan, providing that in summary proceedings the question whether the amount of rent as increased constitutes profiteering shall be a question of fact to be determined by jury in New York City.

Senator Carroll, providing that a concurring vote of four instead of five members of the Board of Appeals shall be necessary to a decision. When not less than four members concur when voting to reverse or modify any order from which an appeal may be taken or upon which the board has power to act, then such order shall be decreed to be affirmed.

Assemblyman Simpson, providing that deposits to accompany bids on contracts shall be not less than 5 per cent. nor more than 10 per cent. of the amount of bonds required instead of not less than 3 per cent. or more than 5 per cent. as at present required.

Assemblyman Donohue has introduced at the suggestion of Governor Smith a bill authorizing the sale of the State Arsenal property at Seventh avenue and Thirty-fifth street. The present value of the Arsenal property is estimated at $700,000. The bill would authorize the purchase of another plot for the construction of a new arsenal. Property in Ninth avenue near the transportation lines will probably be purchased for the new arsenal which it is estimated will cost about $700,000.

Queens' Chamber of Commerce Election

H. Pushae Williams, President of the First Mortgage Guarantee Company, has been renominated for President of the Queensboro Chamber of Commerce for the ensuing year. The ninth annual meeting for the election of officers and directors will be held April 9th. Both James E. Clonin and George H. Willcockson have been renominated as vice-presidents. P. A. Rowley, Vice-president of the Bank of Manhattan Company, has been nominated for Treasurer to succeed William J. Hamilton, who has been Treasurer for the past eight years. Mr. Hamilton asked to be relieved from the duties of the Treasuryship this year.

The following have been nominated for members of the Board of Directors for a three year term: John Adikes, John M. Demarest, Stuard Hirschman, Henry J. Mullen and Morris L. Willets. Mr. Mullen and Mr. Willets are both new members of the board, the others being renominated.

The commitee in charge of the nominations included Maynard Spear, Chairman; Clarence A. Ludlam, R. Randel Wangeman, Johnson Shipman and E. J. Tarof.

Plenty of Money for Building if Mortgages Are Tax Exempt

Representatives of Loaning Institutions Inform Legislators That Millions of Dollars Will Be Available If Lockwood-McWhinney Bill Is Enacted

(Special to the Record and Guide.)

Albany, March 12, 1920.

LEGISLATION exempting the interest from mortgages up to $40,000 from the state income tax would have the effect of dissolving "the corner in money" now withholding investments from the mortgage market and would tend to relieve the present housing situation by making money for new building activities available.

The repeal of the Mortgage Tax Law altogether would have a decidedly spurring effect on building. The foregoing reflected the unanimous opinion of a distinguished group of advocates of the Lockwood-McWhinney mortgage exemption bills expressed at a legislative hearing here on Tuesday. In this group were representatives of large banking institutions, investment companies, insurance corporations, real estate association and business men.

Assurances were given the committees before which the hearing was held, the Taxation Committees of the Senate and Assembly, by representatives of the various organizations present that the immediate result of the enactment of the bill would be a speedy resumpion of building on a large scale. It was pointed out that the real purpose of the measure was to pave the way for construction of buildings, which all agreed was the one solution of housing congestion as it exists in New York City and the other municipalities of the state.

Richard M. Hurd, president of the Lawyers' Mortgage Company, predicted that his concern alone would make loans for building purposes aggregating $3,000,000 in the present year if this bill is enacted and that this total would run to $15,000,000 or $20,000,000 if Congress passed the Calder-McLaughlin bill to exempt mortgages from the operation of the federal income tax law.

There was no formal opposition to the bill at the hearing, but Commissioners Walter H. Knapp and John J. Merrill of the State Tax Department asked the various speakers questions which indicated that they were doubtful of any permanent benefit from the enactment of the measure. Commissioner Merrill's questions indicated that he believed the solution of the housing problem lay more or less in a back-to-the-farm movement, while Commissioner Knapp pointed out that the localities would stand to lose large amounts of income tax moneys if the bill were passed.

These objections were met by Walter Stabler, Comptroller of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, who declared that increased property assessment valuation resulting from building would more than offset the loss from income tax sources for the municipalities. Illustrating his point, Mr. Stabler declared that on $100,000,000, with all the proposed exemptions granted by the income tax law, the revenue for the state and municipalities would total only a few hundred thousand dollars, whereas this money invested in real estate improvements would return to the state and localities approximately $3,750,000.

Like all the hearings fixed for consideration of remedies for the housing situation, this hearing also was characterized by discussion of "rent profiteering." G. Richard Davis, representing the Housing Committee of the Merchants' Association, summed up the situation in this respect with a statement that profiteering in rents was not general but confined to a comparatively few landlords and lessees in New York City. In most instances, he said, rent increases were justified by the higher costs of labor and materials.

Cyrus C. Miller, of the Bronx Board of Trade, attributed the increase in cost of construction to the unwillingness of labor to contribute its share. He cited an instance where brick masons receiving $10 a day would set only 400 bricks a day against a daily average of 1,200 a few years ago when wages were half the present scale.
